

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, Sept. 25, 1866.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Both branches of the Oregon Legislature have ratified the Constitutional amendment. There was more or less frost on Thursday night in Illinois and neighboring States. Let it be remembered, that every one of the Confederate States can enter Congress next December, if they choose.

We would have such of our patrons as are indebted at this office know that we are largely in arrears to the "paper man," and must have money. How many of hundreds owing us will respond to this appeal? If we could defer payment for paper and everything else for years after it had been consumed, "dunning" our patrons might be avoided, but such is not the case.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. John Lizer, an aged citizen of the vicinity of Mercersburg, says the Journal, was found dead on Tuesday last, near what is known as Buchanan's Farm, about 2 miles north-east of that place. Ex-Gov. Pollock's Letter. Ex-Governor James Pollock has addressed the following letter to President Johnson: PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14th 1866.—His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.—Sir:—I hereby tender to you my resignation of the office of Director of the United States Mint which I hold under the appointment and commission of our late and ever to be lamented President, Abraham Lincoln.

Tears. [From the Kansas Chief, August 30th.] There is good reason to believe, that when Miss Columbia, in imitation of Miss Pharaoh, fishing among the bulrushes and slimy waters of Southern plebeianism for a little Moses, she slung out a young crocodile instead. He is a crocodile by nature, although he calls himself Moses. Ex-Gov. Pollock's Letter. Ex-Governor James Pollock has addressed the following letter to President Johnson: PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14th 1866.—His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.—Sir:—I hereby tender to you my resignation of the office of Director of the United States Mint which I hold under the appointment and commission of our late and ever to be lamented President, Abraham Lincoln.
