

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Friday, March 12, 1869.

Gen. Grant on Wednesday transferred the command of the army to Gen. Sherman.

James Grant lately on trial at Richmond for the murder of H. Rieves Pollard has been acquitted.

A Californian has built an "agricultural locomotive" that runs thirty-nine plows at once.

United States Bonds closed in London on Saturday at 83, the highest price they have yet reached.

The new General of our armies is William T. Sherman, the new Lieutenant General, Philip Sheridan, of cavalry and Five Forks fame.

The death warrants of George S. Twitchell, Jr., and Gerald Eaton have been signed by Governor Geary. They are to be executed on Thursday, the 8th of April.

A. J. in his "farewell," used the word "constitution" thirty-one times and the word "constitutional" eleven times. He has now "left it with the people" for the last time, and with them it is safe.

Mr. Johnson on the 2d opened the prison doors of the Albany, New York, Penitentiary, to a post office thief who had been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. He ought to have a powerful support from the convicts who enjoy his clemency, when he next runs for office.

The English and French press are almost unanimous in their approval of General Grant's inaugural address. His references to the foreign policy of the Government are regarded with satisfaction as indicating a desire for the maintenance of peace.

In the United States Senate on Saturday a message was received from the President stating that under the Act creating the Treasury Department, Mr. Stewart was ineligible to the office of Secretary of the Treasury, and asking that ineligibility be removed by the action of Congress. Mr. Sherman introduced a bill for the purpose, but Mr. Sumner objected to its immediate consideration.

President Grant sent the following notices to the Senate on Friday as his Cabinet, which were immediately confirmed.

Sec'y of State—Elihu B. Washburne, Ill.
Sec'y of Treas'y—Alex. T. Stewart, N. Y.
Sec'y of War—Gen. J. M. Schofield, Ill.
Sec'y of Navy—Adolph E. Borie, Penn.
Sec'y of Interior—Jacob D. Cox, Ohio.
Attorney General—E. R. Hoar, Mass.
Postmaster General—J. A. J. Creswell, Md.

One of the last acts of the Fortieth Congress, which received the approval of President Johnson, was that to regulate the reports of the National banks. Hitherto, they have made quarterly reports to the Comptroller; and the banks have regularly prepared for them, by reducing their liabilities and strengthening their reserves, in order that their business might appear to be safer than it really is. Under the new law, not less than five times each year the Comptroller will designate to the banks a day already past, and require from them a statement of their condition at the close of business on that day.

The first military order issued by President Grant is published, and shows how honestly and faithfully it is his intention to enforce the Reconstruction laws. By this order, with its eight specifications—a sort of moral eight-gun battery which will have a wonderful effect—he at one stroke undoes all that Mr. Johnson did during his four years of misrule at the South, and puts back into their places the several military commanders who were removed by Andrew Johnson simply because they enforced the law. General Sheridan is again to take command in Louisiana, General Terry takes command of the Department of the South; General Reynolds returns to the command of the Fifth Military District, and General Canby, as soon as relieved by General Reynolds, will take command in Virginia. Even General Emory, on whom Mr. Johnson showered his displeasure for his evidence in the impeachment trial, is re-assigned to his command of the Department of Washington. General Hancock, for whom Mr. Johnson arranged a convenient department in gratitude for his services in Louisiana, is assigned to the command of the Department of Dakota. General Gillem, who rather outdid all other commanders in his desire to obstruct the law, and whom Mr. Johnson sought to make a Brigadier General in the regular army, is ordered to give up the command of the Fourth Military Department and join his regiment. Whilst President Grant has deemed it incumbent upon him by this order to rebuke the efforts of Mr. Johnson to defeat and obstruct the law, as well as to assert his own intention to enforce the Reconstruction policy, we do not see in it any manifestation of bad feeling toward the South. On the contrary, we believe that this order will at once bring present repose and quiet to that section, and open the way toward future amicable relations, if not entire contentment with the new order of things.

We wish some chap in this section, who has more money than brains, would send on a Velocipede. We would like to get a peep at one of these "vaminats."

Just before Andrew Johnson finally left the White House, on Thursday morning, he sent to Attorney General Everts an order to pardon both of the Dupuys and Enright, now in prison in New York for Revenue frauds. The pardon Clerk in the Attorney General's office sent out to the State Department the proper papers on Thursday evening, and on Friday the State Department issued the pardons and mailed them to New York to Marshal Murray. In the meantime, Mr. Courtney found out what was on foot, and informed Mr. Rollins of the pardon of the Dupuys, who called the attention of the President to the improper pardoning of these men, and he at once ordered the pardons to be withheld, and Secretary of State Washburne telegraphed to Marshal Murray and secured the return of the pardon documents.

MR. JOHNSON'S LAST RHYME.—It is telegraphed from Washington to the New York Sun as follows:

Sometimes I tried to give them light,
I made them speeches day and night,
And they'd insult me, left and right,
And call me "Andy."
They said I was on a whisky tight;
They lied—'twas brandy.

My pitcher's at the fountain broke;
Let no one know in what I nook
My dust repose,
Lest he should come, and for the joke,
Say "Here lies Moses."

LOCAL MATTERS.

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Spectacles, at Alex. Leeds'.

The Inaugural Address of President Grant will be found on first page.

FOR RENT—Four comfortable rooms on West Main Street. Enquire at this office.

See sales of personal property by Israel Baer and Peter Corbett in to-day's paper.

Mr. A. B. Stoler is an independent candidate for Justice of the Peace.

Don't fail to read the new advertisements in to-day's paper.

FRESH FISH—On Friday evening—go to Reid & Waynant's.

Hagerstown has eight turnpikes leading from that place through Washington county.

Bonebrake, Druggist, has just arrived from Baltimore with a fresh supply of goods Call around.

DEAD—Hugh Auld, a well-known citizen of this county, expired at his residence in Chambersburg on Tuesday morning.

A VELOCIPED SCHOOL was announced to be opened at Repository Hall, Chambersburg, yesterday. Vive la lumbug.

PICTURES—We direct special attention to the advertisement of L. C. Brackbill in to-day's paper. Mr. B. is a first-class operator. Call and see specimen pictures.

FAREWELL SERMON.—Rev. D. Sheffer, for the last two years Pastor of the M. E. congregation in this place, will preach his Farewell Sermon on Sunday evening the 21st inst.

QUINCY FOUNDRY.—It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of Messrs. Middour & Weddle, that they are paying the highest cash price for Bark and Hides.

Babbitts Pure Concentrated Potash—Double Strength of Common Potash. Six pounds will make one barrel of beautiful white soap—at Bonebrake's Drug Store.

WONDERFUL REDUCTION.—Good family Flour warranted to give satisfaction at Eight Dollars and Fifty cents per barrel Bacon and Lard wanted. J. Elden.

Miss S. A. French's select school for the Summer will open on Monday, March 22d.

ROAD LAW.—The Road Law for Franklin county, recently passed by the Legislature, will be found on first page. It will doubtless interest farmers generally.

SEED POTATOES.—Persons wanting the genuine Early Rose, Harrison or Goodrich potatoes for planting are requested to leave their orders with Reid & Waynant, within the next ten days.

LARGE EGG.—The biggest hen egg we have yet seen was exhibited in our office the other day, from the poultry yard of Mr. John L. Newcomer, near Ringgold. It measured 8 1/2 by 6 1/2 and weighed 4 ounces strong. This beats the Harman egg in dimensions and a trifle in weight.

MAD DOG.—On Wednesday last a mad dog was shot by Jacob Keckler, near the residence of Emanuel Miller, on the Leitersburg Turnpike. As his appearance indicated that he had been running for several days, it would be well for persons to be on their guard, especially in that neighborhood, for doubtless other dogs have been bitten.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of the North America Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, to be found in to-day's paper, for which J. Douglas, Esq., is agent in this place. The North America is one of the oldest and most reliable fire insurance companies in the country.

HORSE-RACING AT THE RIDGE.

"Our little village," says a correspondent from Ringgold, "was unusually lively on Friday morning last, consequent upon a report circulated on Thursday evening to the effect that a horse-race was to come off the next morning at ten o'clock in Mr. E. Shockey's field lying east of the Ridge. The opponents were Mr. I. Shockey and Mr. A. Kohler. They met on the ground chosen for the sport at the appointed time, where quite a crowd had collected, and proceeded to business. But the fun of it was both blind horses and one of the horses refused to run up to the stopping point—that is, the rider was instructed by one of the chiefs to "back out," hence our little "sensation" proved a failure after all. It is desperately dull here now, so much so that we think of purchasing two or three velocipedes and when the roads dry up of having a race to produce a sensation. Come out and see the sport."

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

At the Republican Township meeting held in the Town Hall on Saturday last, the following ticket was nominated to be supported at the election on the 19th instant:

Judge, Samuel Welty; Inspector, John Walter; Assessor, James M. McIlvany; School Directors, Geo. Carbaugh, Daniel Bonebrake; Supervisors, Theodore Weisner, Henry Summers, Jno. Sively, Samuel Strite; Auditor, Nicholas Bonebrake; Constable, H. A. Fisher; Justice of the Peace, Thomas Bringham.

We understand Jacob Foreman has since been nominated for Borough Constable.

DAMAGE CLAIMANTS.

A meeting of the citizens of this county, who sustained damages at the hands of Union and Rebel Troops during the Civil War, was held at the Court House in the Borough of Chambersburg, on the 18th of February, Wm. C. McKnight, Chairman, and Wm. B. Gabby, Sec. A committee of three from each township in the county and Borough was appointed to present a correct list of the amount of damage to an adjourned meeting to be held on the 1st of June. Messrs. Benjamin F. Nead, Jacob R. Smith and John Huber were appointed an Executive and Corresponding Committee to correspond with persons in other counties on the border, who sustained losses, in order to procure concert of action.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

On Saturday last at a Democratic Borough and Township meeting held in this place, the following tickets were nominated:

Judge, John J. Irvin; Inspector, John W. Coon; Justice of the Peace, D. B. Russell, Esq.; School Directors, Dr. T. D. French, Geo. Harbaugh; Assessor, H. M. Sibbett; Auditor, Geo. Fourthman.

The following is the Township ticket: Assessor, Harry Walter; Supervisors, Wm. Johnson, Jacob Shank, Jacob Wetzel, Wm. Crilly; School Directors, Geo. Steffy, J. J. Miller; Auditor, _____; Constable, Jacob S. Funk.

BURNED.—The large house, known as the "Newman Tavern," on the South Mountain, near Fayetteville, in this county, on Friday last was set on fire by a spark from the chimney and totally consumed with about one-half of the furniture. So we learn from the Spirit.

The liquor of an oyster, which we relish so much, is shown to be filled with a multitude of very small oysters, covered with thin shells, and swimming nimbly about. In addition to these small oysters, the delicious liquid contains myriads of animalcules and three distinct species of worms.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. David Guyer, Jr., met with his death, on the 22d ult., in Horse Valley, this county, by the accidental discharge of a gun, the contents entering his mouth and lodging in his head or neck. He leaves a wife and two children.

The Jewelry Store, Alex. Leeds, next door to Town Hall.

Garden Seeds fresh and pure, at Bonebrake's Drug Store.

Spring opened in Lancaster, N. H., with six feet of snow on the ground and the thermometer standing at thirty-four degrees below zero.

The father of Gen. Grant was severely injured on Thursday, after the inaugural ceremonies, by falling down several stone steps at the Capital.

The Indian War Ended.

Fort Hays, Kansas, March 6, 1869.—The Indian war has ended. Gen. Sheridan and staff arrived here this afternoon from Medicine Bluff creek February 24. General Custer, with the Seventh Cavalry and Nineteenth Kansas volunteers, remained behind, with orders to move along the south side of the Wichita Mountains to the head waters of the Red river, thence north to Washita, thence to Camp Supply, at the junction of the Beaver and Wolf rivers. Affairs at Medicine Bluff Creek are in a highly satisfactory condition. The Indians are convinced that they can find protection at no season of the year, and the campaign has already proved a salutary lesson. There is not a hostile Indian within the limits of the Missouri department. The refractory tribes have been entirely subdued. The few that have not yet come in, but have made promises, have been driven far out of the department. The troops are in fine health. Weather cold.—Camp Supply, at the forks of the North Canadian, will be kept for the present. Mail dispatches will give the details of this brilliant Indian campaign. Before reaching this point the General met the courier sent with the telegraphic announcement of this promotion to the Lieutenant General. The General's arrival was entirely a surprise. He leaves by special train to-morrow for Washington, whither he has been summoned by telegraphic dispatch.

The bill to strengthen the public credit, which was passed by both Houses of the late Congress, was pocketed by Mr. Johnson, who refused to sign it. The object of this bill was to settle finally the fact that the debts of the United States are to be paid in gold. It was of more importance as a declaration of good faith on the part of Congress than in any other respect, and its failure to become a law therefore does not matter much. Grant has asserted in his inaugural address that the public credit shall be sustained, and when we know that the Executive holds views which the passage of a declaratory law is not so essential.

Though one less on earth our number,
Bright in Heaven thy happy lot,
Where with angel's spirit singing,
Earth's rude cares annoy thee not."

MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, Tuesday March 9, 1869.—There is no improvement to report in breadstuffs; in fact it is duller than ever, with a general tendency for a lower range of figures. The receipts of flour, although small, are in excess of the demand, the inquiry being confined exclusively to the wants of the home trade. Small sales of superfine at $5@5.50 per barrel; 200 barrels extra on secret terms; small lots of Northwestern extra family at $6.75@7.25; Pennsylvania do. at $7.75@8.25. Rye flour ranges from $7@7.50.—Prices of cornmeal are nominal. The wheat market continues dull and weak; sales of 1,200 bushels good and prime Pennsylvania and Western red at $1.60@1.70, and some white at $1.90@2.00. Rye is steady at $1.55. Corn is dull and 2 cents per bushel lower; sales of 4,000 bushels yellow at 93 cents, at which it is freely offered. Oats are less active; sales of 3,000 bushels at 72@75 cents for Western, and Pennsylvania at 62@64 cents. Whisky is selling in a small way at 95@98 cents, tax paid.

BARK WANTED!

THE undersigned will pay the highest market price for 400 cords of Bark—also the highest price for HIDE S delivered at the 4th door Store of Geise & Ruchart, in Waynesboro'. PROVIDE YOUR PICTURE, EITHER A PHOTOGRAPH, AMBROTYPE, OR FERRETYPE!

At the "DIAMOND" GALLERY.

The undersigned having purchased Mr. Hamilton's Gallery, is now prepared to make pictures in the highest style of the art. He will give special attention to large photographs for framing.

FRAMES, CASES, &c.

We will always have on hand a fine assortment of Frames, to which we invite attention.

Pictures taken in cloudy as well as clear weather.

Having purchased all old Negatives in the Gallery, copies can be had at any time.

Copying of old Daguerotypes, Ambrotypes, &c., will be made a speciality—as these pictures are fast fading, and can be greatly improved by being copied, have it done before it is too late. It does not injure a picture at all, to take copies from it, and in every case the picture will be carefully restored.

N. B. Particular attention in taking pictures of children.
