

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO. Friday, February 5, 1869.

Fourth of July comes on Sunday this year.

San Francisco had another slight shock of earthquake on Saturday.

The fee for registering a letter now is only fifteen cents. Heretofore it was twenty-five.

A man in Michigan died lately of too much cider. A barrel filled with it fell upon him.

The Gettysburg national soldier's monument, which is to be consecrated next July, will be of marble sixty-five feet in height. The crowning statue represents the Goddess of Liberty.

Governor Geary has issued a warrant for the execution of William Brooks and James Orne, sentenced to death in the court of Oyer and Terminer of Monroe county, for the murder of Theodore Broadhead. Friday, February 26th inst., is the time named for the execution.

Two old bachelors of Indianapolis, Indiana, made a novel bet on the election. The loser was either to marry within six weeks or forfeit five hundred dollars. The Seymour bachelor is now trying to save his five hundred dollars by finding somebody who will marry him.

On Thursday night—a week a tenement house in Philadelphia was destroyed by fire, three children perishing in the flames. Two were twins, a boy and girl, six years old, the other a girl four years old. The father, Fred K. Thorn, hastily lifted and carried his wife to the street, then returned, but only succeeded in getting two of his children from the burning building.

A Washington despatch says that there is very good authority for the statement that in a conversation of General Grant's the other evening, at his residence, he remarked that he had made up his mind upon his Cabinet, but that as yet the parties whom he should invite to accept positions had been given no intimation of his intentions. Mrs. Grant remarked, 'That is more than you have ever told me.' He answered, 'Yes, more than I have ever told any one yet.' A number of feelers were then thrown out, but all failed to elicit any more hints or expressions upon that subject.

The year 1869 is destined to be the most important in the annals of American Methodism. During the year people will be called on to decide whether or no they will accept the measures proposed to them by the General Conference for the admission of lay representatives to that assembly and the annual conferences. It is also an important fact, a new constituency has been created by the late General Conference; all members of the Church over twenty one years of age, whether men or women, will be eligible to vote upon this question.

On Saturday last the Constitutional amendment on suffrage was taken up in the House of Representatives. The joint resolution to be submitted to the Legislatures of the different States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of the Legislatures, shall be a part of said Constitution, was then taken up and passed by a vote of 150 to 42. It provides that 'the right of any citizen of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of race, color or previous condition of slavery of any citizen or class of citizens of the United States.'

In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, on Monday, the application of Mr. J. H. Bradley, to be reinstated as an attorney of that Court, was refused, and the Judges suggest that he make the required retraction and apology in the Criminal Court, where the offences occasioning his dismissal occurred. This decision will compel Mr. Bradley, if he desires re-admission to the bar, to apologize to Judge Fisher, and the Supreme Court express the opinion that 'the ease requires from Mr. Bradley a paper characterized by manly, ingenuous sincerity, confessing the wrong, and retracting the causes of offence in terms of precision, direct and clear to the common understanding. It will not do to retract the offensive language in one sense, and not in every sense.'

One prominent citizen of Lansing, Iowa, was murdered by another on Monday last. The murdered man was named Frederick May, and the murderer Charles May—his cousin. The two had been engaged in a dispute about a load of wheat offered for sale by a farmer. Bitter words and threats passed between them, when Charles May withdrew to a store near by, and, returning with a revolver, shot and instantly killed the other while he was on the wagon examining the wheat. The murderer was immediately arrested and lodged in jail.

The Lancaster Express says: 'The association for the propagation of game in Pennsylvania have now more than 95,000 birds of various kinds to be let loose in the spring.'

LOCAL MATTERS.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry, at Alex. Leeds'.

OUR THANKS—Capt. John H. Walker, member of the H. R., from this county, will accept our thanks for public documents received.

BURNT—The dwelling house of J. Porter, in McConnelsburg, was entirely consumed by fire on Saturday last. Loss about $3,000. No insurance.

A meeting of citizens of this county interested in the Border Damage Claims will be held in Chambersburg on the 18th inst., to take into consideration measures relative to the further prosecution of their claims.

PARTRIDGES.—The season for shooting partridges closed on the 20th of December, a fact of which sportsmen should take notice, as it is stated that the law imposes a fine of $25 for each partridge shot out of season.

POLISH—Henry Graw, of this place, has for sale a superior article for polishing silver and brass ware, cleaning glass, etc. Price 10 cents per ball.

NEW FIRM.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that D. B. Russell, Esq., has associated with him in the stove and tinning business, his son, John B. Russell. Persons indebted to the former are requested to call and close their accounts.

SOLD.—Mr. D. Geiser recently sold a four-acre lot of ground adjoining the Borough and fronting on the old Hagerstown road, to Rev. J. F. Oller for the sum of $1200.

Mr. G. has since purchased of Dr. I. N. Sniely a lot of ground fronting on South St. (formerly Forney's) containing between three and four acres, for the sum of $2,000.

PETITIONS.—We observe that Mr. Duncan on the 26th ult., presented a petition in the State Senate from 120 citizens and legal voters, asking for the passage of an act to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in our town and within a radius of one mile of it.

Mr. Duncan since presented a petition counter to the above signed by 150 citizens of our town and vicinity, which was referred to the Committee on Vice and Immorality.

THE GROUND HOG.—Tuesday last, the 2d inst., was "ground hog day." On this day, according to tradition, he comes out of his den, and if he sees his shadow, immediately goes back and remains six weeks longer, which is to indicate six weeks more winter. As old Sol did not make his appearance at all during the day, the animal of course did not see his shadow, and we are therefore to anticipate as in store for all a protracted season of bright skies and balmy breezes. We would rejoice to have the ground hog theory prove a reality, in this instance, at least.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that application has been made for a charter for a second Building Association in this place, which is to be styled the "Washington Township Building Association." A third party is about to apply for a charter for a Monthly Association. It appears several meetings have been held within the past few weeks to decide whether the association shall meet weekly or monthly, but the parties have failed to agree on this point. Two Associations would be ample, we would suppose, for Waynesboro', and we cannot see why there should be much contention about the matter of meeting weekly or monthly, as the difference in either mode would be materially little. A meeting, of which all parties interested should be notified, should determine the "vexed question," so far at least as the principle of Democracy goes, that the will of the majority shall govern.

Watches repaired and warranted, at Alex. Leeds', next door to the Town Hall.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—This day, which causes so much fluttering among the young ladies, comes on Sunday this year, and is one week off from Sunday next. For the benefit of our fair friends, we would state that the custom of sending 'Valentines' originated many hundred years ago. Saint Valentine was, according to some writers, a bishop, while others insist that he was a presbyter, who was beheaded at Rome in the reign of the Emperor Claudius, A. D. 270. Historians remark that 'he was a man of admirable parts, and so famous for his love and charity, that the custom of choosing Valentines upon his festival took its rise from thence.'

LENT.—Ash-Wednesday, the first day of Lent falls on the 10th of February. All Catholics who have completed their twenty-first year, are, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observe the Fast of Lent. They are to make only one meal a day, excepting Sundays. The meal allowed on fast days is not to be taken until about noon. A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening; no general rule as to the quantity of food permitted at this time is or can be made.

SNOW.—A snow storm prevailed here during Tuesday and Tuesday night, covering the ground to the depth of several inches. Weather at time of writing mild and snow fast disappearing.

ADVERTISE.—As an advertising medium the Record affords advantages equalled by few village or local papers. Its circulation, which is rapidly increasing, is now verging on a weekly edition of one thousand copies. Circulating as it does, principally in this county and the adjoining Washington county Districts, an agricultural region of country both wealthy and populous, to the merchant, tradesman and farmer, its columns afford advantages which are not appreciated by the class generally to which we refer. It seems strange too in this age of improvement and progress generally, that men should be so short-sighted as not to discern the advantages of advertising. We occasionally meet with one of this class who purpose, disposing of his personal effects, valuable stock, farm implements, etc., but who cannot see the propriety or utility of giving his advertisement a place in our columns. An outlay of a few dollars is thus involved; and hence the most judicious mode of advertising is dispensed with for a few posts which are seen by the few, comparatively speaking, such persons forget that a single item in a sale list often attracts bidders, who would not have seen or read such advertisement outside the home newspaper. We doubt not many of our readers have noticed the value of one person at a sale to the person selling. By thus refusing an outlay of a few dollars for newspaper advertising, heavy sacrifices are not unfrequently made.

STORE AND POST OFFICE BURNT.—The store of Mr. Chas. Buhman, at Fountain Dale, Adams county, was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour on Tuesday morning last, including goods, books, papers and Post Office matter. The supposition is that the store was first robbed and then set on fire. The following facts would seem to warrant this belief. It appears when Mr. B's son reached the building, which is some distance from the dwelling, he discovered the fire through a shutter which was partly open, and on opening the door found the watch-dog dead. It is probable the burglars before entering the window administered some fatal poison to the dog. When first discovered the building was on fire both above and below, and had so far spread as to render all efforts at subduing the flames utterly futile. We understand Mr. Buhman had an insurance of $2000 upon the stock of goods and $300 upon the building, making his loss outside of the insurance from $1500 to $2000. The store had been entered and robbed several months ago.

BARN AND LIVE STOCK BURNED.—The barn of Mr. William Means, about two miles north of Williamsburg, was entirely consumed by fire about half past three o'clock on Monday morning. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Of the stock in the barn at the time of the fire, only two horses were rescued, and twenty eight head of cattle were burnt to a crisp. Of these, eleven were fat oxen, five cows and calves, eight sheep and four horses. About 400 barrels of corn, 30 tons of hay, 65 bushels of oats, all the harness, &c., were totally destroyed. The loss is about $6000, and no insurance.

PREDICTED.—It is predicted by the old weather-wise, that we are to have an unusual early and open spring. They say we always have our severe cold weather before Easter, after which, spring opens in earnest. This year Easter comes in March, something that has not happened for a number of years. Several Indian tribes have predicted an open and early spring, on account of the prickly ash berry having a very thin shell or hull. The spring like weather we have had at intervals during the past few weeks would almost make us think old winter had, in earnest, bid us adieu.

The Phenological Journal for February, contains Sketches of Prof. Bacho, late of the United States coast survey, Mrs. Lily M. Spencer, the artist, Wilkie Collins, Theodosia Burr Alstin, Rossini, Rothschild, with portraits; besides The Inner Senses, a Psychological Essay; Resurrection of the body, a Sermon, Influence of Intellect in Society, How a Man made fortune by a Pin; Equality of Minds; Community of Interests; The Groups of Organs; Wintering in the South; The American Lion; and numerous other attractions. Price 39 cents, or $3 a year. Address S. R. WELLS, 380 Broadway, N. Y.

RECEIPTS.—The following is a list of our receipts for subscription for the past week: John Frantz, $2.00; John S. Newcomer, 2.00; Abram Frantz, 2.00; Jacob Tharp, 2.00; David F. Stoner, 5.00; John Hess, 2.00; Jonathan Null, 4.00; Samuel H. Brown, 3.00.

COAL GAS.—A physician attributes much of the sickness in winter to the bad effects of coal gas. He says in nine out of ten houses that he enters he notices coal gas in the air they breathe. Many times he finds the damper in a stove-pipe closed to save coal, and the result is a room full of gas, not noticed by the inmates, perhaps, but by those who come in from the fresh air. He condemns dampers of every kind in pipes where coal is used. He says, shut your stove tight, and cover your fire with ashes, if it burns too fast, but don't have a damper in the stove pipe.

SALE REGISTER.—The public sales advertised in the Record occur as follows: Jacob Kendig, about 2 miles from Waynesboro', near the Ringgold road, February 8. L. X. Bonebra, 1 1/2 miles southeast of Waynesboro', February 9. Henry Leshor, of H., one mile east of Waynesboro', February 10. Henry Shank, 2 miles from Middleburg, February 12. John Lanz, Jr., half mile west of Quincy, February 15. Wm. H. Carbaugh, 2 1/2 miles from Mt. Hope, February 16. C. Martin, near Jacobs' Church, Feb. 18. Jason Bell, near the forks of the Antietam, February 19. A. S. Moon, one-fourth mile from Quincy, February 22. John Harbaugh, Jr., near Jacobs' church, February 24.

MORGAN'S RAIDS.—The claims presented before the commissioners appointed in Indiana to ascertain the damages inflicted in that State by John Morgan's raids amount in value to $407,399 and $413,599 of those have been approved. The Governor recommends that the State should pay these claims and obtain reimbursement from the United States.

LARGE SALE.—We call special attention to the sale of valuable personal property, by Mr. John Harbaugh, Jr., in to-day's paper.

An atrocious outrage has just come to light in Berks county where the successive stewards of the Poor House of the county have kept a boy chained like a beast for ten years on account of insanity!

Of the almost innumerable number of preparations in the market for restoring gray hair to its original color, we know of none which gives so universal satisfaction as Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia. We have tried it and found it to restore the color in a truly wonderful manner—as well as to remove dandruff and all itching caused by humors of the scalp. Try it and be satisfied.

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Tuesday Feb. 2, 1869.—There is no essential change to record in the flour market, and the inquiry is limited entirely to the wants of the home trade—sales of 1,000 barrels of superfine at $5.85 per barrel; small lots of extra sold at $5.75@6.25; small lots of Pennsylvania extra family at $5.75@6.75; Indiana and Ohio extra family at $5.75@6.75; and fancy lots at $10.25@12.50. Rye flour sells slowly at $7@7.50. In corn meal there is more doing, 2,500 barrels of brandy wine were disposed of, part at $4.50 and part on secret terms. The wheat market is as dull as ever, but the offerings of prime quality are relatively light—small sales of red at $1.60@1.75; amber at $1.80, and white at $1.10@1.25. The demand for rye has fallen off, and western cannot be quoted over $1.55@1.60. Corn is rather unsettled, and new ranges from 85 to 88c, according to dryness, and western mixed at 90c. Oats are steady at 72@75c for western.
