DISTRESSING ACCIDENT - On Monday of receipts for subscription for the month of last week a little son of Mr. John Friedly, aged about 5 years, met with a serious accident near Mt. Hope. It appears he was seated upon the Reaping Machine and owing to some cause fell upon the machine, by which he was frightfully mangled before the horses could be checked. Three fingers at the knuckle joints were almost entirely severed from the right hand and the left arm about three inches from the shouldar left hanging only by the skin or flesh, which was afterwards amputated. Drs. Burkholder of Quincy, and Frantz & Snively, of this place, were immediately sent for and administered to the relief of the little sufferer, who at last accounts was doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. This should serve as a warning to other carelessly disposed parents to keep their children away
