

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Friday, November 26, 1869.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Gen. Wool left an estate estimated at $700,000.

Gold rules steadily between 128 and 127. The tendency, however, is downward.

In some parts of Iowa the farmers are leading wheat to their horses, it being cheaper than oats.

Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, has arrived from Europe.

Barbours' new hotel, at Pittsfield, Mass., six stories high, was blown down on Saturday morning by a tremendous gale.

It is said that $7,000,000 of Northern capital is being expended this year in improvements in Georgia.

Wisconsin gives Governor Fairchild $131 majority, as appears from the official figures. This is nearly double his majority two years ago.

Statistics of immigration for the year ending June 30, 1869, show the total number of immigrants for the year to have been 352,569.

Thayer's circus was sold by the sheriff of Cincinnati, a few days ago. Adam Forepaugh bought the elephant for $1,800. Mike Lipman's circus was sold out by a sheriff in Virginia, last week.

Mrs. Dan. Gardner, the celebrated equestrienne, died at West Philadelphia, on the 21st ult. She was born in Bedford in 1821, and was the mother of nine children, four of whom are dead.

The difficulty between the students attending the Philadelphia medical college and the managers of the Pennsylvania Hospital, arising out of the attendance of young ladies at the clinics of the latter institution, are at an end, and the petticoats have come out ahead.

Bornard Kane, the switch tender whose negligence caused the recent horrible accident and slaughter on the Western Pacific Railroad, has been arrested and will be tried.

On Saturday the Treasury Department had on hand one hundred and eight million dollars in gold. Secretary Boutwell has purchased this month nine millions of bonds to be applied to the reduction of the debt. The next monthly report will show a further decrease of five or six million dollars of the debt.

MURDER.—The last Bedford County Press says: A man whose name we were not able to learn, living near Dudley, in the Broadtop region, inhumanly murdered his son on last Thursday evening. He had been on a spree and returning home in the evening, fell to abusing his wife. The son interfered and put the old man out of the house, but he regained admittance, and on entering struck the boy, knocking him down, and immediately setting upon him with a stone, beat his brains out. He was arrested and taken to Huntingdon on Friday. This is the second murder that has been committed on Broadtop within the past two months.

The great event on the other side of the Atlantic last week was the opening of the famous Suez Canal, connecting the waters of the Mediterranean and the Red Seas.—This great work, exceeding in magnitude any undertaking of modern times, was commenced ten years ago, and has now been completed, at a cost of $55,000,000 in gold.—Some idea of the extent of the work may be formed from the fact that the canal is 100 miles in length and has an average width of 328 feet the depth of water being 26 feet. The opening of this great artificial highway across the Isthmus will be the saving of thousands of miles of travel, and its importance to the commerce of the world it is impossible to estimate. Its effect upon the hitherto neglected and desolate region through which it passes is already manifest, the population of the Isthmus, which ten years ago was less than 200, now numbering 50,000 people. By the opening of this great thoroughfare, the voyage from the English Channel to the East Indies is five thousand miles shorter than it was before.

Morrow and Dougherty, the two assassins hired by the Whiskey Ring to murder Revenue Officer Brooks in Philadelphia some two months since, on Saturday were brought into Court, and the attempts of their employers having failed to release them, they received the final sentence. They were condemned to pay a fine of one thousand dollars each and be imprisoned for seven years. The result of the trial is generally accepted as a triumph of justice over the powerful and corrupt combination known as the Whiskey Ring.

In the city court or Baltimore the Central Railroad Company was mulct in seven thousand dollars for the use of the wife and four children of Michael Beck, who was killed on the road by being run over by a train of cars.

A man in Virginia stabbed his wife seventy times without killing her, and now regrets it in the penitentiary.

Potatoes are so cheap in Iowa that many acres are left untag.

CLOVERSEED WANTED.—At the store of J. Elden, in Waynesboro'.

Messrs. Price & Hoeflich will receive their second supply of new goods next week. Drop in and see the latest styles.

DEDICATION.—The M. E. Church at Smithsburg, Md., will be dedicated on the 12th day of December next.

Mr. Geo. Stoler offers for sale a house and lot of ground on Leitersburg street.—See advertisement.

At Work.—Numbers of our farmers are still husking corn. The crop, generally, has proved an abundant one, and thousands of barrels are yet in the shock.

SOLD.—Mr. John Walter recently sold his house and lot of ground on Main street, for the sum of $5,000. Purchasers, Geo. Middour, and Martin Geiser.

DEER SHOT.—A deer weighing one hundred and fifty pounds was shot one morning last week, on the mountain, near Caledonia Iron Works.

FAIR.—The Ladies of Leitersburg will hold a Fair, to commence on the 11th of December, the proceeds of which is to be appropriated for the purchase of a set of new instruments for the Leitersburg Band.

COLLECTOR.—John H. Herr is authorized to receive and receipt for sums due this office. All accounts placed in his hands if not promptly paid are to be collected with costs.

We invite special attention to the advertisement of Mr. John Lantz, of the "Washington House," Chambersburg. Persons visiting Chambersburg will find him a clever landlord and his house a pleasant stopping place.

FAIR CLOSED.—The Ladies' Fair in the Basement of the new Lutheran Church was closed with an Oyster Supper on Monday evening last. We understand the proceeds of the Fair amounts to about seven hundred dollars. This sum is creditable, the pressure in money matters considered.

FOUND DEAD.—Some time ago the body of an individual was found in this vicinity. After due investigation it was found that death was caused by eating rat poison bought at the "Corner Drug." All that could be learned of the name of said individual is that it was a Mr. R. A. T.

AROUND.—The man with the "white hat" and the jolly old chap who viewed the late eclipse of the sun through "smoked tin" met the other day in the vicinity of the Brew House. Of their confab we have had no report.

TALKED OF.—The employment of several police officers to keep rowdiness in subjection. A rigid enforcement of the laws would better subserve the end in view than the employment of a dozen of policemen. Let our authorities do their duty and spare citizens any further taxation on account of loafers and bad boys.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mrs. John Blinbaugh, of Funkstown, fell on the ice in front of her house, on the 12th inst., seriously fracturing her thigh. Drs. H. Bahrman and I. N. Snively were summoned to her relief and from last accounts she was doing reasonably well.

SOLD.—The Brew House property of Mr. Fourthman, of this place, for several weeks announced for sale on the 4th of December, was last week sold privately to Mr. A. D. Gordon for the sum of $4,000. Mr. G. gets possession of the Brewery on the first of January. His intention is to improve the property and continue the business more extensively.

The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph will be furnished during the session of the Legislature at $1.50. It gives all the proceedings of importance and a good portion of the debates. The Weekly Telegraph will be furnished during the session at 50 cents—or $1.50 a year. The Telegraph is one of the best papers in the State. Address Geo. Berger & Co., publishers.

ARRIVED.—Dr. P. Fahrney, of Chicago, Ill., arrived yesterday. The Dr. is engaged in an extensive business. He has been called here to make engagements with capitalists who purpose forming a stock company for the sale of Fahrney's PANACEA. His friends and acquaintances will be glad to meet him after an absence from our country of about five years. The PANACEA is a medicine that sells readily. We use it in our family.

Wells' Pheonological Journal for December, contains interesting Sketches and Delineations, with Portraits of Liebig, the eminent Chemist, Hugh Allan, the Canadian merchant; the Earl of Derby, Charles II, of England; besides illustrated articles on the Temperaments; Education; Living Ghosts; Salem Witchcraft; Jephthah's Daughter; Valedictory, Our Experiences; The Holidays and What they Suggest; Serious Fun; The Harbor of Shanghai and its Shipping; Ramie, the new Staple; Music, etc. Price 30 cents; by the year $3. The 50th volume, in a new form, begins with the January number. Subscribe now. Address S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.—An attempt was made on Sunday night to fire the store of Mr. John Ray in Mercersburg. This is the store that was owned by Mr. James C. Patton.

The store room was entered at the back door. A desk standing near the door was opened and a bottle filled with kerosene, containing a wick at the mouth, with a burning candle attached, was placed in the desk.—Mr. Patton lives in the house but was at church at the time. Fortunately the ladies in the house heard some noise, and on going down stairs, found the store door open.—One of the clerks came in soon afterwards, and whilst discussing the manner of the door having been opened, a light was noticed in the desk and the bottle described was discovered. Nothing was destroyed, but the desk lid was considerably charred. Mr. Patton's Books as well as Mr. Ray's Ledger were in the desk at the time. We had hoped that this infernal business had been broken up, but it seems that there are still some scoundrels at large in that neighborhood who openly defy the law as well as the already outraged people of that community.—Spirits.

FRACASES.—On Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., the Ladies' Fair in the Basement of the new Lutheran Church, in this place, was the scene of riotous and disgraceful conduct. Mr. G. W. McGinley who was there for the purpose of preserving order, succeeded in getting the "belligerents" out of the room. In his efforts to do so one more vicious than the others drew a knife upon him. We understand several stones were thrown, but fortunately the door was closed in time to receive them, otherwise parties inside might have been seriously injured.

On the following evening, Franklin Wengly was attacked on the street, near his father's residence, by five or six young men, and roughly handled for a time, receiving several severe bruises about the head and face. The assault upon Mr. W. was made, it is alleged, on account of certain expressions made in the Fair the night previous. In both cases arrests have been made, and the parties held under bail for their appearance at court. Such conduct is disreputable in the extreme and for the sake of the morals of our community should not go unwhipped of justice.

The Cambria Freeman, of the 11th inst., says that a horrible affair occurred in Prospect borough, that county, on Thursday last. During the absence of the parents of a family residing there, two little children, boy and girl, possessed themselves of a jug of liquor, an article which the father and mother are said to deem essential to their comfort, and both children drank until they were utterly, helplessly intoxicated, and notwithstanding the efforts of physicians called in, the boy died in a few hours and the little girl was in a critical condition at last accounts. What a terrible crime directly chargeable on an inordinate appetite for liquor, the predominant passion for these unfortunate, guilty parents! God pity them, and awaken them to a realization of their lamentable condition.

VILLAINOUS CONDUCT.—We learn that on the evening of Thanksgiving Day two besotted, God-forsaken wretches, named Frank Kurtz and Sites, entered the United Brethren Church in Quincy, and after grossly insulting the minister and congregation, took a drink from a bottle which they had in their possession. Retiring a short distance from the church they threw a stone through a window, striking a child lying in bed. Kurtz was promptly arrested and lodged in Fort Fletcher. Parties went in pursuit of Sites, but at last accounts had failed to overhail him. We trust he may yet be taken, and with his accomplice, receive the punishment due such dastardly conduct.

The Franklin County Teachers' Institute will meet in the Court House, Chambersburg, on Monday, December 6th, at 1 o'clock P. M. Prof. Bailey, of Yale College, will be present the entire week. Prof. Heiges, of York, will also be in attendance during the sessions of the Institute. Prof. Jack, of Westmoreland County, is expected. Several other gentlemen of ability will assist in rendering the Institute interesting and instructive. Thursday will be devoted to the discussion of such subjects as will be likely to interest Directors. A full turnout of teachers is expected. Directors and friends of education are invited to attend.

Arrangements have been made with the different Hotels to board those in attendance at reduced rates.

A Stormy Autumn, "the oldest inhabitant" says, may be followed by a comparatively mild winter. However this may be, we have certainly since the middle of September had a remarkably stormy autumn—the most destructive in its floods and winds throughout the States, of any on record.—The elements having thus expended their wrath in September, October and November, there is some reason for the theory that the winter months will be comparatively mild. At all events we hope so.

Secretary Stanton's health continues a matter of solicitude to his friends. He is able to ride out, but not able to attend to the duties of his profession.

EXCITING SCENE IN COURT.—The Bedford Inquirer says: Some time ago Wm. Y. Taylor, at the instance of Mary Jane Keating, was convicted of seduction, the result of which was imprisonment and fine, the first of which he served in the county jail, and for the second he served in the penitentiary. On Monday, in Court, while the authorities were effecting an arrangement regarding the plea of insolvency, the plaintiff signified a desire to speak to the defendant, which he granted, and walking across the room to where she was, stooped down to kiss what she had to say, when in the twinkling of an eye, she dashed an ounce of vitriol, which she had in a tin cup, in his face. Part of it fell into her child's face, burning it badly. The defendant screamed, plaintiff fainted, and the court room was all uproar and excitement, no one knowing what the matter really was, some supposing defendant had been stabbed. Judge King ordered the plaintiff arrested and sent to jail. Defendant was sent to Dr. Marbourg's office and the child to Dr. Beamer's office, for medical attention. At last accounts both parties were improving very rapidly.

NO TIME TO BE LOST.—The attention of all interested is directed to the following important item: Soldiers who enlisted for three years before July 18, 1864, and received only $100 bounty, are entitled, they or their widows, children under 21, or parents (if not already collected) to the $200 additional bounty. All such soldiers discharged before serving two years, for injuries of any kind, including rapture (not disease), are entitled, they or their widows, or heirs (if not collected) to $200 bounty. Soldiers for three years who were discharged before serving two years, for disability—sickness or disease—contracted in the service, who have died of said disability or disease, their widows, children under 21 or parents, are entitled to the $100 additional bounty, although the soldier himself, if living, would not be entitled. As the time for filing such claims will expire on the first of December, 1869, we advise those entitled to make their claims at once.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A few weeks ago a boy about 12 years of age was found wandering on the streets of Wheeling, W. Va. His sad condition excited the pity of a gentleman, of that place, who upon questioning the lad learned that he was from Chambersburg, Pa.—that he had been stolen from that place some five years ago by a Circus Company—that the boy's name is Charles W. Brown—his father's name Obadiah Brown—that he lived on the same farm with a man named Isaac Stake, somewhere in the neighborhood of Chambersburg. The parties having the boy in their care are very anxious to find the parents, or other friends of the boy, that he may be returned to them.

UNDISCOVERED.—Up to this time the robbery of Mr. Ruth's shoe store remains a mystery, nor has Mr. Abm. Snowberger received any information of his horse stolen on Wednesday night of last week. A wagon and harness were taken that night from Mr. John Price, of this vicinity. The supposition is that the same party took the wagon and harness. Vagrants who stroll over the country should be watched closely, for, generally speaking, their mission is to pilfer.

MURDER NEAR HUNTINGDON PA.—HUNTINGDON, Pa., Nov. 18.—A murder, equaling in atrocity any known in the annals of crime, was committed near Pleasant Grove, in this county, between six and seven o'clock last evening. The victims were John Peightal, his wife Sarah, and Scott Garner, the latter a boy of ten or twelve years of age. They were sitting at supper when attacked. Mr. Peightal and young Garner were shot through the head and instantly killed. Mrs. Peightal was also shot, though not fatally, and was despatched with an axe or hatchet. The perpetrators of the crime, after plundering the house and stealing the money belonging to the family, in coin and greenbacks, covered the dead bodies with bedding and clothes, to which they applied a match, and fled. Upon the discovery of the crime, suspicion at once rested upon two men who had been seen in the neighborhood during the day. A messenger was sent to this place, who ascertained that two persons answering the description had taken the night train West. He telegraphed to Altoona, and soon after the arrival of the train there he received intelligence of their arrest. They were brought here at noon to-day. They were recognized by a number of witnesses as the men who had been lurking around the residence. The sum of one hundred and seventy dollars, a part in gold, was found on their persons. It is supposed the balance of the money is concealed near the scene of the murder. These men are Germans, Oliver Hadenburg, and Gotlieb Bohner, alias Chan Moore. The latter was convicted here about three years ago of larceny, and served his term in the penitentiary. Hadenburg has made a partial confession. But without this witness, the evidence is sufficient to convict. Their attempt to burn the house did not succeed. But the smoke and light attracted the notice of persons, and led to the quick discovery of the crime. In the examination of the prisoners, Albert Van Bordenberg was observed not to speak plainly, and being asked the reason, said he had tobacco in his mouth. He was asked to spit it out, and on refusing, he was taken by the back of the neck and shaken violently, when twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents in gold fell from his mouth, one twenty, one five, and one two-and-a-half pieces.

New Orleans offers for competition a lively darkey, 118 years old, who began as a pirate and is now a dock-rat.

DELAWARE WHIPPING DAY.—New Castle, Del., November 20.—Five men, named Edward Smith, Andrew Chambers, George Jackson, James Gordon and Joseph Darms were publicly flogged in the jail yard, at this place, to-day.

The following is a list of persons flogged, together with a specification of the crimes for which they were convicted, and the full sentence in each case: Edward Smith, a colored man, for committing a scandalous assault upon a child, was placed in the pillory for four hours, and then whipped with thirty lashes on the bare back until the blood ran.—Besides this punishment he has yet to pay a fine of $500 and suffer an imprisonment of ten years.

Andrew Chambers, convicted of stealing money from an employee of the Philadelphia Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, was whipped with twenty lashes upon his back, and then placed in jail to serve an imprisonment of one year, and pay restitution money and costs. The sum stolen was eight or nine dollars.

George W. Jackson, a negro, found guilty of stealing 600 pounds of rags from Jessup & Moore, was flogged with twenty lashes, which drew blood. The rest of his sentence is that he shall be imprisoned six months, pay restitution money, costs of prosecution, and wear a convict's dress six months after his release.

James Gordon, a negro, was whipped with twenty lashes, well laid on, for having stolen a pair of shoes worth about four dollars.—Besides this, he will be imprisoned for six months and compelled to wear a convict's dress in public six months after his discharge.

A black man named Joseph Darms was whipped with twenty lashes upon his bare back, drawing the blood, for having stolen a cow. He will also have to pay $150 restitution money, the costs of prosecution, suffer imprisonment for one year, and wear a convict's dress six months after his release.

THE LIVER.—Its office is to separate impurities from the life current, the blood, and to secrete bile. How apparent the necessity for health's sake is the proper performance of its functions. If diseased, it cannot purify the blood which, if sent to the lungs, brain and every part of the system, in a morbid condition, will produce jaundice, insanity, consumption, etc., etc.; and by withholding the stimulus from the intestines, produces dyspepsia piles and many other disorders.—Delicate females and weak children are made strong by the use of the constitution Bitters. In fact, they are a family medicine; they can be given to the child of three months old, the indisposed female, or a person of three score and ten.
