

VILLAGE RECORD.
WAYNESBORO,
Friday, January 26, 1866.

PUBLIC SALES.—We invite special attention to the sales of valuable personal property advertised through the columns of the Record, which occur as follows:—

J. H. Miller, Saturday, January 27th.
David M. Stover, Wednesday, January 31st.
B. E. Ryder, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 30th and 31st.
Jacob Bonebrake, Thursday, February 1st.
J. H. Clayton, Thursday, Feb. 28th.
John Stouffer, February 10th.
John Price, Jr., Tuesday, February 13th.
Daniel Royer, February 15th.
A. S. Mann, Monday and Tuesday, February 19th and 20th.
Henry Baer, Tuesday, February 20th.
Fred. H. Foreman, February 22nd.

We are under obligations to the Hon. David M. Conant, of the State Senate, for valuable public documents.

The Union State Convention, to nominate a candidate for Governor, will hold its session in Harrisburg on Wednesday, the 7th of March.

Governor Curtin and family arrived at Harrisburg on Friday evening last. He was enthusiastically received by the people, and, as he approached the Capitol, he was greeted with a salute of cannon.

There was no Thanksgiving day in the South. The surly rebels say they have nothing to be thankful for and are much more disposed to find fault with the Almighty than to praise Him. They forget that they have escaped from the halter. Is not that something to be grateful for?

M'CONAUGHY ADMITTED.—D. M'Conaughy, Esq., has obtained his seat in the Senate of this State, and Mr. Duncan has retired.

On Tuesday night of last week, the argument was made before the Committee, by Mr. M'Conaughy and Mr. Kunkle for the contestant (Mr. Mc.) and by Judge Kimmel and Mr. Sharpe for the sitting member (Mr. Duncan.) On Wednesday night the Committee adopted a Report, rejecting the Deserter votes (93) and finding Mr. Mc's majority to be 68, and awarding him the seat.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN THE DISTRICT.—On Thursday last, the House of Representatives of the United States passed resolutions that the colored population of the District shall have the right of suffrage. The vote astonished every one, and the applause was almost deafening. It was ayes 116 to nays 54—a majority of 62! It is thought it will pass the Senate. There is some speculation whether the President will approve. There is strength enough, it is supposed, to pass it against the vote, should that power be exercised.

"THE LAND OF THE FREE."—What a burlesque it has been (says the Lebanon Courier) for us in this country to sing of our country as "the land of the free" while four millions of human beings were clanking the chains of slavery on our soil! How that "peculiar institution" has made us belie our professions, and in the face of the world has covered us as with a mantle of hypocrisy!—In our birth as a nation we declare all people to be born free, and by right entitled to Liberty, yet we have had a system of slavery the most crushing to its victims that human agency has ever framed; we adopted institutions of Government that pretended to rest on the assent of the people, yet we have made those institutions theegis of the most galling servitude; we have, in our national jubilees, made the air almost heavy with the burden of our denunciations against monarchical oppression, and yet no monarchy in existence has ground its victims to the earth as we have done to a race of people born and reared on our soil.

But our professions are no longer a "haunting lie." The Constitution of our country now declares that the oppressed shall go free, and that "neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction."—Thus has the war taken this foul blot of slavery from our national escutcheon. We have come up from the condition of national bondage through the Red Sea, but if we are true to the spirit that carried us through our great trials, we shall establish institutions here that will irresistibly, yet gently, influence the governments of the world. In the new life that is upon us it is infidelity and treason to Liberty to falter in perfecting the work. Henceforth we want no conservation of wrong, no compromising with evil, but a radical and stern adherence to the principles which underlie our governmental structure.

The rebel Jubal Early arrived in Vera Cruz about the close of December, accompanied by several rebel friends. It is understood that he will leave for the city of Mexico. He has died his hair and beard black. He rode all the way through the Southern States from his place of concealment in Western Virginia.

William Sprague, the Rhode Island Senator, and his brother, Amasa Sprague, employ six thousand hands at their manufacturing establishment.

HOMER REBEL IMPUDENCE.—From a very able article on the suffrage question, and the Registry Law, in Maryland, in that sterling loyal paper, the Baltimore American, we extract the following:

"Returned Rebel soldiers walk our streets in greasy uniforms, and infest the skating ponds, with light headed females clustering around them like flies around a sugar hog-head. The windows of Rebel shop keepers are filled with portraits of Lee, Davis, Jackson and Beauregard, Jeb. Stuart, and other worthies of the infamous rebellion, and no effort is spared by their adulators and partisans to make apparent the fact that they are just as defiant as ever. As long as they see fit to indulge in that sort of pastime, we may profitably keep them on probation. The repeal of the Registry law can await the decision of the people as the general question of suffrage, and if no other disabilities are to be removed but those which spring from disloyalty, we had better not remove any."

A bill will be introduced in the legislature this winter, providing for an increase of the fees of jurors and witnesses. This is right. The salaries of nearly all our officeholders—National, State and County—have been materially increased within the last three years; and it is altogether wrong to compel our farmers and mechanics to repair involuntarily to their county-town or elsewhere, as jurors or witnesses, without even sufficient remuneration to pay their hotel bills.

Over five hundred original Union men of Alabama, noted for their unswerving fidelity to the national cause, have forwarded a petition to Washington, setting forth that they are proscribed in that State as "traitors to the South," recounting the continued bitterness and violence of the men recently in arms against the Government, and deprecating the withdrawal of the Federal troops from that State.

MARRIED.—The marriage of Major Robert Williams, U. S. A., to Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas, took place at 9 o'clock, in Washington, on Tuesday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Lynch of the Catholic Church.

The Paymaster General has reported that to pay all soldiers a bounty equal to the highest paid (400 each) in proportion to the term of service, would require the sum of $550,000,000. Speculators have been buying up claims with a view to a big haul out of this sum.

The new fifty-cent note has just been issued by the Printing Bureau of the Treasury Department. The new issue is similar to the old one in size, and differs from it only in the substitution of a finely-engraved picture of Gen. Spinner in place of ex-Secretary Fessenden, and slightly in its typographical appearance.

Benjamin Finney, a wealthy farmer at Rockport, Ill., was recently poisoned to death with strychnine, by his fifth wife, a pretty girl, whom he married six weeks ago.

Brigham Young is the reputed father of 245 children, of whom 32 are dead. The surviving balance of 213 consists of 85 boys and 128 girls.

A petition for the speedy trial of Jeff. Davis has been sent to Washington, signed by 20,000 citizens of Indiana, headed by the Governor and State officers.

A little boy, five years old, was carried off by eagles, while playing in the woods near Mayesville, Mo., last October. His body was found some time after with nearly all the flesh picked from the bones.

In Walworth county, Wisconsin, on the 5th, three men entered the house of a man who had just sold his farm for $3,000, and, finding the farmer absent, murdered his wife and child, and proceeded to ransack the building. While thus engaged, a person living near by, hearing suspicious noises, went to the house, saw what had been done, and shot all three of the assassins—killing one, and mortally wounding the others.

A stopper in Marengo, New York, lately crowned a long series of shocking abuses perpetrated upon a boy six years old, by locking him in the house and absenting himself for three days. When she returned, with her husband, the boy was dead. The neighbors went in and found the little creature lying on his heap of rags, nearly naked, and frozen quite stiff.

The first battle of the war, Manassas, was fought on the land of Mr. Andrew McLane, in the county of Fairfax, Va., and the virtual termination of the struggle took place in the same gentleman's house, in the county of Appomattox, where the terms of surrender were formally drawn up and ratified by Generals Lee and Grant.

The Western papers are complaining that it costs three bushels of corn to send one to market a distance of 100 miles; 100 bushels to get a pair of boots; 1,000 bushels to get a suit of clothes, and two tons of corn for a ton of coal.

Four hundred filibusters, under Colonel Reed, recently crossed the Rio Grande from the American side and captured Bagdad, Mexico, taking prisoners the imperial garrison of 150 men.

A memorial to Congress, said to have been originally drawn up in New England, is quickly circulating throughout the country for the impeachment of President Johnson.

Maximilian's wife, by the death of her father, the late King Leopold, of Belgium, falls heir to $5,000,000,—the one-third of his private fortune.

Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas is soon to be married to Major Robert Williams, U. S. A., and Assistant Adjutant General on the regular staff.

LOCAL ITEMS.

NOTICE.—See notice of G. & J. Bender in another column.

CROWDED.—The reader will excuse the crowded state of our advertising columns, which will continue for a few weeks only.

SALES.—Several more sales of valuable personal property will be found in to-day's paper, to which we direct special attention.

FISH, ETC.—Messrs. Hostetter, Reid & Co., are again in receipt of fresh fish, oysters, etc.

SLEIGHING.—Snow continued to fall here during Tuesday and Wednesday last. The weather continues moderate and sleighing fine.

POCKET BOOK LOST.—Was lost in this place on Wednesday evening last a morocco pocket book containing about $100 and several receipts. The finder will learn the owner by applying at this office by whom he will be liberally rewarded.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Our citizens are reminded that another temperance meeting will be held this (Friday) evening, in the Methodist Church, commencing at 6 o'clock. All are invited to be present.

LECTURE.—A lecture upon "Temperance" will be delivered by the Rev. Jacob S. McMurray, Grand D. Temple of the State of Pennsylvania, in the M. E. Church, Tuesday evening, Feb. 6th. Admission free.

NEW FIRM.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Jacob Adams, of this place, has associated with him in the carriage-making business, George B. Hawker. Both good mechanics and clever men, they deserve to be liberally patronized.

DRESS CUTTING.—We direct the attention of the ladies generally, to the advertisement of Mrs. C. L. Hollinberger, in to-day's paper. Her new system of dress cutting is very favorably spoken of by those acquainted with it.

IN TROUBLE.—Two of the Police officers in this place have been arrested and bound over for their appearance at Court upon alleged assault and battery. A short time since, a returned soldier of the vicinity of Waynesboro', was arrested by them, put in the Lock-up, and afterwards required to pay a fine of $5. The soldier claims that he was arrested without cause—hence the trouble.

The circulation of the Record in this and Quincy townships largely exceed that of all the other county papers combined, and is therefore the best advertising medium.—Those having real or personal property to dispose of will please bear this fact in mind. Besides, our rates for bill printing and advertising are less than any other paper published in the county.

PIKEVILLE.—We are pleased to learn that the citizens of this village are now making an effort to secure a Post Office. Their present situation is certainly very inconvenient. They have over three miles to the post office in this place, and those beyond them as much as five and six miles. The mail from Hagerstown to Gettysburg passes there three times a week, so but little if any extra expense to the Department would be incurred.

BANK ELECTION.—The Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Waynesboro' were re-elected on the 16th inst., to serve the ensuing year. The board are:—

W. S. Amberson, Geo. Besore, Alex. Hamilton, John Price, Samuel Frantz, Jas. H. Clayton, Daniel Mickle, Geo. Jacobs, Henry Good. At a meeting of the Directors W. S. Amberson, Esq., was re-elected President, and John Phillips, Esq., Cashier.

DIPHTHERIA.—This disease has been prevailing in our neighborhood for some time, and in some instances with the most fatal effects. Mr. Benjamin Funk recently buried three out of a family of four children, and at last accounts the fourth was prostrated with the disease.

REMARKABLE OCCURENCE.—The Newville Star of the Valley says that William Hutton, a young man residing in Shippensburg, one day last week, vomited a live snake about 18 inches long and half inch thick! He swallowed it while drinking from a pool in Idaho, about four months ago, and has suffered great distress in his stomach ever since, complaining especially of a sensation of coldness. He returned to his home in Shippensburg, expecting soon to die. After undergoing an unsuccessful treatment by a great many medical men, he stated his case to a physician in Philadelphia, who prescribed an emetic, which was taken, with the above result. It came near strangling him, and before he was relieved, he was black in the face.

None of the colored troops now on duty in Texas are to be mustered out. It seems, therefore, that the services of black men are necessary to keep white traitors peaceable in that region.

Mr. George Love, of Athens, Harrison county, Ohio, has been expelled from church for voting for Vallandigham.

The Mobile (Ala.) Register has nominated General Grant as a candidate for President in 1868.

MRS. GRINDER.

Execution of the Pittsburg Poisoner in that City on Friday.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19, 1866.—Justice has taken its course, and Mrs. Grider is no more. Last evening she was still in good spirits, and ate a hearty supper. Reva, Messrs. Holmes and Sensesbaugh were with her until early this morning—one of the other being constantly in her cell. At 11 P. M. she took lunch, and did not go to bed until three from which time until eleven she slept soundly. After the ministers of the gospel had retired two female attendants entered her apartment and remained with her, for the purpose of frustrating any attempt she might make on her life. This she declared useless, saying, "were the means at hand whereby I could put an end to myself, I am so much resigned to my fate, that I would not anticipate the workings of the law." She awoke fresh and vigorous and ate her breakfast, which she seemingly greatly enjoyed. The Rev. Mr. Holmes visited her at half-past seven, and prayed with her until half-past eight. Mr. Sensesbaugh also visited her.—The condemned woman joined with emotion and fervor in the prayers. Yesterday she desired that a white Swiss dress, or a dark delaine should be brought to her, in which she might be executed. The delaine was procured for her. She also desired white stockings, and calmly directed as to the dressing of her hair, mentioning the style in which she preferred it. The Rev. Mr. Dermott, of the Ames-street Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was formerly a member, also visited and prayed with her yesterday. Her two spiritual advisers spent the entire morning with her in prayer and singing. This morning, at her request, her counsel, Mr. Marshall, visited her. To him she said, "Oh, Mr. Marshall, I am a great, great sinner, but Christ is a great, great Saviour! I would rather have died another death, but this is all right." At half-past eleven she was engaged in dressing, and at ten minutes past one Sheriff Steward entered her cell. She said to him, "You are coming after me!" The sheriff replied, kindly, that he was. She replied, "Jesus Christ is coming for me too." Resting on the arm of the Rev. Mr. Holmes, she descended the two long flights of the prison stairs. She was dressed in a brown delaine with tight neck and sleeves, and a lace collar coming partly down the front of her dress. Her hair was combed plainly back and tied in a knot behind. On her way to the gallows she seemed not in the least dejected. On arriving at that dread instrument of death, and having ascended the steps, she said to Mr. Marshall, "I am content to go, I trust." To Mr. Cleary she said, "I have full confidence that when this trap on which I now stand falls I shall be in Heaven." She then took leave of her spiritual advisers, the sheriff, the deputy and the prison-warden. A wooden-twine was then tied around the bottom part of her dress, just above the ankles, and the cap placed over her head. Her arms had been pinioned in her cell. At a quarter past one the drop fell. Her neck was broken. She could not have suffered much. Her body was cut down in thirty minutes, and will be buried by the county at Hilldale Cemetery, her husband having said that he is too poor to do so. He took leave of her yesterday. The interview was not so touching as were those of a few days ago. Yesterday she made the following confession:

"PITTSBURG, Jan. 18, 1866.—In view of my departure, in a few hours, from earth, I want to say that I acknowledge my guilt in the case of Mrs. Caruthers, and also, in the case of Miss Buchanan; but I am innocent of all other charges made against me in the papers for poisoning. But, bad as I am, I feel that God for Christ's sake, has forgiven me, and through his mercy, I hope to find an entrance into Heaven. I did without any hard feelings to any one, forgiving all, as I hope to be forgiven. Mr. Stewart has been very kind to me, doing all he could in his power to make me comfortable, and I pray that he may be assisted in his duty, and rewarded for his kindness. Mr. White has also been very kind to me, and has treated me with respect always. May God be good to him. If I had been faithful to my church duties, it would have been different with me now; but I am thankful that God is so good as to return to me, now that I do try to come back to Him.

"MARTIA GRINDER, merk.

"Witness: G. A. Holmes, H. Sensesbaugh."

After six days' session of a religious "protracted meeting," in Marion city, Marion county, Missouri, one of the officials of the township sent a writ for the arrest of George W. Robey, the presiding elder, for not having taken the oath of allegiance. The writ was served, and the minister was taken before the justice who issued the writ, and was bound over in the sum of $1,500 to appear at the next term of the circuit court.

Thirteen men were hung in different parts of the country on Friday, the 12th instant, and hundreds are awaiting trial for the same crime.

It is asserted that the condition and persecution of Union men, in some parts of the South, are infinitely worse now than at the height of the rebel rule.

Ashland, the homestead of Henry Clay, was sold on Friday last, by the widow of James B. Clay, for $90,000. It is said the Agricultural College of Kentucky will be located on this property.

Gen. Grant has removed the furniture presented to him by the people of Philadelphia from his residence in that city, to a mansion in Washington, where he will hereafter permanently reside. His house is to be in what is known as the "Doug-a-Row."

Mrs. Mary Williams died at White House, N. J., in the 106 year of her age, on the 28th December. She had never been sick in her life, until a few weeks before her death.

Libby prison is now a grocery store.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET, Jan. 22.—The arrivals and sales of Beef Cattle at the Avenue Drive Yard reached about 2,300 head this week. The market continues dull and prices are rather low. Extra Penna. and Western Steers are selling at 16@17c; fair to good at 14@15c; and common at 10@13c. The market closed very dull with in the above range of prices. RARE CHANCE FOR LADIES!

MRS. C. L. HOLLINBERGER
TRACHER OF Practical Dress Cutting!

By which every lady is enabled to cut and fit her own dresses.

Grounds of Economy.

There is no waste of material in cutting by this system, as you adhere closely to the rule, consequently there is no peering off, as under the old system of cutting. The ease with which it is acquired, combined with the perfection of the system, renders it the most desirable ever offered to the public.

This is a rare chance for young ladies. Agents can realize in this business from $200 to $250 per month.

Ladies are invited to call on the subscriber at her Millinery Store in Waynesboro', Pa., and examine the system for themselves. No charges for instructions unless fully satisfactory to the pupil.

NEW FIRM!

CARRIAGE MAKING!

THE subscribers would inform the public that they have associated themselves together in the Carriage making business, and that the business hereafter will be continued at Jacob Adams' old stand under the firm of ADAMS & HAWKER. They will have constantly on hand BUGGIES of every description; new and second-hand Vehicles of all kinds.

Repairing done at short notice.

They employ none but good mechanics and use the best material. Persons wanting anything in our line will do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.
