

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, August 29, 1868.

General Thomas is said to have commenced forwarding additional troops into Tennessee to put down the murderous Ku-Klux.

The friends of Dr. Madd are making another effort to secure his pardon, and will lay a petition before the President in a few days.

The Main election is to be held September 14th. State officers and Congressmen are to be chosen. Joshua L. Chamberlain (Rep.) and Eben F. Pillsbury (Dem.) are the rival candidates for Governor.

In attempting to arrest several desperadoes of the Ku-Klux Klan in Benton county, Missouri, last Saturday, two of the Sheriff's assistants were killed, and the desperadoes escaped.

THE NUMBER.—It is calculated that the election this fall in Alabama will cost a thousand lives. To be a Union man down South means something now-a-days.

GRAIN CROP.—The cheering announcement is made that the grain crop of Great Britain is one-half larger than the ordinary yield. This, with the abundant harvest of the boundless West, ought to bring a year of peace, plenty and happiness to the world.

Letters from Mississippi give an account of the shooting in the street of Judge Morris, a prominent Republican, as he was about leaving for the North to engage in the canvass. He had only a speaking acquaintance with his assassin, and never had any difficulty with him, consequently the murderous attack is attributed to the Ku-Klux Klan.

Vermont holds her election on September 1st, State officers and Congressmen are to be chosen. The candidates for Governor are John G. Page (Rep.), the present Executive, and J. E. Edwards (Dem.). Page's majority over Edwards last year was 20,180.

General Sherman has ordered General Sheridan to forcibly remove the Indians guilty of the recent outrages in Kansas beyond the State line, and, in pursuing, to kill, if necessary. He says "this amounts to war, but I hope only on a small scale." He deems forbearance with the savages impossible.

Sheridan says that twenty unarmed citizens have been murdered, many more wounded, and outrages committed upon women and children too atrocious to detail.

Letters continue to be received in Washington from the Southern States urging a session of Congress in September. At first these appeals came from unimportant sources, but now they come from leading and influential men, among whom are many Senators and members of Congress.

A Cincinnati despatch says that the cattle plague continues to spread among the dairies which supply that city with milk. Forty-four cows died during Sunday, and thirteen others were reported in a dying condition.

THE LAST BOND ROBBERY.—The theft of U. S. bonds at the office of the Star Insurance Company, in New York, on the afternoon of the 20th, was a very bold one. Mr. Moses M. Bradley, the Secretary of the Company, was engaged in counting some five-twenty bonds, when a young man entered and enquired for Mr. Abbott, a real estate agent who has desk room in the office. The Secretary told the man to go to the rear of the room, and at the same time turned round to show him the desk. As he did so the thief seized a bundle of five-twenty bonds representing $40,000, from the counter, and rushed into the street, pursued by the Secretary. The thief, however, was out of sight in an instant, and all trace of him lost.

The Mobile Tribune uses the following elegant language in speaking of the death of Thaddeus Stevens: "Chickens going home to roost—Thad Stevens, and Brunner, of the New Orleans Republican. The devil will soon have Brownlow, and then hell will see sights." The Vicksburg Times follows suit: "The death of that incorrupt fiend, Thaddeus Stevens, is an event which calls for universal rejoicing. As the old wretch was in favor of 'judicious haoging' while on earth, we devoutly hope he will have 'judicious roasting' meted out to him in the warm climate to which he has gone—the hottest region of the damned." The Atlanta Constitution speaks as follows: "Stevens is Dead.—Mourn, ye Rads, for we rejoice; weep, ye dirty dogs, for we smile. Let decency once more hold up her face, and the Goddess of Liberty cease to blush. The devil demanded his own, and Thaddeus went. Brownlow and Brown are supposed to be the next on the list. May the devil's collecting agent come soon!"

Preparations are being made by the National Soldiers and Sailors' Executive committee to hold a monster mass meeting of the Boys in Blue about the first of October, in Philadelphia or some other city to be hereafter decided upon. It is the intention to make this demonstration the largest and grandest assemblage of the veterans since the famous review in Washington at the close of the war.

THE OLD SPIRIT.

Below we give an extract to show that the old spirit of rebellion is still rife among the reconstructed rebels of the South:

Says the Charlestown Mercury, not one honest man south of Mason and Dixon's line is ashamed of the musket he bore or the sword he drew in defence of the Confederate flag. The man who says he is ashamed of it lies. Let every honest man at the North be sure of the fact that the man who says so wants to swindle money out of somebody. He is a knave either in the first or last degree.

A WAR OF RACES!—Then let us prepare for it! We sound the note of warning to the people, and bid them be on the alert. Preparations may be preventive; but if, in spite of preparations, the conflict is precipitated upon us, it can have but one conclusion.—The negro element in the South is like a gauger upon the body politic, and the first drop of blood shed in a servile war will be the signal for the extermination of the whole race.

If such a war must come, let it come quickly.—The South wants peace, and if it is now to be required to wade through a sea of blood to reach it, the sooner commenced the sooner ended. Our white allies in Maryland and Kentucky, not to mention States further North, may be relied on for assistance, if we need it.—Richmond Examiner.

Gen. Butler has called down upon his head an enormous load of rebel lies, probably because of three facts in his career, which unlike the insinuations relative to "spoons" and "stealing," can be easily substantiated.

1. He hanged a rebel.

2. He compelled the "ladies" of New Orleans to treat our soldiers with respect.

3. He collected from the rebels while in New Orleans, by systematic assessments, the money with which he supported, fed, clothed and paid his army and the navy attached to his force, and with which he paid the expenses of the city government of New Orleans, including his measures for cleansing and disinfecting that city—making it healthier than it ever was before—and providing for it a most efficient police; and after disbursing all these expenses, he paid over to the Treasury of the United States a net surplus of over eleven millions of dollars. Secretary Chase remarked that if all our Generals were like Butler, he could not only carry on the war without greenbacks, but without gold. There were generals who gave no trouble to the enemy and a great deal of trouble to the Secretary of the Treasury. Their war was on the Treasury and the pockets of loyal men, not on the rebels. Butler, however, gave no trouble to the Secretary of the Treasury, and made the rebels walk in that straight, chaste, and elegant manner for which the Spanish are so widely celebrated. This suffices to account for the popularity among rebels and copperheads of those generals who nearly bankrupted our Treasury, and the unpopularity of General Butler among the same classes.—New York Tribune.

"Occasional" says it begins to look as if Congress would be constrained to meet on the 21st of September. The intelligence from the South is daily more threatening. General Reynolds, the new commander of Texas, writes that the condition of the rebels is a reproach to civilization; Governor Brownlow's life is constantly threatened in Tennessee; Kentucky resounds with threats; Alabama is literally in a state of siege; while Georgia and South Carolina are overrun by such madmen as Cobb, Toombs, Ben Hill, Hampton, Aldrich, and Perry. It is difficult to say what Congress can do to arrest their violence; but it is certain that if these things are done in the face of the possibility of its meeting, a thousand worse calamities will befall the Union men if the 21st of September is allowed to pass without a session.

Every community (says an exchange,) is cursed with one or more of those mischief making bipeds who peddle scandle from house to house, and stick their dirty snouts into everybody's porridge pot. They are pests—worse than the itch—or buzzing blow flies; or musical mosquitoes; or the silly twaddle of a drunken fool. They are the most industrious people in the world; their tongue, or fingers, or feet, are never idle; they know everybody and everybody's business, and always mind the affairs of others better than their own. They will sate you with a dish of dirty scandal about your neighbors, every day, and leave an innocent word you may drop, into a great, sad, sour loaf, upon which their dyspeptic maws will work, and manufacture fulsome gosses to poison the character of your best friends. You might as well try to bridle the wind as their tongue; or expect to bathe in a barrel of tar; and not be defiled, as to live in the same community and escape their calumny. They have a pleasant word for you at all times, and will give you a Judas kiss if permitted.—They have a smile for your face and a dagger for your back. The make enemies of friends, and turn quiet, peaceable neighborhoods into cauldrons of excitement and strife. Good Lord deliver us from the vulturous croakings of the scandle mongers.

The Hans Graf Family Association will hold a reunion at Litz Spring, on Saturday afternoon, September 12, 1868, in commemoration of the 151st anniversary of the settlement of Hans Graf in Lancaster county. Addresses will be delivered by distinguished gentlemen.

John C. Breckinridge will shortly return to his old home in Kentucky. He is to make a speech at Lexington in favor of forgetting and forgiving the past, and dealing exclusively with the present and future of the country under a restored Union.

LOCAL MATTERS.

PUBLIC SALE.—We invite attention to the public sale of personal property by Jno. M. Buhman, advertised in to-day's paper.

ADMITTED.—Lewis E. McComas at the late session of Court in Hagerstown was admitted to the bar.

FAIR.—The Agricultural and Mechanical Association of Washington county, Md., will hold their next Fair in October, commencing on the 18th and continuing four days.

FOR SALE.—A Perpetual Scholarship in the "Eclectic Medical College of Pennsylvania," located in Philadelphia. We offer a liberal inducement to any young man wishing to enter this institution.

THE "BOYS IN BLUE."—An association of Soldiers is about being organized in this place to be styled the "Boys in Blue." We understand the association will be permanently organized on Monday night next.

The distinguished German orator, Gen. Carl Schurz addressed a Republican meeting at Lancaster on Wednesday evening. Appointments are announced for him in different parts of the State.

CLAIMS.—We again remind our readers that the Damage Commissioners will sit in this place on the 10th day of September.—Those who desire it can have their claims prepared and presented by Geo. W. Welsh, Esq.

WICKEY'S CHOLERA MEDICINE, the genuine article, is sold by David Mort. No family should be without a bottle at this stage of the season, when bowel complaints are so prevalent.

DECEASED.—Mr. James Watson, a well-known and much respected citizen, expired at his residence in Chambersburg, on Sunday last, at an advanced age.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—The Valley Spirit announces a meeting for this place tomorrow (Saturday) evening, which will be addressed by Senator McIntyre of Perry county and other speakers.

NEW CHURCH.—The contract for building the new Lutheran Church, in this place, has been awarded to Messrs. Lawrence & Blinn of Emmittsburg, Md., for the sum of $9,765. The church is to be 70 by 47 feet, and it is expected will be under roof this fall.

GOLD MEDAL SEWING MACHINE.—Mr. M. C. Dearich is the agent in Franklin county for the sale of the above Machine, an advertisement of which will be found in another column. This Sewing Machine in competition with forty other machines, was awarded the highest prize, a GOLD MEDAL.—It is warranted for one year.

DEAD.—A dissipated man named "Flanagan" who followed ditching through this section of country for many years, and who was in the employ of Mr. Samuel Rineheart, of this vicinity for sometime, was taken with diarrhoea a few weeks since. He was finally removed to the Alms House by John H. Miller, High Constable, but we learn expired shortly after arriving there.

ANOTHER TOURNAMENT.—Extensive preparations are being made for a Tournament to come off here on Thursday next the 3d day of September. The services of the Silver Cornet Band of Woodsboro', Md., and String Band from the same place have been secured for the occasion. This Band numbers twenty members and is excelled by few, if any Bands outside of the cities. A crowd and a lively time may therefore be anticipated.—See advertisement.

The Valley Spirit continues to belabor the "Grand Army of the Republic," but fails to enlighten its readers as to the doings of the Ku-Klux Klan. One outrage after another is reported, but it is as silent as the grave. As silence is said to give content, it must be inferred that the Spirit favors this peculiar organization, and this at once explains its aversion to that patriotic band of soldiers, the Grand Army of the Republic.

AN OLD MAN.—Mr. James Watson who resides in Adams County, a few miles from Monterey Springs, completed his 100th year in July last. A couple of weeks since the old gentleman visited this place on horseback accompanied by his son, traveling a distance of about nine miles. He stopped at one of our hotels and requested the landlord to "set it out." He is quite active for one of his years and can mount and dismount his horse without assistance. Mr. Watson is, we believe, a native of Ireland.

GRANT AND COLFAX CLUB.—A Grant and Colfax Club was organized in this place on Saturday evening last. The following are the officers permanently elected: President—H. X. Stoner. Vice President—John W. Good. Secretary—Volney Rogers. The Club will meet regularly hereafter on Wednesday evening.

DENIES IT.—Pomeroy denies that some eight years ago "he was doing porter's jobs and blacking boots around New York!"—We are surprised that his "honor" has been involved on that important question. If the allegation is true, blacking boots was the most respectable occupation he ever followed.

We learn that the Franklin County Agricultural Fair Company are pushing forward preparations with commendable zeal and rapidity. Before many days the buildings will all be up and under roof. The track is already attracting fast horses, and quite a number of the 240's have tested its course. All is activity about the grounds, about twenty to twenty-five hands being employed in the erection of the buildings, track, grading, &c. The prospect for an agricultural and mechanical exhibition, creditable alike to the company and county, are good, and we are glad to see the efforts of the company appreciated.

We also learn that the company are erecting amphitheatre seats on their grounds.—This will enable from a thousand to fifteen hundred persons to be seated in full view of the entire ring, an accommodation rarely seen in these days at agricultural exhibitions, indeed, a feature we doubt not entirely original with the association, and one for which they will deserve the thanks of late-going people. Numerous other attractions will be presented in these columns as the time approaches.

ROWDYISM.—There is nothing so low and detestable in young men, as to loiter and hang round the haunts of the vicious.—When we see boys just old enough to imagine that they are somebody, parading the streets of our village in the evening, using boisterous and profane language, as all would do who are in the habit of carousing at night, we at once put them down as candidates for the prison or the gallows, and their parents but one degree from this position, for allowing them to pursue such a course. Again, when we see a young man spending his time uselessly around the portals of a hotel, leaning against a column, or poised in an arm-chair, with his feet against a pillar, and a cigar in his mouth, we mark him as one not fit to be trusted, and we always keep a good look out when such chaps come upon our premises, if we have anything that can be easily stolen.

TOURNAMENT.—A Tournament was held near this place on last Friday. At 2 o'clock exercises began.

Judges.—Maj. David H. Brotherton, Berkeley Logan, and T. S. Nevin.

Successful "Knights" were—

"Black Moor"—S. J. Strite of Greenocastle, "Valley Echo"—A. E. Foreman, do.,

"Lionet"—J. M'Curdy, Woodsboro' Md.

"Lone Star"—Daniel Stover, Waynesboro.

Miss Victoria Walker was crowned Queen. Miss Annie Breeman 1st Maid of Honor. Miss Emma M'Guire 2d " " "

Miss Jennie Martin 3d " " "

John D. DeGolley, Esq., of Chambersburg, performed the ceremony of crowning the Queen and Maids of Honor, and followed in an eloquent address. Jos. Douglas, Esq., delivered an address pertinent to the occasion.

The Waynesboro' Band was present.

Boyd of the Maryland Free Press applauds the young Copperhead in this place who publicly rejoiced over the death of Mr. Stevens, as having a "sentiment of his own" possessing the "right spirit of fearless independence," "courage," "unshinles," etc.—Every unwashed Rebel and sympathizer in the country may be said to "have a sentiment of their own," but it is such as accretes only devils and traitors. Doubtless the editor of the Free Press, in 1863, when he visited this section of Franklin county with Lee's horde of "Gray Backs," plundering stores and farm houses, like this young cop, had a "sentiment of his own," and "manliness" to boot. Such compliments from such sources are not at all unnatural, and are no doubt flattering to youths of the K. K. K. persuasion.

THE RAILROAD.—There has never been any movement in this region, to our knowledge, looking to a connection with the W. M. Railroad in case the Scotland and Mt. Alto Railroad should be built. The editorial in this week's Repository is therefore regarded by our citizens as calculated, if not intended, to have a damaging effect upon our projected enterprise so far as concerns the Penna. Railroad Company, from which material aid for the construction of the Road has been promised. The editor says the connection could be made by making about four miles of road. He would have been near right had he said eight miles.

THRILLING ACCIDENT.—A startling incident occurred at Niagara Falls on Monday afternoon. A little girl while getting upon the railing of the bridge leading from the main land to Goat Island, lost her balance and fell into the rapids. Instantly a young man named Moulton, who resides at Auburn, plunged in to rescue the child. Grasping the little one and keeping her head above water, both were swept on toward the precipice, and destruction seemed inevitable.—but Moulton being an expert swimmer struggled manfully with the rushing torrent, and succeeded in reaching the shore only about fifteen feet from the brink of the cataract. It was a most humorous and daring act.

Those irreverent lads who called names after a certain "bald head" of old, deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now King's Vegetable Ambrosia is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead, that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GLOVE AND FUR MANUFACTORY.—The best fitting and most durable Buck, Sheep, Kid, Goat and Dog-Skin gloves, Gauntlets, Hair Handers, Mitts, &c., &c., for Ladies and Gent's wear. Special attention called to our own manufacture of Dog-Skin Gloves. We have retained hundreds of pairs of these gloves during the past year, and not one complaint. They fit as neat, look as well, and wear five times as long as kid gloves. No glove department can be considered complete without the Dog-Skin Glove, as a dress, driving or shopping glove for Ladies and Gent's wear. Dealers supplied with any sizes, colors or quantity at wholesale rates. Ladies Furs made to order; old Furs altered, repaired, renovated, and moth eaten pieces refilled. All grades and all styles of Ladies' Furs and Fur Trimmings constantly on hand.—Always on hand, a full stock of HATS, CAPS, &c., suitable for all classes, made to wear and warranted. Retail wholesale to Dealers at the low rates as city jobbers. At UPDEGRAFF'S Hat, Fur and Glove Manufactory. Opposite Washington House, Hagerstown, Md. June 12 1868.

GOLD MEDAL SEWING MACHINE.

PATENTED IN AMERICA AND EUROPE.

A. F. Johnson's Improved Gold Medal Double Thread Sewing Machine combines the GREATEST SIMPLICITY IN CONSTRUCTION, WITH THE GREATEST RANGE, CERTAINTY AND DURABILITY IN OPERATION.

If you want a "Machine" that excels all the rest, Secure the "Gold Medal" for that is the best. Though many "Machines" in the market there are, With this for utility, none will compare. It does all the work with such ease,—and so nice,—Whichever she'll possess, it will ever get a prize. It has points of merit in no other we've seen.—Then purchase the best, The Gold Medal Machine.

The original of this machine, which was placed on exhibition with some forty others, in the Mechanics' Fair, in Boston, in 1860, was pronounced superior to all others, and received the highest prize. A Gold Medal, the only one conferred on any inventor of Sewing Machines was awarded to the inventor.

The GOLD MEDAL makes less noise than any other two-thread Machine while in operation. The trouble often experienced in setting the needle in other machines is avoided in this, as the needle is set without difficulty. This is a feature of great value, as every operator well knows. This is the most simple and reliable two-thread Sewing Machine in the world.

The power of its driving machinery having been greatly increased, has increased its speed in operation, and better adapted it to the heavier classes of work. Several other improvements have been made, such as the manner of holding the spool—guiding the tension—operating the treadle, etc.,—each adding to the value of the machine. EVERY MACHINE IS WARRANTED FOR ONE YEAR.

It is put up in every variety of style desired, from $43 to $100.

The Gold Medal Machine will do any of the following kinds of work: SEWING, TUCKING, QUILTING, FELLING, EMBROIDERING, BRAIDING, STITCHING, BINDING, HEMMING, &c. &c. M. C. DEARICH Agent for Franklin County.

GUNS! GUNS! PENKNIFE BLADES. Ap. 17-6m. J. H. JOHNSON.
