

VILLAGE RECORD.
WAYNESBORO
Friday, November 15, 1867.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia had before it on Saturday the case of Judge Fisher and lawyer Bradley, counsel for Surratt. Mr. Robert J. Walker made a long argument in behalf of Bradley, in reply to the filing of the Court, at the close of which Chief Justice Carter delivered the opinion of the Court. He sustained the action of Judge Fisher in suspending Bradley, and announced that henceforth he (Bradley) should not be allowed to practice in any Court of the District. The Court was unanimous in its decision. All the Judges were on the bench except Fisher, who was not present. The decision created great excitement.

LOCAL MATTERS.

We are now enjoying the delightful "Indian Summer" season.

See public sale advertisement of W. W. Walker.

BANK STOCK.—See advertisement of Bank Stock for sale by John Singer.

WANTED.—Mr. Geo. Middour wants hides and bark. See advertisement.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Price & Hestrich will receive another supply of new goods on Monday next.

FOR SALE.—Several desirable building lots, easy of access from the business part of town. Enquire of the Printer.

STOVE FOR SALE.—A handsome parlor wood stove, good as new, can be had upon reasonable terms. Apply at this office.

EXTENSIVE SALE.—We invite special attention to the extensive sale of valuable personal property by Mathias Hoffman in another column of to-day's paper.

MONEY RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from D. E. Price, Mt. Morris, Ogle Co., Ill.

Also, $3.00 from Dr. William James Tracy, Littlestown, Adams Co., Pa.

WASHINGTON HOUSE.—The sale of the "Washington House," by J. Beaver, will take place at 1 o'clock on Saturday the 23rd inst. If not sold the property will then be offered for rent.

WELL SUPPLIED.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Messrs. Metcalfe & Hitesheiw, Dry Goods and Notion Dealers, Chambersburg, are again well supplied with goods in their line of trade.

CALL ACCEPTED.—We learn from the last Middleton (Md.) Register, that the Rev. A. H. Bahrman of this place has accepted the call recently tendered him by the Evangelical Lutheran Church of that place, and that he will enter upon his new field of labor in a very short time.

CHICKEN CHOLERA.—From this disease there has been considerable mortality among the chickens in this place of late. Our neighbor, Mr. John Walter, within the past few weeks has lost upwards of thirty. Others have lost numbers. Somebody writing from an infected district says that chicken feed mixed with alum water has proved both a cure and a preventative. The treatment is simple and worthy of a trial.

BIG DAY'S WORK.—One day last week Mr. John Nul hauled for Mr. John Good of this vicinity forty barrels of corn, commencing after 6 o'clock and quitting at 5 1/2. Mr. Good thinks that on a wagon he might haul five barrels. John is not only hard to beat at a corn heap, but equally so at the table, for we learn at noon the same day he ate a whole chicken, (full grown) besides a corresponding amount of other eatables. A good hand, but certainly not a very profitable boarder.

A TIMELY ARTICLE.—The following from an exchange will suit this locality as well as the one for which it was intended. The indignant article says:—We enter our protest against the practice, which prevails among some tobacco smokers, of obtruding their stale smoke and villainous pipes into public places, and who complacently puff their second-hand smoke on all sides, to the intense disgust of all who are not addicted to the use of tobacco. Every man has the right to smoke as much as he chooses, but he has no right to offend his neighbors who don't smoke. In all mixed assemblages there are some persons to whom the smell of tobacco is perfectly intolerable, and among this class may be counted the majority of ladies. Yet the smoker, in his selfish enjoyment of his cigar or pipe, utterly ignores their right to breathe the undefiled air, and obtrudes himself and his smoke upon them at all times and all seasons. The nuisance should be abated.

TRANSPLANTING TREES.—This is the best season of the year for transplanting fruit or shade trees of all kinds. Any time in the fall before the ground freezes deeply will do. Persons having unoccupied lands, yards, &c., should plant them with trees. The result will amply pay the cost of labor and yield a thousand per cent, in satisfaction, comfort and beauty. Many of our farmers' fields are too bare of fruit trees. There should be sufficient to furnish stock with shade during the heat of a summer sun. There is land enough that might be well occupied for this purpose.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr. Editor:—In the Village Record of Nov. 8th appeared an Article written I presume by one of the 'Nationals'. Among other statements made, is a complaint of not having sufficient time to get their 'Nines' together. Now as I understand the matter; a member of the 'Nationals' (authorized by said Club) sent a letter to the 'Printers,' saying they would be happy to play us at any time; if we would only come to Waynesboro'. On this we acted. On Friday Nov. 1st we decided to go to Waynesboro' the next day, and the Captain of the 'Nationals' being in Chambersburg on that day (Friday), he was duly informed of our intention. We also sent a letter. Another delusion under which the 'Nationals' seem to be laboring, is that they played the full 'Nines' of the 'famous Printers'. The fact is, only six of the 'Printers' played at Waynesboro'. They being obliged to take substitutes for their right, left and centre fields; one of those substitutes failed to make a single run. The comparatively small score made by the 'Printers' was owing to the absence of three of their men and 2nd to their having ridden 20 miles cramped up in an ambulance (not a very enviable position). In my estimation, the nine who played the 'Printers' at Waynesboro' were altogether superior to the nine who played at Chambersburg.

'Tis the Umpire had been impartial &c.'—The Umpire was chosen by the 'Nationals' themselves, he being from Chambersburg and never having acted as Umpire before, was placed in a rather ticklish position. But we believe he acted in a strictly impartial manner. The 'Printers' nine is composed of residents of Chambersburg even to their inquired-for first baseman—who claims that honor as his father and grandfather and great grandfather did before him. 'PRINTER.'

FISHING IN THE ANTIETAM.—We are indebted to Geo. W. Welsh, Esq., for a copy of the act passed by the last Legislature prohibiting fishing for a stated period in the Antietam Creek and its branches, which we annex:

An Act in relation to fishing in the stream known as the Antietam, or any of its branches in the County of Franklin.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority of the same

That from and after the passage of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person, or persons to fish with stir nets, set nets, seines, or baskets of any description in the stream known as the Antietam, or any of its branches, in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, at any time between the first day of September and the first day of June in each and every year.

Section 2. Any person or persons so offending, and being legally convicted before any justice of the Peace in said County shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than ten dollars, with costs of suit, for every offence, the one half to go to the informer who is hereby made a competent witness, and the other half to be paid to the Treasurer of the Common School district wherein the offence is committed to be applied to the common schools of said districts.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LOUIS W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved—The second day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

HOMICIDE.—A desperado, named John South was shot and killed in Funkstown, Md., on Friday night last by Simon Middlekauff, said to be a peaceable citizen of the place. The Hagerstown Herald gives the particulars, which are as follows:

It appears that on the night in question, a ball was in progress at the residence of Mr. M., which was attended by the young folks of the town and neighborhood, and that John South, youngest son of the late Daniel South, former Sheriff of this County, while under the influence of liquor, and armed with a revolver and knife, attempted to force himself into the house for the purpose of breaking up the ball. He made his way to the second story of the building in the direction of the ball-room, but was met in a room adjoining that in which the ball was held by Mr. Middlekauff, who endeavored to prevent him from entering the ball room, and ordered him out of his house. Instead of going, as he should have done, South drew his revolver and snapped it at Mr. M., and then advanced upon him with his knife drawn. Middlekauff thereupon, in self defence, fired three shots at him, two of which took effect, one ball entering his neck, severing the jugular vein, and the other his side. He staggered into the ball-room, the blood spurting from his wounds upon the dresses of the ladies, where he fell and expired in a few minutes.

Middlekauff was arrested and held to nominal bail for his appearance at Court, but the universal opinion of the public is, that it was a justifiable homicide. South was a man of notoriously bad character; an over-bearing, bullying desperado, of whom every body was afraid, and who has probably been in more disreputable scrapes than any man of his age in the county, not being twenty-one years old yet.

CHURCH SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The African Methodist Episcopal congregation of Carlisle, Pa., intend with God's help and the liberality of well disposed citizens at home and abroad to enlarge their church building. The members being poor they make an appeal to the christian public.

Addison E. Streets was lately appointed by the Board of Trustees to solicit subscriptions at Waynesboro' in aid of this work. The contributors so far received amount to $21.45. Addison desires to tender his thanks to contributors for their liberality. He has yet some $20 to make up and appeals to those who have not contributed anything to aid him in the work.

SNOW.—The first snow of the season fell here on Tuesday. The squall lasted about half an hour.

Mr. John Hoptman, of this county, has purchased a farm of 215 acres in Clarke county, Va., for the sum of $10,247.33.

The religious meetings commenced several weeks since in this place are continued nightly by the Methodist and Lutheran congregations. Considerable interest has been awakened among our citizens upon the subject of religion.

FIRE.—About 12 o'clock on Wednesday last a straw stack on the lot of Terry Abel, on the alley South of East Main street was discovered to be on fire. The straw was consumed without further damage, but the stables in the vicinity were very much endangered, and had not the wind been in an adverse direction at the time a serious conflagration might have been the result. The straw belonged to Jos. H. Cross and is supposed to have been fired by children.

CLEAN YOUR CHIMNEYS.—Now is the time to have your chimneys cleaned of the soot which may have accumulated in them during the summer months. High winds will prevail for months to come, and there is great danger of fires breaking out, and sparks may at any moment be communicated to the soot in the dirty chimneys.

ROSTOWN MURDER.—In June, 1866, a man named William Donovan alias Wilkins, was arrested at Manheim, Lancaster county, charged with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Squibbs and grand-daughter, in Rostown, York county. A woman named Martha Ann Pontell, who was traveling in company with him at the time the murder was committed, gave information which led to his arrest.

At a trial some time ago, Donovan was found guilty, but a new trial was awarded him. His second trial in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of York county, lasting two weeks, created great interest. His case was given to the jury on Monday evening, and after an absence of five hours a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was returned.

PERIODICALS.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—This very popular and exceedingly cheap Magazine presents an attractive table of contents for December. Amethyst Wayne's charming story, 'The Derwent Eyes and Hair,' is completed; Mrs. Edson's exciting serial, 'The Lady of Lindenwood,' is intensely interesting, while 'Paul's Romance,' by Miss Hale, and 'My Darling,' a poem, by James Franklin Pitts, are among the choicest of magazine reading. The illustrations are also remarkably good, making this one of the best numbers of BALLOU ever issued.

The publishers offer unusual attractions for the coming year. With the January number the Magazine will be enlarged to one hundred pages, and several new and attractive features introduced. Miss William has written a romance entitled, 'So as by Fire,' which will commence the year. Amethyst Wayne will furnish an exciting serial for Boys, entitled, 'Old Hugh's Look-off,' which will be finely illustrated by Kilburn, and will appear in the new department called Our Young People's Story Teller, a popular author will furnish a charming story for Girls, while there will be at least a dozen other stories and poems of the highest literary excellence, and intensely interesting, all complete in the January number.

It will be seen by the foregoing that BalloU's Magazine for 1867 will eclipse its present excellence, while the extraordinary low price is retained. It is only $1.50 per year, or 15 cts. a number. Clubs receive it for $1.25. The proprietors have a good cause for calling it 'the cheapest magazine in the world.' Published by Elliott, Thome & Talbot, Boston Mass.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine for December. It is a splendid number, with two steel engravings, a mammoth fashion plate, a colored pattern in Berlin work, and nearly fifty wood cuts of braiding and other patterns, and late fashions. The Publisher says, that; in 1867, 'Peterson's Magazine had more subscribers than all the other Ladies' Magazines combined.' We do not wonder at this, for it really gives MORE FOR THE MONEY THAN ANY IN THE WORLD. The stories are by the very best writers and are written originally for 'Peterson's.' The mammoth colored fashions are the newest and latest, the Principal Editor having gone out to Paris to secure patterns in advance. About a thousand pages of reading will be given in 1868, when the Magazine will be greatly improved. The terms will however remain two dollars a year to single subscribers. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz: five copies for $8.00, eight copies for $12.00, or fourteen copies for $20.00, astonishingly low. To every person getting up a club (at these rates), the Publisher will send an extra copy gratis. Specimens sent (if written for) to those wishing to get up clubs.

THE ALTAR.

On the morning of the 12th inst., in the Reformed Church, by Rev. W. E. Krebs, Mr. JACOB SNIVELY, to Miss SARAH AMANDA HAMMAKER, both of King-wood, Md.

At the National Hotel, Chambersburg, on the 7th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Eyster, Mr. Geo. F. SUMMERS, to Miss MARY A. DEARDORF, both of New Guilford.

A one dollar "green back" accompanied the above notice, for which we most cordially thank our young friend, the groom, and wish him and his fair partner as much prosperity and happiness as is usually allotted to the most favored mortals. May a ripe, virtuous old age ultimately crown their wedded lives.

THE TOMB.

On Monday the 11th inst., ANNIE ESTELLE, daughter of J. F. and Annie E. Kurz, aged six months and two days.

"This little bud, so young and fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower,
In Paradise could bloom."

TO THE PUBLIC.

THERE is all kinds of doggies made use of in this world to make a certain thing win, and the last one up is this:
Some unprincipled person is reporting it that the P. G. will explode and that one did and did all to pieces. Now I will say to that person that he is a liar of the first class, and that he will find that this doggie of his will not win. For falsehood's are like little chickens, they will come home to roost. What next? Try again.

VILLAGE RECORD.
WAYNESBORO
Friday, November 15, 1867.

The Illinois Statesman (Democratic), published at Lacro, Ill., has placed at the head of its columns "For President of 1868 Clement L. Vallandigham, of Ohio."

Large numbers of troops arrived in Washington last week from points in Virginia, and have been assigned to the several posts in that city.

Hon. William F. Hamilton, of Washington county, is announced as a competitor with Gov. Swann for Hon. Reverdy Johnson's seat in the United States Senate.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received a letter of inquiry from England relative to the settlement of fifty thousand emigrants, whom it is intended to send to the United States. He referred the writer to our Western plains.

It is said in official circles that Garibaldi, who was a staunch friend of the Union during the rebellion, is to be officially tendered an asylum in the United States.

Mr. Seward is still anxious to purchase the Danish West Indies. An agent of the Danish Government has arrived in Washington to treat upon the subject.

The soldiers of Fort Jefferson ask the liberation of Dr. Mudd, at the Dry Tortugas, as a reward for his courage and humanity in treating yellow fever patients during the season. Mudd might as well be liberated as Jeff Davis, Bub Lee, Vallandigham or any of the other traitors and Copperheads in the land. Mudd is no worse than Andrew Johnson, and A. J. should therefore pardon him.

Jeff Davis' trial, which was to commence on the 25th instant, is to be again postponed, a despatch received from Washington stating that "it seems to be the desire of gentlemen on both sides of the case, for a purely legal reason, that Chief Justice Chase shall sit with Judge Underwood on the trial. In view of this fact it is possible that the time of trial may be postponed, in order that arrangements may be made to secure a joint accommodation."

IMPEACHMENT.—A Washington correspondent says, the special committees of both Houses of Congress, including the House Judiciary Committee, which has charge of the impeachment investigation, assemble on Monday to commence their labors again, and to prepare their reports—the majority of which will be laid before Congress immediately after the commencement of the session, with the exception of Gen. Butler's "assassination committee," which will not be ready to report before next summer, if it is ready then.

The impeachment report has already been foreshadowed and it is only necessary now to add that the House will be called upon to decide for itself on the question when the evidence is submitted to it. It is known that all the Republican members of the committee agree that three points have been elicited by the evidence which embody grave charges against the President, but three of the Republicans do not think they are serious enough to warrant the presentation of articles of impeachment. In this opinion they are supported by the two Democratic members, Messrs. Eldridge and Marshall, while Messrs. Boutwell, Thomas, Lawrence, and Williams, Radical Republicans, construe these points as showing sufficient evidence of guilt on the part of the President to warrant his impeachment. These points include charges of misappropriation of public funds to his own personal aggrandizement by Mr. Johnson commenced while acting as military Governor of Tennessee, and finished after his accidental accession to the Presidential chair, and using his position as President for the purpose of enhancing the value of Southern railroad stocks, in which he is interested. There is no doubt but what a struggle, under Governor Boutwell's leadership, of several days' duration, to obtain the passage of a bill of impeachment, will occur during the first week of the session.

Judge Wilson, of Iowa, the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, will doubtless lead the opposition to Governor Boutwell, and while he will urge that the President deserves censure of the people at large for his course, he will argue that he has done nothing of a nature sufficiently criminal to warrant his removal from office. Messrs. Eldridge and Marshall will lead the Democracy in its efforts to prevent impeachment, but will denounce the position assumed by Messrs. Boutwell and Wilson and their supporters, and thus a triangular fight will be inaugurated, which, it is thought, will result in a defeat of the impeachment movement. The impeachers, however, are sanguine of success, and claim that the final vote of the question will settle the matter in their favor.

THE ELECTION.—Of the States which voted on the 8th inst., the Democrats carried New York, New Jersey and Maryland, and the Republicans Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Kansas, Wisconsin, Illinois and Nevada.
