

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, October 30, 1893.

William McKibben, well known as proprietor of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia, is dead.

Two hundred thousand dollars in specie was shipped to Europe from New York on Thursday.

Mr. Seymour, the Democratic candidate for President, is canvassing the country making political speeches.

General Joseph Hooker has been retired from active service, in consequence of disability. He retires with the full rank of Major-General.

The election in Western Virginia on Tuesday of last week resulted in the choice of the Republican candidate for Governor by about 3000 majority. Republican majority on joint ballot in the Legislature about 30.

Six freedmen and three whites were killed in the last New Orleans murder, that of Friday night, when the colored men, while parading through the streets, were attacked by a mob of ex-rebels. Sheridan is needed there badly.

Hon. James Hinds, member of Congress from the Second Arkansas District, and the Hon. Jos. R. Brooks, were assassinated while traveling through Monroe county, on Saturday. Another Union man was murdered in the same county, a few days previous, by the Rebels.

The telegraph announces another political assassination. O. R. Scott, and Election Judge in Clay county, Missouri, was called to his door at night and shot dead.—His enforcement of the Registry law was the cause of this murder.

The telegraph reports another fight on the Plains with the Indians, five hundred of whom attacked two companies of the 10th (colored) cavalry. Nine Indians were killed and a number wounded, whilst only three of our men were wounded.

INDIANA.—The Secretary of the State of Indiana, at Indianapolis, has received the official returns from all the counties, and the majority for Baker, Republican candidate for Governor, foots up one thousand and fifty-nine.

The Press says: "The first act of the next session of Congress should be to pass a bill to constrat a national railroad from Washington to Philadelphia and New York, thereby avoiding Baltimore and protecting our people from daily insult as they pass through that reasonable and dangerous city."

A man 70 years old was found asleep on the sidewalk, at Cincinnati, on Thursday night, and being taken to the station, was recognized as a man who owned considerable property in the city and who had deeded it to his children in expectation that they would take care of him, but they turned him out of doors, and he is a homeless pauper.

The New York World and the National Intelligencer urge the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair, and the substitution of others for the Presidential nominees. The demand is opposed by others, and the discussion over the matter has been quite lively. It is not likely, however, that any change will be made.

The Baltimore American says many earnest and conscientious men frequently exclaim, in view of the progress of events, "Verily, God is with us." If it is meant that the Almighty favors all those who advocate the principles of immutable justice, and equal rights, and upheld the leading article of the Declaration of Independence, which declares that "all men are created free and equal," there can be no doubt that "God is with us." The essence of Christianity is embraced in the commandment "To do unto others as we would have others to do unto us," and when we undertake to enforce this commandment in our intercourse with our fellow men, by according them every right that we possess, and guarding them from wrong and oppression, there can be no doubt but that we are doing God's own work, and doing it more faithfully than many of those who claim to be his chosen ministers. The declaration that "the negro has no rights which the white man is bound to respect," to every principle of Christianity, and the minister of Christ who undertakes to uphold such a doctrine is but using "the lively of Heaven to serve the Devil in."

When we look back to the events of past years, it must be admitted that a Providence has guided our destinies, and that in so far as we have labored "to do unto others as we would have others to do unto us," we have not failed in any instance. That it is the will of God that all men on the face of the earth shall "be free and equal," cannot be denied without proving Christianity to be a cunningly devised fable.

According to latest accounts the collision between the rebels and negroes in New Orleans continued, the city being in a state of open insurrection. The rebels, as usual, are said to be the instigators of the disturbances.

Delightful—the weather.

OFFICIAL VOTE.—We give below the official vote for Auditor General at the late election in this State:

Table with columns for County, Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Bedford, Berks, Blair, Bradford, Bucks, Butler, Cambria, Cameron, Carbon, Centre, Chester, Clarion, Clearfield, Clinton, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Elk, Erie, Fayette, Forest, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson, Juniata, Lancaster, Lawrence, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, M'Kean, Mercer, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Montour, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Philadelphia, Pike, Potter, Schuylkill, Snyder, Somerset, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tioga, Union, Venango, Warren, Washington, Wayne, Westmoreland, Wyoming, York, Totals, Majority.

LOCAL MATTERS.

All Saint's day will occur on Sunday next.

ORE LAND FOR SALE.—Apply to A. S. Mond, Quincy, Pa.

Look at our "Receipt List." Delinquents seem deaf to all appeals.

FOR SALE.—A Parlor Coal Cook Stove. Apply at this office.

Geo. W. Benner's trial has been postponed until January term of court.

A Republican Mass Meeting will be held at Hagerstown to-morrow (Saturday) and a Torch-light procession in the evening.

Who will send us a turkey for our Thanksgiving Day dinner? Don't all speak at once.

CHESTNUTS.—Chestnuts have been retailing on our streets by the cart load at $6 00 per bushel. Too steep.

There are no taxes on butter, flour or meat! Can anybody tell why the prices of those articles keep up at high figures?

SOLD.—Mr. John Rider the other day sold his house and lot on Church street to Mr. John Hicks for the sum of $1500 cash.

SEND THEM.—Some lazy, slovenly patron, in arrears for half a dozen or more years subscription, is requested to send us a few bushels of good potatoes.

Spectacles, Eye-Glasses and Goggles.—and Goggles, Eye-glasses and Spectacles from thirty cents up, at ALEX. LEEDS, the watchmaker.

TO THE POLLS.—A general turn out at the election on Tuesday is anticipated, on which occasion we would be pleased to see some of our tardy patrons, with the 'stamps.'

FOR SALE.—A Perpetual Scholarship in the "Eclectic Medical College of Pennsylvania," located in Philadelphia. We offer a liberal inducement to any young man wishing to enter this institution.

GLAD.—We are really glad that the Presidential election is near at hand. For the last few months most of our exchanges have been crammed full of political matter, affording papers like the Record that don't dabble in politics, little chance for choice selections.

SALES.—Our popular auctioneer, Mr. G. V. Moog, made a couple of good sales, this week. On Monday the personal property of A. D. Gordon, and on Tuesday that of Samuel Frantz. The latter's sale amounted to over $3,000.

COMMUNION.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian Church in this place on Sunday morning, the 8th of November, Preparatory services will commence on Saturday morning.

THE BIRD LAW.—The Legislature of Pennsylvania passed a law last winter, imposing a fine $25 for each insectivorous bird killed at any time of the year. Farmers in this and the neighboring counties should see to it, that this indiscriminate killing of small birds should be prevented.

HOOVER'S "MILL WAGON".—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Hoover's "Mill Wagon" regularly visits our town, and that orders for flour and mill stuff will be promptly attended to at all times.

RECEIPTS.—The following sums have been received for subscription since our last issue: Ben. O. Leconte, $10 00; Geo. Heckman, 2 00; Henry Socks, 2 00.

FURS, &c.—We invite special attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Updegraff & Son, under "Special notices" in to-day's paper. They have on hand an extensive assortment of new goods, including the latest styles of Ladies' Furs, Trimmings, etc.

FAMILY CORN SHELLER.—Mr. A. S. Adams of this place has been appointed agent for the sale of Brady's Patent Family Corn Sheller in this county. We have seen the machine operated and can testify that it does the work speedily and well. No farmer should be without one.

PREACHING.—Rev. Dr. Bomberger on Sunday morning last preached to a large audience in the German Reformed Church. A short time after entering upon his labors as a minister he became pastor of the congregation in this place. He is an able divine and has many warm friends and admirers in our midst.

ARRESTED.—Mrs. Rowland, wife of Andrew Rowland, who was murdered at his residence in Washington county on Sunday night a week, has been arrested and committed to jail, as has also a young man named Snyder who was in the house at the time the deed was done.

ELECTION DAY.—On Tuesday next the people of the United States will be called upon to decide at the ballot box which shall be their President for the next four years, Gen. U. S. Grant or Horatio Seymour. The present situation of our national affairs makes this election one of momentous importance, and no one, Providence permitting, should absent himself from the polls on that day.—At this particular time there should be a full and fair expression of public opinion touching a choice between these distinguished candidates for the highest office in the gift of the American people.

OYSTERS.—We would announce to the citizens of Waynesboro' and vicinity that we have made arrangements by which we can furnish them with oysters regularly, both in the shell and by the gallon, or smaller quantities. Call and try them at the Bakery, Confectionary and Oyster Saloon of HENNEBERGER & HOOVER.

OBITUARY.—Died in Moundsville, Marshall County, West Virginia, on the 23d of October, WILLIAM D. WALKER, Esq., in the year of his age.

The deceased was a native of Greenocastle. He learned the Dry Goods business in Hagerstown, Md., where we first became acquainted with him. He was afterwards engaged in business in Alexandria, Va., and New York. For a number of years past he had been engaged in mercantile business in West Va. He was a member of the Convention held at Wheeling, in 1861, to organize a government for the new State, and up to the time of his sickness had been an active member in the Presbyterian Church at Moundsville.

"IMPORTANT TO VOTERS!"—On the third day of November the voters of Waynesboro' will be called upon to discharge a sacred duty they owe to themselves. There are two parties in the contest, both rallying around the Flag of their Country. One of these parties is doomed to defeat, and with that defeat there will be a great depression of spirits, superinducing a loss of appetite and an entire derangement of the digestive organs, or animal functions. The unfortunate in the contest aforesaid, will find a wholesome panacea in Hooftland's German Bitters or Tonic that will speedily restore the tone of their stomachs and enable them to resume business. These preparations are for sale by Druggists and dealers in Medicines everywhere.

There was a heavy fall of snow in Buffalo on Thursday morning.

See tax notice.

TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION.—A Torch-Light Procession and meeting, under the auspices of the Boys in Blue and Grant and Colfax Club, in honor of the recent Republican victories, came off in this place on Saturday evening last. After escorting a large delegation from Quincy township into town, headed by the popular Fayetteville Brass Band—the Waynesboro' Brass Band also participating—the procession paraded the streets, finally halting in front of the Bowden House, where speeches were made by Mr. V. Rogers of this place, and James P. Mathews, Esq., of Hagerstown. At the conclusion of Mr. M's remarks, our friend of the Herald and Torch, Thos. B. Mittag, being present, was called for and for sometime amused the crowd with his peculiar off-hand style of speaking, producing great laughter and applause.

We regret to learn that Mr. John Martin, of Tomstown, in leaving town, was struck in the face with a stone thrown at the Quincy delegation passing out of Mechanic Street, receiving a severe bruise. It is hard to imagine a more dastardly or a more cowardly act. Such outlaws should be ferreted out and an example made of them, no matter to what party they may belong.

HARD WINTER PREDICTED.—Our old and experienced weather prognosticators predict a hard winter. The various signs have already made themselves apparent. For several weeks past the sad and dismal "chirps" of birds high in the air could be distinctly heard on calm nights. The feathered tribe are now passing southward in large flocks. During the day some cease flight, while others that fly almost incessantly, are so high as not to be observed by the naked eye.—Flocks of wild geese have also been flying southward, earlier by far than is usual.—This would seem to indicate the probability of a hard winter, and the wise will prepare for it in time.

ADMITTED.—John D. DeGolley and W. S. Duffield, Esqrs., young gentlemen who have been studying law in this place, were admitted to practice by the court, at the present session. They passed a creditable examination before a committee appointed by the court, on Monday evening, after which they gave an entertainment to the members of the Bar, where an hour was pleasantly spent discussing wit and bivalves. We are sure both young gentlemen enter on their professional life with the kind wishes of many friends. We wish them success.—Repository.

The ancients desired "locks bushy and black as the raven" as one of the perfections of manhood, and tresses long, silken and lustrous, as the crowning beauty of womanhood, but Time, the sly old dog, drew his fingers through their hair and left "His MARK" in white. Time is now baffled by those who use Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, the greatest and most reliable Hair Restorative of modern times.

"Dr. P. Fahrney's celebrated Blood Searcher or Panacea" is a medicine that we can recommend to those who are afflicted, having used it in our own family and furnished our friends with the article; we can, therefore, from experience say that it is a medicine possessing rare medicinal properties. Being a mild purgative, it is well to keep it always in the family where there are children or those subject to colds or other sickness. It is compounded from medicinal Roots, Leaves, Berries, Seeds and Herbs, which are said to be entirely free from poison. We are personally acquainted with the proprietor who was our family Physician for several years, and we were at one time raised from a bed of affliction under his judicious treatment.—Christian Family Companion.

Fahrney's Blood Searcher.—From our personal acquaintance with Dr. P. Fahrney, and from the reputation of the above named medicine in the community where he lives, we can cheerfully recommend it to a fair trial. It may be had of any Druggist for the physical ailments of mortality, until the great Panacea for all diseases shall be found in the leaves of the tree of life.—Christian Family Companion.

Sold by J. LEAN, GRUBBY & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Chicago, Ill. B. A. Fabnestock Son & Co., Wholesale Druggists Pittsburg, Pa. And by druggists generally. None genuine without the proprietor's signature, thus:
