Our Mained Soldiers .- The number of persons who have availed themselves of the provisions of the act of Congress giving artificial limbs to maimed soldiers, amounts to 5971. Of these, 3784 were supplied with legs, 2134 with arms, 44 with hands, and 9 with feet. For various reasons, however, all the sufferers have not been provided with limbs, since it is estimated that, taking the casualties in both the army and navy, 50,000 of the combatants have last a limb in the service. To this number may be added 25,000 in the South.

The telegraph announces another one of those deeds of horror which are giving to the South so terrible a reputation as the land of political assassinations. "Dr. P. Fahrney's celebrated Blood Searcher or "Dr. P. Fahrney's celebrated Blood Searcher or Panacca," is a medicine that we can recommend to to those who are afflicted, having used it in our own family and furnished our friends with the article; we can, therefore, from experience say that it is a medicine possessing mre medicinal properties. Being a mild purgative, it is well to keep it always in the family where there are children or those subject to colds or other sickness. It is compounded from medicinal Roots, Leares, Barks, Seeds and Berries, which are said to be entirely free from poison.
