LOCAL MATTERS.

RAILS AND POSTS.—See advertisement of Mr. Gehl.

IN THE CITY.—J. W. Coon of the firm of Coon & Stonehouse, is now East laying in a second supply of new goods, which will be received in a few days.

There is a negro in Philadelphia whose feet measure twenty-one inches in length.—The supporters of "my policy," it is thought, will use them for their next platform.

We are under obligations to Thomas J. Cunningham for a present of a quantity of very fine Ice Cream. You know how to do it up, Tommy. Come again.

BEER.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Messrs. Hoover & Cunningham have commenced the butchering business, and will supply customers with a prime article of beef twice a week from the cellar next door to Gilbert's Hotel.

ICE CREAM.—E. W. Washbaugh requests us to announce that he has opened an Ice Cream Saloon at his residence on Mechanic street, where ladies and gentlemen can be served with a superior article during the season.

WHEATON'S OINTMENT.—We direct attention to the advertisement of Wheaton's Itch Ointment, and a notice of it taken from the Canfield, Ohio, Herald, to be found in to-day's paper.

IN WANT.—We are just now peculiarly a little "hard up." Will not some patron manly in arrears fork over the "collateral," and thus relieve us and at the same time ease his own conscience.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. John Gipe of this vicinity had an attack of apoplexy on Monday last, from the effects of which he died on Tuesday morning. Mr. G. was an exemplary member of the German Baptist Church, and was highly esteemed by the community generally. He was aged about 80 years.

THE MEMPHIS RIOTS.—The Secretary of War, on Wednesday, sent to Congress, in compliance with a resolution of the House, the reports of Gen. Steadman in regard to the Memphis riots, giving detailed information of that brutal transaction. After giving a history of the riots and enumerating the names of prominent secessionists who participated therein, Gen. S. concludes as follows:

"As before stated, the rioters were composed of the police, firemen and the rabble, and negro-haters in general, with a sprinkling of Yankee-haters, all led on and encouraged by demagogues and office hunters, and most of them under the influence of whiskey. It appears in evidence before the commission that John Creighton, recorder of the city, made a speech to the rioters, in which he said: 'We are not prepared, but let us prepare to clear every negro out of town.'"

Very few paroled confederates were mixed up with the rioters on Tuesday and Wednesday, the larger portion being registered voters. Who composed the incendiaries on Wednesday night remains to be developed.

The Editor of the Canfield, Ohio, Herald, says:

"WHEATON'S ITCH OINTMENT.—It has been said that to 'get the itch' is no disgrace, but it is disgraceful to keep it.' No one need be the itch forty-eight hours if they will use Wheaton's Ointment, for it is a sure cure! We saw it tried on the persons of several children and adults a few weeks since, and the itching at once ceased, and in two days not an eruption was visible. It is effectual in removing pimples, blotches, and especially old sores. We used the Ointment on one of our own children, and the effect was magical. The itch, which has been so prevalent about here, has not yielded to the usual remedies for this complaint, and we are glad that a remedy has been discovered that is so effectual and yet so cheap. Read the advertisement."

Full returns of the West Virginia election have not yet come in, but a majority ranging from eight to twelve thousand has been figured up for the amendment to the State Constitution. The text of the amendment is as follows: "No person who, since the 1st day of June, 1861, has given or shall give voluntary aid or assistance to the rebellion against the United States, shall be a citizen of this State, or be allowed to vote at any election held therein, unless he has volunteered into the military or naval service of the United States, and has been or shall be honorably discharged therefrom."

Let it be clearly understood throughout all the land that the loyal men of the nation are determined that when the rebel States are admitted, it shall be on a basis of right and justice—that unbending rebels shall take back seats, and that power shall be lodged in loyal hands only. On this point there will be no compromise no matter how long reconstruction is put off.

One of the consequences of the repeal of the test oath in Virginia has been the election of Rebel soldiers to office in every instance where they have been candidates.

General Grant, it is said, has been presented, by different persons, with as many as seven hundred and eighty boxes of cigars in a single day. At this rate he will have to open a cigar shop.

The Union Convention of Lawrence county instructed for Gov. Curtin for U. S. Senator.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: "Thaddeus Stevens has no opponent for Congress in Lancaster county."

The Detroit (Mich.) Post says General Cass is steadily improving in health, notwithstanding the reports to the contrary.

Lemuel Cook, the Revolutionary soldier who died in Clarendon, N. Y., Sunday night was not the last of the heroes of the war for independence. There are two others still living, viz: Samuel Downing, of New Hampshire, and James Barnham, of Missouri.

See notice of Dr. J. A. Royer.

COMMUNICATED.]

Mr. Editor.—According to promise I will give you a few notes from my note book in reference to the German Baptist Conference held near this place in May last. Preliminary arrangements having been made by the committee for visitors from churches of different States, by Friday evening some twenty-five hundred had collected. By Saturday the number of visitors increased. Public preaching commenced; interesting discourses were delivered during the day. By evening the spectators, visitors, and delegations swelled in number to four or five thousand.—Sabbath morning brought with it an immense concourse of people, numbering probably fifteen or twenty thousand. Public services and preaching were held at four different places, and continued until after mid-day, after which a meal was served.

Notwithstanding the immense concourse of people, the day passed off without any serious accident, and in peace and good order, so much so that it is not worthy and all classes commendable for their good conduct.

On Sabbath the conference was honored by a visit from our chief State magistrate (Governor A. G. Curtin) and other distinguished persons. The Governor seemed to enjoy the meeting and its hospitalities.—Monday the delegations and committees entered upon the duties of organizing for conference council, which was continued up to Thursday noon. The expenses of meeting are estimated at near thirty-five hundred dollars. Consumption—flour, forty-five barrels; beef, eight thousand pounds; butter, one thousand pounds; applebutter, two hundred gallons; coffee, three hundred and fifty pounds; pickles, two hundred dozen; &c., &c. The above estimate of articles may be considered nearly correct, this information having been gathered from reliable sources. F.

SAMBO IN THE TUNKER MEETING.—Some of the proceedings of the immense meeting of the Tunkers, which lately took place at Price's Church, near Waynesboro', are of an interesting character. Several buck negroes being admitted into the Church as members, the question arose in regard to the usual salutation, whether it was to be carried out with regard to their colored brethren on meeting them. Our readers are all aware, no doubt, that it is the universal custom among the Tunkers of the male sex to salute each other with a kiss upon meeting. This was the question that now sprung up, on the admission of the African members, and it found warm opposition, but was finally carried triumphantly.—Hagerstown Mail.

We have made inquiry in regard to the above statement and learn that not a single individual, either black or white, was admitted into the church during the meeting, and that the Mail's account is false in toto.—This is but another exhibition of the low vulgarity and rascality of the "reconstructed" traitors. Our readers will remember that one of the publishers of the tory organ in question, Dechert, during the first year of the war, furnished the rebels with maps of this county and Washington, for which he was driven beyond the Union lines. After some time the banished traitor returned to Hagerstown, professed penitence and plead for mercy; and since the bottom was knocked out of the "C. S. A." has been publishing a paper in the interest of the ex-confederates and their sympathizers. If there is a "buck negro" in all Hagerstown whose character does not compare favorably with Dan's, we pity the nigger. A pretty specimen to attempt malign a peaceable and worthy denomination of christians like the German Baptists.

ITALIAN BEES.—We are informed that the Italian Bee which A. Snowberger purchased of D. D. Fahrney, Nov. 1865, had, on the 24th ult., sent out three good swarms. What can yield a better per centage? These swarms are in season to store a winter supply and a surplus for the owner. The black bee is giving place to the Italian in this vicinity.

CENTURED.—As some citizens in this place have centured us for publishing a communication in our last issue over the signature of "C. F. T.," we will add that Rev. Mr. Thomas, author of the article, assumed all responsibility for its appearance, and further say that our columns are always open for redress if a wrong is thus inflicted.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Mr. Abraham Good, a blacksmith, residing near Fair View has been missing since Friday the 23rd ult. At the time mentioned, he left his shop, and mounting his horse rode out to make some collections. At 8 o'clock on the same evening his horse was caught at Wilson's store, riderless. He has black hair, a short beard, and rather dark complexion; a man of temperate habits. Any information in relation to him will be thankfully received by his wife, Anna Good, near Fair View, Washington County, about 5 miles from Broad Fording mill.

PIC-NIC.—The "pic-nic" announced in our last to take place at Shady Grove on last Saturday, proved to be a very pleasant affair, notwithstanding the wet weather of the day or two previous. It was conducted under the auspices of Prof. Wilson's singing class. The Greencastle Band was present and discoursed some lively airs. The Band and class played and sang alternately. All who were present seemed to enjoy the day very much.

We learn that this Class will probably hold another "pic-nic," at the same place.—M. SNIVELY'S woods—on the 4th of July.

Mother and child were both interred at the same time, on the 30th at Brantz church, near S. Thomas, leaving a kind husband and children to mourn their untimely end.

How sad and holy is the sight,
Like one we just have pass'd,
Where two as one by fever'd blight,
Cold in the grave are cast.

Just like the early morning flower,
Plucked by the Angel hands,
And taken to the garden bow'r
"Way to the spirit lands.

Mourn not husband, they are bless'd,
The crown of life is theirs;
Eternity will tell the rest,
For you and them as betwixt.

Bill Signed.—Gov. Curtin has signed the bill passed by the Legislature in March last, providing for the disfranchisement of deserters. The bill we believe includes drafted men who failed to report.

CHOLERA.—According to the report of the Deputy Health Officer, at Quarantine, N. Y., there had been twenty six new cases of Cholera and twelve deaths up to the 2d instant.

The citizens of Philadelphia are taking action for the purpose of properly providing for and educating Willie Deering, the only survivor of the Deering family.

On Tuesday last the United States Circuit Court convened in Richmond.—Much trouble was experienced in obtaining a proper attendance of the Grand Jury, on account of the constant threats made against them by the people and press of that neighborhood. Finally, however, the requisite number were secured, and Judge Underwood delivered his charge, in which he commented very severely on the action of the ex-rebel press and population, and compared their city to Sodom, although there he had been able to find the ten righteous men.—William B. Reed then asked what was going to be done, and said that he was in attendance on account of his strong personal and professional sympathy with the prisoner.

The second Fenian invasion of Canada has come to an early and inglorious failure. The force which crossed into Canada at Buffalo, under command of Colonel O'Neil, was about one thousand strong. After concentrating at Fort Erie they moved towards Waterloo Ferry, on the Niagara river. Near a small village called Ridgeway, they encountered a body of the hastily collected Canadian volunteers, who, after a trifling skirmish, were dispersed by the Fenians. The latter had six killed and fifteen wounded.—The Canadians had twenty-three killed and wounded, a Lieutenant Colonel, name unknown, being among the former. The field of battle remained in possession of the Fenians, the Canadians abandoning their arms, knapsacks, etc., and making a precipitate flight. A second skirmish occurred at Waterloo Ferry, where the Fenians were again successful in routing the Canadians. After these slight successes the Fenians returned to Fort Erie. Two columns of regular British troops were moving towards that point, and the Fenians finding discretion the better part of valor, on Saturday night abandoned the fort, which fell into the possession of the British troops without a skirmish. The invaders, who were to free Ireland by way of Canada, attempted to escape back to the United States side of the river, but few succeeded. About seven hundred were captured by the United States boats guarding the river, and are now prisoners at Black Rock. Colonel O'Neil and Staff were captured by the British. A number of Fenian pickets are in a like predicament. The failure of the invasion is ascribed to the want of artillery and supplies, and to the fact that the United States boats guarded the river and prevented reinforcements from crossing.

Hon. Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, in his late speech at Hagerstown, Md., gave his views, as a loyal Southern man, as to the punishment which should be inflicted upon those who participated in the rebellion. He compares them to the Tories of the Revolution, and predicts that they will fade away and pass into oblivion just as the Tories did, and that no man in the long hereafter will ever trace his descent from any person engaged in the rebellion. He also cites the action of the revolutionary times, when the people pardoned the obscure Tories but disfranchised the leaders forever.

President Johnson is still doing a big business in granting pardons. Every Rebel who consents to ask for it, is furnished with a pardon. Several persons convicted of robbing the mails, smuggling, counterfeiting, and other offences, have recently received pardons; also three of the Alexandria rioters who murdered and maltreated the Freedmen on last Christmas, and were sentenced to the Albany Penitentiary, have been set at liberty.

The reports we have of an entire failure of the crops in the west are no doubt, greatly exaggerated. Such reports are put out every Spring, and it is probably done by speculators to effect the grain market.

See notice of Dr. J. A. Royer.
