

VILLAGE RECORD.
WAYNESBORO.
Friday, June 5, 1868.

The Senate refuses to confirm Henry Stanbery as Attorney-General.
A reduction of the present whiskey tax by congress now seems probable.
General Grant intends to spend the summer on his farm near St. Louis.

The indications are that Congress will adjourn by the middle of July.
The municipal election in Washington, on Monday, resulted in the success of the Republican candidate for Mayor.

A Quaker who died lately in Philadelphia, left a legacy of $100,000 to the Philadelphia Medical Female Seminary.

Gen. Grant is disliked very much by such papers as the Hagerstown Free Press. The Gen. being a tanager by trade, and having shown himself an expert at handling rebel hides, possibly accounts for this aversion.

Ex-President James Buchanan died at his residence in Lancaster county on Monday morning last, after an illness of several weeks, in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

The grateful and appropriate ceremony of decorating the graves of the Union soldiers who fell during the rebellion was carried out on Saturday in all parts of the country.

Gen. Schofield, appointed Secretary of War, by the President, vice Edwin M. Stanton resigned, has been confirmed by the Senate, and entered upon the discharge of the duties of the office.

HARVESTING.—The farmers in Georgia were last week harvesting their wheat. The Columbus (Ga.) Sun says that, while the Southern wheat is good, the Northern wheat sowed in Georgia "is not worth a dime."

The Judiciary Committee on Tuesday last agreed to favorably report the House bill for the admission of North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana and Georgia, with some unimportant amendments. The measure will be called up to-morrow, and probably pass this week. The House Reconstruction Committee met on Wednesday to consider the case of Florida.

The fact that a Southern paper is urging the Southern people to select a day for annual "national celebration," commemorating the great achievements of the Confederacy, during the recent war, proves how irrepressible is the conflict of opinion, sympathy and purpose between the people of the South and of the North. It is useless to attempt to disguise the fact that every act of the Southern people indicates that the same will destroy this Union that operated in 1861, still exists, and will vitalize another rebellion whenever the hope of success becomes strong enough to warrant its inauguration.

It is plain that the investigation by the House into the alleged corruptions of Senators has so far succeeded that they have caught the right man, in the contumacious witness Wooley. He and his backers in the House are fairly "cornered." The facts in his knowledge must ultimately be divulged, if the House persists firmly in its demand. A Washington correspondent says:

A force of laborers are at work fitting up rooms for Wooley, and Miss Ream has moved out all her property except a partially-formed clay model for a statue of Abraham Lincoln, which she is going to leave in the room in which Mr. Wooley is to be confined. The room is about fifteen feet square, with two windows looking out into a small court, directly under the eaves of the Rotunda, with no view but black brick walls. It will be a cool place, as it is entirely cut off from the heat of the sun. Workmen are putting up iron bars at the windows to prevent any escape from the room. It will be fitted up nicely but plainly, and will be ready for occupancy by the middle of the week.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The Senate had an Executive Session this afternoon lasting over an hour, during which Mr. Stanbery's nomination was thoroughly discussed and severely handled by Mr. Willey, who charged that he was far worse than President Johnson, as had always advised him to go to a greater extent in his excesses than he had ventured to do, and that to confirm such a man would be to grant most unlimited license to Mr. Johnson to renew his outrages upon the laws and the Constitution. On the vote being taken the nomination was rejected by 29 to 11. It is understood that the minority voters are Senators, Buckalew, Doolittle, Fowler, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCree, Patterson, of Tennessee, Ross, Sherman, and Vickers. Messrs. Trumbull, Fessenden, and Van Winkle went out of the Senate Chamber as soon as the vote was taken up, thus dodging the question, much to the disgust of Messrs. Johnson and Stanbery.

RICHMOND, May 31.—It is probable that the Davis trial will be postponed until October, as the leading counsel on both sides have agreed on that time. The witnesses had been summoned for next Wednesday. Mr. Davis has not arrived here; in view of the probability of the postponement.

LOCAL MATTERS.

ONE LAND FOR SALE.—Apply to A. S. Mon, Quincy, Pa.

OILS! PAINTS!—A full and fresh supply always on hand at Bonebrake's.

WANTED—Persons to go in company to buy four new Pianos. Apply at this office.

SCHOOL.—Miss Rebecca Besore's School will be re-opened on Monday next.

CHOICE BREAD.—We are under obligations to Mr. S. J. Strite, of Greencastle, for a present of several loaves of very choice Bread.

SALE.—We direct special attention to the large sale of personal property advertised in today's paper by the Administrators of Jos. G. Funk, dec'd.

The celebrated American Watches for sale by Alex. Leeds, the watch-maker, under the Photograph Gallery, next door to the Town Hall.

BREAD.—The Snow Hill Society or Seventh-day Baptists, on the occasion of their annual meeting was supplied with Bread—a very superior article—from the Bakery of S. J. Strite, Greencastle.

If you want to get Spectacles to suit your eyes go to Alex. Leeds, the watch-maker, under the Photo. Gallery, next door to Town Hall.

FOUNTAINS.—Mineral Fountains are now in operation at all of the Drug stores in this place. No beverage, "lager" not excepted, is more healthy during the sultry summer months. Patronize the Fountains, then.

FURNITURE.—We direct special attention to the advertisement of Mr. H. Scire, Furniture Manufacturer, of Chambersburg, in today's paper. Mr. S. has fifteen different styles of carriages for children.

An exchange says that a girl in Topham Mo., died from her blood turning to sugar. Our devil says this must be a mistake, for he knows of a girl, who, if sweetness is fatal to mortality, "couldn't live a minute."

DECEASED.—Miss Sallie, an interesting daughter of John Phillips Esq., aged about seventeen years, expired at the residence of her parents in this place on Wednesday, of consumption. The funeral ceremonies will take place this evening at four o'clock.

SERIOUS ILLNESS.—On Friday evening last Mrs. Bell, wife of Mr. John Bell, of this place, was suddenly stricken with paralysis, and on Sunday with a second attack. She has since been lying in a critical situation, but not without hopes of recovery.

A TREAT.—Messrs. Honneberger & Hoover of the Waynesboro' Bakery and Confectionery have placed us under obligations to them for another treat—this time Ice Cream. In this line they seem to excel.—Call and try their cream, mead, etc.

DISORDERLY.—Since our last issue there have been a number of "drunks" about town and several arrests. High Constable Miller will receive the thanks of the community by promptly attending to such cases, vagrants and sots, in the future.

LOCUSTS.—These singular insects have made their appearance quite recently and in some of our gardens large numbers have been seen ascending the trunks of trees. A few more days and their peculiar chirping or cry of "Pharaoh" will resound from forest and glen.

Pure Cold Ice Cream Soda Water from Matthews' Patent Porcelain Apparatus. The only water of the kind on authority of the Sanitary Committee of the Metropolitan Board of Health of New York, to whom the subject was referred, that is innocent.

AN ACCIDENT.—Andrew Miller of Antrim township, on his way to the Nunnery Meeting on Sunday morning last was thrown from the sulky in which he was seated, getting his head severely cut and otherwise sustaining serious bruises. He was brought to this place and his wound dressed by Dr. I. N. Snively, who pronounced his injuries not dangerous.

NUNNERY MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Snow Hill Society or Seventh-day Baptists, was held at the Nunnery, near this place, on Sunday last, and as usual, was attended by a large concourse of spectators, our streets being thronged with vehicles and horsemen from an early hour in the morning until late in the evening by persons passing to and from the place of meeting. It is estimated that not less than from four to five thousand persons were on the ground at one time. The youth and beauty of the neighboring towns and surrounding country were well represented. The crowd of spectators, to say the least, was a motley one. Several accidents occurred during the day, and report says several pocket-books were missing. On the occasion of their annual meetings so much bustle and confusion, and oftentimes disreputable conduct on the part of visitors, must be exceedingly annoying to the Society, who are noted for their benevolence towards strangers and are peaceable and quiet in their deportment.

MINERAL FOUNTAIN.—Mr. F. Fourthman, druggist, has his Mineral Fountain again in operation. Give him a call.

MUSICAL TREATS.—On Monday evening last our town was visited by Mr. J. C. Moody, with the Silver Band of Woodboro', Frederick county, Md. Mr. Mac is well known to many of our people. He has been engaged for sometime extensively in the Patent Right business, is a gentleman of fine address, business enterprise and tact. Being what is so rarely met with, a wholesome fellow, and conceiving a liking for Waynesboro', he concluded to give our citizens an entertainment at his own expense. He accordingly brought the Band here and quartered them comfortably at Mullan's Hotel. The arrangement was to give an entertainment in the Town Hall, but the weather being favorable the members occupied their handsome wagon in front of the Hotel, and during the evening discoursed the finest music, instrumental and vocal, it has been our pleasure to listen to for many years. The streets and sidewalks were blocked with eager listeners until a late hour.

Woodsboro' can boast of a good Band, and at the same time can be proud of their orderly and peaceable deportment among strangers. The Band numbers sixteen members, and was accompanied by three gentlemen besides Mr. Mac. The party left on Wednesday morning, and we trust well pleased with their visit, stopping on their way near town to serenade Mr. A. D. Gordon, who showed them marked kindness and attention during their stay in our town.

The Smithsburg Band also visited this place on Monday evening on their way to fulfill an engagement at Leistersburg. They remained at the "Bowden House" but a short time, however, in the meantime favoring us with several very choice pieces of music. We understand only a short time has elapsed since the latter Band was organized, but the members certainly perform well for new beginners.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Mr. Geo. D. Fleagle, agent for "Woman's Work in the Civil War," will visit our town and neighborhood in the course of a few days for the purpose of obtaining subscribers. This work is a record of Heroism, Patriotism and Patience, written by Dr. L. B. Brockett, Mrs. Mary C. Vaughan, Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe and other able writers. It contains sketches of nearly two hundred Ladies—eight hundred pages—sixteen steel engravings by those eminent engravers, Sartain and Ritchie. It is recommended by the best authority as a work of rare merit. Arthur's Magazine says: "We welcome this Book most heartily as the only record of Woman's work in the war which makes any approach to completeness." We therefore commend Mr. F. to the patronage of the public generally.

IMPORTANT R. R. MEETING.—The Railroad Committees of Shippensburg, Scotland, Fayetteville, Quincy, Waynesboro' and Washington Township, will meet at Mont Alto Iron Works on Thursday next, the 11th inst. This meeting it is understood will determine the success or failure of the enterprise. We therefore urge our township friends and those of Quincy to be up and doing in the meantime. Nothing should be left undone to increase their subscriptions. Should we fail after all that has been said and done in securing the proposed Scotland and Mont Alto Railroad the result will have to be attributed to short sightedness and indifference among the people along the line. Parties who have thus far delayed subscribing should do so at ONCE. Delays are dangerous, and in this instance, as in thousands of others, may prove disastrous to the public's highest and best interests.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. C. B. HOWARD, a talented and popular young American Tragedian, proposes to give an entertainment in the Town Hall on to-morrow (Saturday) evening. Wherever this gentleman has had the pleasure of appearing before an audience, he has been greeted with rapturous applause. The newspapers, wherever he has performed, have spoken in the highest terms of praise of him. Professor Fowler gives him an excellent recommendation in his Practical Journal. Do not forget to go and hear him.

EXHIBITION.—The exhibition given in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening by the pupils of the "Normal Institute" of Waynesboro' drew a crowded house. The programme was carried out most admirably, the pupils without a single exception acquitting themselves in the most creditable manner. Their instructors, Prof. Neolling and the Messrs. Wilsons are certainly deserving of the thanks of the community for having thus far so successfully conducted the School.

FIRE AND DREADFUL CONSEQUENCES.—The Selingsgrove Times says that a serious misfortune occurred near Ritchfield, Snyder county, on Sunday night, 17th inst. The house of John and Willis Gordon took fire about midnight, from some unknown cause, and the flames spread so rapidly that nearly all of the family were badly burned, and two of John Gordon's children perished in the flames—his oldest daughter and oldest son. Alice, the daughter, was nearly fourteen years of age, and the son seventeen.

FOR SALE.—A Perpetual Scholarship in the "Eclectic Medical College of Pennsylvania," located in Philadelphia. We offer liberal inducement to any young man wishing to enter this institution.

Mr. Jno. Morgal has received the Early York Sweet Potato Sprouts, and requests customers to call and get them.

GRAIN RAKES.—Haymaking and Harvest will soon be here and hands will be scarce. Persons having crops to take off and put away would save time and labor by calling on Liddy, Frick & Co., Waynesboro', Pa., where they can get the latest improved Grain Rakes, Reapers & Mowers. Repairs done at short notice and on reasonable terms.

A Dictionary of the Bible, Comprising its Antiquities, Biography, Geography and Natural History, with numerous Illustrations and Maps. Edited by William Smith, L. L. D. Published by Messrs. J. B. Burr & Co., Hartford, Ct.

This work is a timely response to a widespread and urgent necessity of all Bible readers. Being the only American Edition of the only abridgement by this author's own hand of his voluminous Dictionary, which is too costly for the common purse—it is at once the only perfectly reliable and practical one, containing all that the general reader and student can wish. The publishers have in this given the public a volume of which they may well be proud. It is a standard work; commends itself to all who examine it; and should be found in every family. Be careful to get this edition, if you would have the most reliable Dictionary at the most reasonable price. It is sold by subscription only. Agents should address the publishers at once.

GOOD NEWS FOR RICH AND POOR.—The railroad is coming—the grain and fruit crops all over the country promise a large yield, and D. B. RUSSELL, at the sign of the "Big Red Horn" is selling an excellent Cherry Seeder, and the best Dry House ever offered to the public. Cookstoves, tinware, house-furnishing goods, &c. See advertisement in another column.

The wife of Hon. C. S. Hamilton, of Maysville, Union county, who was murdered by his insane son last December, died on Sunday last. She was a woman of many excellent traits, but of late years it was thought she was partially deranged. The insanity of the son came through that branch of the family. Since the tragical death of her husband, Mrs. Hamilton has never been well.—A kind father, or more tender husband than Mr. Hamilton never lived. It is reported that young Hamilton, who is in the Central Asylum, has so far recovered from mental derangement as to be able to write letters to his friends, and hopes are entertained of his speedy recovery.

A negro girl in Memphis attempted to poison her family on Sunday, because her father would not permit her to join the Methodist Church, he being a Baptist.

By a law enacted last winter all land in Iowa on which hedges or groves are planted is exempt from taxation.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, it is said, will be the successor of Minister Adams.
