

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO

Friday, October 18, 1867.

THE RESULT.—The popular vote cast at the late election in this State, falls nearly one hundred thousand short of the vote for Governor last fall. The official vote for Judge Sharwood (Dem.) to the Supreme Bench is put down at 794. The Legislature will be Republican as heretofore.

The majority for Gen. Hays (Rep.) for Governor of Ohio is about 8000, with a small Democratic majority on joint ballot in the Legislature.

Indiana has gone Republican as usual and Iowa also by upwards of 20,000 majority.

THE ELECTION.—OFFICIAL.—The following is the official vote of the late election in this county:

Table listing election results for various offices including Supreme Judge, Associate Judge, Commissioner, and Auditor, with names and vote counts.

YELLOW FEVER.—Another appeal to the public, in behalf of the sufferers by yellow fever in New Orleans, is made by the New York Executive Committee having that matter in charge. The city hospitals have become so crowded that there is no space left for the further accommodation of the sick; the number of orphans created by the pestilence is so great that the orphan asylums are crowded to their utmost capacity; nurses, medicines and food are needed for the sick and convalescent. The disease is spreading instead of abating, and now it has reached the most densely populated portion of the city. Ice, an indispensable remedial agent, is advanced from $1.50 to $3 per hundred pounds, and as the disease progresses it seems to become more malignant. The Com. ask for immediate pecuniary aid from every person. Twelve thousand human beings are perishing for want of help, and it must not be withheld.

DEATH WARRANTS ISSUED.—Gov. Geary has issued his warrant directing Neal Deveney—who was convicted by the Luzerne county court of having murdered his wife, Catharine Deveney, on the 23d of July last—to be hung on Tuesday, the 12th day of November.

A warrant was also issued for the execution of Lena Miller, of Clearfield county, to take place on Wednesday, the 13th of November. Mrs. Miller was convicted of the murder of her husband, Xavier Miller, by administering poison at divers times between June 33, 1866, and July 12, 1866, by mingling arsenic with coffee, fruit and food, causing his death on the 12th of July, 1867.

In these instances His Excellency has not adhered to the custom of having executions take place on Friday.

At Smithfield, Jefferson county, Va., a few days ago, two officers of the Freedmen's Bureau, who had visited that vicinity for the purpose of establishing a school for the colored people, were attacked by a party of the unrecruited of that locality, who shouted for Jeff. Davis, cursed the "Yankees," and discharged their pistols at them. President Johnson's policy is working more deftly daily.

BEAUREGARD VISITS A. J.—Beauregard had an interview with the President on Tuesday for the purpose of making an application for the restoration of his lands near Memphis, which he alleges are occupied by negroes and Yankee schoolteachers, who are using his property without rendering him an equivalent. It is thought Mr. Johnson will graciously grant his request. The next application from the redoubtable General will probably be for the government to compensate him for his losses during the Rebellion.

Gen. Joe Hooker is in Switzerland.

LOCAL MATTERS.

CORN WANTED.—See advertisement of D. H. Garver.

Judge Bond, of Baltimore, is the Union candidate for Governor in Maryland.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from A. D. Hane, Franklin, Morgan Co. Ill.

VALUABLE ESTATE.—To-morrow (Saturday) the valuable farm and town property of W. W. Walker will be sold.

WOOD.—A load or two of good wood will be taken at this office in payment for subscription if delivered soon.

MILL FOR RENT.—The Washington Mill property, near this place, is offered for rent in another column by H. C. Gilbert.

RECEIVED.—Geo. Bender, Esq., has received his Fall and Winter supply of Ready-made Clothing. Call and see him.

NEW GOODS.—We neglected noticing in our last issue the fact that Messrs Coon & Stonehouse had opened out an extensive supply of new Fall and Winter goods. Call and examine their stock.

FARM FOR SALE.—We direct special attention to the advertisement of a valuable farm for sale, in to-day's paper, by Mr. A. S. Monn, of Quincy township.

EXTENSION.—An experimental survey of a route between Hagerstown and Williamsport is being made for an extension of the Franklin Railroad to the latter place.

Rev. Samuel Phillips, formerly of Chambersburg, has become pastor of the First German Reformed Church in Baltimore.

TOO SLOW.—The patron who leaves his newspaper account unsettled for a half dozen or more years, is either very careless or very mean, and in either case deserves a black mark.

A CORRECTION.—In noticing the sale of the farm belonging to the heirs of Henry Stamy, dec'd., in our last issue, the price per acre should have been $115 25 instead of $105 25, and the Mountain land $50 25 instead of $3 25.

FALL AND WINTER GOODS.—Our friend Fisher, Merchant Tailor, in the Washington House, Hagerstown, has opened out an extensive stock of fashionable Fall and Winter goods. This advertisement will appear in our next issue.

JURORS.—We give below the names of the Jurors from Washington and Quincy townships for October Court, commencing on Monday the 28th:

Grand Jurors.—Wm. Fleagle, David Miller, David Miller of Jno. Traverser Jurors.—Wm. Cooner, A. D. Dowd, Henry Good, Geo. Lowry, James McIlvany, Abraham Stamy, Geo. B. Weistling, Elam Wiegner. Second Week.—Geo. Benedict, Samuel Esbeck, David Hoeflich, Jr., John Lantz, Andrew Shank, Charles West.

NOMINATIONS.—The Union Republican County Convention met in Hagerstown on the 8th, and nominated the following ticket:

For Clerk of the Court, Samuel F. Zeigler, Register of Wills, Wm. Logan. State Senator, Chas. Lee Armour. For the House of Delegates, A. H. Appleman, David E. Price, Chas. Arding, Robert S. Koach, Henry J. Lowman, County Commissioners, Samuel I. Piper, John A. Miller, Michael Yessler, Nicholas Beard, Michael Bartholow, Sheriff, Robert C. Thorasburg. States Attorney, James P. Matthews. Judge of Orphans' Court, Joseph Renoh, Peter B. Small, Eli Mobley. Surveyor, James Brown.

POLITICAL PROSCRIPTION.—We are informed on reliable authority that a number of the workmen employed at the Mount Alto Iron works, in this county, have been discharged, since the election, for voting the Democratic ticket. The present managers do not seem to pay any respect to the political preferences of their laborers, nor do they exhibit any inclination to obey the instructions of the owners of the works, who have distinctly informed them that they desire the men to be left free to vote their own sentiments, without interference from any quarter.—Valley Spirit.

We are authorized by one of the managers referred to, to say that the above charge is a palpable falsehood. Not one hand has been discharged since the election, nor even such an intimation made to any one.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning our community was shocked by the announcement that a little girl, only daughter of Mr. Geo. Frick, aged about eight years, had met with almost instant death under the following circumstances. It appears she was playing in company with other children near the Connecting Shaft between Mr. Frick's Foundry and the Machine shops of Messrs Geiser, Price & Co., when her clothing was caught by the shaft and before she could be rescued was so horribly mangled as to cause almost instant death. Death so sudden and under such distressing circumstances has cast a gloom over our community, and the parents and other friends in their affliction will have the heart-felt sympathy of citizens generally.

COMING.—The "Diamond" Minstrels, accompanied by the Long Brothers and Sister, will be in this place this evening and to-morrow evening. Rate entertainments may be anticipated.

FARM FOR SALE.—Mr. Robert McIlvany offers a valuable farm at Private Sale in another column.

DEMOCRATIC CELEBRATION.—Our Democratic friends celebrated their victory in this place on Monday evening by a Torch-Light Procession. Owing we presume to a want of time to make the necessary arrangements, the affair was rather a slim one. About 7 o'clock the procession formed and marched through the different streets, at the head of which was a couple of wagons with ropes attached and drawn by some of the stouter men of the party. The crowd, mostly boys, followed with a number of well executed transparencies and flaming torches. After about a half hour's marching and lusty cheering, the procession was halted in front of the speakers stand, and the Hon F. M. Kimmell was introduced to the crowd. Mr. Kimmell's remarks were somewhat extended and elicited considerable applause. He was followed by Geo. W. Brewer, Esq., in a speech occupying about one hour. He was also greeted with applause and frequent cheering during the delivery of his address. At the conclusion of Mr. Brewer's speech, a profusion of fire-balls were produced and the programme of the evening thus ended. A number of years have elapsed since our friends have had such an opportunity afforded them for rejoicing, and we was glad to see the evening pass so pleasantly and joyfully to them as it did.

BUILDING.—A spirit of improvement seems of late to be manifesting itself in our town. We understand Mr. L. S. Forney has recently disposed of a number of building lots fronting on West or Leitersburg street, and that a half dozen or more houses will be put up there in a short time, some of which are already in course of erection. For several years our citizens have been sadly deficient in this respect, scarcely averaging one building per year. At the present price of property and rates of rents such investments must prove profitable, and we doubt not others will see the propriety of purchasing lots and building. As the election with its attendant excitement is now over, citizens should renew the efforts lately made for the formation of a Building Association. A well-regulated association of this kind would stimulate and encourage a spirit of enterprise and thus contribute much to the business prosperity of our town, and at the same time enable many in moderate circumstances to secure homes, which they cannot do under existing circumstances. In such associations the foundation of competency and fortune may be laid.

GOING TO VIRGINIA.—The Hagerstown Mail of last week says: For several days past there have been a great many arrivals in Hagerstown of Lancaster and York county farmers, on their way up the Valley of Virginia, in the search for farms. They are all of that substantial, industrious and intelligent class of agriculturists who have made the eastern counties of Pennsylvania a garden spot, and many of them are accompanied by their wives, whose judgement in the selection of a farm they very justly place a high estimate upon. The great proportion have arrived in the cars of the C. V. Railroad, but on Friday last a large wagon, expressly fitted up for the occasion, and drawn by six splendid gray horses, passed through town with about a score of purchasers and their wives aboard. Virginians will be benefited by the introduction of this population.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.—Joseph Worthington, confined in our county jail awaiting trial for stealing carpeting from the German Reformed Church of this place, escaped on Thursday night last, in the following ingenious manner. Procuring an old pair of pants, he stuffed them and laying them in his bed, concealed himself in the yard. In the evening when the Sheriff went to shut up the prisoners he looked into Worthington's cell, and seeing the stuffed paddy in bed, supposed it was the prisoner, locked the cell and went away, thinking all was right. On opening the cell in the morning the deception was discovered, and on an examination of the yard it was found that Worthington had pulled out the pump-stock, with the aid of which he succeeded in scaling the wall and gaining his liberty. He is still at large, and when last heard from he was in the vicinity of Boonsboro, Md., where he robbed a shoe store, but eluded the pursuit of the officers who went after him.—Repository.

SWEET POTATOES.—We are under obligations to Mr. John Mergal of this vicinity, for a present of a quantity of the finest Sweet Potatoes of the season, Barnuta, Nansmond and Early Jersey. Mr. Mergal raised this season from 1/2 of an acre one hundred and twenty-seven bushels. One of the number left at this office weighed two pounds and thirteen ounces. When served up they are said to equal in flavor the Eastern potatoe.

Letters have been received in Washington from Thaddeus Stevens, in which he declares his intention to urge upon Congress in November two great measures essential to the safety of the country. The first is a general impeachment law defining the offences upon which an officer may be impeached, and expressly declaring that no officer shall continue to exercise the power of his office during his trial. The second law will provide that under the authority of the Constitution and upon the principles of the Declaration of Independence, no State shall have power to prohibit citizens of the United States, whatever their race, color or religion, from voting for President or Congressmen. This law will establish impartial suffrage throughout the Union. Leading Republicans affirm that Stevens will be sustained by Congress.

For the Record. A 'Woolly Headed' Orang Outang. The writer of the following article was very much amused, recently, on reading the illotian effusions from the pen of a 'woolly headed' Orang Outang. This Orang Outang, or wild man of the woods, was captured down South during the war by some of our patriotic heroes, and is now on exhibition at the office of the Maryland Free Press. The keeper of this ferocious and grizzly animal is Andrew G. Boyd. None admitted to the exhibition except idiots, thieves, and rebels, who compose the order of the 'Nights of the Golden Circle.' We are credibly informed that at times he is seized with paroxysms of anger frightful to behold. He froths and foams at the mouth, and vomits forth his venom in a most appalling manner. A captain's commission in the so called Confederate Army was bestowed upon him by that arch-traitor, Jeff Davis. He then wielded the sword, as he now does the pen, in a most idiotic manner, heast that he is, and writes editorial articles in that foul sheet, the Free Press. He has stigmatized us as a 'Pedagogic ass.' But surely, with greater propriety and truthfulness the epithet might, be applied to himself of a demagogic ass. Besides, it is only his ipse dixit, his declaration without proof. We would not deign to notice this foul mouthed blackguard, were it not that we feel somewhat as we do when a puny insignificant cut, follows at our heels, snapping and showing his teeth. This Rebel Editor has accused us of residing in 'Parson-Wrightman's kingdom.' We have not the pleasure of his acquaintance. But he certainly must be a gentleman, otherwise this unwhig rebel would not cast aspersions on his character. For the highest eulogiums of so vile a creature would be detraction, and vice versa. This Editor evidences that his brains are in his heels, else he could comprehend a plain statement of facts. When-reference was made to northern traitors and imbeciles, it applied exclusively and emphatically to the Confederate-Copperhead-Johnson-Traitors, such asses as A. G. Boyd included. The imbecility of this 'grey back' Editor, is further evidenced in his mutilation of the language of our article. He is very desirous of ascertaining the plan of W. Hanson, Teacher Washington Township, in Parson Wrightman's kingdom. For his edification we cheerfully comply with his wishes. It is briefly this:—Let all such execrable villains, and blood thirsty rebels, as Andrew G. Boyd, be made to suffer as did our heroic soldiers, the horrors of an Andersonville or Libby prison, and then—hang them high as Haman! This is the plan. How do you like it? W. HANSON, Teacher, Washington Township.

Reformed Convention at Myers-town, Pa. Pursuant to a call issued some time ago, about two hundred and twenty five delegates—members of forty of whom were Ministers of the German Reformed Church—met in Myers-town, Lebanon county, Pa., on Tuesday evening, the 24th of September. The opening sermon was delivered in the German Reformed church; by Rev. D. Ziegler, of York, Pa. After preaching, the Convention was organized by the election of Rev. Daniel Ziegler, of York, Pa., President; Rev. J. G. Ertchey, of Lancaster, Rev. Prof. H. Rust, of Blinn, Ohio, Elders, George Beiser, of Franklin county, and Rudolph F. Kelker, of Dauphin county, Vice Presidents; and Rev. W. A. Good, of Berks county, Rev. N. Gehl, of Philadelphia, and Rev. J. S. Weisz, of Lycoming county, Secretaries; and Elder, John Wiest, of Philadelphia, Treasurer. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. George W. Glessner, of Frederick City, Md.

The object of the Convention was to consult in regard to the present Liturgical movement, inaugurated by the comparatively few ministers of the German Reformed Church, and to protest at the next meeting of Synod against the introduction of a doctrine and form of worship entirely foreign to the customs of the German Reformed Church and the doctrines contained in the Heidelberg Catechism. The proceedings of the Convention were characterized by great solemnity and a deep religious feeling altogether worthy of the occasion which had brought together so large a body of intelligent and earnest admirers of the church, who seem determined, by the help of God, to stand by the old landmarks, and to contend for the faith once delivered to the saints. It is not intended to give a detailed account of the proceedings of the convention, inasmuch as a full report will be published in pamphlet form.—Suffice it to say, that a series of resolutions, setting forth the grievances complained of, were unanimously adopted, and a committee appointed to present the same to Synod at the proper time. It is very evident that the laity everywhere are aroused to the dangers which threaten our Reformed Zion, and that they will never submit to have foisted upon them an Order of worship or system of religion which interposes a priest or tyrannical hierarchy between the repentant sinner and the Lord Jesus Christ. The convention closed its sessions at a late hour on Wednesday evening, greatly cheered and encouraged, with the assurance that the spirit of Christ, the great head of the Church will yet be saved from the evils of Ritualism and the blighting curse of a religion having the 'form of godliness,' but lacking every element of its vital power. USINUS.—Harrisburg Telegraph, Oct 8th.

The notorious Rebel General Imboden applied for registration in Richmond last week under President Johnson's recent amnesty proclamation, but was rejected.

Sherman cannot be used as a tool by the President. He endorses Grant's position, is in political sympathy with him, and expresses himself strongly against Secretary Stanton's suspension.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania will now stand Read, Agnew, and Strong, who have voted with the Republicans, and Thompson and Sharswood, Democrats.

FATAL SHOOTING.—A disturbance occurred at French's circus, at Eaton, Preble county, Ohio, on Monday night last, during which a man named Wm. Thomas fired at the ring-master, the ball missing him, struck a young lady in the heart, instantly killing her.

Italy. FLORENCE, Oct. 15.—Evening.—Garibaldi has sent out another address from Capra, in which he earnestly calls upon the whole Italian nation to arm.

TURIN, Oct. 15.—Evening.—Mazzini has issued a manifesto, in which he exhorts the Italian patriots in Rome to rise, and proclaim a republic.

FLORENCE, Oct. 15.—Evening.—Many people here believe that General La Marmora, who is in command on the Papal frontier, will order his troops to cross the line and occupy the Pontifical territory, and possibly march on Rome.

FLORENCE, Oct. 15.—Evening.—Exciting news from the South has just been received. A battle has been fought near Noola, in the province of Frosinone, between the Garibaldian volunteers and the Pontifical troops. A strong detachment of Papal Zouaves were sent from Rome during the latter part of last week, to prevent the junction of the insurgent bands in Frosinone with the party under Menotti, who was reported to be in that province.

They were unsuccessful in accomplishing this object, and were obliged to meet the united forces of the insurgents, under command of General Menotti, Garibaldi, in person. A desperate fight took place near the town of Verona. The Papal Zouaves were badly beaten, losing heavily in killed and wounded. The Garibaldians lost five killed fifteen wounded. No report is given of the numbers of those engaged on either side.

HOW TO CURE INTEMPERANCE.—The following we take from Saturday Night, and to those who ought to profit by it, we would say, try it: A correspondent writes as follows: "At the age of twenty-three (three or four years since) I was in the habit of drinking from seventy to forty glasses of liquor or ale a day, which at first produced an effect scarcely noticeable to my most intimate friends. At last I began to think that I was on the road to ruin, and resolved to quit drinking. One resolution following another, but all to no purpose. When I began to look around for a substitute, and after trying many things, all of which seemed to be of no use, a friend to whom I made known my condition advised me to take a drink of sweet milk whenever I felt the craving appetite for strong drink. I did so, and found myself in a few days able to refuse the most polite invitation to 'take a drink.' Beside this, I took good care to keep out of the way of those who were fond of their glass, and to-day I am able to stand any temptation in the way of drinking more than one or two drinks at a time, and sometimes go for weeks without taking any."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Representative Boutwell is here, and in conversation says he has not abandoned one iota of his purpose to follow up impeachment, which, it was alleged to certain quarters, would be stopped, owing to the recent elections. He says he is as strong as ever in his conviction that impeachment is absolutely necessary, and is determined to prosecute it to the end.
