LOCAL MATTERS.

WOOD—We will receive a cord or two of dry wood in payment for subscription if delivered soon.

A CARD—We call special attention to the card of Col. F. S. Stumbaugh, published in another column.

RECEIVED—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from Rev. O. B. Thayer, Louisville, Kentucky.

SECOND ARRIVAL—Messrs. Amberson, Benedict & Co. are now receiving their second supply of new fall and winter goods.—Advertisement next week.

The valuable residence on East Main street, belonging to the heirs of John Gilbert, Jr., dec'd., is offered for sale. See advertisement.

FARM SOLD—A few days since Mr. Daniel Myers disposed of his farm in Quincey Township, containing 172 acres, at private sale, to Mr. J. H. Gordon, of this place, for the sum of $70 per acre.

HEAVY PURCHASE—Frederick Foreman, of the vicinity of Upton, in this county, recently purchased the farm and Mill property of Christian Frantz, of Welsh Run, for the sum of $20,000.

SUED—Suit has been instituted against John Benedict and John Snyder, the Union portion of the Election Board of Fayetteville District, for refusing the ballots of deserters at that poll.

FARM SOLD—A small but desirable tract of improved land will be sold at public sale, near this place on Tuesday next by the Executors of Henry Miller, dec'd. See advertisement.

PUBLIC SALE—We call special attention to the real and personal property announced for sale in another column by Mr. Daniel Myers.

ADVERTISING—We require all advertisements in the Record to be settled for within a reasonable time after the time for which they were inserted has expired. The memories of some of our good patrons need refreshing on this point.

MR. JOHN LIGHT, Martinsburg, Blair county, formerly of Quincey township, has failed to pay his arrearages for subscription to Record, $16.50. John, no doubt, has imbibed a notion very prevalent now-a-days, that it costs nothing to publish a newspaper. We hope, however, to receive a favorable response from John before he "shuffles off this mortal coil."

SOLD—Mr. David Miller, of this place, formerly of the Monterey House, has purchased the "Gordon property" adjoining Monterey, for the sum $22,000, and purposes, we understand, erecting new buildings there during next season for the accommodation of boarders and visitors. Mr. M.'s kind and accommodating disposition, with his experience in conducting public houses, will doubtless secure for him a liberal patronage.

"WAYNESBORO HOTEL"—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. V. B. Gilbert, announcing for sale the old and well established "Waynesboro Hotel." The property may be regarded as one among the most desirable in the county, and to any person wishing to engage in the business, affords an opportunity for a profitable investment.

HAT EMPORIUM—It will be seen by reference to his advertisement that Mr. J. L. Dechart, Chambersburg, has now for sale an extensive supply of Hats, Caps, Ladies Furs, etc. etc. Persons visiting Chambersburg to purchase anything in the hat or fur line should not fail to call at Dechart's.

BE CAREFUL—Our exchanges teem with accounts of women children and servants being burned to death with coal oil lamps.—A lamp upset, and the whole mass of oil instantly ignites, running over everything, and setting fire to the clothing of women and children who may be near. People cannot be too careful in handling coal oil. Lamps occasionally explode, when the oil is permitted to burn low, and such accidents frequently terminate in death.

LABORERS' MEETING—We have been requested to announce that a meeting of Day Laborers of Washington township will be held at the Town Hall, on tomorrow (Saturday) evening, for the purpose of establishing a regular price for Day Labor and the transaction of other important business. A general attendance is requested.

A SUPERIOR NUMBER—The Phrenological Journal for November contains sketches of the King and queen of the Belgians, with likenesses; Chief Men among the Mormons, with many excellent portraits and other illustrations; besides Lyceum Lectures; Dr. J. Fossati, the celebrated French Phrenologist; Public Opinion; Women who talk; Family dogs; and a host of other readings, suggestive and profitable to all. Price 20 cents, or $2 a year. Address Fowler and Wells, 829 Broadway, New York.

At Erie, in his speech, the President said, "I tell you all the powers in hell cannot turn me from my purpose." To which some exchange adds, "Doubtless they don't want to!"

A Whole Family Die of Cholera.

The cholera has raged fearfully at Chicago notwithstanding the efforts of the papers of that city to conceal the facts. The Post of that city says:

A gentleman came to the health office at an early hour this morning, and reported that a whole family, residing at No. 88 Green Bay street, were lying dead of cholera in their house. Officers were at once dispatched to the place indicated, and there beheld one of the most sickening sights that has been recently witnessed in our city. In a small room, about sixteen feet square, in a filthy condition, and bearing all the squalid appearance which usually marks the home of extreme poverty, lay the lifeless bodies of a man and woman, apparently about thirty-five years of age.

The body of the man lay upon the floor, black and distorted, while that of the woman, his wife, lay upon a rude bed, in a frightful condition. Sitting on the floor in one corner, alone with the dead, was a little boy about seven years of age, the only child of the deceased parents.

Upon inquiry the little orphan stated that his father and mother were taken sick yesterday and died last night just after dark.—The poor boy had passed the night in solitude and sorrow, frightened by the solemnity of the scene, but unconscious of his great loss.

It was ascertained that some relatives of the family who lived near by, had been informed of their sickness, but from timidity or neglect had never went to their assistance. A physician had been summoned by some humane neighbors, but, knowing the poverty of the family, refused to attend.

Prof. A. Wood, with a party of gentlemen, lately ascended Mount Hood, in Oregon. His report establishes the fact that Mount Hood is really a volcano, and that it is the highest mountain in the United States, being 17,600 feet.

Gen. Grant's pay is $16,678 per year, and Lieut. Gen. Sherman's $13,518; each is allowed fifty horses. A major general gets $5,800 a year, and is allotted five horses.—The pay of a brigadier general is $3,940 50.

Judge Barnard, of New York, has finally decreed that Harriet E. Cristy is the lawful wife and rightful heiress of E. P. Christy, the negro minstrel, and she secures his estate of over $200,000.

Mr. Geo. Peabody has just given to Harvard University $150,000 in trust for the foundation and maintenance of a Museum and Professorship of American Archaeology & Ethnology.

Mrs. Cunningham, notorious in connection with the Bardell murder, a few years since, is said to have been lost on the steamer Evening Star.

Gen. Robert E. Lee has sent a lock of his hair to St. Louis, at the request of a lady. It is to be put up in a raffle.

Forty thousand uniforms are said to be making at the Fenian headquarters in New York.

Horace Greeley has made, it is said, $100,000 out of his history.

A CARD.

The undersigned without solicitation on his part, having been twice nominated as one of the candidates for the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, by the Union Republican party in the Legislative District composed of the Counties of Franklin and Perry, and twice elected to this honorable position, by the partiality of a majority of the voters in said District, admits this method of acknowledging his sense of gratitude to those who voted for him. And being exceedingly anxious on his part, to represent the District faithfully and ably, on all questions pertaining to the interests of his constituents, is therefore deeply sensible of the fact, that his usefulness for the good of those he has the honor in part to represent, may be greatly injured, if not totally destroyed, by any movement on the part of a portion of his Republican friends, which would bind or attempt to bind him to worship at the shrine of any man, or of any measure which would or might be unjust to any other portion of his constituency.

Therefore, he regards the movement put in motion by the Editor of the Repository to instruct for United States Senator, as unwise and uncalled for.

In the call published in the Repository of the 17th inst., addressed to the Chairman of the Union County Committee, the language is as follows:—"Once betrayed, the Union men naturally feel the keenest interests in the choice of Senator."

Then again, in the same paper, in the issue of the 24th inst., in an article headed "Senatorial County Convention," the editor says among other things, "Betrayed by Cooper, again betrayed by Cowan."

Now it would seem that the Editor of the Repository is laboring, by the foregoing extracts of the call and article alluded to, to convince the Union Republicans not only of this District, but throughout the State, that any and all the distinguished gentlemen named for the position of U. S. Senator, except his own choice, would betray the party.—Now let us see who they are:—

Hon. THADDEUS STAVANS, the able and fearless statesman, the acknowledged leader of the Republicans in the National House of Representatives.

Sen. Cassius M. Clay, who has for many years occupied the honorable position of U. S. Senator, discharging his every duty with an eye single to the interests of this Commonwealth and the country at large, and who was honored by that great and good man ABRAHAM LINCOLN, with a seat in his Cabinet as Secretary of War.

His Excellency, ANDREW G. CURTIS, present Governor of the Commonwealth, and for whom the editor of the Repository desires to instruct.

Hon. ————, the able and eloquent advocate, in and out of Congress, of Republican principles and measures.

JOHN W. FORNEY, who with his signal ability as an orator and writer, contributed as much as any other man to build up the Republican party, and to achieve its many victories.

These are the gentlemen named for that distinguished position. Who of these men if any other, would "betray" the Union men of this or any other district? Let the editor of the Repository answer.

In the article referred to, the editor and writer, in concluding, says:—"But let not the decided preferences of the people be smothered, while the Legislators go to Harrisburg to barter their votes for personal advancement or Legislative success."

The undersigned submits, that this Sterling admonition comes with bad grace, from the editor of the Repository and Transcript. In other words, men who live in "Imperial" glass houses, ought not to be the first to throw stones.

And now to conclude, I aver that this mode of instructing a Representative on the question of United States Senator, is unprecedented, and unknown by the Republican party of this District, and I believe throughout the State.

That such a course is fraught with danger to the success of the party in this District, none can deny. It was considered unwise by the Convention that nominated the writer of this Card, because it would have defeated the ticket. It is obviously unwise to instruct the election, in this close District, because it must produce the same result in future elections.

That the people of this District, are intensely interested in measures pertaining to compensation for losses during the rebellion, and by instructing on this Senatorial question, they will dispel every hope of being reimbursed or indemnified, or of getting their claims legally adjudicated.

With these views, as one of the Representatives of this District, who was elected without any pledges on this question, I shall do what I conceive to be just and proper in the premises, toward all the candidates, giving that man my vote, whom the current of events shall dictate to my judgment as the one of the many worthy Union Republican gentlemen named for that position, who I shall regard will best subserve the interests of the party, the Commonwealth, and the country at large;—and I shall do so regardless of fear or favor, and without the most distant idea of the party being betrayed.

The Lancaster Examiner states that the Hon. Thad. Stevens not only is, but will remain a candidate for U. S. Senator until the choice is made.

The recent election in West Virginia is viewed as a great Radical or Union triumph. Andy's swinging around the erole with the Constitution didn't have the desired effect there either.

DEATH OF MISS SEWARD—Miss Frances A. Seward, only daughter of Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State, died on Monday morning at half past six o'clock. She was an amiable and accomplished young lady. Miss Seward was in her 23d year.

We are on the eve of another Fenian excitement. Head Centre Stephens has had placed at his disposal, by the Irish merchants of New York, three iron glads. This looks like the business of war.

In North Carolina, as far as can be ascertained, every candidate for the Legislature known to be in favor of the Constitutional Amendment was defeated at the late election.

A letter received in Washington from Vera Cruz, dated the 12th ult., states that a French officer has arrived there with despatches from Napoleon, ordering the French troops in Mexico to return to France, and advising Maximilian to abdicate in favor of anybody he pleases, and go home.

MARYLAND ELECTION—The Maryland election comes off on Tuesday next. An exciting time may be anticipated if rebels and those who aided and abetted them attempt to vote in violation of the State law. In Baltimore the excitement is great, and should the governor attempt to displace the loyal judges and policemen, a bloody collision may be regarded as imminent.

RIOT AT WESTMINSTER—A Johnson meeting was held at Westminster on the 20th ult., and although very slimly attended, they succeeded in getting up a riot, in which four persons were shot, and severely wounded.—The Union men, in order to guard against riot and bloodshed, refrained as far as possible from political discussion on that day, but it seemed that a drunken set of rebels, who had been shouting for Andy Johnson and Jeff. Davis, made an attack upon a Union man named Henry Bell, who in self-defence fired upon the party and wounded four of them. Mr. Bell was taken charge of by the Sheriff and placed in the jail. The rebels then raised a crowd of two or three hundred and proceeded to the jail and demanded the body of Mr. Bell, threatening to lynch him on the spot, having been advised to this course by several inflammatory speeches.—But Sheriff Hoppe met the noisy throng upon the threshold with a pair of trusty revolvers, and gave them to understand that the first man that approached would be shot dead on the spot. The crowd gave vent to their rage in noisy curses, and soon after dispersed. The meeting like the riot was a total failure.

A letter from Fort Union, Montana, dated October 1, says a party of miners, descending the river in a Mackinaw boat, encamped for the night at the mouth of Milk River, and were attacked by a band of about fifty Sioux Indians. After five hours hard and bloody fighting, the Indians were driven off with a loss of twenty-one killed. The whites had four killed and several wounded. One white man named Kent shot ten Indians and killed three others with his knife. The Indians were armed with guns, clubs and knives.

A FATHER KILLED BY HIS SON—Last week Mr. J. H. Lane, a respectable citizen residing near Lynville, Tenn., was shot and instantly killed by his son, a lad some sixteen or seventeen years of age. The elder Lane, having returned home intoxicated, was offering some violence to his wife, when the son, coming to her relief, was assailed by his father, armed with a large knife. Escape being out of, he is believed to have fired the fatal shot in defense of his own life.

HEAVY TAX BILLS—It is announced that a single firm in New York, who are well known tobaccoists, pay the government internal revenue duties, upon their manufactured tobacco, an average of $70,000 a month, and that their entire taxes, including licenses, income and other taxes, during the year amount to considerably more than $1,000,000. The well-known house of A. T. Stewart & Co., in New York, besides over $400,000 income tax, pays the government millions of dollars annually in the shape of customs.

At the U. S. District Court at Pittsburg, last week, three men were convicted of passing counterfeit money. One was sentenced to pay a fine of 5,000 and be imprisoned 15 years in the Western Penitentiary. Another a fine of $3,000, and 10 years in the Penitentiary. The third a fine of $1,000, and 5 years in the Penitentiary. These "honest" gentlemen did not make much of that speculation.

Capt. Fisk writes, from Helena, Montana, that more than 3,000 emigrants have been killed by the Indians during this season.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA Oct. 30.—There was quite an active home consumption inquiry for Flour, and holders advanced their views 25¢ per barrel on the better grades of spring and Western Wheat, but there was no inquiry for shipment, as present extreme prices leave no margin for exportation to any point.—Sales of 1,900 barrels, including 1,600 barrels Northwest extra family, at $18@14; 200 barrels Pennsylvania and Ohio do. at $14@15; old stock and fresh-ground extras at $9@12, and superfine at $8@3. Rye Flour is in good demand, and 200 barrels sold at $7 75. In Corn Meal no improvement to notice.

The Wheat Market continues to be characterized by much firmness, and the article is in steady request, but the offerings are very small. Sales of Pennsylvania and Southern red at $3@3.25, and 1,500 bushels amber at $3.25, including 1,000 bushels on private terms. Rye is scarce, and 50 bushels higher. Sales of 1,000 bushels old Western at 1 45, and Pennsylvania at $1.50. In corn there was less activity, but prices remain without change. Sales of 2,000 bush yellow at $1 25; Western is held at $1 25.—Oats are in good demand, and prices advanced 5¢ bushel. Sales of 6,000 bushels Southern at 65c. Nothing doing in Barley or Malt.

PHILADELPHIA Oct. 30.—There was quite an active home consumption inquiry for Flour, and holders advanced their views 25¢ per barrel on the better grades of spring and Western Wheat, but there was no inquiry for shipment, as present extreme prices leave no margin for exportation to any point.—Sales of 1,900 barrels, including 1,600 barrels Northwest extra family, at $18@14; 200 barrels Pennsylvania and Ohio do. at $14@15; old stock and fresh-ground extras at $9@12, and superfine at $8@3. Rye Flour is in good demand, and 200 barrels sold at $7 75. In Corn Meal no improvement to notice.

The Wheat Market continues to be characterized by much firmness, and the article is in steady request, but the offerings are very small. Sales of Pennsylvania and Southern red at $3@3.25, and 1,500 bushels amber at $3.25, including 1,000 bushels on private terms. Rye is scarce, and 50 bushels higher. Sales of 1,000 bushels old Western at 1 45, and Pennsylvania at $1.50. In corn there was less activity, but prices remain without change. Sales of 2,000 bush yellow at $1 25; Western is held at $1 25.—Oats are in good demand, and prices advanced 5¢ bushel. Sales of 6,000 bushels Southern at 65c. Nothing doing in Barley or Malt.
