

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO

Friday, May 6, 1864.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the free but falls before us,
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Public Sales.—The following is a list of the public sales to come off as advertised in the Record:

Bonebrake & Douglas, May 7, 1864.
Job Douglas, Administrator, May 10-16.
Henry Crider, May 14, 1864.

REAPER REPAIRING.—See advertisement of W. E. Flanagan in to-day's paper.

ANOTHER SUPPLY.—J. BRAVER, of the "Variety Store" has on hand another supply of new goods. Drop in and see for yourselves.

RETURNED.—W. A. TRITTLE and D. B. RUSSELL, Esq., both returned from the cities recently, and are now receiving their spring supplies of new goods such as are usually kept by tinners and coppersmiths. Their friends and the public are invited to give them a call.

PLANTS.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Mr. Morgall of this vicinity has now for sale a large stock of the most select garden plants. He also proposes to deliver in season, to different points, the different varieties of tobacco plants.

RECEIPTS.—Our list of cash receipts will be published monthly instead of weekly hereafter. Of late the list has been growing beautifully smaller, but we hope that those who have been playing the part of well-trained "wheelhorses" for a number of years will yet come up to the "scratch" and give us their names for our monthly list.

NEW GOODS.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that our friend and former townsman, Mr. J. A. Fisher, Merchant Tailor of Hagerstown, has, despite the war and cry of "hard times," received another stock of new goods, and is prepared to furnish goods with any article in his line, from a fashionable dress coat down to a pair of suspenders. Fisher is one of our old advertising patrons, and none the worse of that. "Long may he wave."

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—This interesting and deservedly popular periodical for May is on our table, containing several superb steel engravings. The Fashion Plate is of double size, handsomely colored. The contents interesting generally. Deacon & Peterson, publishers, 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia. Terms, $2.00 a year.

CORRESPONDENCE.—The non-appearance of a letter from a member of Co. L, 22d Reg. P. C. will be accounted for upon the grounds of its most important particulars having already appeared through another source. Under other circumstances the communication would have been acceptable. Will be glad to hear from our friend again.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—We understand that the 20th and 22d Regiments of Penna. Cavalry, for sometime in camp near Cumberland, Md., passed through Hagerstown on Monday last for Harper's Ferry, where they are to be fully equipped and sent to the front. Maj. TROXEL and Capt. FRENCH of the 22d paid our town a flying visit on Monday evening. Being engaged in our "truck patch" until late in the evening we didn't get to see our military friends, but understand both were in fine spirits and looked as if either would prove a host in a "hand to hand" with the "jolly rebs."

OUR QUOTAS.—According to a statement published in the Repository, of quotas and credits of each sub-district of this county on the 15th day of April, exclusive of veterans, under all calls, Washington township lacks 23 and our Borough 20 of full quotas. GreenCastle only has filled her quota. The total deficiency in the county is put down at 584.

The Spirit's statement places our Borough quota at 16, which is doubtless correct. As the draft may be ordered to take place at any time arrangements should at once be made to procure recruits by the payment of liberal bounties. Will not some one move in the matter?

COURT.—The following individuals from Washington and Quincy townships have been drawn as Jurors for a Special Court of Common Pleas, to be held in Chambersburg, Monday, May 23d:

Henry Baer, Nicholas Bonebrake, D. D. Baker, A. S. Moun, D. B. Russell, John Shockey, of C. H. E. Wertz.

A TOPIC.—The members of the Maryland Constitutional Convention have decided in favor of immediate emancipation without compensation. Another topic for "cooperhead" is being.

The capture of P. Smith, including Gen. Wessel's command, is being.

MERCERSBURG GLASSIS.—The Mercersburg Classis of the German Reformed Church opens its annual session in this place at 7 o'clock this (Friday) evening. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. T. G. Apple, of Greencastle, President of the preceding year. The sessions last usually four or five days, and are open to the public. The communion of the Lord's Supper will be administered on Sunday morning and preparatory services will be held to-morrow at 2 o'clock P. M., besides the usual divine services every evening.

The last time this body assembled in this place was in the year 1853, eleven years ago. The geographical boundary of this Classis includes the counties of Franklin, Bedford, Huntington, Fulton and Blair. It represents twenty-one pastoral Charges, with a membership of over five thousand. It is composed of thirty-five ministers, and a delegated Elder from each pastoral charge, though there are not usually more than from 40 to 50 members in attendance upon its annual sessions.

CONCERTS.—On Tuesday evening of last week the Juvenile pupils of Mr. R. A. McClure's Singing Class gave a concert in the Town Hall. We understand the occasion was one of more than ordinary amusement and interest, and that the pupils performed their several parts in a manner highly creditable to themselves and their teacher. On Tuesday evening last a second concert—the Cantata of Æther—was performed, and repeated on Thursday evening. On the last mentioned occasion those of his pupils more advanced in music participated, rendering the entertainments still more interesting, to those at least capable of appreciating the higher order of music.

Mr. McU's mode of teaching differs widely from the old methods, and is far superior to either, if we may judge of his pupils and the short space of time they have been under his instruction. He merits a liberal patronage.

ARRIVED.—We are specially gratified to learn that our young friend, Mr. JEREMIAH COOPER, Fifteenth Major of the 77th Reg. P. V., arrived in this place yesterday morning. He was taken a prisoner at the battle of Chickamauga, and up to quite recently was in Richmond prison. His sufferings at the hands of the Richmond fiends were great no doubt. Our citizens will well extend the hand of welcome to this veteran soldier of the gallant old 77th. He is on his parole not having been yet exchanged.

REVENGEFUL.—Several copperheads in this place seek to annoy our carrier by telling him that they wouldn't take the Record to light cigars, that he carries a "smut machine," "abolition documents," &c. Manly, courageous mode of seeking revenge, altogether a compliment to our paper. Were such cattle to speak of us or the paper in other terms we would be almost induced to take the oath, that some of our friends across the line couldn't subscribe to at the late election, fearful that our loyalty might be questioned.

A SURPRISE.—We learn from the last Pilot that whilst the Rev. J. W. WHITTEMAN, Pastor of the Presbyterian congregation of Greencastle, was away on his wedding tour, a few ladies collected from the members, principally those in the town, a purse of $132, which they placed upon the table of his study, with a note requesting its acceptance from the congregation as an acknowledgement of their attachment to him. The Pastor makes an appropriate acknowledgement of the present.

REMEMBER FORT PILLOW!—After the British had brutally massacred the little garrison at Fort Griswold (Conn.) during the revolutionary war, the American soldiers determined to avenge that outrage. When they stormed Strong Point, their cry was: "Remember Fort Griswold!" and many a British soldier died that day a vicarious sacrifice for the murderous acts of their brethren.—In the Union Army the cry now is: "Remember Fort Pillow!" and dearly will the rebels pay for the dastardly acts of Forrest and his men.

ANTIETAM MONUMENT.—Gov. Bradford, Robert Fowler, Esq., State Treasurer, Gen. Edward Shriver, Col. Harwood, and several other gentlemen, visited the Antietam battle-field, last week to select a site for the monument ordered to be erected by the Legislature of the State. It is stated that the position selected for the monument is about the centre of the battle-field and upon the right side of the road leading into the town of Sharpsburg.

The question of removing the seat of Government from Harrisburg to Philadelphia was finally disposed of yesterday by a vote of nineteen yeas to seventy-one nays.—Harrisburg Tel.

CALL ACCEPTED.—Rev. P. S. Davis, of Norristown, Pa., has accepted a call from the German Reformed Church of Chambersburg.

PAYMASTER.—F. Dorsey Herbert, Esq., of Hagerstown Md., has been appointed, and confirmed by the Senate, as paymaster in the army, with the rank of Major.

New York city has a church for every 3,000 inhabitants; a grocery for every 100.

COMMUNICATED.—At a meeting of the ladies of Chambersburg interested in the Christian Commission, which has for its object the supply of materials for the sick and wounded of our army it was unanimously agreed to hold a fair on the 18th of June next, for the purpose of raising funds in aid of this benevolent association. It is thought advisable to interest the people of Franklin county in this laudable enterprise so that their united effort may be made successful and worthy of the cause and the people.—It is therefore suggested that the ladies of Waynesboro, Greencastle and other towns should confer together and act with us in this undertaking. Each place could be separately represented at the fair and have tables superintended by their own committees. Mrs. General Couch is President and Mrs. William McClellan, Vice President and Miss Mary McCullough, Secretary of ladies association in this place. We are all interested in this movement. Hundreds of our young men, our fathers, husbands and brothers are girding on their swords for the battle, before whose significance the past sinks into forgetfulness. No human sagacity can tell where the blow may be struck, but we all know, that in that fatal field many a womanly form in our midst will be widowed and broken hearted, perhaps the resurgent tide of war may bring the thunder of artillery in our midst and our fields crimsoned with the blood of our brothers. It is the part of wisdom to prepare now to alleviate the sufferings of the wounded—and it is the blessed ministry of woman to smooth the brow of pain and whisper christian consolation to the dying soldier and point the way to Heaven and God.

DELTA.
CHAMBERSBURG, May, 1864
In response to the above appeal, a meeting will be held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening next, to which the ladies of Waynesboro and vicinity are especially invited—that suitable arrangements may be made to co-operate in this worthy enterprise. Let it be remembered that there is to be no raffling at the coming fair, or anything in the least degree sectarian, or political in the movement.—The cause of suffering—humanity and the immortal interests of our beloved soldiers are above "all creed, all party but mankind."
C.A.T.O.
WAYNESBORO, May 4, 1864.

UNION STATE CONVENTION.—The Union State Convention met at Harrisburg on Thursday, and unanimously endorsed the policy of President Lincoln, and declaring him the choice of the Union party of Pennsylvania for the Presidency in 1864. The convention was fully represented and the proceedings were marked by great harmony and unanimity. The delegates elected to the Baltimore Convention to represent the State at large are:

Hon. Simon Cameron, Dauphin; Hon. A. K. McClure, Franklin; Morrow B. Lowry, Erie; W. W. Ketchum, Luzerne.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.—A special election will be held on the first Tuesday in August upon the following amendments to the Constitution of this State, to wit:

First.—That soldiers in the service (otherwise qualified) be allowed to vote, under proper regulations, wherever stationed.

Second.—That the Legislature shall not pass upon matters over which Courts have jurisdiction.

Third.—That no bill before the Legislature shall embrace more than one subject.

DEATH OF FINLEY JOHNSON.—Mr. Finley Johnson, a well-known Baltimorean, but for some time past employed as a clerk in the Quartermaster's Department in Washington, died in that city, on Wednesday, 27th ult., from inflammation of the bowels. He was taken sick on the Sunday previous. He was an engraver of wood by profession, but the greater part of his time was devoted to the writing of verse, in which he had gained some celebrity. He was 33 years of age, and was married but a few months since.—He had many warm friends in this city, who doubtless will regret his early and sudden demise.—Balt. Sun.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The councils of the military authorities are kept remarkable secret. Heretofore, on the eve of a battle, some idea could be formed of the contemplated movements, but now they are matters of mere speculation, both among prominent civilians and even army officers. The utmost confidence, however, is reposed in those having the direct conduct of affairs, and due credit is given for their wisdom in preventing premature disclosures.

Last Year of the War
Long's Speech in Congress.
WASHINGTON, May 3.—The Richmond Examiner, of the 29th ult., says: "If we hold our own in Virginia till this summer is ended the North's power of mischief everywhere will be gone. If we lose, the South's capacity for resistance will be broken. The Confederacy has ample power to keep its place in Virginia if employed with energy and consistency, and this is the last year of the war, which ever wins."
The Richmond Enquirer of the 30th says: "A company has been organized with a capital of $10,000,000 of which $1,500,000 is paid in. It declines disclosing the condition of the enterprise, but says the company aspires to grand results—a fleet at least, and it has now every prospect of realizing all its purposes."
Mr. Long's speech in Congress is published in the Kaleith Conservator, and spoken of as a bold and manly speech, and in several respects the most remarkable speech that has been delivered in Yankeeedom.

The remains of Henry Clay—after an interment of twelve years—were removed last week, with that of his wife, and placed side by side with hers, beneath the beautiful monument erected to his memory, in the Lexington Cemetery.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA

FURTHER HONORS OF LEE'S REINFORCEMENT BY BEAUREGARD.

[Special despatch to the N. Y. Times.]
WASHINGTON, May 1.—A despatch was received to-day by the Government, from Fortres Monroe, stating that the rear of Beauregard's army passed through Petersburg yesterday morning.
His force is estimated at from 18,000 to 20,000 men. Nothing of special note has transpired at the front to-day. Pickets of both armies extend up and down the Rappahannock and Rapidan.
A considerable rebel force is reported to be at Fredericksburg, working throwing up more earthworks on the heights.
The rebels are also reported to be withdrawing from the vicinity of Madison Court House, and concentrating in front of our left and centre.
One division of Longstreet's corps, according to despatches, is at Hanover Junction, in reserve.
On the same authority, Lee's strength is stated to be upwards of 100,000 men.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A Richmond paper of Thursday last says: "The languor in the commercial market shows that the townspeople will have to live on half rations until the country people, who have provisions to spare, shall have heard of the defeat of Grant's army. We may then expect supplies from all quarters, and a revival of business on a descending scale of prices."
A despatch from Orange Court House, April 27, says that all the Yankees have left the valley to reinforce Meade.

A telegram from Fredericksburg of the same date says as yet there are no indications of Grant's movements toward Fredericksburg, except that the telegraph from Occoquan to Alexandria is being repaired by the Yankees.
FIGHT AT MADISON COURT HOUSE.
WASHINGTON, May 2.—The expedition which was sent out last week and destroyed Madison Court House met no rebels till within about a half mile from that town. A slight skirmish then took place, in which the rebels lost five men and the Union soldiers nine. The enemy then returned to the Court House.—The Star has the following further particulars:
The rebels suddenly disappeared, but our forces entering the town they received a volley of musketry from the windows of the houses, and they were for a time compelled to withdraw. The officers in command of the reconnoitering party ordered another advance, when again a destructive fire was opened on them from the houses, and there being no other way of smothering the rebels out, orders were issued that the town should be fired. The torch was applied to a number of houses affording cover for the enemy, whereupon the latter hastily decamped, leaving our forces in full possession of the place. The flames, however, spread very rapidly, and there being no means at hand whereby the fire could be checked, a general conflagration was the result, and in a short time almost the entire town was in ashes.

The act was certainly not a wanton one on the part of the Union officers, but was rendered necessary by the dastardly act of the rebels, who used the houses as a shelter for the purpose of slaughtering our troops.
CAPTURE OF MOSEBY'S MEN.
The cavalry expedition sent out from Vienna, on Thursday last, under the command of Colonel Lowell, returned to that place yesterday after having visited Leesburg, Keetoowah, and Upperville. Near the latter place a portion of Moseby's guerilla band was encountered, when a sharp fight ensued, which resulted in the capture of twenty-three prisoners. Colonel Lowell lost three men killed and four wounded. He returned in safety to Vienna with the prisoners captured from Moseby, and three blockade-runners, twenty-five horses, a large quantity of wool, tobacco, and other contraband goods picked up on the route.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The Herald's special Washington correspondent says that Lee does not design falling back on Richmond, but will concentrate all his forces around Orange Court House.

A Fight Near Chattanooga.
MORE REBEL BARBARITIES!
CHATTANOOGA, April 26.—On the morning of the 23d of April the rebels made an attack upon our pickets on Nickajack Trace, near Lee's farm, with both infantry and cavalry.
The infantry came over Taylor's Ridge.—The cavalry came from South Valley, and attacked simultaneously seven points picketed by the 52d Illinois. Our men attempted to fall back, and failed. The infantry barred the way.
They then tried to cut their way out, but of sixty-four men, thirty-four, fighting bravely, escaped.
Five of our men were killed, four mortally wounded, three severely, and nineteen missing. Lieut. Scoules was wounded and taken prisoner. The rebel loss is as severe as ours, if not greater.
Several of our men were killed by the enemy after surrendering. Some of the wounded were butchered as they lay on the field. The rebels in the whole affair were guilty of shocking barbarity.

Statement of Refugees.
WASHINGTON, April 28.—This morning Stanhope Gaweeck and Mary Gaweeck, refugees from Augusta, Georgia, presented themselves at the provost marshal's office, and were released on taking the oath of allegiance. Gaweeck states that on the 15th of last month the rebel authorities issued an order prohibiting citizens from riding on the railroads from various points in the South leading to Richmond, in order to facilitate the movements of troops, which were being pushed up to Richmond in large numbers. At the time Gaweeck left Augusta, Ga., which was some two weeks since, there were no troops stationed at that point, those that had been quartered there having been with drawn a few days previously and sent to Richmond. In Richmond the refugees saw large bodies of troops on their way to reinforce Gen. Lee, and the arrival of every train at that place increases the number of his army.

A Charleston paper proposes offering a full amnesty to all negroes in the United States army, providing they return at once to slavery. This is a big joke.

LATE REBEL NEWS.

EXTENSIVE FIRE AT WILMINGTON, N. C.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Rebel papers published in Richmond on the 30th ult., have been received. A Wilmington despatch of the 29th says a fire occurred the previous night which consumed the offices of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, thirty-four freight cars belonging to the Georgia Central Railroad, and every building south of the depot, including the Confederate cotton press, Berry's marine railway, and all the cotton stored west of the ferry, being about 6,000 bales.
The loss is estimated at from six to seven and a half millions of dollars. A second despatch of the same date says, at the fire to-day about 4,400 bales of cotton, 25 freight cars, the railroad offices, rosin and oil works, cotton press, Berry's shipyard, shed, &c., were burned. The loss is estimated at five million dollars. The Confederate Government lose about one million. The balance falls on individuals, who are insured only for about ten thousand dollars.

Fort Pillow, Massasoit.
WASHINGTON, May 2, 1864.—The sub-committee on the conduct of the war, consisting of Senator WADE and Representative GOUGH, have returned from Fort Pillow.—They took fifty-seven depositions, all of which more than confirm the newspaper accounts of the massacre. They say that it would be impossible to exaggerate the cruelties committed. Among the witnesses examined is the negro who was buried alive and who dug himself out of his own grave.
There is no doubt of the fact that one or more persons were nailed through their flesh to pieces of wood, and then buried alive.—Not only on the day of the surrender were these fiendish acts perpetrated, but on the next day in cold blood. The victims seen by the committee were most of them cut and pierced in the face and eyes with bayonets and swords, while other parts of their bodies were maimed and disfigured either by steel or lead.

Department of the Gulf.
CHICAGO, May 2.—The Tribune publishes a telegram from the mouth of the Red river, dated April 24th, stating that Banks' army has fallen back to Alexandria without fighting. The gunboat fleet is at the same place, some boats above and some below the falls.
The Red river is low and still falling. The Ouachita and Tebas rivers are filling up from Lake Providence.
The papers here are not allowed to publish any more Red river news excepting the official despatches, in which Gen. Banks claims a victory.
The guerillas are becoming more troublesome on the eastern bank of the Mississippi. General Steele has opened communication with General Banks.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On the evening of the 20th inst., the down express train left Lock Haven at eight o'clock and five minutes, bearing a signal that there was an engine soon to follow, but the signal was unnoticed by Mr. John Livermore, foreman on this division, and wanting to go home he took his hand car and started down the track, about five minutes after the express had gone, in company with Daniel Flynn and Margaret Kasson. An extra engine was run down the track which ran into the hand car, and killed Mrs. Kasson. She had an infant in her arms which she is supposed to have thrown from the car the instant she saw the engine. It lay outside of the track on its face, unhurt. Mr. Devereux discovered the engine an instant before it struck, and leaped from the hand car. The back of his head is hurt, but not very seriously. Mr. Flynn had his leg very badly mangled. It was amputated on the 21st inst.—Clinton Republican.

A Grand Forward Movement.
CHICAGO, May 2.—The Journal of to-day says editorially:
"We have a letter from our special at Nashville giving highly important information, but deeming its contents 'contraband news,' which, if published, might prove mischief to the service, we postpone its publication."
"Suffice it to say that the columns under Gen. Sherman are on the eve of a great forward movement, and before our issue of Monday next, unless unforeseen circumstances intervene, the Union host will be on the march from Chattanooga, Huntsville, etc., southward."
"Out of regard for the interests of the service, we defer further particulars."

Evacuation of Florida by the Rebels.
FORTRESS MONROE, May 2.—The New South (Journal), Port Royal, April 30, contains the following from Jacksonville, April 24: "The rebels evacuating Florida. Two brigades, under General Colquett, were recently sent from Florida, by railroad, to Virginia. The rebels have now not over 800 to 1,000 troops in the State."
"PORT ROYAL, April 30.—On the 25th inst. the 54th Massachusetts Regiment (colored) captured, near James Island, sixteen rebels."

At Port Allegany, Pa., a few days ago a funeral procession was passing over a bridge to bury a child of Mr. George Moore, when the bridge gave way, and precipitating the mourners into the water, another child belonging to Mr. Moore was drowned, together with three of his brother's children, and one or two other lives were lost.

BALTIMORE, May 2.—Littie Washington, N. C., was evacuated by the Federal forces last Thursday, the troops being wanted elsewhere.

The flag-of-truce steamer arrived at Fortres Monroe last night, with four hundred of our exchanged prisoners. No papers were allowed to be brought down by her for the press.

MEMPHIS, April 29, via Cairo May 1.—Martin Smith was executed to day, in Fort Pickering, for the crime of smuggling percussion caps to the enemy and violating his oath of allegiance. He stated at the gallows that he was guilty and that his sentence was just. Two other men are now in the Irwin prison for the same crime and will probably suffer the same penalty.

SPRING STYLE OF HATS FOR 1864.
New ready at UPDEGRAFFS' Hat Factory, Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown.

A POIC FOR THE TIMES.

"While war's fierce peals alarm us,
Or victory's shouts of charm us,
The calmer notes of local news,
Of little brawls, or breaks, or stews,
Are equally engaging."

"The former often shock or please,
But such emotions quickly cease,
But when ye veils bright and gay,
In multitudinous array,
Our serious thoughts assuage:—
Are placed to view at Grove's old stand,
To brighten eye, or ear, or hand,
To decorate the lass or lad,
To beautify the calm or sad,
Oh every heart's delighted!"

With rings, and pins, and bracelets bright,
Glistering like the stars of night,
On wrist, and fingers, breast and ear,
Like seraphs fair the world appear!
With beauty's splendour freighted.

With timbles, locks, mourning sets,
Box-pins, gold-chains, and sets of jet,
Steel jewelry, belted and hooks,
All of the latest styles and looks,
I am sure you'll be delighted.

Eight-day, alarm, thirty-hour, and fancy clocks;
Spectacles, cases, and a full assortment of jewelry,
Of the latest styles and most elegant finish, watches and jewelry promptly repaired at the lowest cash prices.

Dr. Tobias'
VENETIAN LINIMENT.
DIED OF CROUP—WHAT A PRETTY and interesting child I saw last week! But now alas it is no more. Such was the conversation of two gentlemen riding down town in the cars. Died of croup, how strange when Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment is a certain cure, if taken in time. Now, Mothers, we appeal to you. It is not for the paltry gain and profit we make, but for the sake of your infant child that now lies playing at your feet. Croup is a dangerous disease. Int. use Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment in time, and it is robbed of its terrors. Always keep it in the house; you may not want it to-night, or to-morrow, no telling when—but armed with this liniment you are prepared; let it come when it will. Price only 25 cents a bottle. Office 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. Sold by all Druggists.
April 29-11.
