

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, March 2, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

The following are our terms for subscription advertising and job work, to which we will strictly adhere...

PUBLIC SALES.—We invite special attention to the sales of valuable personal property advertised through the columns of the Record...

OUTSIDER.—The Committee on Elections of the House of Representatives, have decided that Col. H. D. Washburne is entitled to the seat...

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.—The rebel hostility to the operations of the freedmen's bureau, which has been gratified by the recent veto...

RAILROAD CASE.—The Philadelphia Press states that the great Railroad case, which had been pending for several weeks, was decided on Monday last...

General Grant had a purse of one hundred thousand dollars presented to him on Tuesday, by his friends in New York. The same day, while examining a new firearm, it exploded, wounding him in the left hand...

A Louisville paper says that there is an old man, upward of ninety years of age, residing in the neighborhood of Knoxville, Tennessee, who is known by the name of "Grandpa Davis"...

Mr. Glenn W. Scofield, member of Congress from the Warren district grandly said: "That if Andrew Johnson lost his balance and fell from the lofty column of American Liberty, he would be left a shapeless mass at the base of his great office, but the column itself would stand as firm and as long as the everlasting hills."

Governor Fenton, of New York, is understood to disapprove strongly of the President's veto message. He believes it to be an unfortunate act, and fraught with dangerous consequences.

Five years ago a man in the Ohio State Prison succeeded in making his escape. A few days ago he returned and expressed a desire to serve out his term. The only explanation given is that while out of prison he got married.

It is better to love a person you cannot marry, than to marry a person you cannot love. This is a short text for a long sermon, which human experience will continue to preach until the last syllable of recorded time.

AGAINST THE VETO.—Both Houses of the Missouri Legislature have passed the following resolutions, under a suspension of the rules: Resolved, That the conflict which has existed for the last five years, between loyalty and disloyalty, is still pending...

A Washington despatch to the Philadelphia Press says:—Major General Howard continues to receive advices from his assistants in the Southern States, who confirm the general impression that the reconstructed rebels daily commit outrages upon the loyalists and freedmen of that benighted section...

A LARGE FAMILY.—Mrs. Catharine Saylor died at her residence in Berks county, a few days ago, at the advanced age of ninety-eight years. She had living, at the time of her death, ten children, sixty-five grand children, one hundred and seventy-one great-grand-children, and twenty-five great-great-grand-children...

The Philadelphia Press states that the great Railroad case, which had been pending for several weeks, was decided on Monday last. This decision will prevent the Atlantic and great Western railroad from forming their proposed line through this State by a combination of existing roads and the construction of new railways authorized by existing charters...

General Grant had a purse of one hundred thousand dollars presented to him on Tuesday, by his friends in New York. The same day, while examining a new firearm, it exploded, wounding him in the left hand, but not seriously or as to make him incapable of attending to business.

A Louisville paper says that there is an old man, upward of ninety years of age, residing in the neighborhood of Knoxville, Tennessee, who is known by the name of "Grandpa Davis." His wife has given birth to twenty-nine children, twenty-eight of whom are living. They furnished the Union army in the late war with twenty-five recruits.

Mr. Glenn W. Scofield, member of Congress from the Warren district grandly said: "That if Andrew Johnson lost his balance and fell from the lofty column of American Liberty, he would be left a shapeless mass at the base of his great office, but the column itself would stand as firm and as long as the everlasting hills."

Governor Fenton, of New York, is understood to disapprove strongly of the President's veto message. He believes it to be an unfortunate act, and fraught with dangerous consequences.

Five years ago a man in the Ohio State Prison succeeded in making his escape. A few days ago he returned and expressed a desire to serve out his term. The only explanation given is that while out of prison he got married.

It is better to love a person you cannot marry, than to marry a person you cannot love. This is a short text for a long sermon, which human experience will continue to preach until the last syllable of recorded time.

A fat man in Paris recently sold his body to the surgeons for 1,200 francs, went on a spree with his money, died from the effects of it, and was immediately cut up according to contract.

A Southern paper says that the greatest Southern victory that has been achieved since the battle of Bull Run was the capture of President Johnson.

Moses Heard, of South Thomaston, Me., is 74 years of age, has not drunk a drop of liquor since he was three years old, and has risen before the sun every morning for forty years.

A man named Roy, 102 years of age, was chopping wood, last week, near Watertown Junction, Wis., by way of recreation.

The first army wagon used by the national army in the war against the rebellion has been preserved, and will figure in the World's Exhibition at Paris, next year.

LOCAL MATTERS.

APPROACHING.—As the first of April is approaching we would, in advance, inform those patrons who are in arrears for a number of years subscription that we expect them to "square accounts" in the meantime...

"R. E. O." is informed that his article on Temperance will appear in our next issue.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $5 from Dr. John McCush, Mt. Morris, Ill.

MR. EDITOR:—Although your correspondent has been a constant reader of the Record, he is not (for private reasons) as much interested in the proposed extension of the Gettysburg Railroad to your place as many others, but at the same time is not insensible of the great pecuniary benefits which would naturally flow, with the consummation of the proposed enterprise, to citizens inhabiting the most wealthy and populous sections of Franklin and Washington counties...

The proposition on the part of the Gettysburg company, as I understand it, seems to be fair and generous. They propose to extend the road as far as your town, if the sum of $150,000 in stock can be secured along the route. This proposition has been made public and the matter agitated for the last two or three months through the columns of your paper.

The project should not be permitted to go to the ground for lack of disinterest and liberality in Franklin and Adams, for I doubt not some at least among your neighbors across the line would be willing in an emergency to lend a helping hand.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the people proceeded en masse to the Presidential Mansion where the resolutions were presented to the President, who responded in a speech of an hour's duration, in which he characterized the radicals in Congress as the leaders of a second rebellion, and denounced Thad. Stevens, Wendell Phillips and Charles Sumner as traitors.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The mass meeting held yesterday to sustain the President lasted from noon to four o'clock. Grover's theatre inside was densely packed and the streets without, where stands for speaking were erected, were equally crowded.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The total war debt of the loyal States, except California, Oregon and Nevada, on account of men furnished the Union Armies, exclusive of the amounts raised by State taxation or by individuals, is estimated at not less than $475,000,000.

The Cattle Scourge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest, and that all attempts to check its progress by vaccination of the cattle has proved an entire failure...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The United States consular agent at Manchester, England, under date of February 2, 1866, informs the Department of State that there is no perceptible abatement in the ravages of the rinderpest...

MURDERER HANGED.

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter. Moore was tried and sentenced to six years' imprisonment, but was afterwards pardoned...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

The reader doubtless will remember the tragedy committed in Johnston, some two years ago, when a man named Marbourg was killed by Joseph Moore, for improper intimacy with the wife of the latter...

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

An exchange says: A doctor being called to visit a family in the suburbs, where children and rheumatism abounded, inquired of the old lady if the complaint was hereditary. The good woman, who was a little deaf, replied with some warmth that none of their fathers was red-headed. The doctor explained.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

LADIES' FURS! LADIES' FURS! Our Fall Stock of Ladies' FURS comprising all kinds, qualities and shapes for Ladies and Children are now open for inspection...

UPDEGRAFF'S Hat Manufactory, Opposite Washington House. UPDEGRAFF'S Glove Factory and Fur Store, Opposite Washington House.

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!

SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH! Wheaton's Ointment Will Cure the Itch in 48 Hours. Also cures: SALT RHEUM, ULCERS, CHILBLAINS, and all ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN.

THE ATLAS.

On the 22nd ult., by the Rev. W. E. Krebs, Mr. JOHN A. KEFNER, of Quincy, to Miss MARTHA JANE McCLEARY, of Quincy township.

On the 1st inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by the same, Mr. JOSEPH E. EMBERT, to Miss SUE R. McPHERREN, both of this place.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. LEWIS E. STULL, of Mechanicsville, Md., to Miss SUSAN M. BECKNER, of Quincy, Pa.

THE TOMB.

In Quincy township, on the 14th ult., Mr. JACOB BONERAKE, aged 48 years, 10 months and 16 days.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, February 27.—There is very little export demand for Flour, and prices are unchanged; low grades can only be disposed of at very low prices, about 1,400 bbls North-west family sold at $8.25@9.00 bbl—the latter rate for choice. The retailers and bakers are buying at from $6.25@7.00 for superfine; $7.00@7.50 for extra; $8.50@10.00 for North-west extra family; $8.50@10.00 for Penna and Ohio do, and $11@12.50 bbl for fancy brands, according to quality. Rye Flour is dull; 100 bbls sold at $4.75 bbl. Corn Meal is dull, and we hear of no sales.

GRAIN.—In Wheat there is no change to notice in price or demand; small sales of reds are making at $1.90@2.10 bus for common to fair; $2.15@2.13 for good, and $2.20@2.25 bus for prime; white ranges from $2.25@2.55 bus as to quality. Rye is dull; small sales are making at 80c bus. Corn is more active, and prices 2@3c bus higher, 5,000 bus prime yellow sold at 70c, and 10,000 bus in the elevator on terms kept private. Oats are in steady demand, with sales at 47c bus.

SEEDS.—Cloverseed is dull and lower; 500 bus sold at $3 for prime Timothy seeds in a small way at $4@4.25 bus. Flaxseed sells at from $2.80@2.90 bus.

Waynesboro' Market.

Corrected Weekly by HOSSETTER, REID & CO. WAYNESBORO', March 24, 1866.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes BUTTER, EGGS, SOAP, RAGS, OLD PAPER, TALLOW, FEATHERS, RED CLOVER, CLOVERSEED.

FRESH LIME.

The subscriber would inform his customers and the public generally, that they can be supplied with a superior article of Wood burnt Lime for Whitewashing, Plastering, &c., and after the 2nd of March, 1866, at his well-known Kiln, three miles East of Waynesboro'.

PRIVATE SALE.

The subscriber will sell at Private Sale twenty acres of land, more or less, adjoining Mr. Joe Garrow, Mr. Jos. Rohrer, and others, on the road leading from Smithburg, Washington County Md., to Waynesboro', Franklin County, Pa., one and a half miles from the former and five from the latter place.

A ONE-STORY BRICK HOUSE.

with six Rooms and Kitchen, Cellar, Stone Spring-House, Smoke and Bake House, with one of the most desirable springs in the county, within sixty feet of the kitchen door, a Wood House, Hot Pan, and Corn Crib. There is also one of the most complete Barn and Stabling on this property all in good order.

FRUIT.—Such as Apples, Peaches, and Grapes.

The land is divided into five enclosures. There is on this property a light water power, which could be applied with very little expense to run small machinery, say five or six horse power. Any person wishing a comfortable residence near Churches, Stores, Mills, &c., will please call on the subscriber on the premises. Address Smithburg, Washington County, Md. JOS. P. MONGE.

March 2—16. $50 REWARD.—The residence of Rev. B. C. Thomas, of this place was entered, and robbed upon Wednesday night, and a number of articles taken. The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the parties concerned. Should the articles be returned, within one week no question will be asked. C. F. THOMAS.