

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO. Friday, September 11, 1868.

It has been decided that all affidavits and oaths are exempt from tax duty.

Troops have been sent to Kentucky to enforce the revenue laws.

The cattle plague has made its appearance in Union and Lyeoming counties.

Buttermilk is said to be an excellent remedy for the gout, but it requires five gallons a day for ten years to cure a man.

The United States District Court of Florida has refused the application for writs of habeas corpus in behalf of the Lincoln assassins, Mudd, Arnold and Spangler.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 8.—Gov. Swann carries every ward and will be nominated for Congress to-morrow. The opposing element of the Democracy is much excited and determined to run an independent candidate.

CONCORD, Sept. 8.—Ex-President Pierce lies dangerously sick in this city. He was taken ill on Friday, and was more comfortable on Sunday and Monday morning, but in the afternoon and last night was much worse.

General Grant is endeavoring to keep aloof from politics and the people as much as possible, during the Presidential canvass. He is visiting at his old quiet home of Helena, in Ills. and at his farm near St. Louis.

VERMONT.—Complete returns from all but six counties in Vermont foot up a Republican majority of 26,774. The counties not heard from gave 200 Republican majority last year. Page's majority will therefore be not less than 27,000.

The Committee of the Tennessee Legislature which was recently appointed to investigate the atrocious assaults and murders that have been committed upon Union men by the Kukulux Klan, has made a voluminous report. It is, indeed, a hideous picture, showing an average of one murder a day for six months past.

John Alexander has a farm of 23,000 acres in Champaign county, Ill. He has 4,000 cattle and 5,000 acres of corn. A Mr. Sullivant has a farm of 40,000 acres in Ford county. In Benton county there is a farm of 26,000 acres. It has 42 miles of board fence and 70 miles Osage orange hedge.

Ex Gov. Thos. H. Seymour, of Connecticut, died at his residence at Hartford, on Saturday, of typhoid fever, aged sixty-one years. The deceased was a prominent Democrat. He was elected to Congress in 1846, serving one term.

Hon. Francis Granger, at one time a leading Whig politician, and Post-Master General under the Administration of Millard Fillmore, died at his residence in Canandaigua, New York, on Friday, the 28th ult.

We learn (says the Daily Telegraph) that Jefferson Davis has been obliged to retreat from the hotel in Liverpool, which he first made his residence there, and go to the private house of an American merchant, to escape expressions of popular contempt. Verily Benedict Arnold, it would seem, led a more peaceful and comfortable life after his treasonable course, than has been allotted to the leader of those who attempted to destroy this great country by the bloodiest and most cruel rebellion recorded in modern history. And it is just. Benedict Arnold tried to betray his countrymen and overthrow our nation when it was in its infancy, and scarcely numbered three millions of souls. Jeff. Davis, after receiving his education in the lap of his native Government; after having been nourished and protected by her from infancy to middle age; after having received many of the highest places of honor and emolument in the gift of his countrymen, and peers—after all this, he rebels against the best government ever established on earth, and attempts to destroy her and her people. Is it any wonder then, that such a person is looked upon with contempt by not only his own countrymen, but by nearly every foreigner he chances to meet? Englishmen, although they pretend to love the British style of tuling, nevertheless admire our own system of liberty, and long for the day when such a form of government can be established in their own native land. The course of Nova Scotia shows it, and the indefinite lingering of many of Britannia's sons in our country conclusively proves it. No wonder then that the man who attempted to crush our nationality is spurned from English society, and was obliged to retreat from a public hotel to the home of some pitying American to escape the most marked expressions of public contempt exhibited on every occasion of publicity manifested by the late rebel leader.

A negro member of the Louisiana Legislature has been making some wild and foolish threats, which the agents of the Associated Press bring before the country. These agents, however, take good care to say nothing of the murders and outrages by which such threats are provoked. By a report just submitted to the Tennessee Legislature it appears that the murders of the Kukulux Klan in the State, chiefly of negroes has averaged one a day for the last six months. It is not surprising under such circumstances that the negro indulges in wild threats of retaliation.

LAWLESSNESS AT THE SOUTH.—The flood of lawlessness exhibited by the rebel leaders in the South has at length had its effect upon the people of that unhappy section of the Union. The treasonable and malignant harangues of Cobb, Toombs, the Butcher Forrest and the Pirate Semmes, have produced a series of murders and outrages which have no counterpart in the history of the country. The same men who "fired the Southern heart" by blatant appeals to the lowest instincts of a rude civilization, and plunged a vast section of the country into a protracted and sanguinary war, are again marshalling their wicked agents against the laws of the land. From all sections of the South, says an exchange, we have accounts of cold-blooded assassinations perpetrated by men who have been encouraged in their violation of law by the advice of these false teachers. Under the leadership of the bloody ruffian Forrest, whose name has been made infamous by his cruel butchery of unarmed prisoners, in the late rebellion, the work of death is now going on in Tennessee. Farmers in their own fields; merchants in their own store rooms; teachers in their own school houses;—and the poor freedmen at their own hearthstones are shot down by masked ruffians, lurking in quiet roads and in lone country places. In Louisiana we have the official account of death by violence of over one hundred and fifty loyal citizens, many of whom were subjected to horrible torture, since General Sheridan was removed from the command of that department; and in the same period of time Texas has presented another appalling spectacle of dreadful suffering and criminal outrage. The Ku Klux Klan, made up of a class of villains, only found in States where slavery has been tolerated, shed the blood of women and children, and old men as if they were wild beasts.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The following letter, in reply to the request of citizens of this township asking a joint nomination by the respective candidates for Congress, we copy from the last Repository:

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Sept. 5, 1868.

To Messrs Alex. Hamilton, D. B. Russell, Jos. Elden Jos. W. Miller, George Bender, E. W. Washburn, Geo. Wash, and other citizens of Waynesboro and vicinity.

GENTLEMEN:—Upon my arrival here, last evening, I was shown a copy of the Franklin Repository, containing your letter and request to Judge Kimmell and myself. I immediately called upon the Judge and expressed my willingness to comply with your request, and desired him to join me in arranging terms and appointing a time for the discussion requested in your communication. He was not prepared at the time to fix the precise date of the meeting, but signified his willingness to do so next week at Bedford, or the week after at Somerset. Should we succeed in agreeing upon time and terms, we will notify you in due time. Saturday afternoon, September 26th, was supposed, by both of us, to be most likely to suit our convenience. Should we however, fail to agree, so as to give you proper notice, I do now hereby consent and agree that the gentlemen who signed the letter may meet together and fix time and terms or regulations for the discussion, as they may see fit, and I will comply with their request.

Respectfully your obedient servant,

JOHN CESSNA.

The arrangements for the County Fair are almost completed. The stalls and sheds are substantial and under cover, so that exhibitors bringing stock may rely on having stock as well cared for and protected from the weather as at home. Hay and straw will be furnished free of charge.

The books are now open for entries, at the office of the Secretary, Calvin Gilbert, Chambersburg, where entries may be made in person or by letter; and we are authorized to state for the society, that no entrance fee is charged, in any case, excepting for trial of speed and the Tournament. An oversight in the printing of the published premium list made the entrance fee for the tournament 50 cents instead of $2.50. In our next we will give the substance of the Programme.

THE TOURNAMENT.—In consequence of the inclement state of the weather the Tournament announced for Thursday of last week came off on Friday. The successful knights were:

Henry Martin, knight of 'Bengal Tiger'.

Snively Smith, " 'Westmoreland'.

J. C. McCurdy " 'Lone Star'.

James K. Bowden " 'Argyle'.

After riding for the crown a bride valued at $10 was rode for, Samuel J. Strite proving the successful knight.

Miss Maggie Bowden was crowned Queen.

" Laura Smith, 1st Maid of Honor.

" Jennie Moor, 2d " " "

" Jennie Seise, 3d " " "

An address appropriate to the occasion was delivered by John D. DeGolley, Esq.

The popular Silver Cornet Band of Woodsboro', Md., was present and enlivened the occasion with excellent music.

THE FRESHET.—We had the greatest rain of the season on Wednesday evening. The storm set in about 5 o'clock, the rain pouring down in torrents for the space of about an hour and a half. Our streets were completely deluged with water making it in places impassible even upon the side walks. Considerable damage has doubtless been sustained by the filling of cellars with water.—John Phillips, Esq., and Messrs. Price & Hoeflich were among the principle sufferers in this respect. The cellars of the former were nearly filled with water. Such a freshet here has not been witnessed for many years.

The streams in the neighborhood were doubtless much swollen and more or less damage sustained by the destruction of fencing, etc., but we have no particulars.

DECEASED.—Mr. Wm. McAfee, a former citizen of Mercersburg died in Empire City, Nevada, on the 10th day of June, 1868, aged 41 years 5 months and 7 days.

The deceased emigrated from Mercersburg into the State of Indiana in the year 1846, and in the year 1849 emigrated into the State of California—being one of the first emigrants. He removed again from this State about one year ago to the above named city, where he breathed his last on the 10th of June. The cause of his death as far as known was through apoplexy.

Rest, Brother, in thy distant grave,

'Till God shall bid thee rise;

Then, mounting from thy dusty bed,

We'll meet thee in the skies.

The Republicans of Quincy township, in connection with the "Boys in Blue," have organized a Grant and Collax Club. The following gentlemen were elected officers:—President, Capt. Joseph Rook; Vice President, Emanuel Stover; Secretary and Treasurer, Lieut. J. C. Martin.

THE CROPS IN ENGLAND.—The Mark Lane Express sums up the condition of the crops in England as follows: What is uncommonly good, both in quantity and quality; green crops a failure; barley a fair but not a heavy crop; beans a good crop; oats a fair but not a heavy crop. Prices of wheat are going down rapidly and will continue low until seed time next spring. The prospect of help for stock, owing to prevailing drought, was getting worse daily.

The Huntingdon Globe says that recently a cow strayed on the Broad Top railroad, near the trestle work at Coalmont, when an approaching train out of her escape save by jumping or crossing the trestle on the ties. She chose the latter, and although the structure is about two hundred feet long, accomplished the feat and escaped without a scratch.

LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS, September 7.—

A special from Hayes City to the Conservator says a party of Arapahoe and Cheyenne Indians made a dash on Fort Dodge on the morning of the 3d, and were driven off after a severe fight. Four soldiers of the Third Infantry were killed and seventeen wounded. The Indian loss is unknown. General Sheridan is at Fort Dodge.

Those irreligious lads who called names after a certain "bald head" of old, deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now King's Vegetable Ambrosia is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead, that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth.

The New York city railroads are said to employ 40,000 horses.
