CURRENCY.-In an address delivered at expressed his opinion of the necessity of a of the country. Missouri Republican. return to a specie basis at the earlest practicable period. We extract a significant er, commanding the district of Henrico, ispassage on this subject:

The present inconvertible currency of the United States was a necessity of the war. but now that the war has ceased, and the Government ought no longer to be a borrower, this currency should be brought up to the specie standard, and I see no way of doing this but by withdraw mr a portion of it from circulation. I have no faith in a prosperity which is the effect of a depreciated currency, nor can I see any safe path for us to tread but that which leads to specie paynents.

The extreme high prices which now prevail in the United States are an unerring indication that the business of the country is Red Beets which together weighed forty an unhealthy condition. We are measuring values by a false standard. We have a circulating medium altogether larger than is needed for legitimate business. The excess is used in speculations. The United States the garden of H. M. Sibbet, Esq., of the are to-day the best market in the world for Washington Inp," which weighed 104 foreigners to soll in, and among the poorest to buy in. The consequence is that Europe is selling us more than she buys of us, including our securities, which ought not to go abroad, and there is a debt rolling up against us that must be settled in part, at least, with coin. The longer the inflation continues, the more difficult will it be for us CDAL -Coal seems to be fast taking the to get back to the solid ground of specie place of wood in our town, judging from the payments, to which we must return sooner

If Congress shall early in the approach ing sessions authorize the funding of the legal tenders, and the work of reduction is commenced and carried on resolutely, but carefully and prudently, we shall reach it probably without serious embarrassment to legitimate business. If not, we shall have a brief period of hollow and soductive prosperity, resulting in wide-spread bankrupty and
