VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO

Friday, January 10, 1868.

☞A negro in Blair county recently committed a horrible outrage by arresting a white man while stealing chickens. The black rascal ought to have a hundred lashes at least.

☞A woman by the name of Rowe, living near Mt Vernon, Ohio, gave birth on the 3d ult., to three boys and two girls. The children and the mother are doing well.

☞The National Convention of the Grand Army of the Republic assembles in Philadelphia next week. It will be largely attended by Soldiers from all parts of the United States.

☞It has been definitely settled by a Chicago court that, after reaching 17, young women are too old to be spanked. How the bones of the grandmothers must rattle over such a decision.

☞General Grant paid no attention to President Johnson and General Steadman's request that Governor Wells, of Louisiana, be reinstated on the 1st instant.

☞Gen Hancock has appointed Mr. Joshua Baker Governor of Louisiana, in the place of Gov. Flanders, resigned. Baker was a delegate to the Philadelphia Johnson Convention of 1866.

☞The heirs of the late Col. Butler of Lewistown who was killed on the Railroad a year or two ago, received from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, damages to the amount of $7,000.

☞It is said there is a negro woman living in Milesburg Centre county who is 110 years of age. It is about time she would would "lay down de shubble and de hoe."

☞Wm. Meeser, publisher of the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury, has been convicted of libel on the District Attorney, and sentenced to nine months in jail and fined $500.

☞General Grant had a prolonged interview on Saturday with General Sheridan, who is about to leave for his new command in the West.

☞Rev Albert S. Hunt, an unmarried Methodist minister, at Brooklyn, N. Y, received for a Christmas present from his parishioners an Indian rubber model of a young lady, stuffed with $500 in greenbacks.

☞The General Assembly of this State assembled at Harrisburg on Tuesday. The Republican caucus nominated for Speaker of the House Hon Elisha Davis, of Philadelphia. A number of members identified with the Free Railroad law interests opposed Mr. Davis' election, and the result at last accounts was undecided. James L Graham was elected Speaker of the Senate and Geo. W. Hammersly, Clerk.

☞The latest cable news from Ireland indicates continued activity among the Fenians, at whose "offrontery" we are told the people stand aghast. Their latest exploit is the act of entering the magazine at Cork and taking out about half a ton of blasting powder. The clergy of the city of Limerick have affixed their signatures to a paper declaring that there can be no permanent peace until Ireland is treated as Hungary has been.

☞That there is an organized effort in the Southern States to get up a war of races it seems to us admits of no doubt. Although the copperhead papers are teeming with accounts of "negro outrages," often manufactured for the occasion, hardly a day passes without an announcement of blacks being shot down in open day—two, three, or more being found dead—or others hanging. As an instance of this brutality, a dispatch announces that on Christmas day, at Memphis, no less than twelve negroes were shot accidentally, and a negro boy was killed by a boy. In many cases they have been defrauded of nearly all their earnings for the past year, and thousands are daily being discharged from employment with the undoubted view of rendering them destitute and desperate. The slightest pretext is used for committing murder, and backed by the administration at Washington, justice seldom overtakes the criminal, for in nine cases out of ten not even an arrest is made, or if made, a convenient rebel magistrate gives the white culprit full swing. There are no doubt thousands of well-meaning men at the South who would desire to see the colored population treated fairly, honorably and charitably, but the same minority element which engaged in the unholy rebellion is evidently at work to produce a collision between the whites and blacks, putting the latter if possible into a false position, and thus get the army of the United States to destroy the only friends the Union soldiers had in the South during the rebellion. Where all this will end, Heaven only knows; but that a retribution dire and terrible, will yet visit this people, if not this nation, no reader of history can doubt.

☞A. T. Stewart's city and state taxes in New York, amount to $250,000 this year. Poor men escape such frightful burdens.

SOLD.—Jno. Philips Esq., has disposed of his brick house and lot of ground on Church Street to John F. Johnson for the sum of $2200.

ADVERTISE.—Persons having real or personal property to dispose of should advertise in the Record. Its circulation in Washington and Quincy townships largely exceeds that of any other paper in the county.

ASSIGNEE SALE.—The Stock of drugs, store furniture and fitures, belonging to M. M. Stoner, will be sold at public sale on the 18th, by W. S. Amberson, assignee.

DIRECT IN INK.—Instructions have been issued from the Postoffice Department to Postmasters, to retain all letters addressed with lead pencil, and treat them as unstamped letters.

☞The Fulton Republican says a friend who now resides in Cass county, Missouri, killed five deer at two shots one morning before breakfast. Tall shooting or a tall story.

EXCELLENT.—Our neighbor Mr. REID has on hand some excellent Apples which he will sell by the peck or bushel. Buckwheat Flour, and Irish Potatoes just received.

LARGE BEAR.—A Bear was shot in the North Mountain, ten miles south of McConnelsburg, on Thursday of last week, by a lad named Carbaugh, which cleaned 228 pounds. This beats the ferocious "Brandt Bear."

ORGANIZED.—The Waynesboro' Building Association was temporarily organized on Saturday evening last by the election of D. B. Russell, Esq., President, Ezekiel Elden, Secretary, and Joseph Miller Treasurer. A constitution was afterwards adopted. Directors are to be elected at a meeting to be held on Monday night next.

LEG BROKEN.—We understand a valuable horse belonging to Jacob J. Miller of this vicinity broke one of his legs on Sunday last, and that Jacob G. Besore, of this place, on Monday set or adjusted the broken bone, and that the horse has since been able to stand on the limb. If Mr. B. effects a cure in this case it will be the first of the kind that has ever came to our knowledge of which he seems very confident.

THE VINDICATOR.—The "Temperance Vindicator," published at Williamburg, Blair Co, Pa, is the only temperance weekly published in the State. It is a handsome sheet and ably conducted. Publisher, James P. Thompson. Terms $2.00 in advance.

GREENCASTLE AHEAD,—A Building Association has been organized in Greencastle during the past week with five hundred shares subscribed, fifty cents to be paid on each share weekly. So we are informed.—This speaks well for the spirit of public enterprise awakened among the citizens of that ancient village.

COURT.—The following persons have been selected as Jurors from this township and Quincy for the next term of Court which commences on the 20th:—

Grand Jurors.—D. F. Good, Henry Good, Geo. Middour, Henry Walter. Traverse Jurors.—Geo. Besore, J. D. Benedict, D W. Garver, Jacob Hockersmith, John H. Johnston, P. Knepper, Christian Lesher, Geo. McCleary, L. S. Forney, David Lowery, David R. Miller, Daniel Price, Jacob Shockey, E J. Small, Geo. Stover.

THE WEATHER.—The weather during the past week has been anything but agreeable. The sky overhung with dark and threatening clouds, with occasional showers, which has kept our streets, alleys and public roads sloppy and disagreeable to those compelled to either walk, ride or drive. Even the ladies have been compelled to forego in a measure their accustomed "shopping" visits. Such seasons are enough to breed "dumps" among the female population, to say nothing of "blues" among the masculine portion.

REV. HENRY HARBAUGH.—The Lancaster Express thus speaks of this distinguished Divine, whose death was announced in our last paper:

Mr. Harbaugh was born near Waynesboro', Franklin County, Pa., on October 28, 1817. His great-grandfather emigrated from Switzerland about 1736. His father was a farmer, and Henry spent his youth working on the farm until he was 19 years of age. He was fond of reading at an early age, saving all the little money that come into his possession for the purchase of books. In 1836 he got leave to go to the west with a view of learning the trade of a carpenter. He worked four months as an apprentice, and afterward as a journeyman, always studying at night. For the next three years he taught school in the winter and attended an academy in the summer, and in 1840 entered Marshall College, at Mercersburg, Pa., and at the same time studied divinity in the theological seminary, at the same place. He was licensed and ordained in 1843, and became pastor of the German Reformed Congregation in Lewisburg, Pa., continuing his literary studies with unabated industry. In 1848 he published "Heaven, or an Earnest and Scriptural Inquiry into the Abode of the Sainted Dead." This volume was well received, and reached its 14th edition. In January, 1850, he commenced "The Guardian," a monthly magazine, still continued by Rev. Mr. Bausman. In April, 1850, he was called to the pastorate of the First German Reformed Church, in Lancaster. In 1851 he published "The Heavenly Recognition or an Earnest and Scriptural Discussion of the Question, 'Will we know our Friends in Heaven?'" and in 1853 he published "The Heavenly Home, or the Employments and Enjoyments of the Saints in Heaven." In 1854 Mr. Harbaugh published "The Birds of the Bible;" in 1857, a "Life of the Rev. Michael Schlatter;" in 1857 8, "The Fathers of the German Reformed Church in Europe and America," in three volumes, and shortly afterward "The True Glory of Woman, as portrayed in the Beautiful Life of the Virgin Mary" Mr. Harbaugh was also the author of "Union with the Church" (1853,) and the "Plea for the Lord's Portion of a Christian's Wealth, in Life by Gift, in Death by Will." After leaving Lancaster, Mr. H. became pastor of the Reformed Church in Lebanon, where he remained until elected Professor of Theology in the Mercersburg Seminary. During this time he took an active part in the synods of the church and the discussions on theological points in the various magazines and reviews of the day.

TERRY'S HOUSE.—Terry Able, an aged colored woman, has disposed of her lot of ground and little house fronting on the alley south of West Main street, to John R. Sellers for the sum of $425. Terry is among the old settlers of Waynesboro' and has always led a quiet and upright life, and despite the prejudice of a certain class against her race, has enjoyed the good will and confidence of citizens generally. She has been a faithful servant and led a life of drudgery, but enjoyed good health until within the past couple of years. Her age is supposed to be near 90 years. Her house is the only one within our borough occupied by a colored family for many years. Not a single representative of the decendents of Ham is now numbered among the tax-payers of our Borough. This is more than can be said of many towns with a population of fourteen or fifteen hundred inhabitants. Terry goes to Carlisle to spend with her son the short time yet allotted her.

WORTH REMEMBERING.—"If a man faint away," says Hall's Journal of Health, 'instead of yelling out like a savage, or running to him to lift him up, lay him at full length on his back on the floor, loose the clothing, push the crowd away, so as to allow the air to reach him, and let him alone. Dashing water over a person in a simple fainting fit is a barbarity. The philosophy of a fainting fit is that the heart fails to send the proper supply of blood to the brain. If the person is erect, that blood has to be thrown up hill; but if lying down, it has to be projected horizontally, which requires less power, as is apparent."

RULES FOR THE PRESENT.—Stop grumbling. Get up two hours earlier in the morning, and begin to do something out of your regular profession. Mind your own business, and with all your might let other people's alone. Live within your means. Eat with moderation and go to bed early. Talk less of your own peculiar gifts and virtues, and more of those of your friends and neighbors. Be cheerful. Fulfill your promise. Pay your debts. Be yourself all you would see in others. Be a good man and stop grumbling.

LARGE HOG.—Israel Baer of this vicinity a few days since slaughtered a hog which weighed (clean meat) 447 pounds. This is the largest porker perhaps killed in this section since the "butchering season" commenced.

Since putting the above in type we learn that Martin Geiser of this place slaughtered a hog on Tuesday which weighed four hundred and thirty-four pounds.

WHEELING MATCH.—The Wheeling Match for the "Brandt Bear" came of on Saturday last and attracted a large crowd of spectators. We understand some thirty odd persons toted the "barrow" at an expense of $1.00 each as competitors for his Bearship. Luther Speilman came off winner, Jim Furley doing the wheeling. Mr. S. has taken the prize to Lancaster, where we presume it will be disposed of in a similar manner.

Mrs. Cristine Barclay, who was born in Philadelphia in Febuary, 1765 died in Bullit county, Ky, a few days since. She was a very active old lady, and danced on the hundredth anniversary of her birth.

TRY THIS PLAN.—The following from the Daily Telegraph applies with equal force to other localities as well as Harrisburg:

Young man, another year has passed away, and yet, you have no money left of all your year's labor. Why is it—you don't know—well, we do, and we will tell you plainly why you are without money to-day. You have smoked and given away since last New Year day about 300 cigars, each cigar cost you 5 cents. You have used each week about 1 plug of 10 cent tobacco. You have taken about 300 drinks of old rye whisky at 10 cents each. You have taken about 40 plates of oysters when you were not needing them, and paid 25 cents for each. Now let us see what all this amounts to:

300 cigars at 5 cents each cost	$15 00
52 plugs of tobacco at 10 cents, cost	5 20
300 drinks at 10 each, cost	30 00
40 plates of oysters at 25 cents	10 00

This only amounts to $60 but you know, young man, that we have not made our calculation half as high as you would have to make it if put on oath—and if so, you have foolishly thrown away $120 since last New Year's day. If you do this during a life time of fifty years, you will lose $6,000, or if interest is counted as it should be, you will be $15,000 out of pocket.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, a young man by the name of Taylor was terribly injured at the Steam Saw Mill of Henry Miltenberger situate on the South Mountain. Whilst down among the machinery, the Saw Mill being in full operation, his coat was caught by a revolving shaft, which was making three hundred and forty revolutions per minute. He was whirled around at this fearful rate during a full minute before the machinery could be stopped. His one leg was beaten into a jelly and the other most fearfully mangled Drs. Huber of Gettysburg and Stem of Cashtown, were sent for who amputated one of his legs. No hopes are entertained of his recovery. He was married only about two months ago, and was also the soul support of his mother who is a widow.—V. Spirit.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—The Greencastle Valley Echo says that a very serious and dangerous accident befell Miss Emma Embick, on the evening of the 28th ult., at the Pinefield School house. She had been attending a singing school at the above mentioned place, and after the adjournment was standing with a group of ladies and gentlemen in front of the building, awaiting an opportunity to secure their conveyances for home. While there a young gentleman led a fractious horse into the crowd, who becoming fretful, kicked with all his strength, striking Miss Embick in the face, lacerating her in a frightful manner—breaking the jaw-bone, and knocking the teeth on one side of her mouth completely out. At last accounts Miss Embick was doing as well as could be expected.

Horrible Poisoning Case.

UPPER SANDUSKY, Ohio, Dec. 31.—Mr. Wm. Bowsher and his two sisters died suddenly, some days ago, under suspicious circumstances. An examination was determined upon, and this morning the report of Dr. Wormley, of Columbus, to whom the stomach of William Bowsher was sent for analysis, was read. He reports having found arsenic in the stomach in sufficient quantity to cause death. Upon learning the above fact, the County Commissioners immediately ordered the bodies of the two sisters of the deceased, who previously died with symptoms indicating the same cause, to be disinterred, and a similar examination made in their cases. What makes the matter more interesting is the fact that the two latter were very agreeable and attractive young ladies, and both engaged to be married in a short time. Who administered the poison, or from what motive, still remains a profound mystery, although there are vague hints that point to a certain party as the perpetrator of the horrible crime. No arrests have yet been made —Cincinnati Commercial.

Mount Vesuvius.

LONDON, Dec. 24—Noon.—Dispatches received from Naples mention that the eruption of Mount Vesuvius is continually increasing in power and splendor. Immense sheets of white, yellow and crimson flame rise hundreds of feet above the crater, and at night the Bay of Naples is lighted up for miles. Lava is pouring down the mountain side in immense quantities, and large stones are occasionally thrown out from the mouth of the volcano. A deep rumble, like reverberating thunder, is heard from time to time, as in the bowels of the earth, and many of the people in the vicinity have left their homes, fearing an earthquake of other calamity. No such eruption has probably occured in Vesuvius for centuries, and the spectacle is regarded as one of the most magnificent and sublime ever witnessed in nature.

A MAN RUNS ELEVEN MILES IN AN HOUR.—One of the greatest feats on record was the foot race against time of De Kelso on the New Market Course, Canada. The match was for $1,000 a side, De Kelso's friends wagering that he could run eleven miles inside of an hour. The betting at the start was six to five in favor of time. De Kelso, however, won the race, a seemingly impossible feat, by four seconds.

☞In Henry county, Ky., a man named Floyd became so angry because his brother-in-law would not endorse his note that he followed him home and shot both barrels of his shot gun at him as he sat at dinner. He did not hit him, yet he fell dead, and on examination it was found that the dead man's heart was deceased, and that the great excitement had killed him.

Chas. H. Parker, the conductor of the Johnstown (Pa,) accommodation train, attempted to put a man named Hall of the train last Monday for refusing to pay his fare, when the latter stabbed Parker in the abdomen, killing him almost instantly.

A negro who raped a white girl on the public road in Jefferson county, Ga., two weeks ago, was arrested on Monday and tied to a stake and burned by a mixed crowd of whites and blacks.

☞To show what are the disadvantages under which the white Unionists in the South labor, one fact may be stated. In Alabama, at the vote at the election for and against a convention in one city where the Union element is well known to number more than six hundred white voters, a deputation stood all day at the window and noted the name of every white man who voted. If he voted at all, he necessarily voted for a convention, and was thus identified with the Republican party. Every man thus identified was marked for persecution. If he were in trade his business was injured; if a mechanic or laboring man under the employment of others, his discharge immediately followed.

☞The party of spiritualists who have been making nude demonstrations in Newark are all declared to be partially insane by the doctors. The chief of them, a man named McEwen, declared himself to be Jesus Christ, and demands to be crucified, while Mrs. Reeves, the oldest woman of the party, believes herself to be either Eve or the Virgin Mary. They were in the habit of haranguing multitudes on the doctrine of spiritualism from their doorsteps while in a nude state. They are all at present in the state house.

Mahon, the ruffian who, in attempting to shoot the ring master of a circus at Eaton, Ohio, last fall killed a young girl in the audience has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Mrs. Aaron Rowe, living near Mt. Vernon, Ohio, a day or two since gave birth to five children—three boys and two girls. They were all doing well at last accounts.

Ohio reports the death of a cat at the well authenticated age of twenty-seven years.
