

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, March 1, 1867.

The Military Bill for the government of the Rebel States last week finally passed both Houses of Congress, and awaits the sanction or veto of the President. If his Abolitionary veto Congress, it is confidently asserted, will pass the bill by a two-thirds vote. The bill gives the right of suffrage to all persons twenty-one years old, regardless of color, except those disfranchised by participation in rebellion or for felony.

The last soldier of the Revolution died in Saratoga county, New York, last week, and the fact was announced through a telegraphic dispatch to Congress. Samuel Downing was the name of this last survivor of the noble band of heroes.

Governor Brownlow was renominated for Governor by the Republican State Convention of Tennessee by acclamation. A resolution was unanimously adopted declaring Gen. Thomas to be the choice of Tennessee for the next President of the United States.

The first election in the District of Columbia, under the universal suffrage law passed by Congress, took place in Georgetown on Monday, the candidates voted for being a Mayor and members of the City Council. The election passed off with entire quiet. The police arrangements made prevented all disturbance, and white and black voted together in a quiet and orderly manner, and with no outward manifestations of ill feeling. The result was the election of Mr. Welsh, the Republican nominee, by a small majority. The Star of last Monday, in speaking of the election before the result was known, says that "during the entire day there has been less of drunkenness and disorderly conduct than usual upon the streets, though from an early hour the streets and corners in the vicinity of the polls have been occupied by groups of citizens, without distinction of color, who were evidently deeply interested in the result of the election."

John H. Surratt was arraigned in the Criminal Court at Washington on Saturday on an indictment for murder. When brought into the Court his hands were handcuffed, but by request of his counsel the Court ordered them released, and the indictment was read to him by the Clerk of the Court. Surratt entered the plea of "Not guilty." The Clerk then asked: "How will you be tried? To which the latter replied: "By my countrymen;" when the officer added: "Then may God send you a safe deliverance." The handcuffs were then replaced, and the prisoner remanded to jail. No time has yet been fixed for his trial.

NEW JURY LAW.—The general jury bill now before the Legislature, provides for the election of two Jury Commissioners in each county in the State, whose duty it shall be to meet at the county seat thirty days before each term of Court, in order to draw jurors for such term. These Jury Commissioners are to be chosen at the election next fall, each qualified voter casting a ballot for one person for the office, and the two receiving the highest number of votes to be elected. They are to serve three years, and to be paid out of the county treasury at the same rate per day as County Commissioners are paid in the same county.

When all the seats in the next House of Representatives are filled, including Nebraska, it will stand 147 Republicans to 45 Democrats. The Senate will be composed of 42 Republicans and 12 Democrats. In this classification Doolittle, Norton and Dixon are classed with the Democrats.

Quite a flood prevails in the Wabash River, in Indiana and Illinois. The water is higher than it was ever known before. The tops of the houses are barely visible, and steamboats are plying over the prairies in all directions after freight. The river, usually a narrow stream, is at present ten miles long.

Ex-Governor Brown gives a sign of returning reason in the South that is grateful. He has published a letter urging the acceptance by Georgia of the Military Reconstruction bill. He asks that the people take action upon the matter and that the Legislature be called together without delay in order that they may call a Convention to change the State Constitution "so as to provide for universal suffrage."

P. T. BARNUM has received the Republican nomination for Congress in the 4th District, of Connecticut.

The Tribune Washington correspondent asserts that the report of the impeachment Committee will startle the country.

Mrs. Henry Johnson, late Miss Harriet Lane, has given birth to a boy who has been christened James Buchanan. Pity the boy.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," Mrs. Stowe's extraordinary novel, is now in its three hundred and twelfth edition (three hundred and twelve thousand), and is still selling at the rate of two thousand a year.

OLD AND NEW SCHOOL.—For a long time past the subject of a union of the Old and New School Presbyterian bodies in this country has been debated in General Assemblies, Synods, Presbyteries, Sessions, and among the people in the churches. The distinctions of the two bodies being almost without a difference, the people of both communions have long felt that it was their duty to come together in form, as they have long ago united in heart. That all obstacles to a union should be removed a conference of members from both churches met in New York last week, and whatever the members may agree to recommend will undoubtedly be ratified by the respective General Assemblies which meet next May.

At a recent discussion in the New York Farmers' Club, a correspondent writes of the virtues of the pumpkin: I will give you a simple, yet very valuable cure for inflammatory rheumatism. A woman's arm was swelled to an enormous size, and painfully inflamed. A poultice was made of stewed pumpkin, which was renewed every fifteen minutes, and in a short time produced a perfect cure. The fever drawn out by the poultice made them extremely offensive, as they were taken off. I know a man cured of severe inflammation of the bowels by the same kind of application. I think such subjects as this proper for discussion in a farmer's club.

NOMINATIONS REJECTED.—The United States Senate has rejected the nominations of the following Pennsylvanians, made by the President: Assessors of Internal Revenue—A. H. Coffroth, of the Sixteenth District; Alfred G. Lloyd, of the Twenty-third District. Collectors of Internal Revenue—Rufus C. Swope, of the Tenth District; William G. McCandless, of the Twenty-third District. Consul—Charles Dougherty, for Consul at Londonderry.

AGED WOMAN.—Mrs. Ann Maria Bowman, lately living near Smithsburg, died on the 19th ult., at the advanced age of 91 years and 8 months. She was born a few days after the battle of Bunker Hill, and more than a year before the Declaration of Independence.

PLANTING POTATOES.—Our friend Reid has the following variety of planting potatoes for sale, all of which are highly recommended, viz.—White Cuzco, Chili Garnet, La Platte. See advertisement.

The roads are improving, a little.

THE MODEL SEWING MACHINE.—Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vauded, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of operation. Its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor unravel, while, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coach maker, dress-maker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and imitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines at prices far below the real value of the instruments. —N. Y. Herald.

We expect to have one of these machines for inspection at the shop of J. Reisinger, adjoining our office, in a day or two.

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—Hons. B. F. Wade, John B. Alley, R. F. Boyer, J. W. Patterson, J. H. Farquhar, R. B. Hayes, R. P. Buckland, Wm. Lawrence, Martin Welker, S. E. Ancona. Also, Mr. Thomas C. Durant, N. P. Willis, with Portraits, Biographies, and Characters. Indian Legends: Mental Telegraph; Woman's Rights and Woman's Wrong; Plain Words to Big Boys; The Teacher; Hints to Travelers; Visiting the Sick; Health at Home; A Trip to Omaha; Flogging; Parental Influence; Going to Paris; Pope's Essay on Man, etc., in March number Phrenological Journal. Only 20 cents, or $2 a year. Address FOWLER & WELLS, 339 Broadway, New York.

LARGE CROPS.—Those who pretend to be weather-wise predict that we will be blessed with heavy crops the ensuing season. It has been noticed that whenever a heavy fall of snow occurred about the time of full moon in February, large crops and an abundance of everything were sure to follow. We trust that in the present instance there will be no deviation from this custom. Rich and poor will be gratified to see large supplies the coming summer.

IMMENSE FORTUNE.—It has been ascertained beyond the possibility of a doubt that an immense fortune in Holland has been left a Grove family in this country, which is estimated at seventy-six millions. From what we learn the Grove family here might be heirs to the estate. The oldest member of the family living is Mrs. Susan Hinkle.—She resides near this place and is now in her 88th year. According to her statement her father left that part of Germany about 180 years ago and settled in York county in this State. Her statement as to name, &c. corroborates the information received from Holland.

SAVE YOUR OIL.—Put the wick into the lamp, and fill the latter about half full with coarse salt, and then put in about an inch of oil, and it will be found that a great saving will be the result. The salt wastes gradually away during the burning, and must therefore be renewed from time to time. The light is purer and more brilliant than without the salt; and the wick requires no trimming.

NEW FIRM.—We notice that our friends, W. W. Walker, T. J. Nijl and George W. Walker, have taken possession of the old Hager, or "corner Grocery," on the public square of Hagerstown. The firm combines more than ordinary energy of purpose and business tact, and will, we predict, succeed in driving a prosperous business.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. A. S. Oller has disposed of his farm, in Quincey township, containing 92½ acres, to Mr. Josiah Burger for the sum of $112 per acre.

GRAND BALL IN NEW YORK.—Fashionable circles in New York are agitated in view of grand ball to come off within a fortnight in Fifth Avenue. The giver of the ball is a wealthy citizen, and the feature of the occasion is to be the dancing of the German in costumes of different epochs extending thro' six centuries. The dresses are to be of the most elaborate and costly character, many of them having been procured from Paris. About two thousand invitations have been issued, it is said, and the Cosmopolitan Ball, as it is styled, will be a splendid representation of the beauty, wealth and fashion of the city.

Two Italian princes are in Washington, and are the objects of much attention in society.

BURIED ALIVE.—A painful and heart-rending occurrence took place at Enlistown, in York county, on Monday the 12th ult., by which a young man by the name of B. E. Ayers lost his life and was literally buried alive. It seems that the bucket in the well had dropped off its fastenings, and the young man went down to recover it, but scarcely had he got to the bottom when the wall and earth creased in upon him, burying him under its pressure to the depth of about fifty feet. Operations were at once commenced to rescue him, it possible from his fearful position, and stout workmen kept digging through the balance of the day and the whole of Monday night, but up until 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning they were still fifteen feet from the bottom of the well. At a later hour on Tuesday the body of the young man was recovered dead, and partly submerged in the water.

A Woman in Elgin, Canada East, a few nights since heard a dog barking furiously at the door. She followed the animal about a quarter of a mile through the snow, and found her father dying from exhaustion and exposure. The dog would scarcely allow anyone to approach the corpse.

A colored man named James Robinson, in the Superior court at Lowell, Mass., was tried and convicted of rape upon the person of Mrs. Rebecca P. Mann, a lady seventy-two years of age, on the 4th of January. He was sentenced to the State prison for life.
