The mother of Senator Sumner, of Massachusetts, died on Friday last, aged 81 years.

On Sunday W. Howard Mann, aged 40 years, died in Baltimore of cholera. He contracted the disease in New York.

The Secretary of the Treasury has acknowledged the receipt of one hundred pounds in gold from Birmingham, England. This sum was subscribed towards the freedom of this country.

Governor Hamilton, of Texas, is in Washington. He represents that the people of his State are less loyal than they were one year ago.

The Reconstruction Resolution as amended and passed by the Senate, passed the House on the 18th inst. by a vote of 120 to 82. It is supposed the legislatures of the different States will be convened at an early day for its ratification.

General Lewis Cass died at his home in Detroit on Sunday, in the 83d year of his age. General Cass entered public life as a member of the Ohio Legislature in 1806, and was subsequently a Representative in Congress, Senator, and subsequently Secretary of State under Mr. Buchanan. He was the Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1848, but was defeated by General Taylor, the Whig candidate.

The abandoned camp of the Fenians at Fort Erie was visited by a Buffalo reporter, who describes the field as littered with knapsacks, broken British guns, a large number of which were captured, (a sardine and oyster cans, canteens, shirts, drawers, hats, playing cards, chickens, geese, hams, legs of mutton, pieces of bacon, letters, whiskey bottles, &c. "This," says the reporter, in all sincerity, "shows that the men took nothing with them but what was absolutely necessary."

FOREIGN.—According to the latest foreign arrivals matters are assuming an alarming turn in Europe. Prussia has inaugurated hostile measures by marching her troops into Holstein. The movement took place on the 7th, and the Austrians are reported as concentrating in order to resist the invasion. A battle is eminent and cannot be long delayed, and naturally much excitement is manifested in all quarters. Large bodies of troops have also been stationed along the southeastern frontier of Prussia to guard against any sudden irruption from an army advancing northward from Austria. Fears are entertained that hostilities may break out upon the Danube in consequence of the difficulties between Austria and Prussia.—All the foreign journals agree in considering war as inevitable. Breadstuffs and provisions were advancing.

Another ex-rebel prison keeper of Union soldiers is on trial for the inhumanities he committed on our men at the instigation of Jefferson Davis, his master. A dispatch from North Carolina says that the trial of Major John Hyer, formerly commander of the rebel prison at Salisbury, is in progress at Raleigh, North Carolina, and will not be closed for two months. The testimony adduced at the trial of Hyer is of the most revolting character. It exceeds, in its barbarous details, any that was elicited at the trial of Werz. Witnesses testify that Hyer deliberately ordered Union prisoners to be shot for no other reason than that they asked for rations to keep from starvation, or demanded the money they knew had been sent to them by friends to buy bread. Others were shot for going beyond certain limits in the locality of their confinement, while the sick were tortured as long as they had life to feel a pain. And this was all done in the name of the Confederacy and the sanction of Jeff Davis.

CHOLERA.—A New York dispatch of the 16th says some uneasiness was felt in the city, to-day, about the cholera, because it seems as if it might become epidemic. One of the cases reported in Waverly Place resulted fatally. The deceased was a stranger who had been in town only two days. A small child died of the cholera, last evening, at the corner of Broome and Eldridge streets.

THE COST.—It is stated that the Fenian troubles on the Canadian border will cost the Canadian government about two millions of dollars. Considering the expense to which the Canadians allowed the rebels to cause us in guarding the same frontier during the late civil war, no one will deem the infliction upon Canada a severe one.

STEVENS.—A Washington correspondent thus speaks of the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, than whom perhaps no purer patriot or abler statesman now lives:—

Thaddeus Stevens is just coming in from his committee-room, and looks so feeble, the great old man, it makes me sorry. The men abroad who assail him with such ferocity, if they could see him now, would be quite disarmed. His spirit is not bated, his sarcasm cuts as keenly as ever, his wit flashes as brightly, his great intellect seems in no wise dimmed; yet the hand of Time lies heavy upon him. The will which never swerves, which always conquers and rules men, is powerless to resist the pressure of pain and the infirmity of age. Although no casual observer would think it, Thaddeus Stevens is over seventy years of age. A comely wig robs him of the hory crown which always hallows the head of age. His face in outline approaches the Indian type. The square, perceptible brow, the deep-set eyes, the high cheek-bones, the broad jaw and saturnine mouth are most marked. The face in repose is stern, but not savage. The "sardonic smile" that we read so much about is a very human and kindly smile, after all. Thaddeus Stevens' inimitable sarcasm and wit seem purely intellectual gifts, flames of the head, free from all smoke of personal malice. He will say the most savage things of a man's acts or opinions, without one emotion of ill-will toward the man. He will annihilate a member in a speech, and then, clapping him on the shoulder, ask the discomfited brother to go with him to lunch. You hear of his many kindly deeds from those who know him best; of the gentle charities which blossom along his private path; of the many poor boys whom he has lifted from poverty and obscurity to give them help and a motive in life. For many years he has been a power in the nation, a leader in the House, marshalling in the van the hosts of liberty.—No man is more eagerly listened to. No man, perhaps, would be so positively missed if he were to pass forever from the congressional hall. He has stood here so long, his intellect is so powerful, his personality so positive, his utterances so unique, his spirit so masterful, his memory will not pass away with his presence, nor his name with his generation.

He is one whose sayings will live long after him. His jewelled criticisms will be set in many a speech, and gleam in many a Congress, when the brain which gave them birth has gone back to dust. But the old lion of the House is fighting his last battles. One who has fought so long and so bravely does not like to confess that he is at last worn out by Time; that even he has found a conqueror. To have lived in the world, to have been with it, and of it, so long, to love it only to leave it, how hard! To a heart broken by its own burdens, death comes as a healing and a consolation; but to a man who has sought to find the satisfaction of life in public spheres whose activities have been expended on the issues of the age, while the grand problems of his time remain unsolved, and the vast victories of the future yet unconsummated—to him death is as unwelcome as it is irremediable. Such a man has no time to die.

It is said there are eight hundred families in one district of South Carolina on the point of starvation.

The freedmen intend to hold a convention at Augusta, Ga., in July next.

Jefferson Davis refuses to have his photograph taken.

RECONSTRUCTION. Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, That the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of the said Legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the Constitution, namely:—

ARTICLE.—SECTION 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State where they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States. Nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SEC. 2. Representation shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for electors of President and Vice President, or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members of the Legislatures thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned; but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Cow strayed. See advertisement.

Abating—the weevil excitement.

CASH.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from Mrs. Salome Smith, Springfield, Ill.

BITTERS.—See advertisement of "Zingari Bitters," for the prevention and cure of cholera, etc., in to-day's paper.

HONEY.—A superior article can be had at the Store of P. Wiesner, near Bear's Factory.

ARRIVING.—Visitors are arriving at Monterey Springs. The attendance during the season promises to be unusually large.

FROST.—There was a slight frost in this section on Wednesday morning. The "Hundred Year Almanac" calls for another on the 5th of July.

ANOTHER STORE.—Mr. Jerome Beaver has fitted up a handsome store room one door East of the "Washington Inn," and opened out a new stock of goods, consisting of hats, caps, boots, shoes and notions generally. See advertisement.

CHOLERA MEDICINE.—Dr. Wickey's cholera medicine, prepared by D. & J. Hoover, Ringgold, can be had at the Drug Store of Mr. Fourthman. See advertisement.

DISHONEST CLAIM AGENT.—We observe that Geo. E. Lemmon, of Washington, who has circulated hand-bills through this county, requesting soldiers to send their claims to him has been forbidden further business intercourse by the Paymaster General on account of malpractices. Soldiers should be cautious as to whose hands they entrust their claims.

WEEVIL.—The Milk Weevil has made its appearance in some of our wheat fields, and apprehensions are entertained by many that the crop will be thus materially damaged.—Others contend that it is confined to only spots in the late wheat and that most of the fields are beyond its power for harm.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. David Wolf, of Welsh Run, in this county, died suddenly on Friday last, of heart disease. He was attacked in the morning and expired in the afternoon. Mr. W. was an upright citizen and a kind neighbor, and was most highly esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His age was 67 years, 2 months and 19 days.

SAD AFFAIR.—We have just learned the particulars of the death of an interesting little daughter of Rev. J. F. Oller, which occurred at Quincy, on Monday morning last. The little one it appears had been unwell and powders were being administered to it. The evening previous Dr. J. Hess prepared a powder, 1 grain of Morphia, for an older daughter. This was laid away and during the night given to the babe by the mother through mistake. Some six hours elapsed before the mistake was discovered, when Dr. H. was summoned, but too late, the child expiring in a short time thereafter. This is certainly a sad affair, but being the result of accident, no blame can attach to the Doctor or parent. The child was eight months old.

PROMOTED.—We are glad to learn, says Winneshek (Iowa) Register, that Robt. A. Gibson has been appointed a Lieutenant in the regular army. Lieut. Gibson is a native of Bedford in this State, and was for several years a resident of Waynesboro', where he has yet many warm personal friends. It appears that he entered the volunteer service four years ago as a private, but true worth can never go unrecognized and he was promoted several times until he reached a captaincy. At the close of the war he was warmly recommended by the Governor of Iowa for a Lieutenantcy in the Regular army and received the appointment, the only one from the State.

MERCERSBURG COLLEGE.—This institution, located in Mercersburg, Pa., closed the first year of its sessions on Thursday the 14th inst. The examinations, held in the presence of the Board of Regents, were highly satisfactory. This first year of its existence as a literary institution has proved an eminent success. One hundred students were in attendance during the year. Among the names of the students in the Catalogue, we notice those of Henry A. Gordon, Theodore A. Harbaugh, John B. Russell and Samuel T. Young, from this place.

On the evening of the day above mentioned, the Washington Irving Literary Society, connected with the College, held its first Anniversary. Among the speakers on the occasion, Waynesboro' was creditably represented by Henry A. Gordon. All acquitted themselves with great honor to the institution and its teachers.

Located in a healthy neighborhood; its expenses, including boarding, tuition, washing, fuel and light, being only one hundred dollars per session, or two hundred per year; having an efficient corps of teachers, with Rev. T. G. Apple, well known in this community, at its head; and with a literary and classical course of a high order, and conducted on strictly christian principles, this institution commends itself to the consideration of all parents who have sons and daughters to be educated. The Fall session will begin on the 15th day of August next.

TWENTIETH VOLUME.—With this number we enter upon the Twentieth Volume of the Village Record. We congratulate ourselves and patrons that notwithstanding war, drafts, proscription, high prices, etc., the Record still lives, and to-day enjoys a degree of patronage unequalled in its past history. During the last four years and upwards, like most village publishers, we have had much to contend with which was anything but agreeable and often times discouraging, but thanks to our good-paying patrons, we have been enabled to surmount all obstacles, and to-day present them with the first number of the twentieth volume, not "Neutral in Politics and Religion," but "Independent upon all Subjects." Because we preferred to be independent instead of neutral upon the war question, our course, in the estimation of some, has been inconsistent, and as a consequence the heavy hand of proscription was sought to make us respect the powers that wanted to be, and those who were in sympathy with them. In order to gratify this class and afford the prodigious an opportunity to return, we make this change, and not that we purpose publishing a political paper. It has never been our province to dabble in Local, State or National Politics. We prefer peace to discord, hence such a course would prove distasteful to us and we doubt not to a majority of our patrons. Our object will therefore be in the future, as it has been during the past, to make the Record an acceptable family newspaper; and should "our company" strike oil, and slow-paying patrons fork over their dues, we promise an enlargement at the expiration of the present volume.

We cannot feel otherwise than grateful to our patrons, especially those who have encouraged our enterprise through a period of nineteen years, and will endeavor to merit their countenance and encouragement while the "lamp holds out to burn."

Owing to the continued high price of paper and all articles of consumption, we take occasion here to say to our advertising friends that we have been compelled to advance our rates, which will hereafter be as follows:—One column, one year, $50; half column, $30; quarter of a column, $18. Transient advertisements inserted as heretofore at $1.50 per square of 10 lines for three weeks.

ATTENTION PENSIONERS.—The Act of Congress, approved June 6th, 1866, gives additional pension to the following classes of persons:

1st. To those who have lost the sight of both eyes, or both hands, or are totally disabled in the same, so as to require constant attendance, the sum of $25.00. 2d. To those who have lost both feet, or are totally disabled in the same, so as to require constant attendance, the sum of $20.00. 3d. To those who have lost one hand or one foot, or are so disabled as to render them unable to perform manual labor equivalent to the loss of a hand or foot, the sum of $15.00. 4th. Persons who have been deprived of their pensions under Act of March 3d, 1865, in consequence of being in the civil service of the U. S. Government, are restored. 5th. Invalid Pensioners who died after application for their pension had been filed and before the issuing of the Pension Certificate, and who have left widows or minor children, will be entitled to receive arrears due at death of the soldier. 6th. Pensions are extended to dependent fathers and brothers, the same as mothers and sisters.

Claim Agent in this place, Jos Douglas, Esq.

ICE CREAM.—E. W. Washbaugh requests us to announce that he has opened an Ice Cream Saloon at his residence on Mechanic street, where ladies and gentlemen can be served with a superior article during the season.

RETURNED.—I. H. McCauley, Esq., who has been west for several years has returned to Chambersburg with his family and will make that place his home once more.

LOCATED.—Dr. A. H. Strickler, of Green-castle, has permanently located in Mercersburg.

RESTAURANTS.—The Court has decided to license but 12 out of 28 Restaurants in Chambersburg. This being the case, how will Waynesboro' fare?

ATTEMPT AT MURDER.—A Little Girl Attempts to Destroy a Whole Family.—On Thursday last, Lydia Ann Powell, a little girl, aged about twelve years, was committed to the jail of this county, charged with the terrible crime of attempting to destroy a whole family. She was employed as a servant girl in the family of Mr. Oliver Mackey, in Penn township. The family had been quite ill for some time, but were unable to divine the cause. A physician was called in, who pronounced the symptoms that of poison. A watch was put upon the girl, and it was soon discovered that she was the guilty party. She had powdered glass, which she placed in the flour, and in fact almost every article of food in the house. She confessed her guilt, and was thereupon arrested, and taken before Justice Celson, who committed her to jail. The family, although suffering very severely from the effects of the glass eaten by them, it is thought by their physician that it will not prove fatal.—Chester County Republican.

Several post-offices have been discontinued in South Carolina and Georgia, because men cannot be found who can take the oath.

A colored woman named Pandy Miles died near Waynesboro' a few days since aged 105 years.

The Richmond Whig comes out in a long editorial in opposition to emigration from the Northern States and the introduction of Northern capital. It says: "Alabama, with one year of peace, begins with five thousand Northern cotton planters. It is frightful to think where we shall end. There is not a single Southern State in which this process, this fatal process of New England colonization, is not going on. We must stop it, and from this hour, we must resolve to stop it, before it unwraps and crushes us in its anarchy folds. We do not mean that it must be stopped by a resort to violence or any unwarrantable means, but by refusing, as we have the right to do, to sell our lands, or any part of them, or lease or tenant them out to radical enemies of the South."

THE EMPORIUM

FOR Hats, Shoes, Trunks and Clocks, Tobacco, Segars, Candles, &c. &c., FOR THE LEAST MONEY!

J. BEAVER, The founder of this enterprise in Waynesboro', A. D. 1864, has again fitted up a new room. The shelves and drawers are filled with an entire new stock of the latest style—Facts are stubborn things and selling superior and cheap goods for so many years has established the citizens of Waynesboro', and the community in general, "that some things can be done as well as others," and notwithstanding the prophecies and kind wishes of my neighbors, the house still stands, with the original motto still floating 'o'er it, and not a single star erased.

Come then old and new friends and buy from J. Beaver. Remember his place on the east corner of the square, next door to Mullen's Hotel and Dr. Oelg's office.

BEAVER'S EMPORIUM. June 22, 1866.

THE GREAT ZINGARI BITTERS.
A Sure Preventive OF CHOLERA!

THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. C. Cheopous, an eminent Egyptian physician. He has long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of the disease, and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family was then compelled to endure.

This great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inefficiency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was led to think and experiment; and after ten years of study and labor, he presented to his fellow-men the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this preparation in the prevention and cure of disease, was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it. His name was placed upon the Roll of Nations, and a gold medal was bestowed in recognition of his services. Dr. Cheopous, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative measure, and with great success, that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world. The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, applies with marvellous force to cholera, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists now agree that the cholera poison acts on the system through the blood, and that any combination which acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, must prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, but of nearly all other maladies, especially the different forms of fever.

The Zingari Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. It acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them. This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is kept warm and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following diseases have been cured by it: Cholera, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Fever, Ague, Nervous Debility, Anaemia, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, Sciatica, &c. Price 25c per quart bottle. Principal Depot, 170 Washington Street, Boston, Mass. Sold by Druggists, Hotelkeepers and Grocers. F. RAFFER, Sole Proprietor. For sale at the "Waynesboro' Hotel," by V. B. GILBERT, Agent. [June 22-1y.]
