

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO Friday, November 8, 1867.

Georgia gives 15,000 majority in favor of a Convention, and the Republican candidates for delegates are elected in every district.

Gen. Schofield has ordered the Virginia State Convention to meet at Richmond on the 3d of December.

It is said that Andy Johnson will soon issue a proclamation pardoning the Union soldiers for participating in the war.

According to late dispatches the Italian war has been terminated by the defeat of Garibaldi with a loss of three thousand men. Both Garibaldi and his son are prisoners in the hands of the Italians.

The Copperheads are recruiting, in all parts of the country, a new secret society, 'the Sons of Jackson,' as an offset to the Grand Army of the Republic. The order is to be distinguished by the rebel gray.—Would read better 'the sons of Jeff. Davis.'

THE ELECTIONS.—The returns of the elections held in the several States on Tuesday received up to the time we go to press are too incomplete for a statement as to the result. Maryland being overrun with the late Confederate soldiery has of course gone Conservative by a large majority.

Ex Governor John A. Andrew, of Massachusetts, died of apoplexy at his residence in Boston, on Tuesday the 30th ult. He was an able man and a true patriot.

The vote on the Constitutional amendment in Ohio, stood as follows: For the amendment 216,987 Against " 255,340 Majority against 88,353 There were 12,270 blank votes Hayes, the Republican candidate for Governor has a majority of 2,983.

VALLANDIGHAM.—The Dayton Journal professes to know that the majority of the Democratic members elect to the Ohio Legislature are committed to Vallandigham for the office of United States Senator, and that he will surely be nominated in caucus, and elected, unless his antagonists keep their Democratic friends out of the caucus, and so defeat an election, or unite with the Republicans and elect Jewett or Payne.

MURDER NEAR JOHNSTOWN.—A most cold blooded murder was perpetrated at Cambria borough, near Johnstown, on Thursday evening. It appears that a number of boys were engaged in Hallow Eve sports, when a man named Cyrus Thompson shot into the crowd with a rifle and fatally wounded a young, promising, and only son of Daniel McDonald, Esq. The ball entered the side of the lad, passing through his body, and coming out on the opposite side. He lingered in the greatest agony until four o'clock on Friday morning, when death ensued.

Great excitement prevailed during Friday at Johnstown, and a party started in pursuit of the murderer.

VIRGINIA.—The falsehood that none but negroes voted the Radical ticket at the late election in Virginia is dissipated by the returns. Of the registered voters, there is, in the entire State, a White majority of about 20,000. The "Conservatives" or ex- Rebels called upon every man to vote against a Convention, and so prevent the framing of a loyal State Government under the Reconstruction acts of Congress; yet the Convention is carried by 104,289 votes for to 59,180 against it—a magnificent majority of 45,109 for loyalty and Congress. Of the Whites, 13,000 voted for the Convention, while some 30,000 Whites failed to vote at all.

Why not? Because the spirit of aristocratic domination and proscription was so fierce that the poor and dependent dret not brave it. Had these stay-at-homes been "Conservative" or ex-Rebels, they would have pleased their proud and powerful neighbors by going to the polls and voting "No Convention;" but they could not vote as they thought best without bearing execration and hostility as "White biggers," so they compromised by staying away. They counted with us, not against us.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Washington dispatch says, the announcement, by direction of the President, that General Grant is to disband and disarm the colored volunteer companies here in the District, has created quite a sensation.—These companies are composed mainly of men who formed the First and Second District Regiments, which were the first colored troops in the field. They served until mustered out with great credit, and then bought their guns from the government, and have kept up there organization with commendable zeal, but their occasional parades are distasteful to the ex-Rebels, and their demand to have them disbanded and disbanded it is to be granted.

Indian Commissioner Taylor telegraphs to Secretary Browning to congratulate the President and country on the entire success of the Indian Peace Commission, thus far.

The Emperor of Austria is—well, no matter.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

From the creation of the world, in all ages and all times, it has been customary to set certain days for special religious observance. This has not always been influenced by the light of Christian knowledge, nor by any proper conception of the character of that Great Being who ruleth the earth in righteousness, and who daily loadeth with his benefits; but by an innate sense of the existence of an over-ruling Power, by which the world and all it contains are governed and controlled. Aided by the dictates of cultivated reason, and the teachings of Divine revelation, we, however, are taught to recognize in that Supreme Ruler a Heavenly Father, to whom we are indebted for existence and all the blessings we enjoy, and to whom we owe constant and fervent thanksgiving and praise. It is He who "visiteth the earth and watereth it," who "setteth the furrows and bleaseth the springings thereof," who "groweth the year with His goodness, and whose paths drop fatness," who "clotheb the pastures with flocks, and covereth the valleys with corn, who "maketh the out-goings of the morning and of the evening to rejoice," who "is our refuge and strength," who "maketh wars to cease," and "saveth us from our enemies;" who "throneth is forever and ever," and who "blesseth the nations whose God is the Lord."

On all sides we have increased assurances of the loving-kindness of an All-wise Parent of Good, who has conducted our nation through a long and terrible war, and permitted our people to repose once more in safety, "without any to molest them or to make them afraid." The monstrous sentiment of disunion is no longer tolerated. The Flag, the Union, and the Constitution are esteemed as the safeguards of the rights and liberties of the people, and are revered and defended as the ark of their political safety.

A kind Providence has not grown weary of supplying our continuous wants. A bounteous harvest has rewarded the labors of the husbandman. Flocks and herds are scattered in countless numbers over our valleys and hills. Commerce is uninterrupted, and vessels laden with the products of nature and of art, speed, unmolested, over the trackless deeps. Neither pestilence, famine, political or social evils, financial embarrassments or commercial distress have been permitted to stay the progress and happiness of the people of this great Commonweath; but peace, health, education, morality, religion, social improvement and refinement, with their attendant blessings, have filled the cup of comfort and enjoyment to overflowing.

Recognizing our responsibility to Him who controls the destinies of nation as well as of individuals, and "from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift," and to whom we are deeply indebted for these and the richer blessings of our common Christianity, let us unitedly give our most devout gratitude and hearty thanksgiving.

Recognizing our responsibility to Him who controls the destinies of nation as well as of individuals, and "from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift," and to whom we are deeply indebted for these and the richer blessings of our common Christianity, let us unitedly give our most devout gratitude and hearty thanksgiving.

THURSDAY, THE 28th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, be set apart as a day of praise and thanksgiving, that all secular and worldly business be suspended, and the people assemble in their various places of worship to acknowledge their gratitude and offer up prayers for a continuance of Divine favor.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-second.

JNO. W. GEARY By the Governor: F. JORDAN, Secretary of State.

INTERESTING RELIC.—The Gettysburg Star of yesterday says: An interesting relic of the Battle-field has been shown to us—being a dagger-type of a lady, which was found a week or two ago on the battle-field southwest of the town.

Although somewhat discolored, it is in a remarkable state of preservation, and shows the features, dress, ornaments &c. very distinctly. It is on a plate, without a case, and was found in a Cartridge box, with 43 bullets. The picture is that of a lady of probably 20 or 25 years of age, dark hair, combed back and falling loosely over her shoulders; a light dress, apparently of thin and fancy texture, cut low at the neck, wide sleeves, showing the arm to the elbow, gold earrings, large breastpin, two gold rings, one on first finger, and the other on third finger, of right hand; dark bead-necklace, encircling the neck three times; and a guard chain of dark material passing from neck to waist, with probably watch or miniature attached. The dagger-type was found in a field in front of the Union lines, between the Emmitsburg road and the left of the position held by the 24 Corps, on ground over which the fight of Pickett's Division passed in its famous charge. A number of Rebel dead were buried in this field. The attention of the party finding the picture was attracted to a blanket, part of which was exposed by the washing away of the ground, and upon lifting the blanket the remains of a soldier were found, with cartridge box, &c. There was nothing to indicate the corps, division, regiment or name. From the locality, it is presumed to be that of a Rebel soldier. The cartridge box was marked U. S., but many of these, captured during the war, were carried in the Rebel ranks. We have been particular in describing the dagger-type, as it may lead to its identification. It is in possession of Mr. M. J. Emory, one of the students in Pennsylvania College.

The Germantown Telegraph gives the following plan for preserving cabbage during the winter: "Select a dry part of the garden—dig trenches of sufficient depth to receive the cabbage roots and stalks up to the head—into these trenches transplant the cabbage, heads up of course—fill in dirt carefully about them up to the heads—plant four short posts, two of them being higher than the others to give a pitch to the roof—nail shingles, lath, or strips of old boards from one post to the other, and another board half way up—lay upon this a number of bean poles, and upon these throw straw, corn-fodder, or bean-haulm, protecting also the sides—and your cabbage will keep in good condition until May. Where there is a fence, only two posts will be necessary—that being employed as the apex of the cover or roof."

Nine hundred and ninety millions of men use tobacco.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Persons indebted to this office for subscription, job-work or advertising are earnestly requested to call and settle their accounts. Those at a distance can remit through the mail. After the 25th day of November all subscribers in arrears for two years or longer will be required to pay $2 50 instead of $2 00. Our terms are $2 50 when subscriptions are not paid within the year. Those therefore who settle their accounts within the time specified, will save fifty cents upon each year for which they are in arrears.

We have plenty of coal but no wood. Won't some "slow coach" send us a load.

Farmers generally are now in the midst of corn husking.

Thursday, the 28th inst., will be Thanksgiving day. See Proclamation.

CHOICE FLOUR.—A prime article of white wheat family flour can now be had at Hoover's Mill, formerly Jarbaugh's.

FOR SALE.—Several desirable building lots, easy of access from the business part of town. Enquire of the Printer.

STOVE FOR SALE.—A handsome parlor wood stove, good as new, can be had upon reasonable terms. Apply at this office.

LICENSE.—The Court last week granted Mr. Fourthman of this place an Ale House license and Melcher Spielman a Restaurant license.

NEW GOODS.—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. H. & A. Yingling, Merchants, of Hagerstown, in another column.

FOUNDRY FOR SALE.—Messrs Hess & Emmert offer at Private Sale in day's paper their Foundry and Machine Shop near Quincey. The location is a good one and the opening desirable one for an enterprising machinist wishing to engage in business.

HOOPS AGAIN.—The fashion reports from Paris announce that large hoops are again to be in vogue, and short dresses to be again worn only by young girls. This is bad news—especially the latter part of it.

CREDIT.—The credit system of doing business is a bad one, and ought not to be resorted to whenever it can be avoided. It has ruined many a man. Five per cent profit on cash business is far better than fifteen per cent on credit.

RELIGIOUS MEETINGS.—The protracted meetings commenced in the M. E. Church, and in the Union Church by the Lutheran congregation a couple of weeks since are still being continued nightly. We understand a number of individuals profess to have embraced religion at both churches.

TANNERY SOLD.—Mr. George Middour, of this place, has purchased of Mr. Oylor the Quincey Tannery, for the sum of $3200. We understand our friend, Mr. F. W. Weddle, an experienced Tanner and a reliable gentleman will be associated with Mr. Middour in carrying on the business at that place. We wish the new firm abundant success.

AN ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that a serious accident occurred to Mr. Jacob Tharp of this vicinity on Monday morning last. It appears he was driving his father's team on the turnpike, near Antietam Junction, when the horses took fright and ran off. In his efforts to check them he was tramped down by the saddle horse, the wagon passing over his body. The wagon was a heavy one, but fortunately not loaded. The horses were stopped within a short distance from the spot where the accident occurred by the one at the off-wheel throwing itself, which was dragged some thirty yards. Dr. I. N. Snively of this place was called to Mr. Tharp's relief. At last accounts he was suffering considerably from his injuries, but his situation was not regarded as dangerous.

REGARD FOR A PASTOR.—On Tuesday of last week, the will of Josiah McDowell, late of Peters Township deceased, was admitted to probate. In it, he devises to Rev. Thomas Greig D. D. of Mercersburg, a farm situated in Peters Township, this county, containing over 200 acres. He makes a lady in Mercersburg tenant for life of a house and lot in that borough, and at his death, it is also to go to Dr. Greig or his heirs. His personal estate he directs to be devoted to such religious objects as his Executor may designate according to directions given to him in his lifetime. And of this will he makes Dr. Greig his sole Executor. This will evinces such regard on the part of the testator, for his aged and honored Pastor as is a thing of rare occurrence nowadays.—Spirit.

OUR FOUNDRIES.—The work of repairing Mr. Frick's Foundry which was hurt some weeks since is about being completed.

The new and extensive Foundry of Messrs. Geiser, Price & Co. is also nearly completed, and in a short time will be in readiness for operations. They are almost daily in receipt of orders for their Grain Separator, and expect in a short time to largely increase their force of workmen. The improvements made upon this separator within the last few years gives it a claim for superiority over all others now in use.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mr. Editor:—On Friday night last we had the honor of receiving a letter from Chambersburg signed by a member of the Printers Nine (so called), in which he stated that they would be in this place on the following morning to play us a game of Ball, and particularly cautioning us to look out for "Printers." The notice being so short we could not get Nine members of our Club together to play them, but by a considerable amount of trouble we succeeded in getting eight from the 1st and 2d Nines, all of this place, and a young gentleman living about 1 1/2 miles from town. This is the Nine that played the "famous Printers," and "kept their score down to such a low figure." The assertion made by the "Spirit" in regard to us having some Hagerstown players is utterly false and his informant was well aware of the fact, but we suppose he thought a poor excuse was better than none. If the Umpire had been impartial we would have kept their score down to a mere trifle, and would have had a "Stunk" on them in the last inning, but his decisions were by no means fair, all ways in favor of the "famous" Nine. Before he tries to Umpire another game we advise him to study the rules of the game a little more carefully and invest a few cents in the purchase of a pair of "Leather Specs." Before we close we will take the liberty of asking the Printers (so called) if their Nine is composed of residents of Chambersburg, and also where their first Baseman is from. 'NATIONAL.'

THE BALTIMORE SYNOD AND THE MEYERSTOWN CONVENTION.—At the late meeting of the German Reformed Synod in Baltimore, Md., the following was the action taken in reference to the Convention of ministers and laymen held in Meyerstown for the purpose of opposing the Order of Worship, which was sent out by the General Synod to the churches to be freely used and tried according to pleasure:

1. Resolved, That regarding the Meyerstown Convention as constituted without any proper authority known to the Constitution of the Church, and without the permission or authority of this Synod, and as arraying itself against the decisions of the Church through its highest judicatories, in a way calculated to foster the spirit of schism in our congregations and among our people, this Synod cannot consistently with any sense of self-respect or regard for the true dignity and authority with which it is vested, recognize or entertain any propositions from said Convention.

2. Resolved, That while this Synod cannot receive the papers submitted by said Convention, it has no design to shut out the right of petition or complaint in its proper constitutional form, but is ready and willing to consider any alleged grievances when presented in the proper way.

3. Resolved, That Synod appoint a committee to prepare a pastoral letter to be addressed to the churches, touching the subject now brought to its knowledge, and to give proper counsel and advice in reference to certain statements, which have been published to the world in a certain pamphlet purporting to be the proceedings of the Convention held in Meyerstown, and to take into consideration the present posture of the Liturgical Question in the Reformed Church.

4. Resolved, That this Synod in thus pronouncing the Meyerstown Convention irregular and schismatic, earnestly and solemnly enjoins upon all the members within her bounds to abstain from attending all such meetings as are calculated to interfere with the peace and prosperity of the Church.

AN AGED LADY.—There is now in our city a lady named Margaret Stone, who has attained the age of one hundred and twelve years. She is here on a visit to a grandniece, and her health is such as to warrant a prediction that she may live several years longer. This aged lady is a native of Cumberland county.—Har. Tel.

The lady alluded to in the above paragraph died on last Monday, from the effects of injuries received in falling down stairs.

A CURE FOR FELON.—One of the most annoying of so-called "little" troubles is a felon, and a genuine remedy is worth circulating. One who has tried it says that a poultice of onions, applied morning, noon and night, will cure a felon. No matter how bad the case, lancing the finger will be unnecessary if this poultice be used. The remedy is a sure, safe and speedy one.

The Italian War.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—In the fight between the Garibaldians and the Papal troops, near Terni, three thousand of the former were either killed, wounded or captured. Garibaldi and his son Menotti were taken prisoners and sent to Florence as prisoners of war.

Four thousand Garibaldians, while on the march to reinforce the insurgents, were stopped, disarmed and turned back by the Italians. The greatest agitation prevails in Italy. The ultimatum of the Emperor Napoleon is to be assuaged by or before Thursday next.

THE UNCHANGEABLE LAND.—In the East things do not change. As Abraham pitched his tent in Bethel, so does an Arab Sheikh now set up his camp, as David built his palace on Mount Zion, so would a Turkish pasha now arrange his house. In every street may be seen the hairy children of Esau, squatting on the ground devouring a mess of lentils like that for which the rough hunter sold his birthright. Along every road plod the sons of Raehab, whose fathers, thousands of years ago, bound themselves and theirs to drink no wine, plant no tree, enter within no door, and their children have kept the oath; and at every khan are young men around the pan of parched corn dipping their morsel into the dish.

Job's plow is still used, and the seed is still trodden into the ground by asses and kine. Olives are shaken from the bough as directed by Isaiah, and the grafting of trees is unchanged since the days of Saul. The Syrian house is still, as formerly, only a stone tent, as a temple was but a marble tent. What is seen now in Bethany may be taken as the exact house of Lazarus, where Mary listened and Martha toiled, or as the house of Simon the leper, where the box of precious ointment was broken, and whence Judas set out to betray his master.

Six negroes implicated in the riots at Pickens, South Carolina, on the 12th of last month, in which a white man named Hunicutt was killed, have been found guilty of murder, and sentenced to be hung on the 6th of December.

Brownlow's election to the U. S. Senate is the sorest blow Andrew Johnson has received since he deserted his personal friends and plotted to betray great principles.
