

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO, Friday, April 17, 1868.

The Legislature of this State adjourned on Tuesday.

Frederick Douglas, the distinguished colored orator, during last fall and winter, lectured over one hundred and thirty thousand persons.

An unsuccessful attempt was made a few days since to blow up the Court House at Valosta, Georgia, whilst a Republican meeting was in progress.

A general revival of business in the West is reported in the newspapers of that section, and the people are delighted that the days of dullness are passing away.

Tuesday last was the anniversary of the death of Lincoln, the great martyr to human liberty.

ROME. The following description of the elephant Romeo's subjection by his keeper, from the West Chester Republican, may be interesting to our readers.

IMPEACHMENT.—The impeachment of that greatest of criminals, Andrew Johnson, is dragging along slowly, but we believe with unmistakable certainty, to his final conviction and disgrace.

A RACE FOR A WIFE.—The Marysville (Va.) Telegraph relates the following: Two "gay and festive" young men of this village are to run a foot race on Saturday morning from the corner of E. and Fifth street to the Feather river bridge and back.

CURE FOR CROUP.—Dr. Trovitt, editor of the Columbus (O.) Critic, and an experienced physician, published the following: Croup.—As this is the season of the year in which this infantile disease is most prevalent, we publish the following recipe from the Paris Medical Gazette.

ECONOMY.—The father of an interesting family not long since stopped the only newspaper which he had ever allowed himself or family, and solely on the ground that he could not afford the expense.

Gen. Geary and all the Republican members of the Pennsylvania Legislature have signed a letter to Senator Cameron, asking him, upon the contingent succession of Mr. Wade to the Presidency, to recommend the transfer of Secretary Stanton from the War Department to that of the Treasury.

Col. Grenfeldt, the ex-rebel, who has been imprisoned at the Dry Tortugas for conspiring to burn Chicago during the war, has escaped from prison.

BREADSTUFFS.—The most reliable mercantile exchanges give glowing accounts of the grain crops. In the West the winter crops look well, and it is stated that in England and the grain countries in Europe the crops show unusual promise.

LOCAL MATTERS.

COM. MEETING.—A meeting of the R. R. Executive Committee will be held at the Town Hall to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the transaction of important business. A general attendance is desired.

LOCALS.—We insert business locals at ten cents per line per insertion, making all needed corrections in the MS.

HELP.—A female desiring a situation in a private family at liberal wages will hear of one by applying at this office.

ANOTHER SUPPLY.—Miss M. C. Resser requests us to announce that she has returned from the East with another supply of new Millinery goods.

SALT.—The American Agriculturist, which is good authority, says it is injurious to milch cows to give them salt oftener than once a week.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.—We have added, unsolicited, twenty new subscribers to our subscription list since the first inst. Not bad for a "smut machine."

POTATOES.—Mr. Reid has received another hundred bushels of planting potatoes from the Ryder Nursery Association, nearly all of which are engaged.

The contract for carrying the mail between this place and Chambersburg has again been awarded to Mr. Jacob Crouse of our town.

RECEIVED.—We acknowledge the receipt of $200 from Geo. B. Johnston, Temperanceville, Allegheny Co., Pa., and $4 from Dr. P. Fahrney, Franklin Grove, Lee Co., Ill.

ENCOURAGING.—We understand several of our farmers here recently requested the R. R. Committee to put their names down for Railroad Stock to the amount of $1000 each. This is encouraging as a commencement for the country.

PROFESSIONAL.—We direct attention to the card of Dr. J. Burns Amberson, who has permanently located for the practice of medicine in this place. Dr. Amberson in 1865 graduated at Westminster Literary College, and recently at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia.

READY.—Mr. Robinson has finished the work of shaping our Books, arranging subscription and advertising accounts, etc.—We are therefore in readiness to furnish receipts and give all in arrears their proper credits. We will add for the benefit of such as we have not seen for a half dozen or more years that our office is at the old place, "Mexican Row," up stairs.

BRAVO.—An old reb, at Ringgold, lately remarked that he would like to have an opportunity afforded him in some crowd to knock us down. The crowd that he would prefer we are not likely to be caught in soon, as we are not partial to crowds of doubtful character.

A PRESENT.—Mr. M. C. Deatrich, from near Antietam Junction, has placed us under obligations to him for a present of a peck of very choice sweet potatoes. Mr. D. has recently received large quantities for sprouting and will be enabled in due time to furnish the public with the choicest varieties of plants.

A "LOCAL ITEM.—We observe that the Frederick (Md.) Republican has given our Borough subscription to the proposed Scotland and Mont Alto Railroad a passing notice, which seems to have been regarded as unworthy of notice nearer home. Since our last issue the amount has been increased to nearly forty-five thousand dollars.

THE WEATHER.—The weather for the past week has been variable, at times unexpectably disagreeable. Last Sunday (Easter) early in the morning presented a cloudless sky, with a mild and almost untroubled atmosphere. Before noon, however, "Old Sol" disappeared behind huge clouds which suddenly shrouded the vault above.

NEW FIRM.—NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Stover & Wolf have received their first supply of new Spring and summer goods. Call and examine their stock. Advertisement next week.

A Farmer of experience gives it as his opinion that such a winter as we have been having is a natural prelude to an abundant fruit year. The ground has been steadily frozen and covered with snow—free from the alternate freezings and thawings which are injurious to the trees, and weakening or destructive to the fruit buds.

Gen. John F. Hartranft will please accept our thanks for a copy of the Auditor General's Report on Rail Roads for the year 1867.

THE R. R. AGAIN.—Persons from the country dropping into our office of late inquired: "Well, how is the Railroad getting on?" We reply that the work has been nearly completed in our Borough, but nothing doing in the township. In most cases surprise is expressed, and a desire manifested for the work of canvassing to go forward.

There is a certain class, favorable to the road, who betray feint-heartedness. They say the town has done pretty well, but the country—it is going to do nothing. We know better. Our country friends generally are just as wide awake to the importance of securing a Railroad as those of the town, and with very few exceptions will do their part promptly when called upon.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.—The Agriculturist is devoted to the Farm, Garden, and Household. For farmers, gardeners, fruit-growers, etc., it is perhaps the most desirable publication of the kind published in the United States.

FIRE.—The Barn of Mr. William Hamilton, of Clay Lick, Montgomery township, this county, was totally destroyed by fire on last Friday night, together with two young horses and nearly all his farming implements.

APPROVED.—The Governor has signed the following bill viz: An act for the relief of citizens of the counties of Adams, Franklin, Fulton, York, Perry and Cumberland, whose property was destroyed, damaged or appropriated for the public service and in the common defense in the war to suppress the rebellion.

A fine head of hair is such an indispensable adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use the best preparation to be had to increase its growth, restore its color or prevent its falling off.

MARKETS.—PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, April 14, '68.—FLOUR.—The demand is entirely for home consumption, and fully 1,500 barrels were disposed of, including superfine at $8.00.

On the 16th of March, at his residence, in Waynesboro', MICHAEL M. STONER, Esq., in the 61st year of his age.

On the 25th of October last, he received the sacrament of Christian Baptism, and united with the M. E. Church; and he soon gave evidence of vital piety.

When visited by his pastor, he always gave evidence of the depth and genuineness of his piety by a desire for instruction, and by the earnestness with which he always joined in the exercises of devotion.

A few days before his death, when informed that the hour of his departure was at hand, "he said I am willing to live, but ready to die." And then when dying the question was asked: "Is it all well with you now?" He replied "yes all is well." Thus he fell asleep with a certain and personal hope of a glorious resurrection.

On the 16th of March, at his residence, in Waynesboro', MICHAEL M. STONER, Esq., in the 61st year of his age. The departed was one of the most esteemed and enterprising citizens of our community; loved and respected by all who knew him.

The names of the members of the "Grand Cyclopean Council" found among the records are, for the present, withheld.

Here in the presence of this skull and the members here assembled, I solemnly swear to be true to the order, to its members individually and collectively, and should I ever by sign, word or deed, betray a secret or a member of the Brotherhood, that the skull, upon which I now look, may be a counterpane of mine, and I hope that all the social relations which I now enjoy may be shattered, that honesty in men or virtue in females may not be known in my family and generation, and that all who own my name shall be branded as dogs and harlots.

There is a certain class, favorable to the road, who betray feint-heartedness. They say the town has done pretty well, but the country—it is going to do nothing. We know better. Our country friends generally are just as wide awake to the importance of securing a Railroad as those of the town, and with very few exceptions will do their part promptly when called upon.
