COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

THE steadily increasing importance attached to Commercial education, and the very general attention which this branch is exciting throughout the civilized world, have within the past few years awakened such an interest, that no community is necessary to establish the practical utility of Commercial schools.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION:

Double Entry Book-keeping in all its most approved forms, adapted to the various departments of Trade and Commerce; Commercial Calculations, Mercantile Law, Penmanship in every style of the art, &c. &c. Each department is under the charge of an experienced and competent Instructor. Our course is both thorough and practical. Students are taught to originate and conduct all the Books and Forms pertaining to real business, thereby bringing theory into practice and thus having them to perform the regular routine of the Counting-house. Students completing the prescribed course are qualified to take charge and conduct on Scientific principles the Books of any well regulated Mercantile establishment. Time required to complete the course is from 8 to 12 weeks. Tuition gratis. Expenses awarded for merit only. $355 pays all expenses for a full commercial course, boarding included.

Send for a Circular. Address
A. M. TRIMMER,
Chambersburg,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY,
Washington, February 9, 1864.

WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that the First National Bank of Waynesboro, in the county of Franklin and State of Pennsylvania, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the act of Congress, entitled "An act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved February 25, 1863, and has complied with all the provisions of said act required to be complied with before commencing the business of Banking.

Now, therefore, I, SAMUEL T. HOWARD, Deputy Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the First National Bank of Waynesboro, County of Franklin and State of Pennsylvania, is authorized to commence the business of Banking under the act aforesaid.

In Testimony Whereof, witness my hand and seal, this Ninth day of February, 1864.
