

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO Friday, November 22, 1867.

Congress assembled at Washington yesterday.

Surratt continues in good health in the Washington jail.

Colored Suffrage has been carried in Minnesota by a close vote.

Weston, the pedestrian, has failed for the third time in his attempt to walk one hundred miles in twenty-four hours.

Two heavy failures are reported as having occurred in Philadelphia on Monday. The names of the parties are not given.

The garrison at Washington has been increased in a month from 1,900 to about 3,000 men.

General McClellan in a letter to a friend in Washington states that he will not, under any circumstances, accept a Government position.

The contest for the Ohio Senatorship, threatens to culminate in a riot. Vallandigham declares he is the choice of the party, and if any conservative Democrat attempts to cheat him, there will be war.

Mayor Banks, of Baltimore, is run down, with his rebel friends, all asking for office. It is expected that he will supply them, as far as possible, with the craved-for boon. All Union office-holders are to be turned out at once.

The United States Circuit Court at Richmond adjourned until the 25th instant, when the case of Jeff. Davis is to be called. Chief Justice Chase it is understood will not preside at the trial.

The Chicago Tribune says that the man who drew Crosby's Opera House continues to be worried to death by letters and petitions for money from those who want to build new churches down to those who want to save themselves from the State Prison.

Hon. David Davis, administrator of the estate of the late Abraham Lincoln, made a final settlement of the estate at Springfield, Illinois, last Thursday. After paying all the debts there remained $110,291.82, which, divided among the widow and heirs, gives $36,765.80 to Mrs. Lincoln, and the same amount to each son.

The Fenian prisoners convicted at Manchester were sentenced to be hanged on Saturday. Halpin, Warren and Costello made speeches, denying the legality of the Commission by which they were tried, and claimed protection of the American Government. How such a claim can serve them does not appear. Of the four sentenced it is asserted at Gould, Larkin and Allen will positively be executed.

The oldest couple in Ohio are Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, at Ironton. He is 110, and she 107. They got mad at each other every little while, and threaten to obtain divorces. The other day the dame refused to sew on a shirt button for her spouse, when he indignantly inquired "if he had got to live so all his life."

The finance bill to be presented by Mr. Sherman, at the next session of Congress, proposes to convert the debt, as it matures, into a long consolidated bond, running not less than thirty years, at six per cent, with one cent tax, equivalent to a five per cent loan. Mr. Sherman, it is said, intends to press this matter on the Senate with a view to securing early legislation on the subject.

CHIVALRY REVIVED—About 12 o'clock on Thursday, November 14, B. A. Pollard, the historian of Lee and his Lieutenants, was passing in front of the Malby House, Baltimore. He was approached by a son and nephew of H. A. Wise, named John and Douglas, each of whom fired at Pollard, one of the shots passing through the right arm, Pollard having his wife on his left arm at the time. Pollard drew his pistol, but was unable to raise it on account of the wound, and the ball struck the pavement. The Wises came up from Richmond to obtain satisfaction from Pollard for a letter recently published by the latter, in reply to a letter of Henry A. Wise on his (Pollard's) history of the war, and had previously declared their intention to shoot him on sight. They are both under bail.

HARRISBURG, November 16—The Republican County Committee, of Blair county, have unanimously declared for General Grant and Governor Geary for President and Vice President, and elected the Hon. L. W. Hall as delegate to the next Republican State Convention.

Dr. Hall says: "To be a great orator, a peerless beauty, or the star of the social circles, whether man or woman, is the next door to being lost."

A New Orleans widow, on the sunny side of forty, has just taken to herself an eighth husband.

PHILADELPHIA, November 18—There have been two heavy failures here to-day—one, a dry goods commission house, with liabilities of $800,000, and a mechanic with liabilities of $300,000. Assets small.

The report on the state of religion in the United States, prepared by Rev. Henry B. Smith, D. D., of the Union Theological Seminary, and presented to the General Conference of the Evangelical Alliance recently in session at Amsterdam, is a document of great interest and value, containing within a small compass a vast amount of information in regard to the state and progress of religion in this country. We condense from the annexed statistics, which will be found convenient for reference:

Table with 2 columns: Churches, Communicants. Rows include Roman Catholic, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Congregationalists, German Reformed, Dutch Reformed, United Brethren, Moravians, Unitarians, Universalists, Friends or Quakers orthodox, Friends or Quakers, Hicksites.

LOCAL MATTERS.

CRANBERRIES.—Can be had at Reid's grocery. Excellent for pies and sauce.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from Abram Hess, Upton, this county.

SOLD.—The "Jones House," Harrisburg, was sold on Saturday last to Dr. James Fleming for the sum of $45,000.

DENTISTRY.—We direct the reader's attention to the card of Dr. John A. Hatton, Dentist, of Greencastle, in another column.

TIMBER LOTS.—Mr. John Midway, of Quincy, offers at public sale in to-day's paper, a number of valuable timber lots.

STOVE FOR SALE.—One Continental Cook and one Parlor wood stove. Apply at this office.

NEXT WEEK.—The advertisement of Messrs. Price & Hoeflich's second arrival of new goods will appear in our next.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Ambersson Benedict & Co., have received and opened out their second supply of new fall and winter goods. Advertisement next week.

FOR SALE.—One large cooking Stove, two large ten-plate Stoves and two parlor wood stoves; one one-horse heavy spring wagon. Apply at this office.

MACHINE SHOP.—The Western Maryland Rail Road Company have selected a site and are about to erect an extensive machine shop at Hagerstown, with ex-Mayor Chapman President of the company. So the Herald has been informed.

REVIVAL.—The Religious Revival which had been in progress for sometime in the M. E. Church, was brought to a close on Wednesday evening. We understand that seventeen persons profess to have embraced religion during the meetings.

THANKSGIVING.—Thursday next, the 28th, being Thanksgiving day, the stores in this place will be closed and business generally suspended. Appropriate services we presume will be held in one or two of the churches in the morning.

SPECTACLES.—E. & J. Elden have received an extensive assortment of spectacles, including concave-convex glasses, and have an Optometer by which glasses are selected to suit the eye.

CALL NOT ACCEPTED.—We stated last week upon the authority of the Valley Register, that Rev. Mr. Buhman of this place had accepted a call given him by the Lutheran congregation of Middletown, Md. We since learn that Mr. B. has declined the call given him and will for the present remain with his people here.

FURS FURS.—We invite special attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. L. Dechert of the "Cumberland Valley Hat and Fur Emporium," Chambersburg, in to-day's paper. Mr. D. is at all times well supplied with goods in his line. Persons visiting Chambersburg in search of hats or Furs are requested to give him a call.

LABOR SAVING MACHINE.—Messrs Lidy, Lecron & Gilbert, of this place, have secured the right for this county, and also for the State of Maryland, for sale of the celebrated Brikerhoff Corn Sheller, and will sell a portion of the territory on application upon liberal terms. With this machine one man can feed, turn and shell seventy-five bushels of Corn per day. Price of machine $25. Their advertisement will appear next week.

THANKFUL.—We feel especially thankful to those of our patrons who have canceled their accounts at this office recently. The dirth in "money matters" for sometime has considerably depressed us financially, and we trust others will be as thoughtful by paying over their long-delayed arrearages.

DWELING BURNED.—The Mercersburg Journal says that on the night of the 17th inst, a log house, the property of Mr. George W. Woolf, of that place, situated about one-half mile from Cove Gap, was entirely destroyed by fire. It was in the occupancy of Mr. John Reed, whose household furniture with the exception of a few articles, fell a prey to the devouring flames.

LOST.—A large pocket book containing $110 was lost on Wednesday last between Waynesboro' and the residence of Mathias Hoffman, near Ringgold. The finder will be liberally rewarded on returning the book to this office.

SOLD.—The eighty acre tract of unimproved land advertised in the Record a few weeks since by W. W. Walker, was sold privately on Monday last to Michael Morgal for $6 700.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—Mr. John R. Gaff, editor and proprietor of the Greencastle Valley Echo, has sold that establishment to Col. F. B. Winger. Mr. D. Reymor, Esq. will have control of the editorial department of the paper in the future, assisted by Mr. Geo. E. Hollar, a practical printer, and a spicy local editor. The Echo is an interesting family journal. We wish the parties interested abundant pecuniary success.

RELIGIOUS.—The night meetings held for several weeks in this place by the Lutheran congregation closed on Saturday night last.

On Sunday morning about twenty persons were admitted to membership in the church. An election for officers was held, which resulted as follows:

Elders—John Bell and Joseph H. Grebs. Deacons—John Walter, Martin Geiser, Theodore Wiesner, W. M. H. Brown.

THE SEASON.—The weather, thus far, has been pitiful toward the poor man's scanty store of fuel, and to the thinly-clad limbs of his little ones.

The indications are that the winter will be a hard one. A great many people—probably more than in 1857—are out of employment, and speculators are still making combinations, to keep up the price of food. The order of the day with everybody, therefore, should be economy, that those who have, may this winter, be able to give something of assistance to the industrious and deserving who have it not.

ONE SESSION.—The Harrisburg Telegraph says the one session a day system in our public schools is gaining favor in various parts of the country. As at present conducted, with two sessions, and long and hard lessons, the pupils are taxed beyond their capacity, and the health of children is sacrificed. The lives of school children, to say nothing of their educational progress, would be largely promoted by the adoption of the one session system. To broaden the mind at the risk of narrowing the chest and enfeebling the limbs, is a grave error.

FOR SALE.—The Board of School Directors offer at public sale in another column the Western House and lot of ground. The Board as we are informed by one of the members, has decided at last to erect a School Building, sixty by seventy feet, two stories high. What we conceive to be a very important part has yet to be arrived at, a location for the building. There are a number of desirable locations and we trust such a one may be selected. It would be folly to put such a building in some cramped up, uninviting spot for economy's sake.

WASHINGTON COUNTY RAIL ROAD.—At the time of going to Press, says the Hagerstown Herald, the track-layers upon this road had reached the suburbs of the town, and will probably finish their work to-day. We are gratified to be able to state that the trains will commence running regularly next Monday morning, on which day our people will bid an everlasting farewell to the Old Stage Coach, in which they and their forefathers, far back into the last Century, have been travelling to and from Baltimore.

LADY'S FRIEND FOR DECEMBER.—This is a Holiday number—and a magnificent one. The Steel engraving called "the happiest time," is a beautiful and charming design, and executed in beautiful style. The "Steel Plate," the immortal crown, also expressly engraved for this magazine, will touch a solemn but joyful chord in every heart. Both of these Steel Engravings are of the very first quality in every respect. Then we have a handsomely Colored Engraving of a "Jewel Case and Pin-Cushion," and after this the usual refined and elegant Double-Page Fashion Plate—finely engraved on steel; not a mere lithograph or wood engraving. Then follows a number of Wood Engravings illustrative of the Fashions, Needle-Work, &c., with the usual piece of Music, worth of itself the cost of the book. The Literary Matter is as choice as usual—"Only a Glove," by Gabrielle Lee; "How a Woman Had Her Way," by Elizabeth Prescott; "German Lessons," by E. B. Ripley; "The Old Maid," a Poem by Florence Percy; "Preserved Flowers," "Disillusion, or Mary of the Mill and the Countess Marie;" "Flower Stand and Vase," Editorials, &c. &c. Great inducements in the way of Premiums, &c., are promised to new subscribers, and our readers should send for a sample copy, containing all these liberal offers. Sample copies will be sent for fifteen cents. Price, (with engraving) $2.50 a year; four copies (with one engraving) $6.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving), $4.00. Address Deacon & Petersen, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

CLEVELAND, October 16.—Our city was thrown into intense excitement this morning over a horrible murder and suicide. A well known photograph artist named Gregory killed a pretty young girl named Isabella Roy, an employee of his, and then shot himself in the mouth. That would not prove fatal but he cut his throat with a penknife. The bodies were found this morning by Mrs. Gregory in the photograph gallery. The tragedy is supposed to have occurred at nine o'clock last evening. Gregory and the girl had been disreputably intimate.

A Fatal Family Affray.

On Monday last, at Blandville, Kentucky, T. D. Campbell shot and fatally wounded A. J. Warden and also Warden's daughter, a young lady about eighteen. Warden and Campbell are brothers-in-law. The cause of the trouble is supposed to be the improper conduct of Campbell towards Warden's family. Warden had threatened to kill Campbell.

They met just on the edge of the village, when Campbell halted and ordered Warden not to approach him. Warden kept approaching, and Campbell, after backing about twenty feet, fired a revolver, hitting Warden in the mouth. The ball was extracted from the back part of the neck.

When Warden fell, his daughter came to him, and taking her father's pistol, commenced advancing upon Campbell. He warned her not to do so, and kept trying to get away. She fired at him, when he fired at her, cutting her ear. She soon followed, and Campbell retreated two hundred yards, when he fired, hitting her in the bowels, inflicting a mortal wound. Campbell gave himself up and is now in jail. There is no hope of either of the wounded parties recovering. Campbell was formerly Sheriff of that county. Warden is the present Circuit Clerk.

THE MORMON COUNTRY.—The anomalous territory of Utah receives its population chiefly from Europe. Few converts to the later doctrine of Mormonism are gathered from the United States. But the Mormon missionaries seem to exert a peculiar fascination over the peasantry of Great Britain and of the northern kingdoms of Europe. New recruits for the colony are constantly arriving from these countries. A few weeks ago a steamer left Liverpool with four hundred Mormon disciples, mostly young, between the ages of eighteen and twenty-eight, and about equally divided in sex. Not long ago a company of four hundred arrived at New York, emigrants from Denmark, Sweden and Norway. The territory is gaining rapidly in population and wealth, and Brigham Young is establishing, different kinds of manufactures to increase the variety of its industrial resources. It is very doubtful if any successor can maintain the authority of leadership which he has won by shrewdness and mental force. The whole history of this delusion is a disgrace to the civilization and religion of the nineteenth century, and a blot on the free institutions of America.—Providence Journal.

MUSTERED OUT.—Washington, Nov. 18.—Considerable surprise was occasioned in military and political circles on Saturday afternoon, by the promulgation of a special order, No. 494, wherein, by direction of the President, Major General Daniel E. Sickles and Brigadier General R. K. Scott are honorably mustered out of the service of the United States, to take effect January 1st, 1868. This order, so far as it applies to General Sickles, merely musters him out as Major General. He is still Colonel of the 44th regular infantry, and as such is awaiting orders from the War Department. General Scott, lately of the Freedmen's Bureau, was simply a volunteer officer, and consequently he is out of service entirely. General Sickles was the last Major General of Volunteers to be mustered out.

The town of Camburg, N. Y., was made famous two months ago by the birth of an infant which weighed only one pound.—The child is now in the third month of her existence, and has gained a pound and a half, kicking the beam at two and a half pounds, therefore an ordinary-sized gentleman's finger-ring will easily pass over her arm to the elbow, and her shoes are just two inches long.

TO THE PUBLIC.

There is all kinds of dodges made, use of in this world to make a certain thing win, and the last one up is this: Some unprincipled person is reporting that the M. G. will explode and that one did and blew all the pieces. Now I will say to that person that he is a liar of the first class, and that he will find that this dodge of it will not win. For falsehoods are like little chickens, they will come home to roost. What next? Try again. W. A. TRITTLE, Nov. 15—3m.
