For them the mother and wife and daughter... loving welcomes on their lips... how the broad road... The virgin sits weeping with her wreath of glory... in her hands... and the fragrant buds in which she had hoped to wreath the brow of the hero... are now scattered... to the memory of the dead... We do not complain... God maintain our loyalty... in this hour of his overwhelming sadness... But who will dare to prevent us from writing that stern was the authority which constructed the duty of the Reserves... cold was the order which consigned our weary heroes... our battle-worn brothers to their graves... before we could fold them to our bosoms and their sisters print a last fervent kiss upon their cheeks... But Pennsylvania will yet do honor to her Reserves... alike to the remnant of the living who will come home to us... and the dead whose graves mark the most famous of the battle field of the Army of the Potomac... A POIC FOR THE TIMES.
While war's fierce peals alarm us,
Or victory's shouts of triumph
The farmer's shouts of local news,
Or little brawls, or breaks, or stews,
Are equally engaging.
The former often shock or please,
But such emotions quickly cease;
But when a Jewels bright and gay,
In multitudinous array,
Our serious thoughts assuaging—
Are pleased to view at Grove's old stand,
To brighten the eye, or cheer the hand,
To beautify the hair, or hand,
To beautify the hair or hand,
Oh, surely heart's delighted!
With rings, and pins, and bracelets bright,
Or shining like the stars of night,
On wrist, and fingers, breast and ear,
Like seraphs fair the youth appear!
With beauty's splendor freighted,
With thimbles, lockets, mourning sets,
Bee-hives, gold-chains, and sets of jet,
Steel jewelry, bell-shades and books,
All of the latest styles and looks,
I am sure you'll be delighted.
Elegant, alarm, thing-bells, and fancy clocks;
Spectacles, cases, and a full assortment of jewelry,
of the latest styles and most elegant finish, watches
and jewelry promptly repaired at the lowest cash

SPRING STYLE OF HATS FOR 1864
Now ready at
UPDEGRAFF'S Hat Factory,
Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.
THESE Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1863, and are EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States currency, or in National Bank Notes. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN GOLD, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN GOLD, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.
Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.
Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent for premium, or receive their drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are Exempt from State or Municipal Taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.
At the present rate of premium on gold they pay OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.
It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is held to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.
These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.
It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 31 day of March, 1864, was $768,975,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,128, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.
It will be seen that even the present gold revenue of the Government is largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.
Instructions of the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK.
Subscriptions will be received by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. AND BY ALL OTHER NATIONAL BANKS, which are depositaries of Public money, and all RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country, (acting as agents of the National Depository Banks) will furnish further information on application and Afford every Facility to Subscribers.
