

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, June 14, 1867.

Governor Wells having refused to vacate the office of Governor of Louisiana, Gen. Sheridan sent an officer to eject him.

Gen. Grant approves of Gen. Sheridan's course in removing Gov. Wells of Louisiana and ousting other rebel officials of New Orleans.

SURRAT.—The trial of Surratt who is charged with complicity in the assassination of the late President Lincoln, was commenced on Monday last.

A Radical candidate for the Louisiana State Convention was murdered the other day, the assassins being nephews of Governor Wells, whose removal by Gen. Sheridan has already been announced.

Lately some of the Washington reporters telegraphed from that city, says an exchange, that the President now walks the streets without a guard.

The Mexican Minister at Washington has received a letter from President Juarez officially confirming the fall of Queretaro and the capture of Maximilian.

DESSERTIONS OF FAMILIES.—Heretofore wives and children had but little remedy against husbands and fathers deserting them, but by an act passed by the last Legislature ample provision has been made for such.

The Buzzard Cents of 1858—a relic of Buchanan's administration—were lately reported as being worth 25 cents a piece.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.—NEW ORLEANS, June 10.—Mexican advices to the 2d inst. have been received.

Mendez was executed by order of Escobado on the 16th. He was shot a few hours after the amputation of his leg, rendered necessary by a wound.

When Maximilian gave up his sword to Escobado he said: "I surrender to you my sword; owing to an infamous treason, without which to-morrow's sun would have seen yours in my hands."

ESCOBADO had ordered a court martial to assemble on the 29th ult. for the trial of the Emperor.

MAXIMILIAN.—The following is Maximilian's proclamation FELLOW-COUNTRYMEN: After the valor and patriotism of the Republican forces have destroyed my scepter in this place, the tenacious defence of which was indispensable to save the honor of my cause and of my name.

COUNTRYMEN, here are my last words. I desire that my blood may regenerate Mexico and serve as a warning to all the ambitious and incautious, and that you will act with prudence and truthfulness.

NEW YORK, June 10.—A special despatch to the Herald, dated Queretaro, May 26, says that Escobado had issued an order that all officers in hiding, who did not surrender in twenty-four hours, would be summarily shot when captured.

Mendez did not give himself up, but was captured on Saturday night, and shot early on Sunday morning, in the public park.

Col. Campas, the commander of Maximilian's body-guard, was also shot. No other executions are known to have taken place, though many are suspected.

MAXIMILIAN continues ill of dysentery. The wife of Prince Salm Salm, an American lady, closely related to President Johnson, made her way alone to President Juarez.

The records of this court will show that he fulfilled his promise, as not one of the guilty ones has been prosecuted. In reference to A. S. Herron, Attorney General of the State of Louisiana, I considered it his duty to indict these men before this Criminal Court.

I am, general, very respectfully your obedient servant, P. H. SHERIDAN, Major General U. S. A. General U. S. Grant, Commanding Armies United States, Washington.
