

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNEBORO.

Friday, September 23, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

The following are our terms for subscription advertising and job work...

SELECT SCHOOL.—See card of Miss L. & E. Kemble.

The third Quarterly Meeting for this Conference year...

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.—We direct special attention to the valuable real estate offered for sale...

ANTIETAM LANDS.—Mr. John Walter of this place offers for sale to-day a valuable tract of land...

PUBLIC SALE.—W. W. Walker will dispose of several valuable horses, buggies, and other property...

THE REPORT.—We are under obligations Ed. W. Curriden, editor of the Hagerstown Herald and Torch Light...

NEW GOODS.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Amerson, Benedict & Co. and Geo. Stover have just opened out an extensive assortment of new fall and winter goods.

ON HAND.—Messrs. Price & Hoefflich and Mr. Joseph Miller have just returned from the East and are now receiving a fine selection of new fall and winter goods.

GET ASSESSED.—Soldiers and others who have not yet been assessed must have that important duty attended to on or before the 30th instant...

S. S. PICNIC.—The German Reformed Sabbath School enjoyed quite a pleasant day, on Tuesday last week.

The procession was formed at the church, It was large, and marched out in good style.

The afternoon was spent, as usual on such occasions, and we have heard that the young folks enjoyed themselves right merrily.

These affairs are a great benefit to the schools, in that the scholars, parents and friends meet in social re-union, and pass an agreeable and lively day together.

WASHINGTON COUNTY R. R.—At the monthly meeting of the B. & O. R. R. Company held the other day in Baltimore, the company subscribed $400,000 to the Washington County Road...

UNION MEETINGS.—Union meetings will be held in this county as follows: Keyetteville, Friday evening, Sept. 22d.

Beware of counterfeit long fifty-cent notes of the new pattern. They are poorly executed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The following is a list of the charges in the District, with the Ministers and Delegates representing them.

Frederick City.—Rev. W. W. Hicks, W. F. Boucher, W. D. Eldridge.

West Falls.—Rev. J. D. Moore.

Westminster.—Rev. W. M. Mensinger, Rev. J. V. Vanmeter.

Emmitsburg.—Rev. R. O. Hasslup.

Middletown.—Rev. H. C. Pardoe, Rev. J. Patton Moore, Wm. Smith, C. E. Thomas.

Antietam.—Rev. J. W. Buckley, Rev. Chas. D. Smith, Daniel Houser, E. P. Steffen.

Mercesburg.—Rev. J. Benson Akers.

Quincy.—Rev. J. H. S. Clark, J. W. Brown, W. Shaffer.

Hagerstown.—Rev. J. F. Oekerman, Samuel L. King, David D. Curriden.

Waynesboro.—Rev. O. F. Thomas, Rev. Joo. Lloyd, Rev. H. Stonehouse, Rev. H. Baltzley, Geo. Bender, Peter Dock, G. B. Hawker.

On Tuesday evening the session was opened by a sermon by Rev. W. Hardin, in which he stated that it was the desire and design of the East Baltimore Conference to pay better attention hereafter to the children of the Church...

The following questions were discussed by the Convention:

1.—What relation should the Pastor sustain to the School or Schools of his charge?

2.—According to the present arrangement of our Discipline, are 'S. S. Societies' necessary to the successful religious training of the youth?

3.—Is sufficient attention paid to catechetical instruction in Sunday Schools?

4.—Can the provisions of our Discipline, as set forth on Page 39, Section 2, question 3rd, be fully carried out?

5.—Should not special attention be paid to the organization of Infant Schools?

6.—Should not singing be made an important part of the exercises of a Sunday School?

7.—To what extent are Sunday Schools organized into Missionary Societies according to the provisions of the Discipline?

8.—Is not the practice of suspending School during the winter season inherently wrong?

9.—Would not the best interests of our Sunday Schools be promoted by the organization in each School of a Teachers' Bible Class?

10.—Should there not be a more extensive circulation of the Books and Periodicals issued by our Publishing Houses?

11.—Is not the system of Rewards demoralizing?

12.—What should be the character of the Books in our Sabbath Schools?

The Frederick District comprises thirteen charges, with 711 teachers and officers, and 3,355 scholars. Among these there were 64 conversions during the past year.

THE SOLDIERS' PICNIC.—A public dinner was given by the citizens of Washington township on Thursday last week to Mr. Henry Good's woods (formerly Jacob's) near this place, to the returned soldiers.

The procession formed on Main Street at 10 o'clock A. M., Maj. L. B. Kurta acting as chief Marshal, and proceeded by the Leitersburg and GreenCastle Bands, marched to the grove.

POLITICAL MEETING.—At the solicitation of his political friends, the Hon. David McConaughy, candidate for the State Senate, addressed a meeting in this place, on Thursday evening of last week.

See advertisement of Wm. Adams, Auctioneer.

WIRZ TRIAL.

Wirtz's trial was resumed on Tuesday. A. Walter T. Davenport gave some facts, showing the progress of the cholera in Georgia, in the vicinity of Andersonville, during the year 1864.

The Consul at Barcelona, in a letter dated August 23d, says: The cholera is fully declared in this city.

The Consul at Leghorn, Italy, reports, under date of August 25th, that "the cholera, which had prevailed in an alarming degree for the past few months in Egypt, Turkey, and some of the eastern portions of Italy, has not yet reached this place.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—On Wednesday last a difficulty about the sale of some property, occurred between Abraham Mourey, and Mr. G. W. Poll, a highly respectable merchant of Leitersburg.

Mourey, through some unaccountable blundering, was not arrested, until he had time to escape to Pennsylvania. He was traced to Waynesboro', but was not arrested there, owing to some real or pretended informality in the warrant.

THE WOMEN OF THE SOUTH.—Governor Brown thus speaks of the Southern women in his paper, the Knoxville Whig.

"From the commencement of the rebellion until now, the Devil and the women of the South have been the ablest allies the cause of treason had in the field. The influence of the women, backed up by his Satanic Majesty, filled the ranks of the rebel armies, and gave ardor and endurance to the hunched men that entered the service.

LADIES' FRIEND.—The "Ladies' Friend" is published in Philadelphia, by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, and has attained quite a reputation.

OIL INTELLIGENCE.—The present daily yield of Venango county is estimated at not less than eight thousand barrels, and at the present rate of striking new wells, the daily production will probably in a few months reach ten thousand barrels.

PREPARE FOR THE CHOLERA.—The authorities of many of the principal cities are actively engaged in improving the sanitary condition of their respective corporations, in view of the fact that cholera is raging on the other side of the big waters.

NEWSPAPER PUFFS.—The "local of one of our country exchanges gives the following schedule of tolls for the benefit of those who need and seek after "puffs".

For a modest puff, 3 juleps. A tolerable good one, 1 box of cigars. A good one, 1 pair of boots.

The Methodist Church of this place has recently purchased, at a cost of $300, one of Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs, which is expected to arrive in a few days.

United States Assistant Assessors are directed, in all cases, where returns are not made by manufacturers, within the ten days allowed by law, to assess them and add fifty per cent to the amount for neglect.

The Cholera.

The United States Consul at Constantinople, in a letter to the State Department dated August 14th, says: It is estimated that the victims of the cholera already number twenty thousand, the number of deaths in a single day having reached one thousand.

The Consul at Barcelona, in a letter dated August 23d, says: The cholera is fully declared in this city. The deaths from this disease have averaged, up to this date, about twelve per day, and the total number of deaths from cholera, in Barcelona, by the 24th of August, amounted to 115.

The Consul at Leghorn, Italy, reports, under date of August 25th, that "the cholera, which had prevailed in an alarming degree for the past few months in Egypt, Turkey, and some of the eastern portions of Italy, has not yet reached this place.
