

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, January 1, 1869.

The dry goods house of Lathrop, Ludington & Co., New York, suspended on Saturday. Their liabilities are stated at $4,000,000.

The liabilities of Trumbull, Slat & Co., dry goods dealers, of New York and Baltimore, who recently failed, are stated at $1,600,000. Their books, however, show a surplus of $250,000. It is thought they will be able to resume business.

The Kuklux Klan have extended their outrages to Indiana. On Friday night a week three negro men were shot in Union county, in that State. In one case a negro was shot whilst in bed, and other shameful outrages were committed on the wife of a negro whilst he was made to stand by unable to offer resistance.

President Johnson has issued his expected amnesty proclamation extending pardon, unconditionally and without reservation, for the offence of treason to the United States and adhering to their enemies, to all parties concerned in the late rebellion, with a restoration to all their rights, immunities and privileges under the Constitution and the laws. Whilst the pardon puts an end to the Jeff. Davis case, and enables Breckinridge, Slidell, Mason and others, now abroad, to return to the United States, it does not relieve either these or any other parties from the disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth Constitutional Amendment. It simply relieves them from prosecution for treason.

The inauguration of the President elect will be distinguished by the most imposing military display made since the review of the grand armies of the Republic after the overthrow of rebellion. Already a hundred thousand men have signified their purpose to be present, and the fear is that accommodations cannot be provided for all who attend to participate in the honor to the great hero of the war. If the season is propitious, Washington city, on the 4th of March, 1869, will be the scene of a magnificent display.

General Grant (says the Balt. American) has spoken out very decidedly and very frankly upon the subject of the necessity of curtailing the expenses of the Government. The General gave his opinion in a conversation with several Congressmen, during which the subject of Government subsidies to railroads was brought up. He said, substantially, it was very apparent to every man in the country that our finances needed the closest attention, and that it is vitally important, if we intend to pay off the national debt and lighten taxation, to practice the most rigid economy, and the place to begin with is the bills that are pending in Congress granting further subsidies to the Pacific and other Railroads. No matter what may be said about the prospective benefits we are to derive from these roads, it is too long to wait, and we should make the best possible use of our present resources, without increasing the burden of our debt by incurring expensive risks which are hazardous. The Congressmen who were at the interview were astonished at the frankness with which the General expressed his views, while they one and all pledged him their support.

SPRING ELECTIONS.—The Legislature will be asked to change what are called the spring elections, when municipal officers are elected, to the fall of the year, so that all our elections may take place as nearly as possible at the same period. It is conceded (says the State Guard) that we never poll a full vote at the spring elections, for the reason that the large mass of people are so engaged at that season that they cannot get to the polls, or afford the loss of time necessary to do so. On this account elections are frequently decided by minorities of the whole vote of the district, as well as by the most irresponsible portion of the community. By changing the time of holding these elections, it is argued, we are certain to engage more interest in municipal affairs, and secure for cities, boroughs and townships a better class of men for officers. The judgement of men who have watched this matter closely is favorable to the change, and we have no doubt the Legislature will comply with public desire on this subject.

Mrs. Augustus N. Dickens, widow of Augustus Dickens, the brother of Charles Dickens, the celebrated novelist, committed suicide at Chicago, on Saturday, by taking an overdose of morphine. She sent her children to the home of her brother-in-law on Christmas evening. They remained there over night, and on returning next morning discovered their mother on the floor dead. Mrs. Dickens has suffered much lately from poverty, being dependent almost entirely upon her friends for the necessities of life.

The jury in the case of Daniel Doebert, editor and proprietor of the Hagerstown Mail, gave him a verdict against the Hagerstown corporation for $7,500 damages, for allowing his office, types, etc. to be destroyed by a mob, in 1862, and driving him out of town as a secessionist. Other cases of a similar character are pending. This case is likely to be taken as a precedent for numberless suits throughout Maryland.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Posters announce a "Fantastic Parade" for Waynesboro' this (Friday) morning.

OYSTERS.—Shocked Oysters for New Year at Reid & Waynant's.

Watches, Jewelry and Spectacles, cheaper than ever.

LUMBER.—Messrs. Hiteshow & Gehr, of Ringgold, have 20,000 feet of seasoned poplar lumber for sale.

SOLD OUT.—On the 10th ult., Mr. E. Hiteshow, of York Springs, Adams Co., sold his stock of goods and room, to Messrs. Griest & Bowers, for $15,000 cash.

RINGGOLD STORE.—We direct special attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Hiteshow & Gehr, merchants, of Ringgold, in to-day's paper.

FLOURISHING.—We understand the Order of Good Templars in this place is prospering beyond expectations. Within the past few months large accessions have been made to their number.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—Efforts are being made to organize a Second Building Association in this place, several hundred shares of stock have already been taken, and the undertaking will no doubt prove successful.

ICE HARVEST.—Our Hotel and Restaurant keepers have been engaged the past few days in securing and packing ice, and have been fortunate in getting a very superior article.

CARPENTER WORK.—We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. E. G. Barnes, Carpenter, formerly of Baltimore, in another column, who is a reliable man and a good mechanic.

We are under obligations to those of our patrons who have responded to our call for money, and hope that others largely in arrears will be as considerate. We are still largely in arrears to our "Paper Man," which must be made up within the next ten days.

COMMITTED.—On Monday last Jeremiah Reese, Franklin Reese, Samuel Seiler and Wm. Jones, charged with robbing the store of Michael Fallon, in Mercersburg, were lodged in jail. Dr. Robison of Big Cove, Fulton county, was also arrested, but released on giving bail to the amount of $1,500.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday morning of last week an interesting little boy, son of Mr. Daniel Hoover, of this place, met with an accident which terminated fatally. Mrs. Hoover was in the act of removing a crock from the stove containing boiling water when the bottom fell out, a part of the water falling upon the child and scalding it, from the effects of which it died on Thursday.

JUBILEE.—A Sunday School Jubilee came off in the Lutheran Church in this place on Friday evening last. The Church had been handsomely decorated for the occasion and the exercises of the evening, which consisted of singing by the scholars and an address by the Pastor, Rev. A. Buhrman, are said to have been of the most interesting character. The exercises closed with a distribution of gifts among teachers and scholars.

RECEIPTS.—Our receipts for subscription during the past week are as follows: Jacob S. Good, $2 00; D. Patterson, 2 00; W. H. Funk, 4 00; Mrs. M. L. Shover, 2 00; Catharine A. Hoover, 2 00; Benj. Frick, 4 00; John J. Grove, 2 00; Matthew Metcalfe, 2 00; James Furley, 2 00.

CURE PERFORMED.—On the 13th ult., Geo. Wire, Esq., of Lovettsville, Loudon county, Va., brought his sister-in-law, Miss Emaline Spring, to this place and placed her under treatment with Drs. Franz & Snively. The lady in question lost her voice and had not been able to speak above a whisper for many weeks. With the use of the Laryngoscope (an instrument with which you can see into the larynx) in a few days her voice was almost entirely restored, only a few applications having been made to the parts affected. The instrument referred to is certainly one of more than ordinary worth and importance to the profession generally.

MAN DROWNED.—Solomon Fiery, residing near the State Line, Md., met with an accident which cost him his life. On Christmas day he went to Greencastle to meet his son, who had been going to College in Carlisle, and the two were on their return home when the accident occurred. It seems the Creek at Broad Ford was frozen over. Mr. Fiery, who was on horseback, took a rail and rode into the Creek breaking the ice with the rail. While so doing, a large oak broke off and, coming down the stream, struck the horse and throwing him, swept Mr. Fiery off under the ice. His body has not as yet been discovered.—Spirit.

P. S. Since the above was in type we received the Hagerstown Herald, which states that the person drowned was John Fiery, Esq., a prominent and influential citizen of Fairview in that county. At last accounts the body of the deceased had not been found, although it is said a reward of $2,000 has been offered for its recovery.

FAREWELL TO 1868.—Like travelers up on the dusty road, foot sore and weary who have reached a mountain top, and pause to look back over the pathway we have traveled, so we stand on the threshold of the new year, and review the varied experiences of the past one.

Another year freighted with hopes and fears, with joys and sorrows, has been added to the number of those that are gone. How many, many flowers have faded from life's green pathway; how many weary ones have sunk to rest since the first day of 1868 was ushered in.

Often in light and often in shadow, often with a happy heart and often with weary feet has the pathway been trod. Onward have we hastened, sometimes beneath sunshine, and sometimes beneath shadows and storms; sometimes fortified with high hopes and aspirations and sometimes burdened almost to the earth with disappointments.

The new volume 1869, lies open to our view; its leaves yet are purely white, unstained by tears, sadness, sorrow or death. How shall we, reader, fill its pages—with high and generous deeds, with noble acts, or with deeds such as will be mourned over and with a desire to blot them from memory when the scenes of 1869 like those of 1868 shall be reviewed.

The "Beautiful and the Useful," are seldom better combined than in the American Agriculturist. This Journal is adorned with a great number of the finest illustrations, of a pleasing and instructive character, while its columns are packed full of useful information, prepared by a large force of intelligent, practical, first-class men. No man, woman, or child can peruse it without receiving benefit far beyond its cost. The subscription price is only $1.50 a year, or four copies for $5, which is remarkably cheap, considering the expensive character of the paper, and its real value; but a circulation reaching nearly 200,000 divides the expenses among so many, that the cost to each is very small. The first number of the 28th Annual Volume comes to us in a new and beautifully illustrated cover, and its contents are quite as choice as usual, which is saying a good deal for a journal always good. Those who subscribe now for the new volume will make a valuable investment. The Publishers are ORANGE JUDD & CO., 245 Broadway, New York.

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH.—This excellent Daily is now offered to subscribers at the low price of $1.50 during the approaching sessions of the Legislature. Mr. Berger is an able editor and an enterprising publisher, and keeps his readers well-booked up upon the doings of the Legislature. The Telegraph will contain full and accurate reports of Legislative proceedings, as well as the news of the day, local and general. We therefore advise those desiring a good city paper (Republican) to subscribe for the Telegraph.

The Weekly Telegraph is mailed to subscribers at $1.50 per annum. In clubs of 5 copies at $1.25, and 10 copies at $1.00 per year. Address Geo. Berger, Harrisburg, Pa.

BORDER CLAIMS.—Four years have elapsed since the close of the rebellion; and yet no definite action has been taken or reached to indemnify our citizens for the losses sustained consequent upon it. We deem it our duty as public journalists to continue to agitate this vexed question to the end, to the extent that justice be done our citizens.

We aver that the National Government is responsible for these losses, as it guarantees protection to its subjects in time of war as well as in time of peace. The argument that the payment of these claims opens the door to boundless agitation, extending to the old rebellious districts, is a feeble one, and hardly worth consideration. The troubles and losses of the South was brought about by its own act, and she is now compelled to witness and reap the fruits of her own folly and ruin. It is enough for her to be permitted to enjoy, without punishment, what she undertook by force of arms to destroy—the benefits of a free country, free speech, and the blessings the nation in common be stowed upon all the states.

Now, with all our losses, we of the border counties contributed as much as any other section, in money and men, for the suppression of the rebellion. While we were exposed with our property and goods to the ravages of the enemy, the inland states enjoyed the blessings of prosperity and the fruits of their industry, unmolested; and we were compelled to breast what otherwise might have been their ruin.

The taxes and debt resulting from the prosecution of the war, we have never "shirked," but, notwithstanding all our adversities, draw backs and losses, "come down" and continue to "come down" with our portion, without a murmur.

In view of these facts, is it fair that we should contribute our portion of all these—bankruptcy staring so many in the face, in consequence of their heavy losses sustained in the progress of the rebellion—and be refused indemnity by the National Government? We hold that if we are in duty bound—and we know we are—to make good our portion of the public revenues—the National Government owes it alike to its citizens, that they be protected from all deprivations by its enemies, and is also responsible for all losses incurred by invasions, in time of war. We hope Mr. Jossna will renew the fight begun by his predecessor. It is the important work for him to accomplish, if he would immortalize himself and serve his constituency. Let Congress make itself responsible, and the State Legislature will not be slow to do its part—advance the means.—Country Merchant.

BUILDING.—The indications are now that next summer will witness a busy time among mechanics in our town. In addition to the Lutheran Church and School Building, arrangements are being made for the erection of an unusual number of dwelling houses.—More building lots have been disposed of within the past twelve months than during the last five years. A spirit of improvement prevails, and all that is wanted to still further enlarge the town and make it more prosperous and populous, is Railroad facilities.

Twenty millions of redeemed Government notes were burned at the Treasury Department last week.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA Tuesday, Dec. 29, 1868.—FLOUR.—The Flour market is dull and depressed, and the medium and low grades of extra families are difficult of sale, even at a reduction on present asking prices. The demand is almost exclusively for good family brands of spring and winter Wheat Flour for the supply of the immediate wants of the home consumers. The sales foot up 600 barrels, including superfine at $5.25@5.75; extras at $6.00@6.50; Northwestern extra family at $7.25@8; Pennsylvania and Ohio do. at $8.75@10.50, and fancy brands at $11@13, according to quality. 100 bbls Rye Flour sold at $7.75@8. Corn Meal is without improvement.

GRAIN.—The Wheat market still retains its features of extreme quietude, and the inquiry is principally for prime lots, while inferior sorts are neglected; sales of 3,000 bushels Western and Pennsylvania red at $1.90@2.05; some amber at $2.10@2.15; 800 bushels fair to good white at $2.25@2.45. Corn is less active, and prices are weak; sales of 4,000 bushels new yellow at $0.90@1.00, according to dryness; 1,500 bushels new white at $0.87@0.90, and old yellow at $1.10. Oats are quiet but stronger; sales of 3,000 bushels Western at 74@77c.
