

VILLAGE RECORD.
WAYNESBORO.
Thursday April 21, 1870.

Congress has appropriated three or four millions for the completion of Post Offices in New York and Boston.

Benjamin Deford, one of the oldest and best known of Baltimore business men, died suddenly on Sunday afternoon last.

A freight train was thrown off the track near Rochester, on Friday, killing the engineer and forty head of cattle.

The trial of McFarland at New York for the shooting of Richardson is still progressing.

Medina, Ohio, a town of some 3,000 inhabitants, is said to have been nearly destroyed by fire a few days since.

Mr. Julian has introduced the Sixteenth Amendment into Congress, which provides for female suffrage.

The steamer Raven exploded her boilers at Cincinnati, on Friday night, the death of fourteen persons being caused by the accident.

A five-year old boy, son of Hilleary McPherson, of Frederick, Md., recently fell head foremost into a dry well about forty feet deep, and strange to say, received only a few slight scratches about the head.

A number of prominent ladies, among them Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Dahlgren, of Washington, have organized an Anti-Woman Suffrage Association, and will send a memorial to Congress against the proposed Sixteenth Amendment.

It is denied from Pottsville that the operators of the coal mines in that neighborhood are to resume work, and, it is said that they are determined to resist the demand of the miners.

This is called a Colorado romance. Seven miners, exploring the mountains, found an enormous chunk of gold. They fought for its possession till all were killed but one. It was too heavy for him to carry off, so he sat down beside it and starved to death.

We learn from the Lancaster Intelligencer that at the election in Columbia, on Saturday, the town hall project was carried by a very decided majority. The negroes voted along with the whites, without any serious manifestation. This is the first instance of negro voting in the State of Pennsylvania, under the Fifteenth Amendment.

The House Territorial Committee have decided to recommend that New Mexico be admitted into the Union. The bill reported by the Committee will require the new-fledged State to make liberal provision for the education of its children.

A remarkable marriage took place at Galesburg, Ill., last week. The parties were Samuel R. Crosley, of New York, aged 83, and Mrs. Amanda Hurd, of Galesburg, aged 81. They were engaged at the age of 18 and 16 respectively, but broke their troth and since then have each followed two companions to the grave.

In the U. S. Senate on Friday Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to simplify and reduce the rate of postage, to abolish the franking privilege, to limit the cost of carrying the mails and to regulate the payment of postage. This bill, which is to be moved as a substitute for the pending bill to abolish the franking privilege, makes a reduction of the postage to one cent for half ounce letters, and substitutes for the franking privilege a system of stamped envelopes. The bill was ordered printed and placed on the calendar.

Says the Loudoun Republican, that arch apostate Andrew Johnson, having learned that the American people have adopted, and engrained the 15th amendment into their organic law, in despite of his opposition to it, has made up his mind to leave the country in disgust, to spend some of his remaining days, among the despots of Europe. Of him it may be appropriately said—"He leaves his country, for his country's good."

Dr. Chandler, chemist of New York board of health, has been investigating the composition of the hair tonics, washes for the complexion, etc., which the fair sex are so liberal in using for the improvement of their beauty. He finds that nearly all the so-called hair restoratives contain lead in solution, in quantities varying from one to sixteen grains to the fluid ounce, rendering them sure and deadly poisons. The lotions for the complexion are mostly free from injurious metals. Enamels for the skin are composed sometimes of white lead, in which case they are poisonous, but usually of oxide of zinc, or some other white substance in the form of a powder mingled with water. The dry powders for the skin are chalk, carbonate of magnesia, and white clay. It is hardly necessary to add that persons who use these preparations do so at a great risk of their health.

It is said that dandies, fops, swells, and heart-robbers (!) part their hair in the middle, while men continue to part theirs on the side.

Somebody thinks the past winter was like sleeping through in a bed, because it was warmest in the middle.

LOCAL MATTERS.

FOR SALE.—A second-handed Ironsides Cook Stove, No. 8, with fixtures, intended for either coal or wood. Not a break about it. Will be sold cheap. Apply to the Printer.

Garden Seeds at Ambersons'.

Clocks at Leeds'.

Four Shad at Reid's for $1.00.

The white washing season is at hand.

ON A STRIKE.—The workmen on the Mercersburg Railroad. So rumor has it.

Young man, get your picture at Brackbill's.

Saturday was the last day of Lent.—A fall in the price of fish may be anticipated.

The growing crop of wheat is looking well.

COMING.—Messrs. Stover and Wolf will receive their first supply of new spring and summer goods next week.

Our neighbors, right and left, are improving their properties, by adding back buildings, business rooms, etc.

We commend our patrons in town and vicinity wanting teeth extracted or inserted to Dr. Branishols, Dentist.

LECTURE.—Mr. J. Everist Cothell will deliver a Temperance Lecture in the M. E. Church this (Thursday) evening. The public are cordially invited to attend.

LIME.—Hess & Bro. of this vicinity have another kind of fresh wood burnt lime on hand for whitewashing, plastering, etc.—See advertisement.

TO THE LADIES.—Mrs. C. L. Hollinberger has returned from the East with her usual supply of new Millinery Goods. Advertisement next week.

TAXES.—J. Logan Kennedy, Deputy Treasurer, will visit this place on the 4th and 5th days of May. Tax-payers, get your "stamps" ready.

Preaching in the Methodist Episcopal Church on next Sunday (April 24,) morning and evening. Subject—The Witness of the Spirit.

RELIGIOUS.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning next, preparatory services to commence on to-morrow (Friday) evening.

We invite attention to the advertisement of J. Hurtman, who has opened a Saddler Shop at Pikesville. He is an industrious young man and should be patronized.

The McLain & Hooper Sewing Machine is a first class Machine, warranted perfect in every respect and the simplest machine made. For sale by Alex. Leeds.

GONE.—Capt. J. C. Patton, of Mercersburg, has located with his family at Day View, Wisconsin, about two miles from Milwaukee, where he purposes continuing the mercantile business.

Some of our public alleys are just now in a shocking condition. Does not the duty of having them cleansed of filth devolve on somebody? The High Constable does not even remove dead carcasses, such as rats, cats, chickens, etc.

Our neighbor, Rinehart, is fitting up a model business room. Architect, Andrew Wilson, "Boss Painter," Capt. Morganthall. The work speaks well for these veteran mechanics.

DECEASED.—Mr. Wm. Frazier, a well known citizen of Hagerstown, recently expired at his residence in that place, in the 70th year of his age. He had long served this town in the capacity of constable or police officer, and was a terror to evil doers.

FIRE.—We learn from the Hagerstown Free Press that the store of Z. T. Jones, at Fairview, on the Mercersburg and Broad Fording road, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning of last week with its contents, a fine stock of goods and the proprietor's account books, etc. Loss about $3,000—partially insured. Supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

WATER TABLES.—We direct special attention to the Ordinance passed by the Borough Council, in reference to water tables, to be found in our advertising columns.—The Council are determined to enforce this ordinance, and we advise property holders, those on Church street especially, to be on the look out.

THE WEATHER.—A rain and wind storm of more than ordinary severity prevailed here on Sunday last, the weather continuing cloudy with occasional showers up to Tuesday morning, which has had the effect to improve in appearance both grain and grass fields. The wheat fields have seldom presented a more promising appearance at this stage of the season.

THE JUBILEE.—The celebration in honor of the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment is to take place in Chambersburg and Greencastle on the 26th instant. Hon. D. W. Rowe and S. Wilson Hays Esq., are to be the orators at Greencastle, and Lyman S. Clarke and John Stewart Esqs., will address the people in Chambersburg.

THE NEW GAME LAW.—The following bill passed both Houses of the Legislature just before the adjournment. It would be well for those interested in the law to preserve this paper. The new act is entitled "A Supplement to an Act providing for the taking of Game."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c. That from and after the passage of this act, no person within the counties of Adams, York and Franklin shall kill, capture, take or have in his or her possession, any Woodcock, between the first day of September and the twentieth day of June, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every bird so killed, or had in possession, or exposed for sale.

SECTION 2. That no person shall kill, capture, take or have in his or her possession, any Quail or Virginia Partridge, for the period of three years, under a penalty of ten dollars for each and every bird so killed, or had in possession, or exposed for sale. Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent individuals or associations for the protection, preservation and propagation of game, from gathering alive, by nets or traps, Quails or Virginia Partridges, for the sole purpose of preserving them alive over the winter, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

SECTION 3. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

A subscriber at Hagerstown sends us the following note:

Dear Sir—We have just returned from the P. O. this Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, and our Village Record has not arrived. I don't know why it should take 5 days to carry it about 12 miles. We don't like our news to become old and stale, like fish in hot weather, without salt or ice, before we get it. Can you not have it sent over in a shorter time? If it cannot be sent in less time we will have to dispense with it and have some person to tell us the news every Tuesday.

Yours, &c.

The package is regularly mailed here on Thursday evening and should reach Hagerstown the next day, Friday. The fault is not with this office nor with our Post Master, but we think with the Railroad party having in charge the mail matter at Greencastle.—We have arranged our packages for that direction in such a way that the delay complained of, we think, will be obviated in the future.

LOCATED.—The Hanover Spectator thus highly compliments a former citizen of this place:

"Our esteemed friend and townsman, Dr. Samuel K. Sively, who left here a few weeks ago has located we learn, at Williamsport, Md., for the practice of his profession. The Dr. is a genial and capital fellow; a skillful and experienced physician, and will undoubtedly soon build up for himself an extensive and lucrative practice. His host of friends here parted with him very reluctantly, and the citizens of Williamsport can congratulate themselves upon securing his skillful services. The Doctor has our best wishes for his future success and prosperity."

LADY'S FRIEND.—The May number of this Magazine is a beautiful one, and breathing of the Spring. Its large, double FASHION PLATE is as fresh and richly colored as a tulip bed—and we observe that this magazine is often one and even two months ahead of its contemporaries in the fashions. Then there is a beautiful cottage scene, "THE RETURN OF THE SWALLOWS," and another appropriate engraving called "GATHERING SNOWDROPS." The literary matter of this Magazine is always of a superior character. The stories this month are both varied and absorbing. The ladies will be also pleased with the patterns for Spring costumes, and the varieties for the work-table. And the editorials, being written by a lady for ladies, are particularly attractive. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia. Price $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). Four copies, $6. Five copies (and one gratis), $8.

MUSIC.—Since the advent of pleasant evenings our Band has been out on several occasions affording treats to those of our citizens who enjoy music. The members are persevering young men and give evidence of material improvement since last fall. With continued practice they promise to excel as musicians. Our boasted Band of many years ago, composed of a Crouse, Fisher, Rohrer, Dysett and others, combined, perhaps, less natural musical talent. On the part of the present organization practice only is wanting.

The Fahreny Panacea Company of this place, is doing a flourishing business. We understand they have already disposed of between five and six thousand boxes of their medicine and that the demand for it is increasing. They recently purchased the great South Western Circus Wagon which is now being remodelled for their use.

Some villain entered the residence of Dr. Morris Bailey, in Titusville, Wednesday evening, and proceeding to the bedchamber deliberately cut off Mrs. Bailey's hair, which was long, dark and luxuriant, in tresses, falling upon her shoulders. The outrage was not discovered until the return of the Doctor later in the evening. He offers a reward of $150 for the detection of the author of the outrage.

NEW STORE.—Messrs Brown & Walter of the Mt. Hope store will receive a stock of new goods about the first of next week.—Advertisement in next issue.

See notice by C. N. Shrader.

ATTEMPT TO RAVISH.—On Saturday night last, a daring attempt to commit an outrageous crime was made in Montgomery township. Two young ladies had gone from the farm of Mr. James Wetherspoon to Upton in a buggy and, on their return home, when within about 200 yards of the residence of Wm. Adams Esq. between eight and nine o'clock, one of them was seized by a man's hand from behind. Frightened, she sprang out of the buggy, and ran, and a man pursued her. The other lady sprang out also and ran in an opposite direction. The ruffian for some reason, desisted from the pursuit of the first, returned to the buggy and followed the second. He caught her, threw her upon the ground, and attempted to accomplish his heinous purpose, but by this time, the loud screams of both ladies had attracted the attention of Mr. Adams and other neighbors who hurried towards the spot. The sound hearing their approaching, thought it prudent to take to his heels and struck through one of the adjoining fields. The night was pretty dark, and the ladies did not recognize the man who assaulted them. But they observed his dress particularly. A young man named Samuel Rohrer was arrested on Sunday, and lodged in jail on Monday morning charged with having committed the offence.—V. Spirit.

LEARN YOUR BOYS A TRADE.—To master any one thing requires time, attention, industry and perseverance. Twenty-two years ago Updegraff the Hatter was put as an apprentice to the Hat trade, by perseverance he has added to his knowledge until he has mastered the business successfully, understands the ins and outs and knows a thing or two about Hats. It is estimated that he has manufactured and sold over 100,000 Hats, and if a search were instituted it is doubtful if a dozen purchasers were found who could say they had not received full value for their money or that any of their Hats proved otherwise than represented. The cause of this great success is the fact he has learned the business and by experience can tell the value of a Hat as soon as he lays hands on it, hence he knows how it will wear, how much to pay for it and how much to charge his customer to give him satisfaction. He is now in the cities selecting Spring and Summer stock and we feel sure the public will appreciate our effort to put money in their pockets when we advise them to buy their Hats at Updegraff's opposite the Washington House.—They continue to manufacture all kinds of Gloves including their celebrated Dog Skin Gloves.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL AND PACKARD'S MONTHLY for May contains the following articles, many of which are illustrated: Hon. Samuel Merrill, Governor of Iowa, with portrait and character; Knowing, or Man and the World; The Man in the Moon; Superstitions of different Tribes and Nations; Sketches from China; The Color of his Eyes, Mark M. Pomeroy; Peter Crisp's Spectacles; Charles P. Sykes; Eminent Engravers; Yale Sketches; Growing in Grace; Honesty; An Assassin; and his Victim—Prince Pierre Bonaparte and Victor Noir. "I Can't for the Boys," Young Womanhood in America, Eleanor Kirk at the Five Points, To Dahomey and Back, Surnames and their Derivations, etc. Price 30 cents, or $3 a year.—Address, S. R. WELLS, No. 389 Broadway, New York. The Christian Union says: "Any body who refuses to examine the PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL from a notion of its being scientifically heretic, is inflicting no small privation on himself. The Phrenological element aside, there is no American publication more strongly characterized by shrewd, incisive, workaday common sense. Its hints for living, alone, and the care of health, could not well fail in the first instance to abate the Doctor's bill to its minimum, and ultimately to promote the longevity of the observant reader, and this at the cost of a small outlay which the present pleasure of perusal more than repays."

THE FOURTEENTH OF APRIL.—The Buffalo Express says: "To-day is the anniversary of the saddest tragedy in American history, the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. Five years have passed since that terrible event fell upon us in the midst of the triumphant rejoicings of victory and changed our exaltation into sickening horror and grief. It does not seem so long—recollection of the pang is still so vivid and intense. And yet it will seem to have been more than a brief five years, when we are reminded to-day of what has accomplished itself since Abraham Lincoln died. In his latest consciousness the Emancipator never dreamed that half a decade would witness the fruition of the liberty which he gave to the enslaved race, and see them, no longer the wards of the Republic, but enfranchised citizens—equal co-partners in its rights and privileges and destinies and hopes. The shrewd eye of Abraham Lincoln's faith never discerned that near consummation, which seemed so far five years ago. Yet to-day, the fulfillment of equal freedom is celebrated by those to whom it has come, with thank offerings laid tenderly upon Lincoln's grave. What commemoration so noble can this solemn anniversary ever have again!"

Our Devil says the wretch who can stand in a pair of slippers worked for him by his wife, and scold her, is a brute who deserves to have the goat in both feet.

Robert Dale, a clerk in the Baltimore postoffice, has been sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for four years for stealing letters from that office.

A jealous young man in New Albany, Indiana, climbed upon a fence, the other night, to peep in a window and see what gentleman was visiting his intended. He was mistaken for a burglar, shot and killed.

Love Turned to Hate.

A young lady who has been staying the past few weeks with the family of Governor Randolph, at Morristown, New Jersey, was attacked recently by a young man from Brooklyn, who made a desperate attempt to kill her. The affair has created intense excitement among those who have heard the circumstances, and inquiries regarding the cause of the young man's animosity have developed the following facts, which show that the course of fashionable courtship does not always run smooth:

A few months ago the young lady—whose name is withheld for obvious reasons—was engaged to be married to the would-be murderer, and received his visits at her father's house in Brooklyn, where the wedding was to take place. The father of the lady is a man of great wealth, and of a high position in society, in the highest circles of which the expectant bridegroom also moved. The former was a General in the Union army during the late war, and bears a name eminent for military services. During the engagement, and even up to two days before the time at which the marriage was to take place, the engaged couple were to all appearances supremely happy, receiving the congratulations of their friends, who gave unnumbered valuable presents to the lady. The General was not less attentive to his daughter's happiness. Apartments were fitted up under the paternal roof—the furnishing of which cost $6,000—for the young couple, whose monograms marked every piece of the rich furniture. Elaborate preparations were made for the wedding, invitations were issued, and no one for a moment entertained a doubt of its fulfillment. Two days before the day fixed upon the young lady discovered that her promised husband, although a man of excellent family and high reputation, was a libertine—a person with whom she could not consent to trust her happiness.—She immediately broke the engagement in the face of all that scandal could say concerning the strange termination of the wedding arrangements, and ordered her suitor never to appear before her again. But he did appear, begging her to marry him. Upon her repeated refusal, and the scornful words which she is said to have used towards him, he attempted to stab her in her father's house. She escaped, and being again threatened with death at his hands, she left the city secretly, telling only her parents her destination, and went to Morristown to visit the family of Governor Randolph—Her suitor, by some means, learned her whereabouts and presented himself at the door of the Governor's mansion a few days since, demanding admission. Having seen him approaching, the lady gave orders to bar the doors, and he found his efforts to obtain entrance fruitless. Then he attempted to break the doors, and finally, it is stated, fired at the lady through the window. He is said to have been seen since this occurrence, lying in wait for her near the house, and a guard has been stationed in the grounds to capture him if he makes another appearance.

A BOY'S HEAD BLOWN OFF.—A horrible affair occurred early on Tuesday evening at New Castle, Lawrence county, Pennsylvania, by which a boy named John Clelendin, about fourteen years of age, came to a sudden and frightful death. During the afternoon the boy's parents went away for awhile, leaving only him about the premises. They returned between 5 and 6 o'clock, and the boy was not to be seen anywhere about. They felt somewhat alarmed, and searched the house. At length they visited the garret, and there they found him lying on the floor with his blood and brains scattered all about, and the entire top and back of his head blown off. Near him on the floor lay a shotgun, which had evidently been the instrument of his death. It is supposed that the boy had been handling the gun without knowing that it was loaded, and after throwing back the hammer had put the muzzle in his mouth to blow through the barrel. By some means the hammer fell and the gun was discharged. The feelings of the parents on making the terrible discovery may be imagined.

EFFECTS OF A LIGHTNING STROKE.—During a severe thunder storm on the 29th ult., the residence of Dr. George B. Smith, near Nonvolence, Ga., was struck by lightning, and the entire family prostrated and stunned by the shock. To those who first recovered an appalling spectacle presented itself. There lay the head of the house with his neck broken, a lifeless corpse, while the mother and two of her little ones were grievously injured and blackened by the fluid.—To add to the horrors of the scene, in an instant the entire dwelling was wrapped in flames, and almost before the dead and suffering could be removed to a place of safety, the whole pile was consumed, and a smoking ruin is all that remained of the pleasant home of that happy family.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The condition of the Mississippi river is very alarming. The thawing of the immense amount of snow in the north has raised the water to the highest point ever known, and the river spreads out in some places over six miles. At St. Paul the rise is 20 or 25 feet. Telegraph poles have been swept away, lumber yards submerged, and railroad embankments endangered, from St. Paul to St. Louis. At Quincy the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad is under water and the trains are stopped. The weather is clear, and the water must soon subside.

Although the population of New York city is estimated at a million, the real estate holders number only about fifteen thousand. Nine hundred and eighty-five persons out of every thousand, therefore, occupy hired property.

A Mrs. Lynch has been placed in durance vile in Norristown. She was arrested for the offence of telling the citizens of Pottstown her fortunes.

At the election at Jacksonville, Monday, the colored vote stood, republican, 149, democratic, 1. One old gray haired colored man was heard to exclaim exultingly, after depositing his ballot, "I've lived in dis world fifty-five years, and am just twenty-one years old to-day."

At the M. E. Parsonage, in Middletown Logan Co., Ill., on the 9th inst., after a severe illness of several months, Mrs. MARY BURKETT, formerly of this county, aged 70 years and 11 months.

She had been a professor of the Christian religion for a number of years. Her end was peace. Her request was that not a tear be shed for her. Her funeral sermon was listened to and her remains followed to the tomb by a very large concourse of people, such as is rarely witnessed in Illinois. Her husband died about five years ago near Tomstown, this county, and is interred in the Snowhill cemetery. During the bloody conflict with the South, they hid five sons in the Union army at one time, one of whom (Emanuel) was killed near Smithfield, Va. He was a member of Capt. L. B. Kurts's Company.

On the 5th inst., ARTHUR JOSEPH FRANTZ, son of Elam and Martha Frantz, aged 1 year, 6 months and 23 days.

Our little Arthur's gone

To dwell beyond the sky,
To wear a bright and fadeless crown,
Where pleasures never end,
And, he shall see, the children's Friend.

Oh parents, dear, for me weep not;
I am not dead but only sleeping
In the cold and quiet grave,
Where my body in peace shall lay
Until the resurrection day.
