Collectors of Internal Revenue, have teen ordered to personally and thoroughly inspect every distillery in their district, and to summarily close up such as are not carried on in strict conformity to law. All Inspectors who are suspected of collusion with partics seeking to evade the law are to be at once discharged.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION .- Recent advices from Harrisburg render it almost cer. tain that Governor Curtin is no longer a formidable candidate for U. S. Scnator. The withdrawal of Mr. Quay from the contest for Speakership of the House (tantamount to a -defeat), indicates that Gov. Curtin's-friends are in a minority. This being so, the contest lies between Mr. Stevens and General! Cameron. So says the Lancaster Examiner.

APPOINTMENTS - Governor Goary has appointed B. H. Brewster, Esq., of Philadelphia, Attorney General, and Col F. Jordon, of Bedford, Secretary of the Commonwealth The appointments have been well received by the Republican press of the State, and give general satisfaction.

If we may credit our Washington despatches the President is relying upon the Supreme Court to aid him in his fight with the loyal people of the Union. He believes the Court will decide the Southern States fully restored to the Union, and entitled to representation in Congress, and therefore, is in this place was removed on Tuesday last still urging these States to reject the Constitutional Amendment. Whatever the Suprome Court may do in this direction, the South may be assured that it will not be received back until the guarantees demaned by Congress are fully complied with. The people will reverse any such decision, should it he given, as surely and completely as they did that in the Dred Scott case.

A Washington despatch says Mr Sto - vens is preparing some important measures which will be introduced immediately on the assembling of Congress. They look to radical changes in both Executive and Judicial quarters. The recent decision of the Supreme Court in regard to military trials, together with the report of other important by Mr Jacob Stover of Mt. Hope. Mr. S. decisions shortly to follow, in which it is all has determined to relinquish farming and leged they intend to declare several laws now will sell without reserve. on the statute book unconstitutional, have produced a feeling of alarm.
