

HAVE A TIME AND OFF.
When the house is still, and the day is done,
And the stars are out aloft,
I sit by the falling fire alone,
And I think of the years that are past and gone,
Many a time and oft.
I dream of that village beside the sea;
I dream of the seat by the trysting-tree;
And of one who will never come back to me,
Ah! many a time and oft!
When the city is hush'd, and the chimneys are still,
When the voice of the crowd is soft,
My thoughts wander on at their own wild will,
And my tears fall fast, and my heart is chill,
Many a time and oft.
I dream of the hopes all faded and fled,
Of the vow that is broken, the shaft that is sped,
And of one to whom I forever am dead—
Ah! many a time and oft!

Crocket in a Quandary.
"I never but once," said the Colonel, "was in what I call a real, genuine quandary. It was during my electioneering for Congress, at which time I strolled about in the woods, so particularly pestered with politics that I forgot my rifle. Any man may forget his rifle, you know; but it isn't every man that can make amends for his forgetfulness by his faculties, I guess. It chanced that I was strolling along considerably deep in congressional; the first thing took my fancy, was the snarling of some young bears, which proceeded from a hollow tree; but I soon found that I could not reach the cubs with my hands, so I went feet foremost, to see if I could draw them up by the toes. I hung on at the top of the hole, straining with all my might to reach them, until at last my hands slipped, and down I went more than 20 feet to the bottom of the hole, and there I found myself almost ship-deep in a family of young bears."
I soon found that I might as well undertake to climb the greatest part of a rainbow, as to get back, the hole in the tree being so smooth and slippery from the rain.
Now, this was a real, genuine quandary. If I was to shout, it would be doubtful whether they would hear me at the settlement, and if they did it would ruin my election; for they were of a quality too cute to vote for a man that ventured into a place that he couldn't get himself out of. Well, now, while I was calculating whether it was best to shout for help or to wait in the hole until after election, I heard a kind of grumbling and growing overhead; and looking I saw the old bear coming down stern foremost upon me. My motto always was 'go ahead,' and as soon as she lowered herself within my reach I got a tight grip of her tail in my left hand, and with my little buckhorn haited pen-knife in the other, I commenced spurring her forward. I'll be shot if ever a member of Congress rose quicker in the world than I did! She took me out in the shake of a lamb's tail.

Freemasonry and Gridirons.
A worthy police captain—says a correspondent—entertained a fancy to become a free mason, and was accordingly proposed and elected. A friend accompanied him to the place of meeting, which was in a building the lower part of which was used as a place of entertainment. The neophyte was left in an apartment next to the servant's room, while his friend went up stairs to assist in the opening ceremonies. A Celtic maiden, who caught a glimpse of the stranger, resolved to take part in his initiation, and procuring a gridiron placed it over the range. It was not long before the captain, looking inquisitively through the door, saw the utensil reddening in the heat. The recollection flashed through his mind of masonic candidates and some peculiar ordeals which they were unable to encounter.
"What is that, Bridget?" he eagerly inquired.
"And, shure," replied the Hibernian virgin, "it's only the gridiron that I was tould to place over the coals."
"Who told you?" asked the eager captain.
"And was it not the gentleman who came with you?"
"What could he want with it?" demanded the captain.
"And shure I can't tell," replied Bridget. "They are often using it, it belongs to the people above stairs, I always heat it when they want to make a mason."

This was too much for the excited captain, and taking to his heels, he soon put a safe distance between himself and the lodge.
An Oswego (N. Y.) correspondent furnishes the three following jokes:
A good one was lately told of 'John'. He had presented a young lady with a nice case of perfume, and, meeting her a short time afterwards, he asked—
"Well, Mary, how did you like your perfume?"
"O John," replied she, her eyes sparkling with pleasure and thankfulness, "you ought to just smell of me!"
The same girl was one day looking very stoutly at her mother, who had been sewing a long time, and who had just heaved a little sigh of weariness, when she said:
"Ma, I think you would feel better if you would get up, and stretch your legs!"
A STRONG HINT.—A gentleman who was waiting upon a young lady was making fun of a sack which she wore.
"You'd better be quiet or I'll give you the sack," he said.
"I should be most happy," was the reply, "if you would give it to me as it is, with yourself in it."

There is a Quaker at Manchester who is such an advocate for peace that he will not have a pistol in his house because it strikes women are too apt to think that certain vices in a young man, like moles upon a fair skin, are beauty spots.

A house maid the other night slipped from a chair in which she was temporarily standing, and fell head foremost into a barrel of flour. To show the effect of mental agony, we will state that her hair became instantly white.

The Springfield Republican says:—Dress are worn so low in the neck in Paris that we would blush if we were there, we know we should.

Improved Thrashing Machine!
Farmers will please look at the great advantage in Thrashing Grain with GEISERS' PATENT SELF-REGULATING GRAIN SEPARATOR, CLEANER AND BAGGER.

At a time like the present, when labor is very scarce, it is important that farmers who are interested should give attention to the above improvement, which will considerably reduce the expense of thrashing grain over the common way.
This machine has been before the public for a number of years, but not very widely circulated, although it has competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and proved a decided advantage, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator ever before the public. In order to prove this in new neighborhoods where it is not known, I am willing to forward a machine for a test to any person desiring a trial, and have its merits tested; and I wish to have it understood that I put the machine upon its own merits, and want farmers to judge for themselves. If it does not fully meet their wants and they do not wish to purchase, I am perfectly willing to bear all expenses of shipping.

The machine is particularly adapted to farmers for their own use, and will apply to level or railway power, will thrash and clean, in good grain, from 100 to 150 bushels per day, using four to six horses and the same number hands, but under very favorable circumstances will thresh more per day.
It cleans the grain thoroughly clean by one operation, which is not generally done by other Separators. Grain cleaned in this machine, with much light filthy matter, is worth one or two cents more per bushel than if cleaned in the common way. There is also a great saving of grain, in straw and chaff over the common way of thrashing and cleaning, and also over other Separators and Cleaners.
The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and thrashing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble in a barn floor as the common thrasher and shaker. It is also easily put in operation, being simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact, and cleanly to work by white in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation from farmers that are using them, I must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want and will have as soon as they have an opportunity to appreciate and attest its merits, which I hope they will give me an opportunity, and I am willing to be responsible, as already stated,
Price of Machine at Shop, (all complete, ready to attach to belt Lever or Railway Power,) $1.75 cash, $1.80 in three months, with interest from date.
As material for manufacturing advances, there may be a corresponding advance in the price of machines. The machine is fully represented in the above cut.
I warrant the machine to do as above represented. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.
The machine is manufactured in Pennsylvania and Maryland, at different shops.
For further information and description of machine, address

I, the undersigned, desire to call the attention of Farmers and Threshermen of Franklin and adjoining counties to this machine. It has been before the public for a number of years, during which time it has given general satisfaction, and the patentee has made some very important improvements which render it still more complete, both for clean separating and cleaning, and also for the ease of draught and fast thrashing. I take pleasure in recommending it to the public knowing that it will give the best satisfaction. I am manufacturing two sizes, viz:
The largest is eight-horse power and will thrash and clean from 200 to 500 bushels per day.

I am also prepared to manufacture to order machinery for wood, such as Tonging and Grooving machines for flooring, Surface, Tenon and Moulding machines, &c.
I also offer to the public a new and valuable improvement in my steam engines, made within the last year, viz: for the economizing of fuel, and the regulation of speed, which renders my new engines far superior to the old engines. All my machines are sold under warranty. My hands are all experienced workmen in this line of business, and I use all good material, so that I am perfectly safe in warranting all my work.
I am also prepared to do repairing in workman like manner, on the shortest notice. Orders solicited and promptly attended to. All orders sent in for repairing must be accompanied with the cash.
