

VILLAGE RECORD.

WYNEBORO. Friday, February 2, 1866.

ADVERTISE! ADVERTISE!—The circulation of the RECORD in this region, including the townships of Washington and Quincy, largely exceeds that of any other paper published in the county. It is therefore the best advertising medium.

PUBLIC SALES.—We invite special attention to the sales of valuable personal property advertised through the columns of the RECORD, which occur as follows:

J. H. Claybark, Thursday, Feb. 8th. John Stouffer, February 10th. John Price, Jr., Tuesday, February 13th. Daniel Royer, February 15th.

Henry Baer, Tuesday, February 20th. Fred. Foreman, February 22nd. Wm. Row, Friday, February 23d. David Conley, Saturday, February 24th. Jacob J. Sessler, Tuesday Feb. 27.

TRIAL OF DAVIS.—A Washington despatch to the Tribune says: "Rumors, with more than the ordinary foundation for sensation reports, are rife that Jeff Davis is to be speedily brought to trial before a military commission."

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.—The message of Governor Curtin was received in the House, at Harrisburg, on Tuesday. It contains much that is interesting in regard to the late war and the duties it has imposed upon us.

It is well-known that iron are killed by steam in Chicago. A great iron claw, with five fingers, hooks onto the pigs which are quarreling in the pen below, and lifts them to a gibbet near by, and then plunges them into scalding water.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Another responsibility since our last issue. Delinquents, pay up! Acknowledgments.—We have no acknowledgments to make of money received since our last issue.

NOT ABOUT.—The man with the "white hat" and the one with the "big feet," owing to the Police, or some other cause, have not made their appearance for several days.

P. O. RE-ESTABLISHED.—A Post Office has been re-established at Fayetteville, in this county, and Upton J. Cook appointed Postmaster.

BOBBERY.—On Sunday night last the shoemaker shop of Mr. Valentine Kriner, of this vicinity, was entered through one of the windows and seven pairs of shoes and a gun stolen therefrom.

DRUG STORE.—One afternoon last week a black silk dress was taken by a woman, out of the house of Mr. Jos. Bender, in this place.

LOST POCKET BOOK.—The finder of the lost pocket-book containing about $100 has not yet made his appearance at this office.

TO GUNNERS.—The gunning season being now past, any person killing a partridge, rabbit, &c., subjects himself to a fine of five dollars for each one killed.

APPLES, UGLY GIRLS, EGGS, SMALL WATERFALLS, RICH PRINTERS AND TURKEYS, seem to be scarce.

THE VALLEY SPIRIT says General John W. Geary, who participated in many hard fought battles of the late war, and who is spoken of as the next Union candidate for Governor in this State, is "an arrant humbug in every respect."

SLEIGHING.—The sleighing season continues and is being well improved by those who can afford to enjoy its pleasures.

LIQUOR PROSEC.—We understand fair prices so far are being realized for stock, &c., at the sales this spring.

POLICE QUESTION.—Because we took exception to the action of the Borough Council in their appointment of three Police officers we are charged in certain quarters with favoring disorder on our streets after nightfall.

GETTYSBURG RAILROAD.—The United States Railroad and Mining Register contains the following: "Mr. Chase, the now President of the Gettysburg railroad, was President of the Reading and Columbia railroad until the 9th inst."

It is said that Dr. Holland has been offered $20,000 by his "Life of Abraham Lincoln."

85 murders were committed last Christmas day.

Edward Ketchum, the great forger is now safely lodged in Sing Sing prison, where he is learning the shoemaker's trade.

Frederika Bremer, the Swedish authoress, is dead.

The women don't feel as the Southern Confederacy did they don't want to be "let alone."

A man in Elkton, Md., last week, bats that he can eat three geese, weighing thirteen pounds each, inside of twelve hours.
