In Loudon, this County, March 14th, Mr. JAMES KREPPER, aged 21 years, 6 months past sesson, will commence a subscription and 8 days. Our young friend grew up in school at the Western School House, on this place, and was remarkable for his good Monday the 14th inst. Mr. F. has had as and manly appearance, his active mind, and bout twelve years experienced at teaching his even and regular habits. Some two or three years ago, he spent some time at school in Mercersburg, and then located himself in at Millersville, and has a first class certificate business at Pitsburg. Leaving the last named from the Secretary of the School Board - place, he returned to Waynesboro'. On a For further information apply at this office visit to Loudon with a friend, he was taken with a severe attack of Pneumonia with Brain-fever, which in the scope of ten or twelve days, ended in death. During his illness, he was visited by the Rev. A. M. Whetstone of Mercersburg; who learned his spiritual condition, and finding him convicted of sin and anxious to obtain favor with God before he should stand fa his presence; he was pointed to Christ the Savior of all, and was enabled to venture upon the great Redeemer. He expressed, of his accord, his desire to unite with the Evangelical Lutheran Church; he was accordingy admitted by Confirmation and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

His remains were brought to Waynesboro' and interred in the Lutheran burying ground, after an impressive sermon by the Rev. Mr. Whetstone, his spiritual adviser. He leaves an affectionate mother, sister, and other friends to mourn his early death .- It seems hard that one so young and full of promise, should be cut down, but God's ways are not as our ways. He dooth all things well. We have hope in the death of our young friend, but would seek to warn all the young, and others against delay in the great work of preparation or death.

Death calls my friends, my neighbors hence And more resist the fatal dart: Continual warnings strike my sense And shall they fail to strike my heart ?

O teach me some celestial skill, Each swill warning to improve; And, while my days are short ning still, Prepare me for the joys above. В.
