

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, Oct. 5, 1866.

The personal property of John Bonebrake, dec'd, will be sold on Wednesday next, instead of Tuesday, as first announced.

A large mounted delegation, it is understood, from this place and vicinity, will attend the Union meeting to be held this (Friday) evening in Greencastle.

LAST MEETINGS.—The Union party will hold their last meeting before the election, on to-morrow (Saturday) evening, and the Democrats theirs on Monday evening.—Should the weather prove favorable these meetings will doubtless be largely attended.

The Johnsonites at Hagerstown on Saturday last nominated the following ticket for the Legislature:—Jacob Snively, J. T. Ankeny, M. S. Barber, Dr. Toby, G. W. Poole.

MASS MEETING.—The Union men of Washington County will hold a grand Mass Meeting at Hagerstown on the 20th inst.—Gen. Geary, Gen. Seigle, Hon. Frank Thomas, and others, are announced to address the meeting.

ANOTHER NEW CHURCH.—We understand the German Reformed congregation of this place have in contemplation the erection of a new church and that seven or eight thousand dollars have been subscribed within a few days for that purpose. It is understood the full amount required can be secured without much difficulty.

When slavery was in the ascendant, and when its upholders and those who lived sumptuously on its profits, were grasping for the entire control of the Government, Northern dough-faces were in the habit of saying, "Let slavery alone, and those who own slaves will in their own good time set them free!" While the dough-faces were thus pleading for the slave masters, those wretches were actually plotting to perpetrate the institution by destroying the Government. Now, when treason has been whipped, we are told only to let traitors alone and they will come back to their allegiance. The same men who declared that the slave masters would abolish slavery, now proclaim that if we are lenient to traitors, all will be well. We have been thus lenient, and what is the result? Instead of obedience and allegiance we have the continued hate and willingness to destroy the Government on the part of the whipped rebels. When will the people learn properly to appreciate their foe?

THE ELECTION.—On Tuesday next Pennsylvania, the Keystone of the federal arch, will speak through the ballot-box for or against the policy of Andrew Johnson, the issue being between this Southern gentleman and the Congress of the United States. Of course the friends of the President claim that the verdict will be in his favor, whilst those who endorse Congress and its reconstruction policy are equally sanguine of success. A few days more will tell the tale in the election of either Gen. John W. Geary or the Hon. Heister Clymer, as Governor of this commonwealth. Judging from the tone of the press and the enthusiasm manifested at the great mass meetings in various parts of the State an unusually large vote may be expected at the coming election.

The Valley Spirit of this week tries to get off an apology for the Frederick county Johnsonites who shouted for Jeff. Davis, Lee and other prominent traitors at a meeting held a few weeks since in Frederick city. He denies that the heads of the horses attached to a country team were decorated with rebel flags. Capt. Rouzer of Mechanicstown, who compelled the driver of the team to lower his colors, says they were rebel flags. So far as the Captain's knowledge goes he ought to be able to discriminate between the "Stars and Stripes" and the "Stars and Bars." We believe the party having the team in charge were "rocked" a little on their return from the meeting by some of the Mechanicstown Union boys, but it was because they had re-hoisted the same colors. If they were not rebel flags what kind were they? The Spirit says they were "red and blue flags."

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.—We would remind such of our readers as are in want of farms that the sale of valuable real estate by W. W. & G. W. Walker will be made on Thursday next. We are requested to say that the 120 acre tract adjoining the Mansion farm will be sold together or in forty-acre tracts to suit purchasers. There is perhaps no better quality of land in this section, and being pleasantly and advantageously situated, it should command the attention of those wishing to make safe investments.

Gen. W. H. Koontz, the Union candidate for Congress in this District, is still confined by sickness at his home in Somerset.

A CHANGE.—Mr. D. L. Taylor, of Chambersburg has disposed of his Hotel property, the "Indian Queen," to Mr. Henry Feldman.

Miss Grove, Post Mistress at Mercersburg, has been removed, and John Hook installed as a member of the "Bread and Butter Brigade."

MORE CONVERTS TO EQUAL RIGHTS.—The world moves. South Carolina has just adopted the following:
"Be it enacted, &c., That all persons hitherto known in law in this State as slaves, or as free persons of color, shall have the right to make and enforce contracts, to sue, to be sued, to be affiants and give evidence, to inherit, to purchase, lease, hold, sell, convey and assign real and personal property, make wills and testaments, and to have full and equal benefit of the rights of personal security, personal liberty and private property, and of all remedies and proceedings for the enforcement and protection of the same as white persons now have; and shall not be subject to any other or different punishment, pain or penalty for the commission of any act or offence than such as are prescribed for white persons committing like acts or offences."
"That all acts and part of acts specially relating to persons lately slaves and free persons of color be, and the same are, hereby repealed."

Our readers should remember that this comes from South Carolina, says the Baltimore American, the home of Calhoun, the great leader in nullification and secession, the nursery of treason and slaveocracy. This is significant. It is one of those milestones on the highway of history that mark the steps of national progress. It shows that light is at last beginning to dawn on that benighted region—that the clouds of feudal darkness are vanishing, and that the people are emerging into civilization founded upon equal rights. Thus, after nearly eighty years of strife and contention, the nation is beginning to realize the noble sentiment which it took as its motto, that "All men are born free and equal." This is the spirit of our institutions. It was the grand central idea in our Government, and it must sooner or later become enfolded and interwoven with every law from Maine to Texas. Those who are endeavoring to prevent it might just as well try to dam up the waters of the Mississippi or stay the course of the tides: There is a power behind this movement that is above the power of man. The great laws that are operating to build up and develop this nation are irresistible. This nation has a destiny to fulfil, and those who watch the course of events with an observing eye can readily see whether it tends.— Yet while intelligent men are moving and acting in other sections, the petty men who lead the Rebel element inscribe on their banners, "Down with the negro." It does seem as though they were as blind as bats. We sometimes think that they may be classed among those creatures that love the twilight.

The law against deserters voting is so plain, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, that it is scarcely necessary to refer to it any more. It is as plain as the laws against minors voting—as the law against non-residents voting—as the law against aliens voting. It does not require a trial of any such persons to establish that they cannot vote.—When they appear at the polls, they are challenged. On oath, they are asked certain questions to establish whether they are of the proper age, whether they have resided in the election district the length of time prescribed by the law, whether they have paid their taxes. If they swear they are qualified to vote, their vote is taken, and if it is afterwards ascertained they have sworn falsely, they are subject to arrest, trial, conviction and punishment for fraudulent voting and false swearing. The same rules at the election, in our judgement, will apply to all deserters. It will not require a trial to establish desertion, any more than it does to prove a man's age, residence or payment of taxes. The man charged with desertion at the polls, can be shown when his vote is challenged. If he swears falsely he is subject to a prosecution for fraudulent voting and perjury. Electors can thus administer the law without any violence to the rights of any man, while no true man or faithful soldier will object to this process for the protection of the ballot box. Deserters are not entitled to a vote, and the simplest way of executing the law against all such is the best way of enforcing the punishment they have incurred.

RICH READING.—Hon. Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts; Gov. James L. Orr, of South Carolina; John H. Noyes; John Pierpont; Wm. Harvey, and a Kafir Chief of Mozambique, with other illustrations, given in the October number of the Phrenological Journal. Also, Social Science; Dreams and Dreaming; Psychology; Physiology; Physiognomy and Phrenology. It is a very interesting number—only 20 cts. or 32 a year.—Address Fowler & Wells, 339 Broadway, New York.

Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa hold their State elections, on Tuesday next October 9. Pennsylvania will choose a Governor, besides twenty-four Congressmen, a United States Senator in place of Edgar Cowan, part of her Senate, and an Assembly. Ohio has to elect nineteen Congressmen; Indiana eleven, with Legislators and a United States Senator in place of Henry S. Lane, who declines a second term. Iowa will choose six members of Congress, with a Legislature and certain State officers.

If a debt of three thousand millions of dollars makes taxes so high, and the necessities of life so dear, that laboring men can scarcely maintain themselves, and families, how will they get along when we assume the rebel debt, and agree to pay the South for its former slaves?

The Destructive Freshets at the West
The accounts that reach us from the West as to the great freshets there, are really distressing. The Great State of Ohio seems to have been literally afloat. One of the most discouraging effects of these disasters is the wholesale destruction of the partially harvested crops. The Cincinnati Commercial, referring to the Great Miami and White-water river valleys, says:
"The sight of these beautiful valleys, is just now a sad one. The rivers have overflowed their banks, and the water runs from five to fifteen feet deep over the immense cornfields these valleys are so noted for. It is estimated that fully four million bushels of corn will be lost by this overflow—fences, out-houses, &c., have been floated off and away. Near the mouth of the Miami river the current was so strong outside of the main channel that it cut out and carried off into the Ohio river acres of land; one man living near Lawrenceburg, who owns a large farm on the river, estimates his loss of land at seventy acres, though we think this estimate too large; but certain that it is that what was a few days ago a portion of his farm is now the bed of the river."
The losses at Dayton are very large several hundred thousand dollars—and there is much suffering among the poor. The whole country has been devastated. The loss of standing corn, fences, and stock is enormous. A part of the village of Cleves was submerged, the water reaching to the second stories in some of the houses.
In Indiana, also, immense damage was done by the flood. The corn crop in the low lands was greatly damaged, and thousands of stock hogs feeding in the river bottoms were drowned, as well as numerous horned cattle and horses.

John F. Robertson was convicted in the Circuit Court of Stafford county, Va., on Wednesday, of the murder of Gustavus and Nancy Limerick, two old persons who lived alone in a house near Fredericksburg. The Judge sentenced the prisoner to be hung on the 16th of November next. Thursday night he confessed to the sheriff that he went to the Limericks on the evening of August 25, persuaded the old man to take a walk with him and murdered him with an axe; he then returned to the house and killed Mrs. Limerick, in the same manner, and having searched the house and secured $8 in silver, set fire to it and left. He protests that he got only the $8, that he had no accomplices, and that he told many lies while in jail in the hope of getting out.

A correspondent of the Buffalo Express states that Rev. Mr. Lindsay was arraigned before the Supreme Court at Albion on the 27th ult., on a charge of manslaughter, and pleaded not guilty. Lindsay was arrested for whipping his own child (a boy about three years of age) to death. He was released on $12,000 bail, given by his father and brothers, and his case referred to this term of the Court. At the request of the District Attorney the case was put over to the January Term. Lindsay is described as a man rather below the medium size, about thirty five years of age, and with a very determined look. He fully justifies himself, and declares he was only in the way of duty.

SENSITIVE AFFECTION.—Joseph Watson and wife were riding down a steep hill in Andover, Conn., on Friday, when a wheel of their vehicle came off and both were thrown out. Mrs. Watson sprang up and found that her husband was insensible. He was taken to the nearest farm house, and reviving exclaimed, "My back is broke and I am going to die." This frightened his wife so much that she went into convulsions, and in twenty minutes was dead. Mr. Watson has since recovered. A daughter, fifteen years old, has become insane on account of the death of her mother.

In the country west and northwest of Dayton, Ohio, the rats are swarming, and apparently migrating southward, an indication of a severe winter. In many places they are so numerous that they have not only destroyed the corn, sweet potatoes and tomatoes, but are climbing fruit trees and destroying the fruit.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1.—Richard Thairwell, who murdered James Houseman on the 4th of last April, was executed to-day at Uniontown, Fayette county. There were but forty persons present at the last dread scene, and nothing remarkable happened on the scaffold. He died, he said, a Christian, hoping for forgiveness for his awful crime. His death was an easy one. He struggled but a few minutes after the drop fell. He thanked Sheriff Boyd and said "the life published purporting to be mine is not true."

AN ECLIPSE.—On Monday, October 8th, there will be a partial eclipse of the sun, which, however, cannot be seen in this part of the United States, but will be visible in New England. It occurs in the morning, at the time of new moon, and will be the last eclipse of the sun visible in the United States until August 7th, 1869.

On the 7th inst., as Mr. David Berry, living near Alton, Illinois, was driving his team into his yard, the bees from one hundred or more hives, made a sudden attack upon the horses and himself, stinging both the animals to death, and Mr. Berry severely.

It is estimated that the corn crop of Pennsylvania for the present year will amount to about 30,000,000 of bushels, being an average yield of 33 bushels for each acre planted. Last year the corn crop of the State was an average of 40 bushels to the acre.

The Hon. J. B. Steele, ex-member of Congress from Rondout, N. Y., was killed at that place last Monday, by being thrown from his wagon while his horse was running away.

A despatch from Richmond states that Jefferson Davis will not be tried there, and there is a report that Judge Underwood hesitates to appoint his court for that city, owing to a conspiracy to assassinate him.

President Johnson removed a postmaster in New York a few days ago, who had given four sons to the Union army.—That is making treason odious with a vengeance.

"Dick" Taylor, ex rebel general, is in Richmond.

There are yet remaining in the United States Treasury's office drafts for the following named persons, who assisted in the capture of the assassins of President Lincoln: James W. Purdon, citizen, $1,878.08; private Martin Kelley, David Baker, Wm. McQuade and Frederick Deltz, each $1,658.84.

Dan Rice's big elephant went on a raid in Utica the other night, and consumed the contents of three gardens.

Hon. Henry May, a former representative in Congress from Maryland, died in Baltimore on Tuesday, in the 50th year of his age.

Secretary Seward is now fully recovered from the effects of his recent illness, and performing his duties.

A patent has been issued to Jas. Chambers, of Boonsboro, Md., for improvement in cooking stoves.

During the last 20 years a colored woman in Connecticut has had 24 children.

Gen. Pritchard, who captured Jeff. Davis, is a Union candidate for Congress from Michigan.

MARKETS.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2, 1866.—There is no new feature to present in the Flour market. There is a steady demand from the home consumers for the better brands of spring and winter Wheat at full prices, but a total absence of any inquiry for shipment; sales of 1,600 bbls, including superfine at $7.75@8.75; old and new stock extra at $8@11; 1,000 bbls Northwest extra family at $12@13, the latter rate for choice; 200 bbls Kentucky white Wheat at $14.75 800 bbls Missouri do, at $14, and 400 bbls family at $15@16, according to quality. Rye Flour is selling in small lots at $6@6.50.—No transaction to report in Corn Meal.
There is a fair demand for Wheat of prime quality, but the offerings are small, and prices have again advanced; sales of 2,000 bushels fair and choice Pennsylvania and Southern red at $2.85@3.10. White may be quoted at $3@3.25. Rye is scarce and in moderate request; sales of Western at $1.17@1.15, and Pennsylvania at $1.16@1.20.—Corn comes in slowly, and prices are 4@5¢; sales of high; sales of 1,000 bushels yellow at $1.07@1.10; 8,500 bushels Western mixed at $1.06, and 2,000 bushels white at $1.05. Oats remain without material change; sales of 3,500 bushels new Southern at 55¢, and 1,500 bushels new Pennsylvania at 58¢.

"AWAKE, FREEMEN OF PENNA."
LET the danger which—through the treachery of a base and faithless Executive—now beset this Republic; Let the dreadful lesson of the past—four long years of bloody war—Let the roll mumble of the distant thunder from the still rebellious South warn you to come once more to the front and cast your halloo upon the side of Liberty and Union; Let every man speak in the voice from which there is no appeal, "we will not have men whose hands are red with the blood of our Fathers, our Brothers and our Sons to rule over this Nation."
Loyal men of Washington Township who are opposed to Rebel Rule, opposed to the Payment of the Rebel Debt, opposed to Rebel as well as Negro Suffrage, assemble in your might in
