Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

TERMS. The following are our terms for subscription, advertising and job work, to which we will strictly adhere while the present "war prices" continue.

PUBLIC SALES.—We call special attention to the sales of real and personal property advertised in today's paper.

FOR SALE.—V. B. Gilbert offers for sale a large lot of cord wood and chestnut rails. See advertisement.

THE ELECTION.—We are pleased to announce that the election in this place on Tuesday last passed off quietly. It was the most orderly election held here in many years.

As far as the returns have been received from the different States the result shows an overwhelming triumph for Lincoln and Johnson. It is supposed that the majority in this State on the home vote will reach 15,000, whilst that in New York is put down at 30,000.

Table showing the results of the election in Lincoln and Johnson counties across various states. Includes Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Massachusetts, Maryland, Maine, Michigan, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, West Virginia, New Hampshire, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Wisconsin, New York, California, and Oregon.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—We give below the majorities in the districts of this county as far as received:

Table showing the majority in the districts of Franklin County. Lists districts like Chamberg, Concord, Dry Run, Fayetteville, Greenville, Guilford, Hamilton, Letort, Loudon, Metal, Montgomery, Orrstown, Peters, Quincy, Southampton, Sulphur Springs, St. Thomas, Washington, and Welsh Run.

The official majorities of the army vote for Gen. Koonz in the several counties of the district are as follows: Adams 175, Franklin 111, Fulton 35, Bedford 264, Somerset 149.

The following is the official vote for Judge in this district: Bedford 1,747, Army vote 321, Franklin 8,231, Army vote 200, Fulton 518, Army vote 36, Somerset 2,340, Army vote 19, King's majority 128.

Executive Mansion (Bucktails)—Lincoln 67, McClellan 11, Finley 11, McClellan 11, East Capitol Barracks—Lincoln 37, McClellan 18, Army Square—Lincoln 30, McClellan 6, Camp Fry—Lincoln 235, McClellan 25, Cavalry Barracks—Lincoln 81, McClellan 21, Harwood Hospital—Lincoln 64, McClellan 7, Lincoln Hospital—Lincoln 160, McClellan 7, Washington Street Tent—Lincoln 230, McClellan 109, Prince Street Barracks—Lincoln 107, McClellan 25, Sickles Barracks—Lincoln 19, McClellan 3, Carver Hospital—Lincoln 57, McClellan 39, Battery I, Fort Worth—Lincoln 63, McClellan 23, Camp Stoneman—Lincoln 127, McClellan 74, Battery (Nevins)—Lincoln 130, McClellan 50, Battery G, Camp Barry—Lincoln 74, McClellan 71, Marine Barracks—Lincoln 35, McClellan 19, Fort Marcy—Lincoln 65, McClellan 30, Camp Distribution—Lincoln 193, McClellan 115.

Soldiers' vote in Camp Curtin: For Abraham Lincoln, 93 votes; George B. McClellan, 20 votes. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The vote taken in Alexandria and Washington at the different barracks and city hospitals shows in part: Union, 491; Dem., 93; Iowa, 74; Wisconsin, 639; Maine, 406; Pennsylvania, 1985.

RESOURCES OF THE NORTH.—Let not the rebels lay the flattering unction to their souls that our armies will soon be so depleted by fighting in their swamps and jungles that they cannot be kept up to the required strength, for in the little Commonwealth of Massachusetts alone the militia rolls show the names of fifty-three thousand fighting men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-four years.

Late Rebel newspapers present a terrible picture of affairs in that portion of Louisiana within the lines of Jeff. Davis' armies. The destitution of the people is represented as extreme, and starvation is said to be staring them in the face.

The rebel leaders have finally concluded that they will arm their negroes and send them into the field as soldiers. Ah, what now becomes of this cry of "negro war" &c., howled so furiously by the Copperheads.

LISTEN YE PEACEMEN.—The Charleston Mercury of the last date, says the following: "President Davis, who has been opposed to making any concession whatever to the enemy, has been finally prevailed upon to grant an armistice to the North, provided it is solicited in a respectful manner."

CAVETOWN DISTRICT.—At the election on Tuesday, Cavetown District in Washington county, gave Lincoln and Johnson a majority of 38. The usual democratic majority in this district has been between 200 and 300.

CONCISELY STATED.—The Presidential results consequent upon the re-election of Mr. Lincoln are thus briefly but expressively set forth by Henry J. Raymond: "The re-election of President Lincoln will convince the Rebels that further resistance is hopeless, and will thus tend to what we all desire—a speedy, honorable and lasting peace."

FREE INSTITUTIONS.—The Richmond Examiner wrote not long ago: "We have got to hating everything with the prefix free, from free negroes down and up through the whole catalogue."
