

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAINESBORO.

Friday, March 27, 1868.

Counterfeit one dollar greenbacks are in circulation. Look out for them.

Donovan, the murderer of the Squibbs family, of York county, is to be executed on Tuesday next.

Connecticut holds her State election on the first Monday in April, and Rhode Island, on the Wednesday following.

The Maryland Legislature recently passed an act appropriating $300,000 for the arming, equipping and drilling of Swans militia. Not a small item for the taxpayers of that Rebel-ridden State to foot, but so much for Conventioe rule.

Report says the free railroad law has finally passed the State Senate and only awaits the approval of the Governor to become a law.

BORDER CLAIMS.—The bill proposed by Mr. Winger to appropriate $500,000 to the losses sustained by the people of the border counties during the Rebellion, excluding Chambersburg, was discussed in the House on Wednesday evening of last week and defeated by the decisive vote of 17 to 69.

A SPY IN CAMPS.—A case is noted in an excellent paper of a lady agent going round and selling ladies "corsets," fitting them at a remarkable low price. The cheapness of his work in some cases, and the decided partiality shown some of the more beautiful, aroused suspicion, and on the lady's being arrested she was found to be a young man in disguise—fitting and selling just for the fun of the thing. He says he has passed thro' Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania, and fitted corsets to several thousand young ladies.

IMPEACHMENT CASE.—President Johnson's counsel filed his answer to the articles of impeachment, on Monday. The document is said to be remarkable for what it denotes, its length, and the misrepresentations it contains. His counsel followed it up by a demand for thirty days additional time in which to prepare themselves for the trial. After listening to elaborate arguments from both sides, the Senate refused the request by a vote of twelve in its favor to forty one against. The Managers of the impeachment on the part of the House of Representatives gave notice that they would submit their replication to Mr. Johnson's answer at one o'clock. A special despatch from Washington gives their rejoinder in full, which is remarkably brief, and to the point. The Managers say that "the House of Representatives of the United States having considered the answer in plea of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, to the articles of impeachment against him by them exhibited in the name of themselves, and of all the people of the United States, reply that the said Andrew Johnson is guilty in such manner as he stands impeached, and that the House of Representatives will be ready to prove their charges against him at such convenient time and place as shall be appointed by the Senate for that purpose." The President's counsel may be enabled to postpone his trial for a few days longer, but it is extremely doubtful.

Later despatches announce Monday next as the day decided on by the Senate for the commencement of the trial.

The wisdom of the age and the folly of youth is illustrated in the confession of Horace Greeley, made the other night at Cincinnati. He said:—"There was once a time when I regarded all reforms as possible, and almost as within the compass of immediate creation. Later and more sober reflection, based on experience, have convinced me of the truth of what the young reformer said, that 'old Adam was too strong for young Melancthon.' I therefore withdraw myself, call back my forces, and stand on the platform of education for the millions, not as the complement of reforms, but as the basis of all reforms." The wholesome conviction born of experience, could not have been better expressed.

The steamer Magnolia, with 120 passengers and 49 members of the crew, exploded her boilers about twelve miles above Cincinnati, on Thursday afternoon. Only fifty-seven of the whole number are known to be saved. The boat took fire immediately after the boilers exploded, and after the remaining upper works were destroyed, some powder in the magazine exploded, destroying the hull, which sunk. Many of the passengers jumped overboard and were drowned, and others were burned, among them the captain.

DEATH OF JUDGE WILMOT.—Judge Wilmot, at one time a United States Senator from Pennsylvania, and at the time of his death one of the Judges of the Court of Claims of the United States, died at his residence in Towanda, Bradford county, on Sunday a week. Mr. Wilmot was well known as the author of the Wilmot proviso, and an able advocate of Republican principles.

Even the La Crosse Democrat abandons Johnson. In that paper of the 7th instant is the following:

The mongrels may work their will upon him for aught we care. He is one of them; has played the usurper and tyrant himself, and let him bear some of his own "curses" come home to roost." Rampants, "drive on your cart!" "This is not our funeral."

LOCAL MATTERS.

A meeting of the two R. R. Committees, Executive and Soliciting, will be held in the Council Room to-morrow, (Saturday) at 2 o'clock P. M.

Easter comes the 12th of April. It is said that a descendant of Luther the Reformer is now living in Hagerstown.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $3 from Wm. Betrabing, Esq., Hagerstown, Md.

Doves, etc.—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. H. X. Stoner in another column.

OPENED OUT.—Messrs. Price & Hoeflich have opened out their first supply of new goods. Advertisement received too late for this issue.

REMOVALS.—Subscribers changing their place of residence on the 1st of April are requested to give us timely notice, that the necessary changes may be made on our packet book.

FOUNDRY BURNED.—The Foundry and Shops, of Mr. Ungar, of Cove Gap, this county, were destroyed by fire on Sunday night last. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

GONE EAST.—Mr. W. H. Hiteshaw of the firm of Metcalfe & Hiteshaw, Chambersburg, is now in Philadelphia laying in their spring supply of new goods, which they expect to receive and open out by the first of April.

Gov. Geary has appointed Col. D. W. Rowe, of Greensville, additional Judge of this (16th) Judicial District. Col. Rowe is a gentleman of fine talents and legal ability. His appointment reflects credit upon our State Executive.

WAINESBORO' COACH FACTORY.—The firm of Messrs. Adams & Hawker have now at their Coach Factory in this place a selection of very superior and handsomely finished traveling conveyances, Buggies, Carriages, etc. Persons wanting a vehicle of any kind should give this enterprising firm a call.

THE SNOW STORM.—The snow storm of Friday last prevailed further East with unusual severity. In Philadelphia and other localities the ground was covered to the depth of 24 inches, and railroad travel was thus impeded for a time. It is represented as having been the heaviest snow storm of the season.

NEW CHURCH.—We understand the Lutheran congregation of this place have purchased of Mr. Jacob Adams a lot of ground fronting on Church Street and propose erecting thereon a new church. The situation is a very desirable one.

THE WEATHER.—On Monday night last a terrific thunder storm passed over our town and on Wednesday evening a severe snow storm prevailed, covering the ground yesterday morning to the depth of several inches. March, so far, has proved very fickle, all predictions by the weather-wise to the contrary.

THE ELECTION.—The election for Township and Borough officers on Friday last passed off quietly. The weather during the day was exceedingly disagreeable and a light vote was polled in consequence. The successful candidates are as follows:

Judge, Charles West. Inspector, E. W. Washbaugh. School Directors, Matthew Gordon, John Good, Wm. Potter. Supervisors, Aaron Funk, Daniel Potter, Simon Leeron, Auditor, Jacob Carbaugh. Justice of the Peace, Thos. Clingan. Constable, H. A. Fisher.

In our Borough the following ticket was elected:

School Directors, J. H. Crebs, Geo. Morgenthal. Assessor, H. M. Sibbet. Auditor, Geo. W. Welsh, Esq. Constable, Wm. E. Horner.

BEST KINDS OF POTATOES TO PLANT.—A correspondent of the German town Telegraph says: We are now reaping the benefits of the perseverance of the late Rev. Mr. Goodrich of Ulica N. Y., who toiled nearly the half of an ordinary life time to produce new and better kinds from seed balls obtained from tubers imported from Mexico, South America, &c. Out of over 16,000 seedlings Mr. G. was only able to obtain a few very choice sorts, and among them the "Early Goodrich," which as an early Potato and for yield and quality is unsurpassed, and what is better, it seems to improve in both quality and quantity. The "Harrison" is also one of the Goodrich seedlings.

A friend of mine says, "I procured four pounds of these potatoes by mail in 1866, and planted by cutting so as to put three eyes to a hill—60 hills—from which I picked 450 pounds or 7 1/2 bushels."

To cut the seed. Begin at the stem or butt end, holding the point end from you and slicing towards you, cutting a sloping slice off with only one eye.

Rev. James Lynch, a colored preacher of Mississippi, and well known in Baltimore, challenged anyone in the State to discuss the question of suffrage with him before the voters of the State. He satirically remarks: "My color alone should be no objection to an acceptance of this challenge, inasmuch as it will take no part in the task. I will only use my heart, my brains and my tongue."

THE RAILROAD.—A gentleman who is well posted in regard to Railroad matters—and whose opinion is therefore worthy of consideration—assured us the other day that the contemplated Railroad from Scotland via Mt. Alto to this place, if constructed could not fail to pay fair dividends. He gives it as his opinion that the stock would pay over six per cent, if not a single passenger should be conveyed over the line. The quantity and quality of ear so near the terminus of the road, to say nothing of the populous and thrifty agricultural region of country through which it would run, certainly warrants this conclusion. The Mt. Alto Iron Company say that their tannage the first year after the road is built would not be less than thirty thousand tons. This amount would necessarily be largely increased, perhaps in time more than doubled.

If we understand anything about such matters at all it is the tonnage that makes such stocks valuable, and on that part of the proposed line there are said to be inexhaustible mines of ear. A Railroad will certainly develop these, and hence investments in the stock of this company must prove profitable. Is not this a reasonable inference?

In securing this road, among the many important considerations which should influence farmers along the line, should be the cheapness and convenience of getting coal for lime-burning. That immense quantities would be used for this purpose and our lands be made much more productive there is not the shadow of a doubt.

We are pleased to learn that several members of the Soliciting Committee have been actively engaged during the past couple of days canvassing our Borough and that they have been successful far beyond their expectations. Our citizens manifest an earnestness and determination to make the undertaking a success, and if the good people of our township and those along the line are sufficiently awake to the importance of the enterprise and co-operate with anything like the same spirit of liberality, little doubt may be entertained as to its final success. We expect to give an encouraging account of their labors in our next issue.

CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.—The East Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Church, which assembled in Baltimore on the 11th inst., adjourned on the 17th. The following are the appointments for Frederick District—Jno H C Dosh, P. E. Frederick City—Richard Hinkle. Buckeystown—John W Smith. (Joshua C. Wilson, supply) Liberty—J. Bunson Aker, Chas. D Smith. Westminster—John W Hedges, Edwin H Smith. Waterville—W Hiram Reed. Hampstead—Hugh Linn, (D Webster, supply) Emmitsburg—J Duery Moore, Aaron A Koontz. Middletown & Jefferson—Wm M Kester. Antietam—Jacob Montgomery, M F B Rice. Hagerstown—W G Ferguson. Wainnesboro'—Dan'l Sheffer. Mount Alto—Corwin V Wilson. Mercersburg—L R B Rhodes, (one to be supplied) Greensville—Oliver M Stewart. Hancock—Coleman H Savidge, Durbin G Miller Cumberland—Edward Kinsey. Frostburg G W Cooper. Frostburg Circuit—E Buhman, Thos. J Cross. Piedmont—Samuel Shannon, Benj F Clarkson. Alleghany—A J Bender, Jas W Howard. John A Monroe, Principal Male Academic and Female Collegiate Institute, member of the Westminster Quarterly Conference.

Col. Jacob Hollingsworth, of Hagerstown, aged about seventy-eight years, on Wednesday last was discovered lying across the foot of his bed, alone in his room, insensible, with the blood oozing out of a small hole a little back of and above the right ear. Under his body was observed a Colt's revolver of the smallest size, loaded with the exception of a single charge. The Hagerstown Mail says that for a long while Col. Hollingsworth has been in a highly nervous state, mentally as well as physically. He has fancied that he was threatened by robbers, and one of his idiosyncrasies was that he must have a pistol constantly about him for his defence. How the act was really committed was divulged to the All-seeing Eye alone, and must ever remain a mystery.

RAPE CASE.—On Wednesday morning last, on the road between Smithsburg and Leitersburg, a young man named Theodore Householder, a citizen of this place, met a young girl, the daughter of Jackson Delouer, Esq., of Leitersburg district, aged about twelve years, on whom he committed a rape; resistance by the young girl proved unavailing. A warrant was sued out before Justice Leggett, of Leitersburg, and placed in the hands of Constable White, who arrested the criminal and brought him before the Justice, who committed him to jail, where he is now confined, awaiting the penalty of the law.—Zug Mail.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—A beautiful and pathetic steel engraving, "Caught by the Tide," is the leading embellishment in the April number of this "Queen of the Monthlies"—it is a story in itself. This is followed by the usual refined and elegant double steel Fashion Plate—so superior to Fashion Plates generally. "The Day after the Failure," is a touching picture. Of course, there are numerous engravings devoted to the fashions, and to different styles of lady's and children's dresses, &c. The music for this month is the popular song, "Lady, do not Trust the Stranger," which is worth of itself the price of the number. The literary contents are excellent as usual. Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; four copies (with one engraving) $6.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut St. Philadelphia.

THE APRIL NUMBER OF THE PARENTOLOGICAL JOURNAL. is Fresh, Raey, Vigorous.—Among the Portraits and Characters are: Adeline Patti; Isaac Jennings, M. D.; Allen A. Griffith, the Western Elocutionist; Charles I. of England; King and Queen of Greece; Rev. M. J. Raphael, S. M. Isaacs, Isaac Leaser, A. De Sola, Dr. Adler, Dr. Iloway, and six other prominent Jewish Divines; Articles and Sketches on Phantasmagoria—Association of Ideas in Memory; Who shall be Chief? or Mrs. E. O. Smith on "The Family," The Pipe and its Story; Lucretian Affections; by Rev. G. J. Geer, D. D.; Dissipation—Diseases; Our Congressmen, etc. Price, only 30 cents a number, or $3 a year. Address: S. R. WELLS, 339 Broadway New York.

A Southern view of Impeachment. The following extract is from a letter written by a gentleman in Georgia to a merchant in New York. What he says is beyond doubt the simple truth in regard to the result of impeachment:

"We are not sorry to learn that Mr. Johnson is to be removed from office. But for him, this State and half a dozen others would have followed Tennessee in accepting the Constitutional Amendment, by which we should have been represented at Washington twelve months since. The evils Mr. Johnson has inflicted upon the South by his efforts to thwart the views of Congress have been second only to the spoils of war, but, depend upon it, within six days after his removal we shall have a gradual return of quiet and prosperity throughout the South. Remember what I say."

This statement, coming from the South, from a gentleman of Georgia, tells in a very few words what the loyal press of the North has been proclaiming for a long time, and that is the most prominent reason why the President should be impeached and put out of the way. He stands in the way of the restoration and peace of the South. He seizes and encourages every disturbing and opposing element to good order and quiet, aiding the rebel instead of the loyal sentiment of the South. His removal will be the dawn of peace and quiet to that distracted section of our country.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

THE POWER OF IMAGINATION.—The Easton Free Press says that a man named Roberts, living near New Germantown, in Huntingdon county, Pa., some months since, while driving a strange dog off his premises was slightly bitten on the leg by the animal. He had heard that within nine days after being bitten by a rabid dog, hydrophobia would show itself, and believing that the canine by which he had been bitten was mad, his imagination at once suggested this disease as a result, and he awaited with fear and trembling the coming of the fatal day. The time arrived, and a neighbor visiting him about noon, found him kicking about, foaming at the mouth, and going through the other antics that madmen usually perform. As soon as Roberts saw his visitor, he made for him, barking like a dog, while the other, frightened out of his wits, rushed out of the house, followed by the seeming madman. Over the fields and the fences they went, the visitor straining every nerve, quickening his steps with the energy that his fear imparted to him, and Roberts jumping and raving and barking after the frightened man. After a long chase they reached the village, both thoroughly tired and out of wind, and believing that Roberts must have some crazy streak in his noddle they surrounded him, threw him down, and binding him securely had him taken to his house. Physicians having been summoned, they at once pronounced the man to be a victim of delusion, with no more madness than they had themselves, and as free from hydrophobia as the bed on which he lay. After a short time he was convinced of having made a fool of himself, and, fearing the ridicule of his neighbors, he sold out his farm, left the country, and has never since been heard of by the residents near his old home.

A Distressing Case of Suicide. A case of suicide causing great excitement occurred Monday afternoon at the male grammar and primary school No 15, Republican street, near Saratoga. From the facts learned it appears that a lad named Arthur Cambell, aged 14 years, son of Mr. Charles Cambell, who is in the employment of Thomas Wians, Esq., was a pupil of the school. For some reason he had fallen under the displeasure of his teachers, resulting as is alleged, in his dismissal. He was again received into the school, and by way of punishment for his transgression, he was, it is stated, not allowed to play with his schoolmates. He told one of the female teachers of his feelings in the matter, threatening, as is alleged, to kill himself if denied the privilege of playing with his schoolmates. No notice was taken of his remarks, and on Monday afternoon, as one of the little children of the school was going into the yard, he found the body of young Cambell suspended by the neck in a shed of the yard attached to the school. The boy ran into the school-room and informed one of the lady teachers, who at first thought nothing of it. She afterwards, however, informed the principle, Mr. J. S. Arthur, who went into the shed where he found the boy hanging by his neck, with his knees resting on the ground. He was immediately cut down, but life was extinct. The startling news spread like wildfire among the scholars numbering some two or three hundred, and occasioned great excitement. The schools were dismissed, and Sergeant Handy, of the western district police, with a force of men, was promptly at the scene, and succeeded in allaying the excitement.—Baltimore Sun.

A fine head of hair is such an indispensable adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use the best preparation to be had to increase its growth, restore its color or prevent its falling off. Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is one of the most effectual articles for the purpose we have ever seen, besides being one of the most delightful hair dressing and beautifiers extant. It is free from the sticky and gummy properties of most other dressings, and being delightfully perfumed recommends itself to every lady or gentleman using fine toilet articles.

The late Wm. M. Swain founder of the Philadelphia Ledger, left over three millions worth of property to his two sons.

A CONFIDENCE SWINDLER.—Friday morning a gentleman residing in York, Pennsylvania, was victimized out of $75 by a confidence sharper, while at the Calvert Station, Baltimore, awaiting the time for the departure of a train of the Northern Central railway company. The sharper introduced himself, and in a few minutes ingratiated himself so far into the confidence of the Pennsylvania man as to induce the latter to accompany him on a stroll as far as Howard street. On returning towards the station, the two were met by a third party, who gave the sharper information that his furniture had been seized and family thrown into prison, all for want of $65. The Pennsylvania man, sympathizing with the sharper in his apparent distressed situation, quickly yielded to his request, first to loan him the $65, and then $10 more to pay a small bill across the street. The sharper and his accomplice passed to the store where he alleged he owed the money, but neglected to return to the Pennsylvania man, who was amazed at his own credulity in parting with his money so readily to a person to whom an hour previous he was an utter stranger. The sharper before asking the loan pulled out and exhibited a $1,000 bond, with a view of blinding the stranger.

Great Snow Storm. Philadelphia, March 21.—This is the most wintry morning experienced for many years in this city. The snow has been falling for sixteen hours, and is now two feet deep, and drifted in places to the depth of four feet. The streets are almost impassable for cars, and most of the lines have given up all efforts to run.

The storm continues without the slightest abatement, and travel is impeded in all directions.

Philadelphia, March 21.—The snow storm has moderated, after raging for twenty hours. The snow is drifted badly, in some places as high as fifteen feet. The railroads are badly blocked up, and no trains have arrived to-day from the West.

Boston, March.—A snow storm and gale of unusual violence commenced about three o'clock this morning. Several inches of snow have fallen and drifted. The horse cars were compelled to withdraw, and railroad trains are delayed on most roads in the vicinity.

The Boy that Smokes. What shall we say of the boy that smokes? Shall we pronounce any judgement upon him? Shall we say that he is acquiring an evil habit? that he is becoming a slave to a master, who, by and by, will be very cruel to him; that he is on the high road to rowdiness; that he is beginning to be profligate with his money &c. O that this were the worst! What say the druggists, who know the stimulating effects of tobacco? One and all, that it often proves the first step to drunkenness.

"No young man, who uses tobacco, in any shape whatever, is, or can be safe. He is apt to be thirsty, and water never satisfies. Tobacco-smoking feeds the love of strong drinks in two ways—first, by creating a morbid thirst; and second, by impairing the appetite for food, and indirectly encouraging him who uses it to seek for that strength which food should give him, in the use of extra stimulus. Let the friends of temperance—temperance men above all the rest, beware of tobacco in every form."

Take care, then, temperance boys, how you get that filthy thing, a cigar, in your mouths. Abhor and detect it, for it is a poison and death.

LOST IN A SNOW STORM.—The Newfoundlanders say: "A snow storm like that of Monday, the 3d of February, has often been followed by melancholy consequences to travelers in this country; but this last one has produced a calamity the most distressing of its nature that we can remember. It appears that some thirty persons are known to have been traveling that evening between Heart's Content and Harbor Grace, and that up to yesterday thirteen dead bodies had been discovered, while there is every reason to believe that the remaining seventeen, yet unaccounted for, have met a similar sad fate. Searching parties have been on the track since Tuesday, and no doubt their search will be continued till the further extent of this dreadful visitation has been ascertained."

At Appleton, Wis., not long ago, at a little past midnight, while snow was falling fast, three bright flashes were seen at a few minutes' interval, followed by heavy concussions that made the windows rattle and the houses jar throughout the city. Next morning there was found in the snow a dark substance, visible for miles around, which proved to be a fine, reddish sand. Those who melted snow for washing or culinary purposes, found this sand in such quantities as made the water unfit for use."

Autographs of Geo. Washington and Tom Paine were sold at New York; the former brought $5.00 and the latter $7.00.

The son of John Benninghoff, it is thought led the gang of villains who robbed the old man.
