The tariff bill which was passed in the House last week was passed by the Senate on Tuesday, with amendments, and goes to the House for concurrence.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Henry Stansbury to be Attorney General of the United States, in the place of Speed, resigned.

The House of Representatives of the United States has, without a division, determined that Mr. Coffroth, who has been holding a seat in the present Congress, is not entitled thereto, and that Wm. H. Koontz is immediately on the decision, Gen. Koontz was sworn in and took his seat.

The Scotia arrived at New York on Monday night, at ten o'clock, from Liverpool on the 14th and Queenstown on the 16th. The Great Eastern commenced the laying of the Atlantic cable on the 13th. There was no prospect of peace. The Austrians were regaining strength.

Brownlow of the Knoxville Whig says:—If living, we intend to support the National Union ticket for President and Vice President in 1868; and if dead, we wish our record to show that when the Southern Rebels captured Johnson they did not capture us with him! We need not be told that the new Johnson party are using an abundance of money and patronage. All men now take sides with the party of PATRIOTISM or the party of the spoils, and we go with the former. We stand by the party of the country if we stand alone in Tennessee. We can neither be coaxed, flattered, abused, bribed or frightened into the ranks of the rebels, no matter by what name they call themselves.

Both Houses of Congress have adopted a resolution declaring the Senators and Representatives of Tennessee entitled to seats, the House on Monday concurring in the action taken by the Senate on Saturday. The resolution has been signed by acting Vice President Foster and Speaker Colfax, and has been presented to the President. A new difficulty, it is reported, has developed itself. A despatch from Washington says President Johnson has received information from Nashville that the presiding officer of the Tennessee House of Representatives will not sign the constitutional amendment, alleging that there was not a constitutional quorum voting upon it. What effect this will have upon the action of Congress remains to be seen. Another despatch from Washington says that President Johnson has informed several members of Congress that he will neither veto nor sign the resolution just passed that body admitting Tennessee, but will simply return it, on the ground that he has nothing to do with it. He takes the ground that no legal ratification has been made by the Tennessee Legislature of the amendment.

P. S. The President has since reluctantly signed the joint resolution admitting Tennessee.

The disorganizers, composed of reconstructed Rebels, &c., had a meeting at Frederick, on Wednesday. Speeches were made by Gov. Swann, and others who have identified themselves with that party in the cry against the "Nigger." During the meeting a returned rebel soldier drew a pistol on a returned Union soldier, when the Rebel was badly beaten. A general fight then ensued between the Unionists and the Rebels and their sympathizers, in which the latter were badly used up.

INCONSISTENCY.—One of the grounds on which Johnson vetoed the new Freedmen's Bureau Bill is that "eleven States" are not represented in Congress. If that is a valid reason for vetoing the bill is it not equally as good against all bills passed by this Congress? Yet Johnson has signed at least a hundred bills passed during this session.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.—Another great and decisive battle between the contending forces in Europe, was fought on the 8d inst., near Sudowa, in which the hosts of Austria were completely routed by the Prussians, with a loss of 14,000 prisoners, 116 cannon and 16 flags, and large numbers of killed and wounded, including many distinguished officers.

The last will and testament of the late Gen. Lewis Cass was admitted to probate at Detroit, Michigan, on Tuesday. The value of the estate is estimated at one million dollars. The internal revenue stamp upon the probate of the will is five hundred dollars. Persons in want of it will be supplied by Washburn of this place.

THE ASPECT IN MARYLAND.—"Occasional" of the Philadelphia Press says:—The aspect in Maryland is by no means promising. In saying this I desire to state a fact and a warning at the same time.—Governor Swann, chosen by Union men, is following the example of Andrew Johnson, and preparing to betray his friends. It is not doubted that, through the sinister influence of Montgomery Blair, he will appoint commissioners under the registry law, who will enroll the names of returned rebels in the different counties. All hopes of a different result are given up, and now the tried and trusted patriots who flattered themselves that Maryland was wholly secured to the Union, are preparing for a desperate struggle in November. Remembering the counsels and the admonitions of their illustrious and lamented leader, Henry Winter Davis, who in the darkest hours of the rebellion, maintained a steady confidence in the final result, and loudly called upon the people to rally around the imperilled Republic, they will fight to the last. Trained as their enemies are to dissimulation and accustomed to all the arts employed to drag Maryland out of the Union, an effort will be made to put the radicals of Maryland in the wrong—to force a conflict—if possible a conflict of arms—and thus to furnish a pretext to fulfil the last prophecy of Montgomery Blair and other Johnson teachers. In other words, if the Unionists of Maryland resist the attempt of the returned rebels to overawe and overwhelm them at the polls, then Andrew Johnson will be called upon to declare martial law—to intercede by the army to give the rights of suffrage to the enemies of the country, and to put down the brave spirits who saved Maryland from the fate of Virginia and South Carolina. You will observe that nothing has recently proceeded from the White House inconsistent with precisely this sequel. And should it transpire, you can go back to Andrew Johnson's 22d of February speech to find the sources. From that period to the present every step has been a new usurpation, a new betrayal and a new proscription, and when the plot is fully prepared for Maryland you may anticipate the same attempt upon Missouri; but in the latter State I think treason and its red handed myrmidons will probably receive a warmer welcome than that which awaits them in Maryland.

Mason has joined Breckinridge's Niagara—on the British side—probably to be ready to attend the Philadelphia Convention, when they receive their pardons—the only thing in the way. All along the border this class are rallying. Toombs may be expected to make his appearance soon. He could scarcely be spared.

The number of deaths in Philadelphia for the week ending July 21 was 716, which is stated is beyond all precedent in that city.

COMMENCEMENT.—The Commencement exercises of the Penn. College at Gettysburg will be held on August 9th.

LOCAL MATTERS.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from John S. Young, Prairie City, Ill.

SALE.—The personal property of Mrs Hannah Fox, dec'd, is advertised for sale in another column.

PREACHING.—Rev. F. W. Conrad, of Chambersburg, is expected to preach in the Union Church on Sabbath morning next.

PARTY.—We learn that quite a large party is being made up by our Maryland neighbors to visit Falling Waters to-morrow.

DEATH.—Mr. John Neell an old citizen of Chambersburg died in Hagerstown on the 19th inst. He was Postmaster under the Buchanan administration.

NOMINATED.—We learn from the Repository that J. W. Deal, Esq., of Chambersburg, has been nominated to the Senate as Postmaster of that place. He is the present incumbent.

PHYSICIAN.—Dr. D. Newcomer has recently located in Williamsport, Md. Having known the doctor for many years, we can endorse him as a No. 1 man and skillful practitioner.

MELONS.—Look out for a supply of Melons, new Corn, &c., this day (Friday) at Hostetter, Reid & Co's. Received once or twice a week during the season.

ZINGARI BITTERS.—These Bitters, so highly recommended for the prevention and cure of Cholera, etc., can now be had of Mr. Gilbert, at the "Waynesboro' Hotel."

PATRONS.—Some newspaper patrons, esteemed very fine people, must imagine that printing paper, ink, labor, etc., costs nothing, when they permit their accounts to remain unsettled for half a dozen or more years.—The same persons rarely refuse the cash for any article they have to sell.

SCHOOL.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Samuel H. E. will open a school for boys and girls on Monday next. Mr. E. is well known to our citizens as a first class teacher and should be liberally patronized. Too many parents, through love of self, with access to good schools, permit their children to pass the summer months in idleness. Such, in our opinion, is poor economy.

CONVENTIONS.—The Union delegate elections will be held on Saturday of next week the 4th of August, and the Union Convention will be held on Tuesday following—the 7th of August. Democrats will hold their delegate elections on Saturday the 25th of August, and their Convention on Tuesday the 27th.

LADY'S FRIEND.—"Harvest Time"—the harvest time of life, as well as of the season—is the appropriate steel engraving of August number of this beautiful periodical.—The double and finely colored steel fashion plate is a gem, as usual. Then we have the usual number of wood-cuts illustrating the "Street Arabs," and the latest fashions in dresses, bonnets, hats, &c. The music is the song of "Childhood and Home." Among the literary contributions, we note "One Summer's Romance," by Clara Augusta; "The Banisher," by Mrs. Hosmer; "The Disputed Patrimony," by Auber Egrestier; "The Distressed Bachelor," (concluded) by Mrs. Oilphant; Novelties Receipts, Fashions, &c.

Price $2 50 a year; 2 copies $4.00; 8 copies (and one gratis) $10. Specimen numbers will be sent for 15 cents. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

FRANKLIN CLIFF.—Parties to "Franklin Cliff," or the "High Rock," as it is more generally known, have been of frequent occurrence lately. On Tuesday last a large party visited this spot, which is situated on the summit of the South Mountain, about seven miles from this place. The view from this point is said by those who have visited to be very fine, equalling, in the opinion of many, that afforded from the famous Black Rock. With a good microscope Chambersburg, Hagerstown and the Potomac River are brought plainly to view. A spring of pure mountain water is situated but a short distance in the rear of the Rock. Were it made more easy of access it would become quite a resort for pleasure parties during the summer months. If a sufficient number of young men would turn out one day would suffice to make a road. The propriety of such a party has been suggested.

BANK DIFFICULTY.—The difficulty referred to in our last issue between J. D. Roman, President of the Hagerstown Bank, and Wm. M. Marshall, Cashier, has, it appears, culminated in the removal of the latter. Mr. Marshall's statement in reply to a "message" from Roman to the Directors of the Bank, published in the last Mail, appears in this week's Herald, which completely vindicates his course in regard to the matter and places Mr. R. in anything but an enviable position. Mr. Marshall had been cashier of the Bank for a period of 35 years, and would doubtless still hold the position had he proved a recreant traitor to his country during the dark days of the rebellion.

THE PROSPECTS.—Since our last issue the weather has been of the most auspicious character. We have had plentiful showers of rain almost daily. An unusual yield of both corn and potatoes are now confidently anticipated. In this section the prospects were never perhaps more promising. Much of the corn crop in seed may be regarded as made should the weather continue dry until it matures. The little deficiency in the wheat crop thus promises to be more than made up, and this must ere long produce its effects upon the grain markets, as the same is doubtless true of other sections.

DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN.—Mr. James Henderson, died at Fayetteville, this county, on the 30th of June last at the advanced age of ninety years, and twenty-two days. Mr. Henderson emigrated to this country from Ireland in June, 1801, and after living in different parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, finally settled in Fayetteville, in 1831. He was married in 1805, and his companion still survives him.

HOTEL CHANGE.—We understand Wm. R. Kreps, of this place, has become proprietor of the "States' Union Hotel," in Harrisburg, having purchased of Maj. Kurtz the furniture, fixtures, etc. belonging thereto. Mr. K. was formerly connected with the house and has the experience and qualifications to make him a popular and acceptable "city landlord."

HEALTHY.—So far this season our town and neighborhood has been remarkably healthy, but little sickness of any kind prevailing at any time. Waynesboro' has always been noted for its general good health, but this season it cannot be attributed to the cleanliness of its alleys, by any means.

FOUND DEAD.—Robert Campbell, an old citizen of Hagerstown, was found dead in a fence corner near Upton, on Wednesday of last week. He was a harmless old man, but subject to fits of insanity. His death is attributed to exposure to the extreme heat of the sun.

Cholera In New York. New York, July 20.—One hundred and thirty-one burial permits were granted in this city to-day, making an aggregate since Sunday last of one thousand and eighty-two interments. The demand for hearses is so great that it cannot be supplied. Eight new cases of cholera are reported here to-day, two of which are fatal, are reported in Brooklyn. Dr. Calhoun, the medical inspector on Hart Island, has the cholera, and is not expected to recover. Many cases are reported on that island.

New York, July 23.—Twelve new cases of cholera have been reported up to noon today since yesterday, four of which were fatal. Twenty-one new cases in Brooklyn are reported, including four deaths. Mr. Mitchell, the inventor of copper tips for shoes, was drowned near Turner, Mo. while trying to save his life.

Horrible Barbarity. WASHINGTON, July 19. SHOCKING REBEL BARBARITY IN VIRGINIA. Among the voluminous reports just received by General Howard from his subordinates in the freedmen's bureau is a detailed certified statement of the barbarity of a Virginia woman, inflicted upon her female slave which almost defies human belief, and far surpasses the exaggerated pictures of fiction.

This woman has been in the habit of beating her slaves for many years, and the fact that they were made free seems to have intensified all the passions of her nature. The case referred to is that of a girl or young woman, and is said to be a mere illustration of the manner in which similar cruelties were practised upon others. She was stripped naked, tied and thrown face downwards before a hot fire. Her back having been burnt or scorched by the fire her mistress proceeded to lacerate by whipping her with the greatest fury; after which, horrible to relate, a mixture of cayenne pepper, vinegar and oil was poured over the shrieking and almost delirious victim. Lest what I say may be doubted, I deem it my duty to tell you that I have this statement from Gen. Howard's own lips, and will tomorrow furnish you with a circumstantial account.—Gen. Howard has a photograph of this poor creature in his possession, and Judge Underward of Virginia proposes to take her into his own family and to accompany her to the President of the United States, there to let him see the last specimen of the humanity of the reconstructed rebels.

Men Without a Country. The ingenious story printed by the Atlantic Monthly, a few years ago, of "a man without a country," finds a parallel in the fate of the Confederates who, after the termination of hostilities, fled to Mexico. They voluntarily renounced their allegiance to the United States when they entered the rebel armies, and being unwilling to resume it after their crushing defeat, they displayed more consistency than their associates in seeking a new home. At first they were warmly welcomed, and grants of land were allotted by Maximilian. But they had scarcely taken possession of their estates before they were captured by a body of Liberal Troops and ordered to leave Mexico, under penalty of death. Their settlement has been forcibly broken up, their crops abandoned, and they are left to beg their way, as best they can, to a more hospitable clime. They gave up their glorious birth-right as American citizens to assail the Union, the Confederacy melted away, and their colonization scheme, having proved a most disastrous failure, they are literally now without a country, and without a prospect of ever finding one, unless they return to their old home and repent in sack-cloth and ashes their treasonable folly. Many of the greatest blessings of life are lightly esteemed. We only realize when we are deprived of air or water, how essential they are to existence. And the rebel emigrants have been taught a lesson they will not soon forget, of the value of the citizenship they gleefully forfeited at the outbreak of the rebellion.

The Cleveland Herald gives a thrilling story of a brave mother's devotion and peril. The dwelling house of a Mr. Suttle, of Huron county, was burned on the 3rd, with its contents. The parents awoke to find their premises wrapped in flames. Mr. Suttle having breathed the hot air was unable to do anything. Upon seeing this Mrs. Suttle started for the children and succeeded in rescuing two. The other child, a boy some two years of age, was still in the house. Again Mrs. Suttle, at the risk of her life, started for him. While the flames were rolling in the upper part of the rooms, she crept on her hands and knees under them and rescued the little fellow. Thus three lives were saved in the dead of night by the exertions of a frail woman.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.—A horrible tragedy was enacted in Caldwell county, Kentucky, on Thursday last. Andrew Alexander, sixty years of age, had frequent and violent quarrels with his wife. Early on a Thursday morning, when both man and wife were alone in the house, the wife shot her husband twice, killing him instantly. Alexander's son was at the barn, and hearing the reports of the pistol, went to the house. As he entered the door his step-mother turned and fired upon him twice, slightly wounding him each time. He fled to the nearest neighbor for assistance, and while on the way he heard the report of the pistol again. When the neighbors arrived they found her dead in the yard, she having shot herself.

SAD CASE OF DROWNING.—On Saturday last Mrs. Marston, of East Haddam Conn., took her daughter and the child of a neighbor to the river for a bath. She sat on the bank watching the children, when suddenly her attention was attracted by cries, and she found that they had got beyond their depth. With motherly instinct she plunged into the water to rescue the little one, and was herself carried under. All three soon appeared at the surface, struggling for life, but the effort was unavailing, and they finally went down to a watery grave.

A WINDFALL.—A dispatch from Helena, Arkansas, says Mrs. Henrietta W. Davenport has just been notified that she has fallen heir to an estate worth $2,000,000 in Scotland, through Robert Bruce Blackburn, recently deceased, who was one of the heaviest manufacturers in Europe. Mrs. Davenport is the only surviving child of his only sister, and, with her mother, moved to this country in 1823, and located in Northern Georgia where she married. Since the war, she and her mother moved to Helena.

A man named Darius Hyatt, living in Franklin county, Mo., on the 11th inst., cut his wife's throat with a butcher knife, killing her instantly. He threw his money $6,000 in greenbacks, in the fire and burned it up, and the severed the arteries in both of his wrists. He and his wife were 70 years old each, and had been married nearly half a century. Ill health is supposed to have rendered him insane, and caused him to do the deed.

Speaker Colfax, of Indiana, has been, for the eighth time, unanimously re-nominated for Congress.

A soldier who lost both hands in the war was furnished with a hand-organ, and with his son, young lad, has traveled a year or two in the vicinity of Boston, with remarkable success, having accumulated $10,000, the generous contributions of the charitable.

The prefect of police in Paris has issued certain regulations under which the sale of horse-flesh is permitted in the city. Any restaurant selling horse without clearly announcing the fact or who shall fraudulently mix it with other meat will be liable to punishment.

The ladies of Cedar Falls, Iowa, are indignant over a report that a pedlar who recently visited that town, selling corsets and fitting them on the bodies of customers, has since turned out to be a man dressed in feminine apparel.

The Gattysburg Star says that the Confederates there are busy gathering the remains of the noble dead who fell in the Gettysburg battle and giving them honored burial, and that this is more than they ever did for the Union dead.

By the latest from Paris we learn that the long streaming ribbons that ladies wear on their bonnets and necks are called "Follow me home, sirs."

A recent tea party near London was composed of 66 blind persons, 31 deaf and dumb persons, and 22 orphans. They had a very cheerful time.

A horse railway has just been completed at Springfield, Ill., between the Capitol square and the tomb of Lincoln, and the cars have commenced running.

Philadelphia contains between 25,000 and 30,000 more houses than New York city.

A Connecticut man received a salary of $30,000 in a New York dry goods house.

Howell Cobb is to take the stamp in Georgia in behalf of President Johnson's policy.
