Hon. Wm. C. Rives, of Virginia, died at Charlottesville, on Saturday. He was formerly a United States Senator from Virglais, and at one time Minister to France.

non Hou Marcus L. Ward, Governor of New Jersey, is in Washington, making artangements, as Chairman of the Republican Mational Convention, for the transportation payment is made per line will hereafter be would seek to recall the recollection of its of delegates to Chicago.

The proceedings in impeachment during the past week have consisted in the delivery of speeches by counsel. The argu. Geiser, Price & Co., Waynesboro.' ment will be continued during the present week, and a vote taken about the 1st of May. Little doubt is entertained as the conviction of the great criminal.

The great Impeachment Speech of Hon. Thad. Stevens was delivered on Monday last. This last production of the old commoner is a master production, and his arguments in favor of Johnson's conviction ununewerable. It is conceded to equal in ability any effort of his at speech-making in Presbyterian congregation of this place was his palmiest days.

The N. Y. Legislature recently passed a law to suppress the issue of obscene books, newspapers and pictures. This will cartail to some extent the circulation of the La upon the memory of Abraham Lincoln outrages that would be tolerated by no other country; it pursues Christian Associations and temperance societies with the venom of a thousand copperheads rolled into one; it scoffs at religion, mocks at virtue, defice God. and beslimes-overything that-good men, respect or hold sacred. Under such a law this paper cannot openly circulate in New York.

ROUND TRIP TICKETS .- Both the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Northern Central Railway have agreed to issue round. trip tickets for Chicago and back to Baltimore, good from May 12th to 31st. The (Friday) evening, at which time a number price for these tickets will be $22 45, or one-men. The State of Arkansas, which a few weeks ago adopted a new Constitution under the Reconstruction act, has now taken the second preliminary step to entitle it to a place in the Union. On the 7th instant the legislature elected under the new Constitution finally ratified the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. As soon as the impeachment trial is over, its Senators and Representatives, on applying for admission to Congress, will undoubtedly be received. The same process will soon be gone through with other of the Southern States, and thus gradually all the traces of our late conflict will be removed.
