

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, December 22, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

The following are our terms for subscription, advertising and job work, to which we will strictly adhere while the present "war prices" continue: SUBSCRIPTION, Per Annum, if paid within the year, $3.00; after the year, $3.50.

ADVERTISING. Per Square of ten lines, three times, $1.50; each subsequent insertion, $1.00. A liberal deduction made to yearly advertisers.

ADVERTISING. The circulation of the RECORD in this region, including the townships of Washington and Quincey, largely exceeds that of any other paper published in the county.

DEAD.—Ex-Governor Corwin of Ohio had an attack of paralysis at Washington on Saturday, from the effects of which he died on Monday. He was in the 72d year of his age, and for many years ranked prominent among the public men of the country.

GOOD PAPER.—If any of our friends in this region would be "booked up" upon the proceedings of the State Legislature and news of interest generally, we would advise them to subscribe for the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph, or the Weekly if they prefer it.

CONGRESSIONAL.—The House on Monday concurred in the Senate's resolution regarding the suitable observance of the 12th of February, being the anniversary of the birth of the late President Lincoln, and passed a bill appropriating twenty-five thousand dollars (one year's salary) to Mrs. Lincoln.

THE STATE DEBT.—The Harrisburg Telegraph says:—One of the most wonderful results of the great struggle which ended so favorably to the government, may be justly recognized in that which preserved the credit and steadily reduced the indebtedness of the State of Pennsylvania.

AN INDIANA FARMER, recently deceased, left by will a $1,000 ten forty bond to be applied to the extinguishment of the national debt. Were he alive, it would gratify him, probably, to know that his money would pay the interest on the debt for exactly two minutes.

THREE CHILDREN, a niece, son and daughter of Anthony Cook, residing at Burlington, Wisconsin, aged respectively 13, 9 and 8 years, were murdered on Sunday a week while the parents were at church. A man named Frahm has been arrested.

MAJOR GEORGE BELL, of Hagerstown, Md. has been appointed commissary of subsistence for the depots of Alexandria and Washington.

GEORGE GRINDER, the husband of Martha Grinder, lately convicted in the criminal court at Pittsburg on the charge of murder, was also tried for the same offence and acquitted.

THE LAST OF THE HEROES.—But two Revolutionary soldiers remain—William Hutchins, of Penobscot, Maine, and Samuel Cook, of Clarendon, Orleans county, N. Y.—the former aged 101 years, and the latter 99 years. Several died during the past year, and it is probable that one year more will close the list of the surviving heroes of that struggle which opened a new era upon the world.

SECRETARY SEWARD on Wednesday received the following telegram, addressed to him by Samuel E. May, Secretary of State of Oregon: "Salem, Dec. 12.—Oregon ratified the anti-slavery amendment to the Constitution of the United States yesterday. Glory be to God."

EQUALIZING BOUNTIES.

The men who fought and won the battles of the Government, and thus maintained it in power, have not been treated altogether fairly so far as bounties are concerned. The men who first enlisted feel that injustice has been done them, in the matter that, while they served long and faithfully without extra pay, others who went into the army after the hard fighting and marching were done, secured fortunes. The bill of Mr. Clarke, of Kansas, which is now before the House, proposes to equalize the bounties to soldiers, by providing for a uniform bounty of $100 per year, computing for the whole period of service, and counting of the whole term of enlistment. This measure is approved as one which will do full justice to all our fighting men, and we trust that it will become a law.

AN EXPERIMENT tried by an eminent physician of St. Petersburg, during the prevalence of the cholera there several years ago, serves to illustrate the influence of the mind upon the body. He obtained of the authorities two criminals who had been condemned to death, to do with them as he saw fit. One of these convicts was made to sleep in a bed in which, as he was told, a man died with the cholera but the night before—although such was not the fact.—After a restless night, the criminal was taken with all the symptoms of cholera, and died of that disease, declaring that he had caught it from that bed—a victim to his own fears. The other was made to sleep on a bed wherein a man had died a few hours previously of the fatal disease. This fact, however, was unknown to the occupant of the bed, who arose in the morning refreshed by his sleep, remaining in perfect health.

MISSISSIPPI HAVING once consented to the separation of West Virginia, now takes back her assent and demands a reunion.—In the meantime, West Virginia has become an Independent State, and has been recognized as such in Congress. Virginia is like the woman in the case reported a short time since, who obtained a divorce from her husband, and after he had married again, wanted the divorce annulled. She was informed as Virginia will be, that "people cannot play at divorce."

IT IS SAID that the Emperor Napoleon has addressed a letter direct to the Secretary of State, asking our Government to recognize the Empire of Maximilian as the Government de facto. The Secretary of State is engaged in preparing his reply.

GENERAL GRANT has issued an order to commanding officers of forts and other military posts to exercise great care in the preservation of the powder they may have under their charge.

CAPTAIN R. J. SEMPES, of the Alabama has been arrested, and is on his way to Washington.

A STAMMERING individual was once asked by an official where he got his letters. He answered: "Why in the P-p-post O-f-f-ice to be sure. Satisfactory."

THE WINTER session of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, will commence on the 14th of January next and will continue thirteen weeks.

OFFICIAL information has been received at Washington of the ratification of the constitutional amendment by Indiana, Georgia and Alabama.

BOOK-KEEPING taught in one lesson—don't lead them.

NEW HAVEN has five hundred bar-rooms.

IT IS SAID that two per cent, of all the fractional currency received at the Treasury is counterfeit.

AN INDIANA farmer, recently deceased, left by will a $1,000 ten forty bond to be applied to the extinguishment of the national debt. Were he alive, it would gratify him, probably, to know that his money would pay the interest on the debt for exactly two minutes.

THREE CHILDREN, a niece, son and daughter of Anthony Cook, residing at Burlington, Wisconsin, aged respectively 13, 9 and 8 years, were murdered on Sunday a week while the parents were at church. A man named Frahm has been arrested.

PROFESSIONAL CARD.—The physicians of this place announce in a card in to-day's paper that hereafter they will demand a settlement of all accounts at the expiration of every six months.

SALE BILLS.—Persons wanting sale bills printed should call at the Record Office, where the smallest to the largest size are executed with despatch, at a small advance on old prices.

BIG PORKERS.—One day this week Mr. Jacob G. Besore slaughtered a hog which weighed 478 1/2 pounds, and Mr. Geo. Portz one that weighed 400 pounds. If any of our friends can beat the weight of these hogs we would be pleased to hear from them.

CHRISTMAS comes on Monday next, and now is the time to make purchases of holiday presents, of which our town is abundantly supplied. As this festive season comes but once in a year let the hearts of all the "juvenile" be made glad.

MATRIMONY.—If Madam Rumor can be relied upon, the advent of cold weather is about to increase the number of weddings in Waynesboro' and vicinity. It will doubtless hasten many an old bachelor and old maid to rush into the arms of each other. There's nothing like matrimony! It softens crusty old bachelors, and sweetens sour old maids, amazingly.

FREE LECTURE.—Dr. Jennings, the great American Horse Tamer and veterinary Surgeon will give his second lecture in the Town Hall, on Anatomy and Physiology of the horse, on to-morrow (Saturday) evening. References—V. B. Gilbert, John Sellers, Abram Short, Jacob Williard and others.

BIG TREE.—A friend handed us the following for publication and vouches for the truthfulness of the statement:—Mr. Barnard Mann, of Manor township, Lancaster Co., recently chopped from a half tree of spanish oak 11 cords of wood, 14 cords of bark, 123 rails and 22 staves. The larger half yet remains to be worked up. This is certainly hard to beat in the timber line.

RAN OFF.—Some parents allow their boys to be on the streets all hours of the day and do whatever mischief they please. Of late there seems to be quite a mania among the youngsters for ball-playing in Main Street. Mr. John Walter's horse was frightened the other day by being struck with a ball and ran away breaking an axletree and otherwise damaging the wagon to which he was attached. The public streets are not fit places for such sport. Can our Borough Constable find time to measure this oval.

WESTERN VEGETABLES.—Mr. Solomon Stamy who removed to Iowa last spring informs us that he raised last season an Irish Potato, known there as the Quaker Russet, which weighed four pounds, a Sweet Potato 2 feet 6 inches in length, that he had 85 bushels of Irish Potatoes many of which weighed from two to three pounds. A neighbor of his, a Mr. Wrath, raised a Squash that weighed 160 pounds. Did we not know Mr. Stamy to be a man of truth we would be inclined to doubt the correctness of his statement. In point of productiveness our "truck patch" bears no comparison to Iowa lands. We succumb, Solomon, to both potatoes and squash.

MR. CHRISTOPHER GRAY, of Dookville, Me., has lived to the remarkable age of 103, being 103 the 23d day of September last past. He retains his faculties quite well, although his conversation and thoughts have reference exclusively to religious matters. He seems dead to all earthly business concerns.

A WEDDING.

At an early hour on Wednesday morning, a large array of persons including many of our beautiful young ladies and handsome young men, together with the particular friends of the bridal couple, assembled in the Methodist Church to witness a wedding. At 8 1/2 o'clock the party entered the church and took their position at the Altar, when the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. P. Thomas. The bride was Miss MOLLE CLAYTON, and the bridegroom Mr. JOHN B. HAMILTON; the bridesmaids were Miss Lizzie T. and Miss Kate B.; the groomsmen Messrs. F. J. W., and W. A. R. A soft mellow light pervaded the church which lent additional charms to the scene. Upon the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal couple repaired to their carriage in waiting, and started to take the P. M. train from Chambersburg for the East. May their future be bright and beautiful, their years passing serenely on "in peace and joyous bliss."

"Happy they, the happiest of their kind! Whom gentle stars unite, and in one fate Their hearts, their fortunes, and their beings blend." JENKINS.

DEFUNCT INSTITUTION.—Slavery is now virtually dead and buried, the requisite number of States having ratified the Constitutional amendment, which for all time excludes the black curse from every foot of soil over which the stars and stripes are to float. So much for treason against the constituted authority of a great and good government. What must be the feeling of southern traitors, who consummated in deeds of blood, this grand result? And what must be the chagrin of those in the North who sympathized with it if they did not aid and abet them? And the skulking vagabonds from the loyal states who joined their ranks, how ineffably contemptible, as double-dyed traitors, they must ever appear in the eyes of those who were true to their flag.

COURT.—Court commences at Chambersburg on the 15th of January next. The following are the Jurors selected from Washington and Quincey townships:

Grand Jurors.—Andrew Deater, Samuel Nichodenus, David Newcomer, Andrew Shauk, W. W. Walker. Traverse Jurors.—Lewis X. Boubake, Peter Benedict, A. Y. Dowd, Lewis Deatrich, Melchor Elden, John Heller, Sol. Newcomer, Oliver Seabrooks, Greenbury Whitmore, Geo. V. Mong. Second Week.—Henry Baer, D. M. Deatrich, Isaac Eker, Benjamin Funk, V. B. Gilbert, John Greenwalt, John Garver, Christian Hatcher, John Middour, David R. Miller, W. G. Smith, D. F. Stoner.

THIEVES.—We were under the impression that the "long fingered" gentry from the four quarters had settled in Quincey township; but such it appears is not the case, and we would advise those of our citizens whose poultry have so far escaped the clutches of this class of whitelivered "night walkers" to secure well their hen-coops. A number of roosts have recently been robbed in different parts of our Borough.

NEW STYLE.—The ladies, says an exchange, are fast discarding the "Waterfall" mode of dressing the hair, and adopting the new fashion, which consists of coiling the hair behind, in much the same manner as a snake coils itself up preparatory to the "dormant" season. It requires considerable ingenuity to dress the hair in this fashion; a "puff" three quarters of a yard long being used, round which the hair is twisted, cable fashion, and then rolled up like a huge tail. These coils are already reaching alarming dimensions, eight inches in diameter being the average at present.

INFAMOUS TRAITORS.—The Senate of Tennessee lately adopted a resolution—ayes 15, noes 3—declaring Jefferson Davis, J. M. Mason, R. M. T. Hunter, Robert Toombs, Howell Cobb, Judah P. Benjamin, John Shiloh, Robert E. Lee, James Buchanan, and John C. Breckinridge, to be infamous traitors, worthy of death and not fit objects of national clemency. We infer from this that the Senate of Tennessee is nearer a healthy reconstruction than any other legislature body at the South.

IMPORTATION OF CATTLE.—The following is the act just passed by Congress to prohibit the importation of cattle:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled: That the importation of cattle be and hereby is prohibited. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make such regulations as will give this law full and immediate effect, and to send copies of them to the proper officers in this country and to all officers or agents of the United States in foreign countries.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That when the President shall give thirty days' notice by proclamation that no further danger is to be apprehended from the spread of foreign infectious or contagious diseases among cattle, this law shall be of no force, and cattle may be imported in the same way as before its passage.

Passed the House of Representatives, Dec. 11, 1865. Attest: EDWARD McPHERSON, Clerk. Edwin Forrest has taken steps to be remarried to his former wife. She some time since procured a decree of divorce, and a large allowance out of her husband's estate, but he has recently taken an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, to have the decree annulled. The effect of the reversal of the judgment of the Court below would, of course, be to re-unite the parties in the "holy bonds of wedlock."

FREEDOM.

UNIVERSAL—COMPLETE.

"Proclaim Liberty Throughout the Land and Unto All the Inhabitants thereof." Washington Dec. 18, 1865.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State of the United States:

To all to whom these presents may come, greeting: Know YE, That whereas the Congress of the United States, on the first of February last passed a resolution which is in the words following, namely:

"A resolution submitting to the Legislatures of the several States a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States."

"Resolve by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when, ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the said Constitution, namely:

"ARTICLE XIII Section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction."

"Sec. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

And whereas it appears from official documents on file in this department that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed as aforesaid, has been ratified by the Legislatures of the States of Illinois, Rhode Island, Michigan, Maryland, New York, West Virginia, Maine, Kansas, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Nevada, Indiana, Louisiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Tennessee, Arkansas, Connecticut, and Georgia—in all 27 States;

And whereas, The whole number of States in the United States is thirty-six. And whereas, The before specially named States, whose Legislatures have ratified the said proposed amendment, constitute three-fourths of the whole number of States in the United States;

Now, therefore, be it known that I William H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States by virtue, and in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress approved the twentieth day of April, 1818: "An act to provide for the publication of the laws of the United States, and for other purposes," do hereby certify that the amendment aforesaid has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Department of State to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this 18th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1865, and of Independence of the United States of America the ninetyeth.

Wm. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State. Inauguration of Gov. Jenkins. Governor Jenkins was inaugurated at noon to-day.

In his address to the Legislature he said, there is no conflict between the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Georgia, and the laws of the United States are supreme. He passed a handsome tribute to the good conduct of the negroes during the war, and says they must be thoroughly protected in their persons and property—have the right to enter the Courts and should be encouraged to work, and will then be the best working classes, and their land owners the best employers in the world. He reviews the condition of the State institutions, and says even light taxes will be burdensome, but thinks the people will not suffer, and concludes with the words "God help us all."

Provisional Governor Johnson then tendered the oath to Mr. Jenkins, who was then declared by the President of the Senate to be Governor of Georgia.

A SINGULAR CASE.—About fifty-six years ago, a young gentleman and lady formed an association as young people often do, and it was supposed by the friends that it would terminate in matrimony. But for some reason best known to the parties, the association was dissolved, and they separated. The young man subsequently married and lost three wives, the last one within the last eight or nine months. The young lady married, and lived with her husband over fifty-three years, and raised a numerous family. During the last year her husband died. The lady remained a widow about eleven months when her former suitor made an advance to her, he being about 75 years old, and the lady 71—and they were married.—The parties are living in the vicinity of Lynn P. O., Susquehanna co., Pa., and the gentleman gave his consent to the publication of this notice.—Montrose Republican.

The Germans in Missouri are inviting their friends in the Fatherland to come over and take up the unoccupied lands in that State, which yet belong to the Government. It is said there are over six millions of acres of these lands yet to be had at one dollar and a quarter an acre, and much of it is very good. Some of the Germans are already on their way, and it is expected that a large increase of the population of Missouri will result from this movement.

A NOBLE CHARITY.—Dr. A. G. Egbert, of Mercer county, Pa., who has realized a large fortune from oil lands, recently made the following generous proposals to the Northern Home for Friendless Children:—The doctor will donate 200 acres, near the town of Mercer, and erect thereon buildings to cost not less than $100,000, and capable of accommodating from 400 to 500 children. The benefits of the institution are to accrue to all friendless children, but especially to the orphans of soldiers and sailors. Mr. Watson, an additional Mercer county, will contribute also of Mercer county, and Phil Ledger. California ratified the constitutional amendment on Monday.
