

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNEBORO.

Friday, November 3, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

The following are our terms for subscription advertising and job work, to which we will strictly adhere whilst the present "war prices" continue.

ADVERTISE! ADVERTISE!—The circulation of the Record in this region, including the townships of Washington and Quincy, largely exceeds that of any other paper published in the county.

STATE ELECTION.—We have not yet been able to get through our exchanges the vote complete at the late election in this state.

HALLOW-EEN.—Hallow-eeen, or "Hollow Eve," as it is generally termed, occurred on Tuesday evening last.

DEAD.—Late news from England announces the death of Lord Palmerston which occurred on the 15th ult.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—His Excellency, the President, has appointed the first Thursday in December as a day of general thanksgiving throughout the United States.

PROFESSIONAL.—See card of Dr. H. X. ...

THE TOMB.—In Greenacastle, on Sunday last, Mr. GEO. W. SUMMERS, formerly of this vicinity, aged 89 years, 6 months and 13 days.

MARKETS.—PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET, Oct. 30.—The arrivals and sales of Beef Cattle at the avenue drove yard continues large, roughing about 2,800 head.

FOLLOW THE RIGHT.

No matter (says somebody) who you are, what you are, what your lot, or where you live, you cannot afford to do that which is wrong.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S FATHER.—The following obituary notice appeared in the Raleigh Star, of January 10, 1812: "Died in this city, on Saturday last, Jacob Johnson, who had for many years occupied so humble but useful a station in society."

On Friday the Coroner's jury rendered a verdict on the late railway accident near Lancaster. The verdict was to the effect that no fault could be found with the railway company.

After a great deal of deliberation between General Grant and the Secretary of War, it has been determined to muster out of service the veteran reserve or invalid corps.

The Georgia State Convention has repealed the ordinance of secession of that State; voted to memorialize President Johnson in behalf of the release of Davis and other rebel prisoners.

An association composed of influential gentlemen has just been formed in Washington. The object of the association is to collect the remains of Union soldiers buried around the battle-fields near Fredericksburg.

From private advices received in Washington from North Carolina, it seems that not more than two of the candidates for Congress in the State would take the oath that they never voluntarily aided the rebellion.

Gen. Grant has sent to the Secretary of War a communication recommending the mustering out of all major and brigadier generals of the volunteer service, save those who have been disabled in the service.

The census of New York city shows a population of 722,569, a decrease of 31,000 since the year 1860.

LOCAL ITEMS.

WANTED.—A few bushels of apples will be taken at this office in trade or for cash if the price is not too "steep."

COMMUNION.—We learn that quite a number of young persons were added to the Presbyterian church of Greenacastle, at their Communion services on last Sabbath.

REVIVAL.—We understand a very interesting revival in religion has been progressing in the Jacobs' Church (Lutheran) near this place, for several weeks, and that numbers have made a profession of religion and been added to the church.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. F. Bowden who purchased of Maj. Kurtz his Hotel, has commenced improving the property. Among other improvements he is about to commence the erection of a large stable.

COULON PARTY.—A Coulon Party will be held at the Hotel of Mr. H. M. Jones, in Quincy, on Thursday evening next, the 9th inst. Mr. J. is an accommodating landlord and will leave nothing undone to render his guests comfortable on the occasion.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. David Goodyear, for many years proprietor of Greenacastle Springs, in Franklin county, fell dead, a few days ago, at his residence, in Shippensburg. The deceased was a well-known citizen, and highly respected by the people generally.

A PRESENT.—We are under obligations to our young friend, Mr. Wm. Reid, of the firm of Hostetter, Reid & Co., for a present of a fine string of fish.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—We would inform those who are in arrears to this office, especially for job work and advertising, that printing paper has again advanced, and that we are in want of another supply, and consequently want money to make the purchase.

THE "BUSS."—We observe that Messrs. Wolfersberger & Stonor have put a new Buss, or one as good as new, on the Mail line between this place and Greenacastle.

MARYLAND ELECTION.—The election for members of the House of Delegates and local officers will be held in Maryland on Tuesday next. We observe that Mr. Frederick Bell of the Leitersburg District is a candidate for the office of County Commissioner.

RAILROAD MEETING.—Mr. Edward Moly was elected President of the Washington County Railroad Company at a meeting of the Commissioners held in Hagerstown on the 27th ult.

GOING TO BRYANT, STRATTON & FRANCISCO'S HARRISBURG COMMERCIAL COLLEGE if you want a sound business education. Scholarships issued at Harrisburg are good in forty-five Colleges.

A NATIONAL THANKSGIVING. By the President of the United States of America: A PROCLAMATION. Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity, and harmony with a great enlargement of civil liberty.

By the President: Wm. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S VIEWS. Senator Henderson, of Missouri, in a recent speech, gave the following account of an interview with President Johnson: "When recently in Washington, I called on him, and had a full and frank talk with him in reference to all the questions connected with his reconstruction policy."

HOMICIDE IN BALTIMORE. BALTIMORE, Oct. 29.—A horrible murder was committed here to-day, about noon, in the photographic establishment of H. B. Grove, in Baltimore street, adjoining the office of the Sun.

THE LINCOLN MONUMENT. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 26. To the People of the United States: The National Lincoln Monument Association earnestly invite the attention and favorable regard of their fellow citizens throughout the United States to a steel engraving of Abraham Lincoln and his emancipation proclamation, published by Prang & Co., art publishers of Boston, Mass.

ALMOST A ROMANCE.—Quite an amusing incident occurred at Detroit a few days ago, at the market. Twelve years ago an honest and industrious German left the fatherland to try his luck in the United States.

By direction of the President, Secretary Seward has notified Governor Johnson, of Georgia; that no State can be recognized by the Executive as having resumed its relations of loyalty to the Union, unless it repudiates the debt it contracted to carry on the rebellion.

POISON CASE. The Grinder poisoning case was on Saturday concluded in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Pittsburg. The first act of the drama is over—at nine o'clock, the court was opened, and in a few minutes after, Mrs. Martha Grinder was brought in and placed in the dock; at twenty-five minutes past nine the jury came in, and took their seats in the jury box.

AN ACCOMMODATING KING.—Some Englishmen traveling in Swedish Italy, visited the summer palace of the King at Stockholm. On entering the grounds they saw a man seated on a bench, and asked whether they might go over the apartments.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE REBEL CLERGYMAN.—Among the many rebel applications for pardon a certain preacher was one of the number, who upon approaching the President, the following ensued: "What great sin have you committed that you come here in clerical robes and crave Executive pardon?"

INTELLIGENCE has been received at the State Department confirming the report of introduction of the cholera into England. The inhabitants of Epping, a town about ten miles from London, are in considerable alarm in consequence of the outbreak of this terrible scourge there; and in Thoydon, a village about a mile distant, seven persons perished from it on the 12th ult., and twelve cases were reported on the 18th, four of which, including the attending physician, died.

JAMES I. ORR is elected Governor of South Carolina by five hundred majority. Governor Perry has been chosen United States Senator.

MEMBERS of Congress are already beginning to arrive at Washington, in view of the approaching session.

THE total amount paid by Lancaster county for bounty purposes, in 1862-'63, and '64, was $2,264,569.

GOV. FENTON, of New York, has appointed Thursday, the 7th of November, as a day of thanksgiving.

ARRANGEMENTS have as yet been made for the trial of Jeff. Davis.

ARRANGEMENTS have as yet been made for the trial of Jeff. Davis.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

LADIES' FURS! LADIES' FURS!—Our Fall stock of Ladies' FURS comprising all kinds, qualities and shapes for Ladies and Children are now open for inspection, in addition to our large stock of FURS, we have FUR TRIMMINGS, MUFF TASSELS, ENDS, CORDS, BUTTONS, &c., &c.

FALL FASHIONS, 1865. Fall styles of HATS and CAPS for Men, Boys, and Children, are now ready comprising every thing popular in the way of "head gear" together with a nice assortment of CANES, UMBRELLAS, GLOVES, FORT MONIE LADIES' CABAS, Traveling BAGS, Ladies' FURS, &c., &c.

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH! Wheaton's Ointment Will Cure the Itch in 48 Hours.

THE ALTAR. On the 16th ult., in Chambersburg, by the Rev. S. McHenry, Mr. S. J. WERTZ, of Quincy township, to Miss ADALINE HOCKERSMITH, of Fayetteville.

On Tuesday morning last, at the residence of the bride's mother, at the Marsh Run, by the Rev. W. E. Krebs, Mr. BLAM G. PRANTZ, of this vicinity, to Miss MATIE B. FUNK.

Accompanying the above notice we received a beautiful share of the "good things" prepared for the occasion, for which the happy groom and his fair partner will accept our thanks.

On the 14th ult., near Mercersburg, Mrs. MARIA RHEA, wife of Mr. John Rhea, aged 65 years.

On the 13th ult., in Mercersburg, Mrs. ELIZABETH KENNEDY, aged 75 years.

On the 14th ult., near Greenacastle Mr. ROBERT KRUNKELTON, aged 69 years.

On the 19th ult., in Greenacastle, CLARA LOUISE, daughter of Mr. Geo. Bert, in the 2d year of her age.