THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY CORRESPONDENT

of the New York Herald thinks that the recent announcement that the rebels under Lee, at Richmond, are about to make a "bold and important movement," which will astonish the world, is not without foundation.

MENTAL OBLIQUITY—A TAX-PAYER'S SOUL DELIVERED.

From the crepus of dubiousity, and resurrected into the full light of happiness and content that the heart of man is desperately wicked and filled with deceit is no more true than that the vision of some persons, whose souls are in their pockets, and whose gold presses heavily on their ventricles—is constantly oblique, else why is it that Copertes can see in Sherman's triumphal march thro' Georgia only a retreat, or that a Tax-payer, who ought to thank God that he has taxes to pay, and the pecuniary with which to do it, cannot see the honesty and integrity of his neighbors, while indirectly ranting his brow with the ever-increasing pressure on his ventricles, he must at last cry out his agony.

THE DESOLATION OF WAR.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, writing from Gen. Grant's army, gives the following picture of the havoc of war. Speaking of the country around Petersburg, he says: Those who saw these lands when they first became the theatre of active operations, would now have difficulty in recognizing a single field.

SEVENTY-SEVENTH.

The following is a list of the casualties occurring in Co. A, 77th Penna. Regiment in the Battles of Franklin, November 30, and in front of Nashville, December 16: Killed—Private John C. Gross. Missing—Sergt. Jacob Siets. Wounded—Corp. Jeremiah Row, arm, severely; Corp. Fred Berkle, arm amputated; Private John Berkle, arm, severely; Private Peter Levisher, hand, severely; Private Jacob Lackey, hand, slightly; Private David E. Stoner, hand, slightly.

SHERMAN ON THE MOVE.

An official dispatch from Secretary Stanton, whilst at Fortress Monroe, to the President, announces the resumption of General Sherman's movements. Last Saturday the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Corps under the command of General Howard, were transferred from Savannah to Beaufort, and moved out from that point upon the line of the Charleston and Savannah Railroad, at Pocotaligo, the rebels abandoning their strong works in that vicinity.

NEW CURRENCY.

New three cents fractional currency have just been issued. On the face, in the center, is a steel engraving of General Washington, under the words "three cents." In the upper corner is the figure "3," under "E PLURIBUS UNUM." In the lower corner, back of flowers, they bear the value of the note. On the opposite side, in a field of green, is the figure "3," under "III," in each corner.

THE QUOTA ASSIGNED TO PENNSYLVANIA

by the Provost-Marshal-General has been withdrawn. A committee appointed by the Legislature visited Washington last week and had an interview with that officer, and it is stated that full justice will be done to Pennsylvania in the reassignment of quotas. The quota first assigned was 66,000. It is believed upon investigation of the subject this will be reduced from 10,000 to 20,000.

Henry Ward Beecher's salary, as pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, has been increased from $7,000 to $12,500.

COMMUNICATED.

THE CAPTURE OF FORT FISHER.

Official Despatch from Gen Grant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The following telegram has been received by this Department from Lieut. Gen. Grant: CITY POINT, Va., Jan. 23, 1865.—10 P. M. Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War: One of my staff has just returned from Fort Fisher with despatches from Gen. Terry, from which I extract the following:

"On the 16th the enemy blew up Forts Caswell and Campbell, and abandoned them and the works on Smith's Island, and those at Smithville, and on Reeves' Point. These places were occupied by the navy. The whole number of guns captured amounts to 162.

"A large number of small arms also fell into our hands, besides quantities of ordnance and commissary stores. Our casualties were smaller than at first reported.—They foot up thus; 12 officers and 107 men killed; 45 officers and 495 men wounded.

U. S. GRANT, Lieut. General.

E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The steamship Atlanta, from Mobile bay on January 16, has arrived here with one thousand bales of cotton from the rebel Government to purchase blankets, clothing, etc., for rebel prisoners. The cotton is in charge of Captain Noyes, of General Grant's staff, and was delivered to him on January 13 by the rebel authorities outside their obstructions in Mobile bay, from their steamer Waverly.

CANADA.

The Government to give a Quotus to Railways.

QUEBEC, Jan. 24.—In the opening debate in Parliament, last night, the Government was sustained by a large majority, and the conduct of the Southern refugees in Canada strongly denounced. A determination was expressed to stop the abuse of the asylum afforded them, and a commission appointed to inquire into the case of the failure of justice in the release of the St. Albans raiders and the misappropriation of the money restored to them; also, to inquire into the conduct of Justice Coursol and the chief of police. In the meantime the Government has suspended the judge.

Southern Sentiment.

LINCOLN AND DAVIS CONTRASTED.

[From the Charleston Mercury, Jan. 10.] When Abraham Lincoln took the chair of the Presidency of the United States, he promised in his flat-boat lingo to "run the machine as he found it." Whether he has strictly kept his promise, those may doubt who choose to consider the subject. It is enough for us to know, that whether "running his machine" in the pathway of his predecessors, or not, he has run it with a stern, inflexible purpose, a bold, steady hand, a vigilant active eye, a sleepless energy, a frantic spirit, and an eye single to his end—conquest—emancipation.

DIPHTHERIA.

This very prevalent disease has swept from the parental lap many a sweet babe; and to prevent its further ravage among the little innocents, should be the earnest object of fathers and mothers. A friend has handed us the following recipe, which we take pleasure in giving to our readers: A poultice made of the yoke of an egg and fine salt, of a paste-like consistency, to be put on the throat, and kept on thirty minutes, unless sooner dry. If a child be very feverish the poultice should be repeated. A wash or gargle should also be prepared and used, consisting of equal parts of fine salt and alum mixed with vinegar.

Cowardly Assault.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24, 1865.—Late on Friday evening, as Judge Kelley, Hon. Charles O'Neill, and Major Harper were sitting at the tea-table at Willard's one Judge Field, who is claiming a seat in the House as a member from Louisiana, remarked in a loud voice to Judge Kelley: "Well, Judge, you were all afraid to show your hands on admitting our delegation," accompanied with an oath, to which Judge Kelley made no reply, as he had no acquaintance with Field; but on the continuance of his insults Judge Kelley replied that when his name was called it would not take him long to decide upon his case; to which Field continued his violent talk, with a "D-u you, your people want us back bad enough, and you are afraid to face them if you don't vote for us."

THE FIRST ARMY CORPS.

The Washington Starsays: Gen. Hancock's new First Army Corps is filling up as rapidly as could be expected under the circumstances, and the only drawback experienced thus far is the obtaining of officers to send into the States to recruit. The corps bureau is thoroughly organized now, and this difficulty will be speedily overcome. There is every prospect that the corps will have obtained its full complement in a month's time from the present date.

Some correspondence recently captured from the rebels by Union troops show that the sympathies of Geo. D. Prentice are strongly with the rebels.

One of the wealthy citizens of Cincinnati, who failed to pay his income tax within the time prescribed by law, was required to pay a penalty of $1000 a few days ago.

The Kentucky Legislature has adopted resolutions in favor of emancipation, the consent of the owners being obtained and compensation made.

THE FEELING IN FAVOR OF CREATING GEN. LEE

DICTATOR IS DAILY GROWING STRONGER IN VIRGINIA.

Jeff. Davis has entirely lost his personal power. The rebel Congress distrusts him as having robbed the rebel treasury and made large deposits of the public funds in England, for his own private use; and it is hinted that when Lee is created dictator his first act will be to arrest Davis, and hold him until he disgorges all that he stole from the Confederacy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—It appears from a communication of the Secretary of War, that the entire subject of exchanging prisoners is placed in the hands of General Grant; and that, although but a partial exchange is thus far made, there is reason to believe a full exchange will soon be effected.

There is now a case on trial in the Superior Court of Connecticut, in which are concerned two citizens of Glastonbury, who go to law about a grindstone. The stone cost $5 and the costs of the suit have already exceeded $300, with an interesting prospect ahead for a good deal more.

A photograph of old John Brown wreathed in laurels, is now hanging in the parlor of the mansion formerly belonging to Henry A. Wise, of Va., who hung the original in another part of the State. The estate situated about eight miles south of Norfolk, has been confiscated by the Government.

Gen. Butler is in Washington in citizens dress. He has been before the committee on the conduct of the war, to give his testimony concerning the first attack upon Fort Fisher.

Colt's Army in Hartford has just filled an order for 100,000 muskets for the army, the cost of which was two million dollars.

A donation supper, given by Cincinnati ladies, yielded $10,000 to the soldiers. Four thousand people feasted.
