

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO. Friday, February 14 1868.

The New York World reads Vallandigham cut of the Democratic party.

General J. H. Logan is believed to be the next popular choice for Governor in Illinois.

An effort is making to have the Democratic National Convention meet in Philadelphia.

Mr. Stanton has finally decided that he will not resign the office of Secretary of War.

Governor Swann has appointed Friday, the 21st instant, for the execution of the negro Jones, convicted in Frederick County Court for rape.

The Senate Committee on Territories have agreed to favorably report the bill for the admission of Colorado into the Union, which, it will be remembered, was passed and vetoed by the President last winter.

A young lady named C. Mills, living at No. 1, 119 Ellsworth street, Phila., was fatally burned on Sunday night by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

General Meade has written an Ohio editor, who nominated him for the Vice Presidency, that he has not the slightest desire to fill that high office.

Col. George P. Kane of Baltimore, is to be made the recipient of a magnificent gold snuff box, valued at $300, from his old rebel police force of 1860.

Vallandigham, in predicting the defeat of the Democratic party in Ohio next fall, says the Republican majority will be from thirteen to twenty thousand. Val did not get to be U. S. Senator.

In the Maryland House of Delegates on Monday a bill appropriating $5,000 for the removal of the remains of Rebels killed or who died from wounds received in the battles of South Mountain, Antietam and Crampton Gap, was passed.

It is said that the Committee of Ways and Means of the House of Representatives have agreed to recommend a reduction of the tax on smoking and chewing tobacco from forty cents per pound to thirty-two cents.

The facts which have been developed by the Grant-Johnson Correspondence has led to a revival of the impeachment subject. The reconstruction Committee has appointed a sub-committee, consisting of Messrs. Boutwell and Hingham, to take this subject into consideration.

The Newark (N. J.) Courier thinks the candidate for Vice President with Grant will be either Colfax, Wilson or Hamlin, and expresses its preference for Colfax, because "he would add more vitality to the Grant ticket than any other name that could be placed upon it."

AN ASSESSMENT.—An assessment has been made upon the employees of the Custom House in Baltimore of from five to fifty dollars, which is to be used for the purpose of electing a delegation from Maryland to the Democratic National Convention pledged to secure the nomination of Andrew Johnson for the Presidency. So says the American, one of the most reliable journals in the State.

It ought to be generally known, but is not, that every loyal citizen, being the head of a family, is entitled to 160 acres of land, upon the payment of ten dollars in fees and actual settlement thereof upon vacant lands in either of the States or Territories unoccupied. A great deal of land of first quality yet remains unappropriated in Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Iowa and other States and Territories.

Capital punishment is rapidly losing favor in this country, and from the tide of public opinion setting in against the death penalty we should not be surprised that in the course of a few years no State will be found clinging to the idea of life for life, or life for any high crime. In the Missouri Legislature a bill is about to be introduced abolishing capital punishment and substituting life imprisonment.

The publication of the Grant-Johnson correspondence has caused considerable agitation in official circles at Washington. Every effort has been made to place General Grant before the country in a wrong position, but the publication of his last letter to the President is amply sufficient to brush away all the Copperhead calumnies that have ever been uttered. He tells the President in a plain and straight-forward manner, that he has been endeavoring to defeat the execution of the laws, and has sought to make General Grant an instrument to carry out the same purpose. General Grant is a patriot as well as a soldier, and clearly understands that it is his duty to execute the laws which are enacted by the law-making power.

A couple of foolish young people were married recently, in Detroit, in a joke. The minister who tied the knot, thought it a real marriage, and as the ceremony was performed in proper manner, the bonds are as tight as any "silken tie that binds two willing hearts." The lady has applied for a divorce.

The new funding bill, reported to the United States Senate recently by Mr. Sherman, from the Finance Committee, provides for the issue of registered and coupon bonds of the United States, principal and interest payable in coin, and bearing interest at five per cent. per annum, and bearing date so as to require the payment of an equal amount of the interest quarterly; said bonds to be payable forty years from date, and redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the Government after ten years from date, and to be issued to an amount sufficient to cover outstanding obligations of the United States, other than the existing five per cent. bonds, and to be exchanged for such obligations, and in such manner and on such terms, not less than par, as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem most conducive to the interest of the Government; and the said bonds shall be exclusively used for the redemption or in exchange for the existing securities of the United States; said bonds to be exempt from taxation in any form. It appropriates out of the proceeds of the duties on imported goods annually an amount equal to one per cent. on the bonds issued under this act, which sum shall be reserved and annually applied to the purchase or payment of the national debt. It legalizes all contracts made specifically, payable in coin, and strikes out the provisions relative to a foreign loan.

The Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia, last year relieved the starvation of 60,751 white persons and 44,987 colored persons, by distributing among them 35,422 bushels of corn and 350,517 pounds of bacon. This was the charity of Congress, and was bestowed upon whites in a much larger proportion than on negroes, although in a matter of pure benevolence, and where death by hunger is to be prevented, no one would wish to make any distinction. But the fact shows that the Freedmen's Bureau does not exist for the exclusive benefit of any class of the destitute. At the same time there was distributed in Georgia 87,713 bushels of corn, the gift of charitable associations at the North.

The New York Evening Post remarks upon the shallow cunning trick which President Johnson tried to play upon Gen. Grant: "Mr. Johnson wanted Grant, it seems, to lock the War Office door against Stanton. Why, then, did he not order Grant to do it? Mr. Johnson knew very well that passage in the Tenure-of-Office act which punishes with fine and imprisonment any one who resists its enforcement. Had he ordered Grant to keep the War Office doors shut, Mr. Johnson would have violated the law and subjected himself to its penalties. Therefore, with what will seem to every honorable man not very creditable cunning, he did not order Grant to do so, but tried to entrap him into a promise to do so on his (Grant's) own account."

A HOT SHOT.—"And now, Mr. President, when my honor as a soldier and integrity as a man have been so violently assailed, pardon me for saying that I can but regard this whole matter, from beginning to end, as an attempt to involve me in the resistance of law, for which you hesitated to assume the responsibility in orders, and thus to destroy my character before the country." — U. S. Grant to Andrew Johnson.

Returns of the election in Alabama as far as received indicate that the Constitution has failed to carry. Freedmen were kept from the polls by ex Rebels. In thirty-four counties the vote for the Constitution stands 51,733. The registration in the same counties is 111,209. It is stated that a move will be made in Congress as soon as the full returns are received to pass a bill declaring the Constitution carried and the State fully restored in its relations to the Union.

LAND SALES IN VIRGINIA.—The Virginia Advertiser (Lynchburg) of January 31st says:

During the past two weeks we have had calls from a number of persons from distant States, wishing to purchase lands. Some of these have made extensive examinations, and we are led to believe that the result will be a large influx of capital. We are now negotiating with parties for the sale of real estate amounting to at least $200,000.

The Fredericksburg Herald of February 3d says: We are in the receipt of letters from all parts of "the best Government the world ever saw," inquiring as to the farming lands in this section, the condition of the people, the safety of new-comers, the desirability of Fredericksburg as a place of residence, rents, whether white labor is wanted, and a hundred other matters.

Those who are looking forward to immigrating ought to come on at once, and see for themselves. In five years the price of lands, lots, &c., will be more than doubled, and in ten years quadrupled.

The Danville Times of the 4th says: Land lying eight miles the other side of Pennsylvania Court House sold here on Saturday for one dollar per acre. It was sold under decree of Bankrupt Court.

SENTENCED FOR SEDUCTION.—James Carson, convicted in the courts of Allegheny county, of the seduction of Annie C. Grey, under promise of marriage, was sentenced to imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for fifteen months. The case was tried in the early part of January. The prosecutrix, Miss Grey, resides in Versailles township. She is a handsome and intelligent young lady of twenty. Carson is about thirty-five years of age, and a resident of the same locality. The parties had been intimately acquainted from childhood.

LOCAL MATTERS.

We will be compelled to strike the names of another batch of patrons from our subscription list soon if arrangements are not paid up. Where it is possible to make collections from such costs will be added to their accounts. We do not steal our paper, ink etc., nor do we buy on a credit of half a dozen or more years. Thirty days is the limit. Will "slow coaches" please remember.

LOST.—See notice of lost bonnet, etc.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from Geo. L. Frantz, Altoona, Pa.

A "she rebel," or somebody else, has made us the recipient of a Valentine, comic of course. Send 'em along, sisters.

A "STEEP PRICE."—Butter now commands 35 cents per pound and is scarce at that.

WANTED.—A few bushels of choice potatoes on some subscription account of long standing.

OMITTED.—A good farm wagon was omitted in the advertisement of D. H. Fahrney which appears in another column.

PROPERTY FOR SALE.—Mr. Elam Frantz offers for sale a valuable town property. See advertisement.

BUILDING LOTS.—It will be seen we propose to sell at public sale on the 29th inst., (if not previously sold at private sale) a valuable lot of ground on South street, containing four building lots.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Geo. Colliflower, an aged citizen died at his residence in this place about 4 o'clock yesterday morning. He was taken suddenly ill and lingered but a few hours. The cause of his death is supposed to have been heart disease.

DECEASED.—Mrs. Winger, an estimable lady, and wife of Col. B. F. Winger, of the House of Representatives from this county, died suddenly at her residence in Greencastle on Wednesday of last week.

A gallon of brandy costing $12, yields $31.40 when retailed by the glass. Whisky at $5, yields $27.50. This makes no allowance for watering. So a cotemporary states.

Adam Vanderau, of Jackson Hall, lost or had stolen from him at the sale of David Mahalan, in Antrim township, on Tuesday a week, a pocket book containing about $160 in money and notes.

LECTURE.—Henry Ward Beecher will deliver a lecture in Chambersburg on the evening of the 25th inst.—Subject: "Work and the Workman."

MEETING.—A meeting of the Anderson Spring Bed Bottom Company will be held at the House of Jos. H. Grebs on Tuesday evening next for the transaction of important business. T. J. FILBERT, Pres't.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—Waynesboro' Lodge, No. 219 I. O. O. F. will celebrate their 21st Anniversary on Tuesday evening the 18th inst., at the Lodge Room. The Waynesboro' Band will be in attendance. The members the same evening will partake of an Oyster Supper at the Bowden House.

WOOLEN MILL.—The attention of capitalists is directed to the advertisement of the Chambersburg Woollen Mill Company in today's paper. An opportunity is here offered for valuable investments. The stock of the Company it will be seen is already paying a handsome interest.

COLD.—With us Saturday morning last was the coldest of the season, the mercury indicating 5° below zero. This may be regarded however as a mild temperature compared with reports of the weather which reach us from Minnesota. At St. Paul at 7 A. M. on Monday last the thermometer was 40° below zero.

ICY.—Our streets and side-walks, the South side especially, have presented for the past couple of weeks an almost solid cake of ice, making it perilous for females and aged persons to venture out of doors. Such a "icy season" has been rarely witnessed in our town. The same is true of the country roads, which makes them almost impassable in many localities with teams.

GOOD NEWS.—The State Senate has passed a supplement to the act incorporating the Scotland and Mt. Alto railroad company, authorizing the extension of the road to the Maryland line, via Waynesboro'. This is certainly encouraging news for the citizens of our town and township. If doubts were heretofore entertained as to the probability of getting a railroad to our town this should go far towards removing them.

SLIDDING.—Since the icy season set in sledding and skating has been much in vogue amongst the youngsters of our town. A healthful recreation, but not unattended with danger, as many a chap with sore head or sore shin will no doubt attest. We notice in our exchanges several accidents having occurred to boys while sledding, one of which proved fatal. The unfortunate lad was sliding down a hillside when his head came in contact with a snag which pierced his brain killing him instantly. We mention this as a warning to boys who practice sledding.

St. Valentine's Day.—"Old times has changed, old manners gone," so sang the Bard. This is St. Valentine's day, but it is not observed as in the olden time. Then the post office employees were kept busy transmitting paper missives expressive of love or fun as the spirit of the sender was moved.

How did this custom originate? It was an old notion, to which Shakespeare alludes, that birds begin to couple on this day.—Hence arose the custom of sending on that day letters containing sentiments of love and friendship. By and by the humorous vein was indulged. We well remember and see yet occasionally coarse caricatures provoking laughter and sometimes anger, the joke not being kindly appreciated. This feature received a heavy blow when the prepayment of postage was ordered.

Many of our young readers be in the receipt of tokens awakening sentiments of love and gladness.

SALE REGISTRY.—The following public sales of personal property advertised in the Record will come off as follows:

Samuel H. Barr, on the Marsh Run, four miles from Waynesboro', February 13th and 14th.

W. S. Amberson, Waynesboro', February 17th.

Daniel H. Fahrney, near Mt. Hope, Saturday, February 22d.

John Row, near Quincy, February 25th.

Isaac Fox, 3 miles South of Waynesboro', near Salem Church, February 27th.

Abm. Golley, near Shady Grove, Monday, March 2d.

THE W. M. RAIL ROAD.—The Commissioners of Washington Co., appointed a Committee, consisting of David Cushman President of the Board, Phillip Oswald, A. K. Syoster and Edwin Bell, Esqrs., to confer with the Baltimore Authorities in reference to the affairs of the W. M. R. R. This committee proceeded to Baltimore last week, and held a conference with the Mayor and a committee of the City Council. It is said that after a full interchange of opinion, it was determined that an inspection of the road should be made before any more bonds are guaranteed by the City and County of Washington. Accordingly arrangements were made by the Joint committees to commence an examination of the road.—Herald.

At the meeting of the surviving officers of the Army of the Cumberland, in Cincinnati, on the 6th inst., the following among numerous other letters was read:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 2 1868.—My Dear Sir—Your favor of the 30th of December, extending to me, on the part of the committee to make arrangements for the organization of the "Society of the Army of the Cumberland," an invitation to meet them in Cincinnati, on the 6th of February, is received. It is not probable that my duties will permit of my absence from this city at that time, otherwise I would accept with great pleasure.

I am glad to see the Army of the Cumberland organizing such a society, and would equally like to see each of the distinctive armies of the Union against rebellion organize such societies. Each may be proud of their record during the rebellion, and annual reunions tend to keep up a brotherly feeling cemented by hardships and dangers endured by all the members in one great patriotic cause.

Hoping you will meet with success in the objects of your meeting, I subscribe myself your obedient servant;

U. S. GRANT, General, To Henry M. Cist, Cor. Secretary, &c.

ERUPTION OF MOUNT VESEVIUS.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius, which has continued with greater or less intensity since its commencement in the past year, has culminated in an unusual and very fatal catastrophe. On the 28th ult., the side of Mount Vesuvius lying right opposite to the gate of Castello Movo, one of the fortifications of Naples, situated between the Royal Palace and the sea, fell, tumbling outward. The detached portion buried several houses built in the vicinity, and overwhelmed carriages and other conveyances passing on the highway at the moment. The scene is melancholy and full of ruin. The road running in the neighborhood of the volcano is filled with rocks and earth, which lately formed part of the mountain. This extraordinary event has also been attended with considerable loss of life, but the number of persons killed has not yet been ascertained.

MORE MURDERS BY INDIANS.—The Dallas (Texas) Herald publishes a letter from W. T. G. Weaver, giving an account of another brutal Indian raid on the citizens of Cook county Texas:

"On Sunday, the 5th, about one hundred Indians appeared in that county, and, dividing into squads, commenced their usual work of murder and robbery. During Sunday and Monday, they killed a Mr. Long, a young man named Leatherwood, Mr. Nencoso, and, it is supposed, Mrs. Carroll, who is missing. Mr. Thomas Fitzpatrick and wife, and Arthur Parkill. Three of Fitzpatrick's children, Miss Carroll and Mrs. Edward Shegog, were captured. Mrs. Shegog and Miss Carroll escaped, however, before the Indians left the county, but they killed the infant child of the former. They even encamped near the town of Gainesville, and sent a party through it in the night. Mrs. Shegog says they were continually driving in horses to the encampment near town.—They cut off this lady's hair and stripped her of clothing."

A Pomeroy (Kansas) paper has been edited by the spectacle, in the court room in that place, of four lawyers reading one Bible at the same time. Two were sitting down and holding the book between them, and the other two looking over their shoulders; and the attitude and expression of the group was such as to inspire the belief that they had never seen the book before.

A house was burned down in Iowa recently, and a young woman and two children perished in the flames.

Gray hairs may not mar one's good looks and in many cases even improve the appearance, but as a general rule are considered objectionable and many devices are resorted to to prevent or get rid of them. We know of no mode so little troublesome or objectionable as the use of Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, an article which of late has become so immensely popular as a toilet article and beautifier. It is easily applied restores gray or faded hair, prevents and in many cases cures baldness, cleanses the scalp and leaves the hair in splendid condition for arranging.

There is reason to suspect that the hanging of a negro by a mob at Frankfort, Kentucky, the other day, was a more shocking affair than was first reported. A despatch to the Cincinnati Commercial says: It is proved to-day that he was innocent. His employer, whose authority is unquestionable, swears positively to an alibi.

Jane E. Caldwell, who was seriously and permanently injured on the Catawissa Railroad, between Danville and Milton, Pa., on the 3d of November, 1855, has just recovered $11,000 damages of the company.

An explosion of burning fluid occurred in a house in Norwich, Ct., last Friday. Two girls and a boy, aged 10, 11 and 16 years, were burned to death.

Dr. Jackson, of Macon, Georgia, a brother of the Jackson who killed Col. Ellsworth at Alexandria, was shot and killed by his son last Saturday a week.

A Judge in Indianapolis, Indiana, has sentenced a colored preacher to ten years in the penitentiary, and $5,000 fine for marrying a negro to a white woman.

Having taken his seat in that body in 1851 Hon. Ben Wade will have served continuously eighteen years in the United States Senate when his term expires in 1869.

BURLINGTON, Vt., February 10.—Miss Greenough, aged 17 years, was burned to death last night, her cloths taking fire from the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

Jefferson Davis has been nominated for the Presidency of the Texas Pacific Railroad. He is now in Mississippi.
