WOMAN CANDIDATE.—Mrs. Elizabeth Cady is an Independent Candidate for Congress in the Eight Congressional District of New York. The Constitution of the State of New York extends the female citizen the same political and civil rights that it does to the male, except that it debars the former from voting. Women are eligible, however, to the highest office in the gift of the people of the State, and Mrs. Stanton, if elected, will hold her seat legally.

LARGE VOTE.—The veteran Statesman, Hon. Thad. Stevens, according to a statement in the Lancaster Examiner, received the largest vote and largest majority at the late election ever cast for Congress in his District.

Indiana, like Pennsylvania, will elect a United States Senator this winter. H. S. Lane, a my policy Senator, goes out of the United States Senate on the 4th of March, 1867, as a Senator from Indiana. The recent election in Indiana gives the radicals a majority of 40 on joint ballot in the Legislature.

BALTIMORE ELECTION.—At the recent election in Baltimore Chapman (Union) and the entire City Council Ticket were elected. Chapman's majority for Mayor is 2,840.

A CHANCE FOR PEACE.—The pause in political excitement over the country since the result of the October elections has been ascertained, offers, says the Baltimore American, a fitting opportunity for President Johnson to speak out and calm the excited feelings that will be aroused to fever heat again before the first of November. He has frequently declared that he appealed from Congress to the people, and would abide the result. His confidence, so often expressed, that the people would sustain his policy and repudiate that of Congress, has been disappointed. The people have spoken in six States, too emphatically to be misunderstood, in favor of the Congressional plan of reconstruction. He professes to be a man of the people. He has thrown all the influence and power of the Government in the scale against Congress, but the representatives of the people have been sustained, even with the additional indications of intentions upon their part to impeach the President if he still persists in throwing obstacles in the way of the pacification of the country.

The opportunity has now occurred for President Johnson to keep his word, and submit to the expressed will of the people.—By so doing he will prove himself the true friend of the South, and will be enabled, through the great influence he has obtained over the people of that section, to induce them to accept the amendment proposed to the Constitution, and at once resume their full status as States of the Union. He has it in his power, by yielding his antagonism to Congress, to become the pacifier of the North and the South, and to re-establish the whole Union on a basis of friendship and good feeling that has not before existed during the present century. By so doing he will also ameliorate and in a measure obliterate the feeling of antagonism which he has drawn upon himself by the bitter language he has used against those differing from him, and will be enabled to thwart intentions that are still entertained of a test of the power of Congress against the Executive.

Let us for a moment contemplate what would be the effect over the country of an official announcement by the President that, having submitted the questions of difference between himself and Congress to the arbitration of the people, and the decision of the people having been against his peculiar views, he was prepared to give a hearty support to the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and to such other wise and just measures as Congress might propose for the re-establishment of harmony and good feeling throughout the Union. Instead of gold-dredging, we would at once have a serious decline to record. National securities would become more valuable, and would be more eagerly sought after; and all the necessities of life would commence a steady and unfaltering decline towards their former standard. The South would at once accept the amendment, and admit its strict justice, which cannot be successfully denied or disputed. The animosities of the political contest would rapidly subside all over the land, and in the South a better feeling would exist between the people of all classes. The antagonism which has been fostered by the President against the Southern loyalists would soon die out, and toleration of opinion would become universal where it has been smothered by sectional bitterness. But above all, the personal feeling of animosity against the Executive branch of the Government would everywhere subside, and the extremists at the North would be thwarted in their intention of imposing harsher terms on the South than those presented in the Constitutional amendment.

THE LATEST FASHIONS.—Since the invention and successful introduction of the Celebrated Duplex Elliptic [or double] Spring Hoop Skirt by Mr. J. W. Bradley of New York, the ladies throughout the country have given up the idea of discarding the fashion of wearing hoop skirts on account of the peculiar and graceful manner in which the Duplex Skirts adapt themselves to every exigency and emergency. So generally acceptable have these Skirts become that the ladies regard them as a special favorite in view of the superior flexibility, lightness and durability combined in their manufacture. They also consider them a far more economical and comfortable Hoop Skirt than ever has or can be made for all crowded assemblies, for the promenade or house dress. Any lady after wearing one of these Skirts will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. Long experience in the manufacture of Hoop Skirts has proven to the proprietors of this invention, that single springs will always retain that stiff, unyielding and bungling style which has ever characterized them, whereas the double spring-hoop or the Duplex Elliptic, will be found free from these objections. Notwithstanding the ability of the manufacturers, Messrs. West's, Bradley & Cary, to turn out over six thousand Skirts per day from their large manufactories in New York, they feel obliged to request all merchants ordering the Duplex Elliptic Skirts, to send their orders a few days before they are wanted, if possible, as they are always most constantly oversold some days ahead.

The States which hold their election on November sixth, are Illinois, New York, Maryland, Michigan, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas, Delaware, Nevada and New Jersey.

General Benjamin F. Butler is after the President—he is preparing a tarradiddle for Andy Johnson. The General will unquestionably be elected to Congress, and as soon after he takes his seat "as possible" he proposes to impeach the President on the following charges:

1. Wrongfully using the power of appointment, and disregarding the prerogatives of the United States Senate in the appointment of men whom that body, in pursuance of constitutional authority, had tried and rejected.
11. For declaring peace in the insurrectionary States without the consent of Congress.
111. For corruptly using the Pardoning Power.
- IV. For failing to enforce the Civil Rights Bill.
- V. For complicity in the New Orleans riot.

The pirate Semmes, of the Alabama, has been elected Probate Judge in Mobile; but, as he is yet unparoled, he cannot act. Meanwhile many interests are suffering on account of this obstruction of the business of the court. He has been requested to resign, but haughtily refuses.

A Mrs. Carson died recently in Georgia aged 103 years, 6 months and 3 days.—She had out three sets of teeth, the last being small, and like a squirrel's. Her eldest son died in Louisiana, a few months ago, at the age of 81 or 82 years.

Two hundred guns were fired in San Francisco, Thursday night, in honor of the recent Union victories.

John Van Buren died recently on board the steamship Scotia at sea.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SALE.—Special attention is directed to the sale of personal property announced by Mrs. Knepper in to-day's paper.

ADJOURNED SALE.—The sale of valuable real estate by W. W. & G. W. Walker is postponed until Monday the 22d inst.

CLOTHING.—Geo. Bender, Esq., requests us to announce that he has just received another large supply of ready-made clothing for fall and winter wear. His customers are invited to call and examine his stock.

NEW GOODS.—T. J. Filbert, Merchant Tailor, has returned from the East with his fall and winter supply of new goods for gentlemen's wear. Drop in and examine his styles.

DRY GOODS.—The advertisement of Mr. Geo. Stover announcing his arrival of new fall and winter goods was received at too late an hour for insertion this week. A large supply of goods, including boots and shoes, will be found at his store.

FRESH FISH AND OYSTERS.—The season for "good things" in the way of fresh fish and oysters has opened, and Messrs. Hostetter, Reid & Co. are prepared to supply the demand. Their store will be in receipt of articles of this kind on Friday afternoon of each week during the Fall and Winter.

APPLES.—Most of our farmers and others having orchards are now securing their winter supply of apples. The crop proves an abundant one in this section.

DAVID FULTON, Smithburg, Md., will place us under special obligations to him by remitting us $3, the amount of his arrears to this office for subscription. We will continue to call on those in arrears from week to week, stating the amount of their indebtedness.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The East end of our town is receiving quite an addition in the way of improvements in the erection of an extensive Foundry and Machine Shop by Mr. Geo. Frick. The building, which is one hundred and twenty odd feet in depth, is now ready for roofing. When the work is completed, Mr. Frick, in connection with Geiser, Price & Co., will be prepared for an extensive business.

THE NEW CHURCH.—The work of preparing the foundation for the new Presbyterian Church has been completed, and the building, it is expected, will be under roof some time during next month. The congregation has been fortunate in selecting a location.—For a church it is certainly a favorite spot.

PROMISING.—The grain fields recently seeded in this section already present a most promising appearance. The ground at the time of seeding is said to have been in better condition than for many years. Fears are entertained however of damage from the fly should the weather continue warm for a few weeks longer.

WINTER.—A severe winter is predicted from almost every quarter. Hives overflow with honey; unusual thickness of corn husks, and the furs of wild beasts; the migration of rats from the west to the east; and as the season advances, we suppose there will be added to this list of signs, the extraordinary stores of nuts laid up by squirrels.—However much we may be disposed to smile at such omens, it would be well for even the most incredulous to be prepared for a severe winter.

Professor Ferguson, of the National Observatory at Washington, is making arrangements for scientific observations of the meteoric display which is set down for November 12th. It is predicted that the display will be unusually brilliant, and particularly worthy the attention of scientific men.

Whipped to Death.

Another case of fatal child flogging, if possible more revolting in shocking details than the recent Lindsey child murder in Medina, N. Y., occurred at Barna, a few miles from this city, on Wednesday last, the victim in this instance being a little girl five years of age, named Kate Sibley, the illegitimate daughter of Schuyler Sibley and a Miss Kate Davis, and the alleged provocation leading to the cruel act being the refusal of the child to say its prayers. From the evidence elicited at the inquest on the body of the child, it appears that on the night in question the mother had beaten the child with a raw-hide for nearly an hour, and when rendered insensible by pain and loss of blood, thrust it into a chair and went to bed. For a time the child was heard to moan as if in intense agony, but soon became quiet, and nothing more was heard until near morning, when a servant entering the room found the child dead, and immediately gave the alarm.

The murderer, in being examined, confessed that a few days previous to the fatal act, the father of the child had administered to it a most unmerciful beating for not saying its prayers and ordered her to do the same whenever it refused. The jury returned a verdict, originating both parents, whereupon they were both committed to prison to await trial for murder.—Kingston (C. W.) Cor. Sun.

Mr. Amos Spear, a citizen of Saco, Maine, was murdered last Saturday night, near the bridge which crosses the Saco river, by three Bideford men named Lewis, Ederly and Watkins. Lewis has turned state's evidence, and says that he and Ederly and Watkins concealed themselves at about the centre of the bridge, and as Spear approached Watkins struck him with a club upon the head, and repeated the blow several times. Afterwards they all stamped upon his body until he was nearly dead, when they proceeded to search his pockets, but found only a small quantity of fractional currency. They then commenced to drag the body to a convenient place, intending to throw it into the river, but just at this time two policemen came along, when they dropped the body and fled. They were arrested shortly afterwards.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11, 1866.

Hon John W. Geary, Governor Elect of Penna. California congratulates you on your triumphant election and the Congressional victories of other States. Two hundred guns are now being fired in their honor.

J. R. HARDENBERG, LOUIS R. LULL, HARRY T. BROWN, Union State Central Committee.

POTTSVILLE, Oct. 12.—Two hundred and fifteen guns are now being fired in honor of General Coker's election, by 215 majority.

Milwaukee is a terrible place. The Young Men's Christian Association of that city reported recently that two millions of dollars have been invested in beer there during the last year, and one family in seven is destitute.

The municipal election in Memphis, Tenn., on Friday, resulted in the election of the Copperhead mayor, and both Copperhead candidates to the Legislature.

The Grand Army of the Republic, which has reached a membership in the West of upwards of 500,000, is rapidly being propagated in the East.

Many Southerners in Washington, among them Harry Gilmer.

Counterfeits of the new five-cent coin have appeared.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND
J. W. Bradley's celebrated Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT.

THE wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline; not found in any Single Spring Skirt.

A lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with the ruse. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the Single Spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary Skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down steep stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashionable Magazines as the STANDARD SKIRT OF THE FASHIONABLE WORLD.

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in Crinoline, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, enquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against imposition be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also Notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

FOR SALE in all stores where FIRST CLASS skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere.
