Hoofland's_German_Tonic Hooiland's Gorman Tonic is a combination of all the ingredients of the Billers, with prime Santa Cruss Rum, Orange, etc. R is used for the same diseases as the Billers, in cases whire some pure alcoholic, stimulus is required. You will bar in mind that these remedies are entroly different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are more detactions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidatly one of the most plea-gant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its tast is exputsive. R is a pleanare to take it, while its Wir-giving, exhibitarting, and medicinal qualities have gaused it to be known as the greatest of all ionics.

A TRUE CHRISTIAN .- This story - good to read in these days of business avarice - is told of Nantucket a generation ago :

It was a very severe winter, and the harbor had been frozen tour weeks. The coal in store had long been exhausted, and there was much suffering from want of fuel Even the funces had been toru down and burnt to keep up the scanty supply of wood. Fo the eye. great delight of the townspeople the ice broke up one five morning, and a schooner laden with coal was seen approaching There was much excitement, and before the vessel was moored a coal dealer boarded her and eagerly addressed the hopest Quaker shipper. Captuin Gifford, 'Well, Uap'en,' said he, 'you've about hit it this cruise.' I guess I'll to do the squar thing by an old friend, and I'll give you $12 a ton for it.' 'Friend,' said Captain Gifford. 'thee can have one ton of my coal if thee likes at $8, but only one ton, all must have a chance.' Just then one of the richest men in the place joined them, saying : 'I want ten tops of your coal at your own price-name it. I have suffered ebough for once.
