

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, June 7, 1867.

An election was held in Washington on the 3d inst., which resulted in the choice of the Union ticket by about two thousand majority.

General Grant has accepted an invitation from the managers of the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburg to visit that town on the 20th of June. Governor Geary has also been invited, and will probably be present.

The campaign for Governor in Tennessee was warm. Joint discussions are being held between Horace Maynard and Emerson Kirtidge the candidate of the rebel or guerilla party.

DECLINING.—Flour has recently declined from one to two dollars per barrel in New York and other large cities. The prospects of an abundant harvest throughout the country must still further reduce the price of wheat and flour. Look out for a tumbling of prices.

ON A "RENDER".—President Johnson is off on a Southern tour. His Accident reached Richmond on Sunday last where he received the congratulations of his rebel admirers. He will continue to swing around the circle for a couple of weeks, accompanied by Seward and Randall, visiting the most noted Rebel haunts of the South. At such points as Memphis and New Orleans he will no doubt be most cordially welcomed.

"LITTLE PHIL" AT WORK.—General Sheridan on Monday issued an order removing Governor Wells, of Louisiana, and appointing Thomas Durant in his stead.

Some time ago the general disposed of two rival boards of levee commissioners, one of which had been appointed by Gov. Wells, and the other by a secession legislature, and the Governor has since manoeuvred in such a manner as to obtain from the President and Secretary of War an order requiring General Sheridan to withhold the execution of his order regarding the commissioners. On the strength of this interference with the workings of the reconstruction law, Gen. Sheridan immediately issued his order removing the Governor.

Of Governor Wells the General says: I say now unequivocally that Governor Wells is a political trickster and a disunionist. I have seen him myself, when I first came to this command, turn out all the Union men who supported the Government, and put in their stead rebel soldiers, some of whom had not doffed the gray uniform. I have seen him again, during the July riot of 1865, skulk away where I could not find him to give him a guard, instead of coming out as a manly representative of the State and joining those who were desirous of preserving the peace. I have watched him since, and his conduct has been as sly as the mark left in the dust by the movement of a snake. I say again that he is dishonest, and dishonesty is more than must be expected of me.

IMPORTANT LAWSUIT.—Heavy Verdict.—The suit of Butler's heirs vs. Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was tried at Middleburg, Snyder county, last week, and on Friday evening the jury rendered a verdict of $18,000 for the death of Col. Butler. Mrs. Butler was killed at the same time, and a suit is also depending for her death. A motion for a new trial was made. The accident, it will be remembered, occurred this side of Lancaster, and from all the information that could be obtained at the time it was difficult to decide what caused it; but from the testimony on the part of the plaintiff it was shown that the cars were crowded, that the train was running at a high speed, and that the sudden turning of axle and wheels causing the loss of life was a rotten tie.

John Dipple, landlord of the Black Horse Hotel, Lewistown, after receiving license, posted the following unique notice "To all whom it may concern."

"The undersigned desiring to obey all laws restraining the sale of liquors, respectfully requests all heads of families who have drunken sons, or husbands, wives or daughters, to give me the written notice required by law forbidding me to sell such habitual drunkards liquor, with their signatures attached and I pledged myself, my reputation, and my property, that such requests shall be rigidly complied with. I desire to comply with all laws regulating my legitimate business and in order to do so, request the assistance of all law abiding citizens. The members of temperance societies, who have annoyed me for liquor, will please me much by withdrawing their patronage from either me or the society."

New Yorkers are said to be negotiating for the Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. It is to be hoped that wonder of the world will pass into hands that have some energy and enterprise, for the Kentucky paralysis has fastened upon all its surroundings. If the owners do not sell we would advise them to go into the cave and pull the hole in after them.—Har. Tel.

ONE HUNDRED AND SIX YEARS OLD.—Near Carlisle there lives a Mrs. Kissel, who is now one hundred and six years old, is in good health, moves around briskly, and can assist in doing the domestic work.

Stephen Smith, is the richest colored man in Philadelphia. He owns seventy-five houses in fee-simple, and is not worth less than $800,000.

IMPORTANT LETTER.—The following letter from that venerable statesman and foe of traitors, Hon. Thad Stevens, will receive the commendation of citizens generally who were despoiled of their property by the Rebels during the late war for the Union:

LANCASTER, Thursday, May 23, To the Chairman of the County Committee, and the Assessors of the townships of the counties of Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Bedford, York, Somerset, Perry, and Cumberland,

GENTLEMEN: As I am about to prosecute the claims for confiscation at the next session of Congress, if I should be permitted to appear there, I desire to ascertain certain facts. Will you aid me in procuring them in a small part of our own State? Invite returns from all the people in each township of the amount of property which the rebel raiders, or the armies of the so-called "Confederate States," destroyed or appropriated to their own use during their several incursions into Pennsylvania, and hand the same to the assessors of the different townships, who are requested to return the aggregate for each township to the chairman of the respective parties of the different counties.—May I here ask that the various newspapers of the counties above publish this notice for a few weeks in aid of the object specified as I intend to press the payment of the damages done to loyal men out of the confiscated property of the conquered belligerents? I desire each and every person who resided in the above-named counties to make out a list of the amount of all property of which he was despoiled by the rebel raiders, or the rebel government, and return the same to the assessors of his township, who, I hope, will forward the same to the chairman of the county committees of each party, who, I hope, will take the trouble to aggregate the same, and return it to me. I desire a fair valuation to be placed on all the property, whether personal property abstracted or real property destroyed, except Caledonia Iron Works, in the county of Franklin, which will not be appraised, as no remuneration is claimed for it. This may seem to be asking our friends to take considerable trouble, but as a small part of the labor only falls to each person, it will be found light. I hope it may finally prove profitable to the injured people.

THADDEUS STEVENS, P. S.—Were it not presumptuous in me, I would invite the loyal men of all the States who have been plundered by rebel raiders or confederate soldiers, to either join them, to form associations and furnish statistics, such as are above solicited. Claims so imperatively just must be finally allowed and paid, but the funds to pay the same will certainly be raised nowhere except out of the fines and confiscation of the richer and more atrocious malefactors. Rebel as my powers are, if I had five years more added to my life, I should not doubt that this would become an accomplished fact. Such justice, urged by a determined will though feeble intellect, cannot fail. If I should be denied that extension of life, Providence will raise up to the work some younger and abler man to whom these facts would be of great assistance. I trust it will not be supposed that I have abandoned the determination to procure small homesteads for the freedmen, to be furnished by the rebel masters whom they conquered at our request—homesteads earned by the late slaves and annexed to their master's estates. Let them now be severed by partition.

All the newspapers in the several counties named are respectfully requested to publish this article.

BURIAL PLACE OF BOOTH.—General L. C. Baker has published a diary in which he details his connection with the "secret services" of the War Department during the war of the Rebellion. He makes the statement in regard to the disposition made of the body of John Wilkes Booth: General Barnes, Surgeon General United States Army, was on board the gunboat where the post mortem examination was held, with his assistants. General Barnes cut from Booth's neck about two inches of the spinal column through which the ball had passed; this piece of bone which is now on exhibition in the Government Medical Museum in Washington, is the only relic of the assassin's body above ground, and this is the only mutilation of the remains that ever occurred. Immediately after the conclusion of the examination the Secretary of War gave orders as to the disposition of the body, which had become very offensive owing to the condition in which it had remained after death, the leg, broken in jumping from the box to the stage, was much discolored and swollen, the blood from the wound having saturated the underclothing. With the assistance of Lieutenant L. C. Baker, I took the body from the gunboat direct to the old penitentiary, adjoining the old arsenal grounds. The building had not been used as a prison for some years previously. The Ordnance Department had filled the ground floor cells with fixed ammunition. One of the largest of these cells was selected as the burial place of Booth. The ammunition was removed, a large flat stone lifted from its place, and a rude grave dug; the body alone dropped in, the grave filled up, the stone replaced, and there rests till this hour all that remained of John Wilkes Booth.

THE HONEST MAN.—Most men are not so dead to moral principle as not to feel a spontaneous glow of admiration for the man who does right, because it is right, no matter if he does make less money by it. Some men say he was a fool or a lunatic not to make the most of his advantage, right or wrong; but the heart of many is loyal to rectitude. We look, and admire and praise. We cannot help it. Ho who is a selfish, covetous age, when all men are fighting and scrambling for money, stands up strong in his integrity and modestly does the thing—not that is legal, not that is exacted, not that is customary, but that is as others do, or as many preach, but does the thing that is right—such a man is worthy of imitation. If the heavenly minded are few in the world, are not the righteous few, like wise? A moral character that is genuine is as rare as Diogenes' men, when hunted for with a lantern at noonday.

A fidgety traveler at a Western town was dogging the baggage master for his luggage before he could get at the bottom of the high pile, and continuing the annoyance, the other addressed him thus: "Mister, it's a pity that you wasn't born an elephant, and then ye'd have had yer trunk always under yer nose!"

There are 730,000 more males than females in the United States.

LOCAL MATTERS.

PRUNES.—A prime article at Reid's.

CHERRIES.—Ripe cherries were selling in Harrisburg last week at 15 cents per quart.—So says the Telegraph.

GRAIN IN THE GROUND FOR SALE.—Daniel Light will offer for sale on the 15th about 110 acres grain in the ground. See advertisement.

PUBLIC ROADS.—The public roads of Washington township will be offered in sections to the lowest bidders on the 15th inst. See advertisement.

EARLY RISERS.—Since our landlords are not allowed to deal out the "ardent" before sunrise early risers are not so numerous by half. So says our devil, who is usually among the first to "turn out."

CLEANING UP.—Some of the citizens on Leitersburg Street we observe are using paint and lime with a lavish hand. If they can't get their street paved they are determined to make themselves comfortable in other respects. This shows "pluck" and is praiseworthy.

MINERAL WATER.—Friend Fourthman, druggist, has his Mineral Fountain now in operation. There is no healthier summer drink. Gentleman and ladies will find him supplied with the finest syrups the Eastern markets afford.

GRASS.—The favorable weather of late has much improved the prospects for a good yield of grass. In about ten days the "hay-making season" will have commenced among our farmers. Those who have not yet provided themselves with a good Mower can be supplied by Flanagan.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from Henry Shockey, Elkhart, Ill.

We would be pleased to make similar acknowledgments to some of our more sluggish patrons who are in arrears for a number of years. If too "hard up" to square accounts let us have such arrangements in part.

The Mercersburg Journal is blamed with pilfering from the local department of our neighbor, the Pilot. Under some circumstances the scissors are mightier than the pen, but Milt. should be careful how he uses them. The best way to settle such little grievances among editors is to retaliate by borrowing a little "thunder" from the other when occasion offers.

DECEASED.—The last Greencastle Pilot contains an obituary on the death of Robert E. Crooks, which occurred at Petroleum Centre, Venango county, on the 19th ult. Mr. C. was formerly editor of the Pilot, and was much esteemed among friends and acquaintances, being a young man of a naturally kind heart and affable disposition. He leaves a widow with one child to mourn the loss of a kind husband.

Hogs, etc.—We observe that a few hogs are still permitted to run at large in our town. This is not by any means carrying out the "hog law" to the letter. We would also inform our High Constable that if he will take the trouble to visit the alley running west from Bell's Pottery he will there find the carcass of a dead cat. The sickly season is approaching and public safety requires that all such nuisances be removed. It would be well enough we think for this official to personally inspect the alleys at least once a week during the summer season. Many of them are filthy enough just now to breed pestilence. A person caught throwing a dead carcass of any kind into an alley should be severely dealt with.

MAD DOG.—Some little excitement was occasioned on Tuesday by a report which was put in circulation that a veritable "mad dog" had made his appearance on one of our streets. Not having any legally authorized "dog catchers" no one felt inclined to pursue, so the Brindle departed as he came, unmolested. Whether mad or not, it would be well for persons to be on their guard and not expose their children too much to the streets and alleys, especially after nightfall. This is the season when hydrophobia prevails most among the canine species, and in other sections, according to our exchanges, the country of late has been infested with an unusual number of such rabid dogs. Look out for them, boys.

THE PROSPECTS.—The wheat fields in this section continue to present a most luxuriant appearance, but we are still not without well-grounded fears for the safety of the crop. The wheat not being fully in blossom yet must make harvesting a couple of weeks later than usual. This being the case, the crop is certainly more liable to blight from its greatest enemies, Rust and the ravages of the Milk Weevil. But we can only wait and hope that these dangers may be Providentially averted.

DEATH OF MRS. BAKER.—We learn from the Fulton Republican that Mrs. Harriet Baker, wife of Mr. Samuel Baker, died several weeks since at her home, in Ohio, from the effects of injuries received by the running away of a horse last fall in the vicinity of McConnellsburg, which at that time resulted in the death of Miss Laura Hassler.

MEETING OF CLASSIS.—The Mercersburg Classis of the German Reformed Church convened at Pattonville, Bedford Co. Pa., on the evening of the 17th inst. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. H. Heekerman, of Bedford. Rev. Walter E. Kreps, of Waynesboro' was elected President. Saturday was taken up chiefly by the reading of parochial reports. From these it was manifest that the ministers within the bounds of this Classis are active in their work, and that their congregations, generally, are in a good condition. During the past year several new churches were formed, and at the present meeting, permission was granted for the organization of three new congregations.

Three students, who had just graduated at the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, were examined and licensed, and two of them were ordained to the holy ministry and appointed to Missionary fields in Iowa. Several young men about commencing their studies for the ministry were taken under the care of Classis.—Valley Spirit.

RESIGNED.—Rev. W. A. Snively, formerly of Greencastle, has resigned the pastorate of St. Andrews Church, Pittsburg, preparatory to accepting the charge of Christ's Church, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Repository.

A FEW BARRELS LEFT.—For a prime article of Family Flour apply at Willow Grove Mill or call on Hoover's Wagon. It.

MURDER.—ALBANY, June 4.—L. Harris Hiseox, a member of the State Constitutional Convention, has just been shot dead at Stanwix Hall, by a man who talks deliberately of the deed and says he can justify it. SECOND DEPARTOR.—The man who shot Hon. L. Harris Hiseox is General Cole, a lumber-dealer, of Syracuse, N. Y. About 8:30 P. M. Hiseox was standing in the large reception room of the hotel, near the clerk's desk, in his slippers. Cole, who was sitting near by, rose, and approaching Hiseox, made a some remark which was not distinctly heard by those near by, and immediately drew a small pistol and presenting it at his head, fired the ball entering near the right eye. Hiseox fell back senseless, his wound bleeding profusely, and expired within thirty minutes. Cole remarked that Hiseox had been his best friend, but that while he (Cole) was in the army, where he rose to the grade of general in the cavalry service, Hiseox had raped his wife, and he added, "I have the evidence now—in my pocket."

He quietly awaited the coming of the police, and was conveyed to the Third-district station. A coroner's jury is being empanelled, but it is not likely the inquest will be commenced until to-morrow. Cole is a tall, fine-looking man, as was Hiseox, who was, however, larger and heavier.

WHY A DOG WAGGLES HIS TAIL.—Lord Dunderberg tells his friend the solution of this difficult riddle.—Because a dog is stronger than the tail, if it wasn't, the tail would waggle the dog."

A negro named Jordan is to run as the Copperhead candidate for Mayor of New Orleans.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS, Tuesday, June 4, 1867.—The Flour market continues to drag, and although we make no alterations in our quotations, the tendency of prices is decidedly downwards. A few hundred barrels were taken in a retail way at $8@9 1/2 for superfine; $9@10 25 for extras; $11-50@13 for North-west extra family; $12.50@13 50 for Pennsylvania and Ohio do, and $14@17 for fancy brands, according to quality. The most prominent feature of the Wheat market is extreme dullness, and in the absence of sales of importance we quote Pennsylvania red at $2.70@2.80. Rye ranges from $1.65 to $1.70, with small sales. Corn is dull, and we reduce our quotations to 37¢ bushel; sales of 6,000 bushels yellow, in the ears and from store, at $1.18@1.20, including 1,000 bushels inferior at $1.15, and 500 bush Western mixed at $1.16. Oats are lower; sales of 2,000 bushels Pennsylvania at 80 cents.

SECOND ARRIVAL.—And with it we announce a reduction in price of Dry Goods, groceries, &c.
