

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, April 10, 1868.

The Legislature of this State will adjourn about the 14th inst.

The Maryland (Robert) Legislature has adjourned. A God-send to tax-payers.

The impeachment trial is thought by the counsel for A. J. will not be protracted beyond Monday a week.

Mr. Wendell Ballman has been elected President of the Western Maryland Railroad, vice John Lee Chapman.

The Free Railroad Law voted by Gov. Geary was amended in the Senate and has since passed the House and received the signature of the Governor.

The Kentucky rebels are resisting the revenue laws, and the government officers have called for troops to aid them in their duties.

The Governor of Illinois has issued a proclamation appointing the 15th day of April—the anniversary of President Lincoln's assassination—as a day of fasting and prayer.

The House of Representatives passed the new Registry law on Thursday. The Senate adopted the bill on the 10th of March, and it therefore now only awaits Governor Geary's signature to become a law.

At Arkendale fishing ground, on the Potomac, near Aquia Creek, thirteen colored men were drowned on Sunday by the unnecessary crowding of a small fishing boat. All were residents of Washington.

Gen. Burdette, Republican, was last week elected Governor of Rhode Island. The Senate stands 27 Republicans to 5 Democrats. The House 62 Republicans to 8 Democrats.

The term for which Governor Pierpont was elected Governor of Virginia having expired, General Schiefel has appointed General Henry Wells, of Alexandria, as Governor. Gen. Wells was originally from Michigan, but has been residing in Virginia for several years. He served in the Union Army during the rebellion and was brevetted Brigadier General.

The reports from all parts of Illinois and Southern Wisconsin are to the effect that the winter wheat passed through the cold weather successfully, and promises an immense harvest. Spring wheat has also been sown in great abundance.

The Annapolis Gazette charges that some of the officers and members of the Legislature just adjourned and the furniture of the State House disappeared from the Capital about the same time. Among the articles which it specifies as being missing, and that "went with them," are "looking glasses, towels, hair brushes, nail brushes, tooth brushes, dusting brushes, clothes brushes, combs, buckets, baskets, brooms, knives, soaps, &c." It also states that the carpets, oil cloth and matting were not carried off for lack of time and convenience to get them away.

On Monday last James B. English, Democrat, was re-elected Governor of Connecticut. English was a war Democrat, and as a member of Congress supported the war policy of the Government on all occasions. The Legislature is Republican, which secures the election of a U. S. Senator for six years as the successor of Senator Dixon, whose time expires on the 4th of March, 1869.

Secretary McCulloch publishes a statement of the public debt ending the month of March. The amount of debt, less cash in the Treasury, is shown to be $2,510,208,687, 86. A comparison of the statement with that of February shows that the total amount of debt less cash in the Treasury has decreased $619,935,48. The debt bearing coin interest has increased $18,279,850, and that bearing currency interest has decreased $15,484,150. The matured debt not presented for payment has decreased $1,591,770, and the debt bearing no interest has decreased $7,689,577, 57. The total debt has decreased $6,987,747, 57, but the amount of cash in the Treasury has decreased $5,867,808, 09.

FOURTH JULY IGNORED.—The School bill passed by the late Maryland Legislature ignores the Fourth of July as a holiday. Among the holidays are Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and Whitenside. The chivalry have no desire that the rising generation shall reverence a day which brings to remembrance that charter of liberty which teaches that all men are created equal, and are entitled to the inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

The English House of Commons voted on the Irish Church question on Friday night, the Tories being defeated by a majority of sixty. This is considered the greatest triumph the Liberal party has won for forty years. "Onward" is the watchword. Europe flows where America leads.

The act of Congress exempting manufactures from taxation has been approved and signed by the President, and is now a law.

Gov. Brownlow intends to stump the United States during the Presidential campaign of 1868.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Don't fail to attend the Rail Road meeting on (to-morrow) Saturday.

Miss A. S. French's school will be opened on Monday next, the 13th.

New Goods.—See advertisement of Wiesner & Bro.

DROWNED.—We understand that David Fuok, who resides near Anletam Junction, a few nights since lost a valuable cow by drowning.

New Goods.—We invite special attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. Beaver, in to-day's paper. He has just opened out his first supply of new spring goods.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $2 from Daniel Newcomer, Sen., Polo, Ill. Also $5 from Mrs. D. Sheiry, Springfield Ill, and $2 from John D. Lesher, Hill Grove, Dark county Ohio.

ROAD LAW.—The Legislature has passed an act which has been signed by the Governor, submitting the question of the continuance or repeal, of the "road law," passed last winter, to the people of this county at the next general election.

DEAD.—Rev. H. M. Johnson, President of Dickinson College, died on Sunday last of pneumonia. The death of this good man will be deeply deplored.

AN ACT HAS BEEN PASSED by the Legislature and signed, allowing five dollars for every wild cat, and one dollar for every fox, killed within the counties of Clifton and Franklin.

ANOTHER SUPPLY.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Metcalfe & Hiteshow, of Chambersburg, just in receipt of another supply of new Dry Goods and Notions.

RECEIVED.—Our friend Reid, on Wednesday evening received from the Ryder Nursery Association 100 bushels of planting potatoes, and can now supply the public with the most choice varieties.

MILLINERY GOODS.—Mrs. C. L. Hollinberger announces in another column that she has just opened out her Spring and Summer supply of new Millinery Goods. Our lady patrons will of course visit her establishment.

PROFESSIONAL.—Dr. J. M. Rippla, who recently graduated at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, passing a highly creditable examination, has permanently located for the practice of medicine in this place. His office is in the side room of the "Waynesboro' Hotel." Card next week.

BOOK KEEPING.—Mr. James A. Robinson is now re-arranging our Books. Mr. R. is a practical penman and Book-keeper, being a graduate of Dickinson Commercial College. If any of our friends want their books and accounts arranged in good style they will not go amiss by giving him a call.

THE RAILROAD.—We have not been advised since our last issue as to the doings of the Committee appointed to solicit Railroad Stock subscriptions, but presume the work is progressing outside of our Borough. With forty odd thousand dollars subscribed in our town to commence with there is certainly encouragement to push on the work. The friends of the enterprise in our township and along the line should be actively engaged in this work. Its feasibility and importance should be urged upon the people and the required amount of stock secured at the earliest possible period. Months delay may add materially to the cost of the road by an increase in price of iron, labor, &c.

Those who have not yet given their subscriptions to the Borough Soliciting Committee should do so at once so that they may be enabled to report the full amount to the meeting on Saturday.

LYCEUM.—At the regular meeting of "The Waynesboro' Lyceum" on last Monday evening, the question for debate, "Is a lawyer justified in defending a bad cause?" was discussed by J. Douglas Esq., and Rev. D. Sheffer in the affirmative, and Rev. W. E. Krebs and Rev. C. V. Wilson in the negative.

The following officers were elected:—President—Dr. E. A. Herring. Vice President—Rev. W. E. Krebs. Secretary and Treasurer—W. A. Reid. The Lyceum adjourned to hold its next regular meeting on the evening of the 3d Monday of (16th) November next.

The question chosen for debate on that evening is: "Is a Republican the best form of Government?"

THE WEATHER.—The weather for the past week has been changeable, at times more than ordinarily disagreeable. On Saturday night a severe rain storm prevailed, and on Sunday and Monday the atmosphere was chilly enough for mid-winter. Rain on Tuesday, with a snow squall in the evening. Wednesday clear, but stormy and altogether March-like. As Easter occurs Sunday next a change for the better may be anticipated and our "town dames" be permitted to go forward with the work of "garden making."

DECEASED.—Samuel Burgess, Esq., formerly a citizen of Washington County, died at his residence in Washington City, on Friday, the 22d, ult., in the 50th year of his age.

PROMPT PAY.—An exchange gives the following excellent advice, which we commend to the careful perusal of our readers: No one should neglect giving attention to the bills he owes his tradesman. It should be remembered that nearly all those to whom debts are due, have their own debts to pay. Customers and consumers owe retail dealers and small shops; retail dealers and small employers; these in their turn owe the great manufacturers, the planters and farmers, the importer and other operators; and these owe the banks and bankers; and the banks owe other banks, and owe their stockholders and other creditors, and furnish the money to pay employees, mechanics, laborers, clerks, salesmen, &c.; and thus we get back to the customers and consumers who owe the small bills. These last, then, are but the rivulets that swell into the great streams of payments necessary at this season to keep every-body's credit good, and keep the wheels of industry and business in healthy motion. Unless the rivulets flow actively, the rivers will be sluggish, and the great sea formed by the many small streams become dry and stagnant.—Let all then make it a point to pay bills promptly, whether small or large, and thus help each other.

WEAGLY'S LIVERY.—We desire to call the attention of those contemplating business or pleasure jaunts to the advertisement of Mr. F. Weagly, who is well provided with fine traveling horses and comfortable conveyances. An attentive hostler in attendance and teams furnished at all hours, with or without a driver.

ACCEPTED.—Rev. Dr. Gerhart, of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., has accepted the professorship in the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, to which he was elected by the Synod at its late meeting at Harrisburg, and will enter upon his duties without delay.

MURDER OF A UNIONIST.—The Washington Chronicle of Monday publishes the following letter, giving the full particulars of the horrible assassination of Hon. George W. Ashburn, at his own home, in Columbus, Georgia, on the evening of the 30th of March: COLUMBUS, GA., March 31, 1868.

Hon. T. L. Tullock, Secretary, &c.: Dear Sir.—Hon. G. W. Ashburn, a member of the late Constitutional Convention from Muscogee county, and a staunch loyalist, with whose name and patriotic history you are no doubt well acquainted, was most shockingly and brutally assassinated in this city last night. I will briefly relate the circumstances: I came here on last Saturday, the 28 inst., to attend a Republican mass meeting. The meeting was largely attended and addressed by several speakers, and conducted in an admirable spirit. Ashburn was present, and acted as chairman of a nominating committee. Yesterday he agreed to go with Hon. J. C. Caldwell to an adjoining county (Harris) to speak, and accordingly made all necessary arrangements. Last night we went to Temperance Hall to hear the Rev. H. M. Turner (colored) speak. Mr. Ashburn seemed then to be, and was indeed, in high spirits. We left the hall about 11 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the next morning his son came to the house where I was lodging with tidings that his father had just been murdered. I remained here all day to gather up the particulars, and obtained the following facts from a Union man who was on the jury of inquest:

Between 12 and 1 o'clock last night a crowd of some thirty or forty persons, all well dressed and wearing masks, went to Ashburn's house, surrounded it, broke down the doors in front and rear, entered, and murdered him in his room. Five bells took effect in different parts of his body, one pistol shot entering the forehead, between the eyes; another through the mouth and ranging upward. Five of the assassins entered the room, and the rest were in other parts of the house and yard. They remained ten or fifteen minutes, but no policeman came up until they began to disperse.

These persons were members of the Kuklux Klan, a secret order which has recently been established. They have been organized in this place about a week or more. During the last week they sent anonymous notes to nearly all the prominent Union men warning them to prepare for death that their time was short, &c. They also painted skeleton coffins, deadly weapons and other emblems of their villainy on pasteboards, wrote the names of persons on them, together with hints that they would be murdered, and hung them up at the gates and doors of Union men. Several were suspended from the door of Mr. Joseph Webster, Assessor of Internal Revenue. One of them contained a coffin and Ashburn represented as a skeleton inside of it. The daily Sun for several days before contained accounts of the doings of this mystic order, and bad various hints to the Union citizens of Columbus, warning them to "beware!"—to "look out!"—that "something dreadful was about to happen!"—that "traitors were about to hunt them down," &c. These insinuations and declarations were just such as would make an unprejudiced reader believe the editor knew something of what was going to happen. (The clothing of the murderers proves that they belonged to the better class while all the circumstances show that the Kuklux Klan is organized for the murder of Union men; and the manner in which certain Rebel editors deal with the subject proves that they know the diabolical designs of the order.)

Last Saturday the speakers alluded to their threats as meant only to frighten the negroes and timid white men, and keep them from the polls at the election on the 20th of April. The negroes laughed heartily at this exposure of their supposed threats.—Poor Ashburn's death however, shows they meant just what they say in the mysterious order: "Death and destruction!" Some means should be promptly devised for the adequate protection of Union men. Ought not the editors who publish the orders and approve the doings of this society be arrested? Something must be done or Union men will all be murdered by this organized band of assassins.

Impeachment.

From the Philadelphia Post of Monday.] The impeachment trial, its progress thus far, its probable developments, are the universal topics of conversation in this city. It is generally conceded that the evidence, as presented by the prosecution, leaves not a shadow of doubt as to the conviction of the President. Legal gentlemen regard it as the most perfect case ever sent to a jury, and the Managers feel confident that the defense will not be able to answer their arguments, or to impeach the testimony. The President's counsel have been so badly beaten that it is not improbable that they may retire from the case. A rumor to that effect was in circulation in well informed circles to-day, and it is said that the President has been advised to resign. It is well known here that the President's counsel had hoped to base their defense mainly on the action of Mr. Adams in the case of Timothy Pickens, but they were completely demoralized yesterday, when General Butler seized their own guns and turned them on them by proving from the executive journal of the Senate for the year 1800, that Mr. Adams had consulted the Senate before he dismissed Pickens. By referring to the proceedings in the trial yesterday it will be seen that the Managers reserved the right of putting in at a subsequent time some documentary evidence. There is only one link missing in the chain which these reserved documents supply, and they are letters from Mr. Johnson through the Secretary of State to the members of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet to the effect that he (Johnson) had decided to make no changes in the Cabinet, and authorizing them to discharge the duties of their several departments. The defense, it is said, intends to place Lieutenant General Sherman on the stand for the purpose of testifying to the conversation he had with the President relative to the Civil Tenure of Office act, which he got to show, as they allege, that the President had no intention whatever to violate the law. It is also stated that Reverdy Johnson and Robert J. Walker deny the accuracy of General Emory's testimony, and that the latter gentleman will testify that he had no such conversation with, and gave no such advice, as General Emory alleged in his evidence. Judge Curtis is preparing his argument for Thursday, the duty of opening for the prosecution having been assigned him. All the Cabinet officers have been summoned by Mr. Johnson to testify in regard to his (Johnson's) views on the civil tenure of office act.

The Jews, the world over, are noted for their kindness to their own people. In London they number about fifty-five thousand and the majority of whom are foreigners, and receive only a little aid to help them on their way to other countries. It is against Jewish principles to allow any of their poor to come upon the public. All the sick in poverty are cared for, and provision is made for widows and orphans. Efficient societies, liberally provided with funds, supply the poor with food, help the old people as they need, and bury the dead. Some of the free hospitals in London have Jewish wards, but all the expenses of those wards are paid for from the treasury of Jewish organizations. If any able-bodied persons are out of employment, and need help, they receive no gratuity, but are accommodated with a temporary loan, and the cases are said to be rare in which these debts are not fully repaid.

A corporal named Henderson, attached to the garrison of Columbia, South Carolina, who was tried by court-martial and found guilty of striking Col. Guenther, while on duty, was sentenced by the court to be reduced to the ranks, drummed out of camp, to have his head shaved, to forfeit all pay and to be imprisoned for three years at hard labor in Fort Macon; and during the term of his imprisonment, to wear a ball weighing thirty-two pounds, attached to a thirty-six inch chain.

A fine head of hair is such an indispensable adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use the best preparation to be had to increase its growth, restore its color or prevent its falling off. Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is one of the most effective articles for the purpose we have ever seen, besides being one of the most delightful hair dressing and beautifiers extant. It is free from the sticky and gummy properties of most other dressings, and being delightfully perfumed recommends itself to every lady or gentleman using fine toilet articles.

The election for Governor and other State officers in Rhode Island took place on Wednesday last. The candidates for Governor were Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, Republican, and Lyman Pearce, Democrat. The following is the result:—Burnside 9,768 Pearce 5,658. Republican majority, 4,109. The Legislature stands:—Senate—Republicans 27, Democrats 5; House—Republicans 62, Democrats 8.

Mr. Solomon Landis, an old and respectable citizen of Middletown, Pa., committed suicide last Sunday by shooting himself with a rifle. Mr. Landis had become recently involved in some difficulty by which he was the loser of $1,500, and had brooded and worried over it greatly. The deceased was upwards of 70 years of age, and was reported to be worth from $50,000 to $75,000.

An elm-tree was lately cut down in Ohio, said to be 792 years old, which would make it 417 years old when Columbus discovered this western world. A tree stands near Lake Osego, known as the "Silent Pine," which is thought to be a thousand years old.

Gov. Sprague has been dropped from the command of the Grand Army of the Republic in Rhode Island on the avowed ground of being suspected of siding with President Johnson. General Burnside has been chosen his successor.

Mr. Jacob O. Seitz, of Manor township, Lancaster county, had killed seven chickens hawk up to the 12th ult. On Thursday, 12th ult., he shot four. On Friday, 13th ult., twelve. On Saturday, 14th ult., five; and since then seven more; making 35 in all.
