

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Thursday May 26, 1870.

Red Cloud, the Sioux Chief, is on his way to Washington.

Jabal Early is about to settle in Lynchburg, Va., for the practice of law.

The Pariff Bill has been virtually laid aside for the present session of Congress, the tariff to remain as it is.

The bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment in all the states, was passed in the House of Representatives last week.

The notorious Vallandigham, of Ohio, is in favor of female suffrage. So Miss Anthony avers.

It is rumored that over fifty lives were lost by the burning of a steamer near La Crosse, Wisconsin, last week.

A serious riot occurred at San Francisco on Sunday among Chinamen, during which the Joss House was destroyed.

According to the N. Y. World the recent election in New York resulted in favor of the Democrats by a majority of about 53,000.

New Mexico is to be admitted as a State. She will make the 33th of the Union.

In Berks county the collection of taxes in the various townships is awarded to the lowest bidder.

There are said to be already nineteen candidates in the field for next governor of this State.

Wm. H. Boker, of Baltimore, has been elected President of the Western Maryland Railroad, in place of Hon. James C. Clarke, who declined to serve.

The famous trotting mare Flora Temple, for some time past the property of A. Welch, Esq., of Chestnut Hill, has been purchased by Daniel Mace, of New York city, for $30,000. The mare is now fourteen years old.

Hon. Edward McPherson, who has been engaged in writing the life of Thaddeus Stevens, will soon present it to the public, in an elegant style of typography and binding.

In Boston permits are now given to grind a hand organ or peddle fruit only to persons who can show that they are in really needy circumstances, and have no other means of obtaining a livelihood.

Rev. John Lanham, it is rumored, is about to be removed from his position as Junior Agent of the Methodist Book Concern. The New York Tribune says that it has been resolved secretly to convoke the Book Committee and suspend him. We hope that the rumor is incorrect.

The United States Senate on Friday took up the House resolution to adjourn on the 4th of July and modified it by striking out 4th and inserting 15th, by a vote of 35 to 21. It is probable the House will adjourn on the 15th of July, after a session of over seven months.

Mrs. McFarland Richardson has published a statement accusing her late husband of drunkenness, brutality and neglect, mentioning in detail many incidents in proof of her allegations, while McFarland, as a set off, has given publicity to a host of letters from his wife, to him, all of which would seem to show the very opposite of what she charges.

In compliance with the order of Gen. Logan, Commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, extensive arrangements, are being made for the proper decoration on the 30th inst., of the soldiers' graves at Antietam Cemetery. Col. E. F. Anderson, of Washington county, has been invited to deliver the address. In the early part of the rebellion, Col. Anderson offered his services to the Government, serving with distinction until its close. He was with Gen. Grant in his Virginia campaigns, during which he was captured by the rebels and confined in Libby Prison.

A promising youth of fifteen was killed at Dover, N. H., on Friday last while engaged in a game of base ball, the ball striking him on the head. Considering the weight and hardness of the balls generally used in said game, and the force with which they are thrown, the only wonder is that we have not had more of such fatal blows on the head. Young men engaged in this pastime will do well to take warning from this sad affair in New Hampshire.

The census takers get two cents for every name taken, two cents for every farm, fifteen cents for every productive establishment of industry, two cents for every deceased person, and two per cent. of the whole enumerated for social statistics, and ten cents per mile for travel.

The Junior class of Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, have rebelled, in consequence of the suspension of three of its members for what they deem trifling offenses.

The specie payment excitement has subsided and silver small change has gone where the wool is the least.

LOCUST BLOSSOMS.—If there is any foundation in truth for the faith among many that a good corn crop follows an abundant yield of locust blossoms, our friends may expect to fatten their hogs cheaply the coming fall. The trees are just now heavily laden with bloom.

A subscriber in arrears for six years subscription, sometime since paid one dollar on his account, adding, consolingly, to us, of course, "I expect to give you another dollar in a few months." Kind, encouraging, compassionate patron. We would be pleased to have Brackbill photograph this "good soul."

PROGRESSING.—Work on the Brew House property is still progressing. The cellar digging was completed last week. Mr. Gordon, proprietor, has at present a strong force of mechanics engaged on the foundation for the building. The whole is to be built of brick and promises to prove one of the finest improvements (churches excepted) yet added to our town.

FEATHER RENOVATOR.

Messrs Eberly & Crane occupy the large room over the dry goods store of Messrs Miller & Beaver, with a new machine to Renovate Feathers. We have seen the machine in operation and contrasted the feathers renovated with those in their natural state, and can safely commend these gentlemen to the patronage of the public generally. The process through which the feathers pass effectually cleanses them of all filth or animal matter, and however old or much worn renders them elastic and as perfectly good as new ones. We therefore advise persons who have old or much worn beds, for health's sake, if nothing else, to have them renovated, which costs but $2 per bed, pillows and bolsters included.

CAYETOWN BAND.—This Band of musicians visited our town on Saturday evening last and remained for several hours, entertaining our citizens with the finest music it has been our pleasure to listen to for a long time. Practiced musicians commend it as the finest Band that has visited this place for years. This is surprising, too, from the fact that the organization has been in existence only twelve or fourteen months. Cayetown can surely boast of a good Band, second to few, if any, in Washington or adjoining counties. Their leader is a Mr. D. Weagley. Our citizens, the admirers of good music at least, would be glad to have them re-visit our town often in the future.

STREET CLEANING.—The citizens living on East Main street, on Saturday morning last, turned out with shovels, scrapers, brooms, etc., and in a couple of hours thoroughly cleansed the street of dirt which had accumulated there. It is understood that those on West Main street, as soon as the refuse building material in several places shall have been removed, purpose a thorough cleansing on their side. The work requires but a short time and when completed adds materially not only to the appearance of things but to the comfort of all concerned.—Tidy people never have dirty premises, front or rear.

SUICIDE.—On Monday morning, a Miss Earheart, of Williamsport Md., committed suicide by drowning in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal at that point. It appears that she had been encouraging the attentions of a gentleman whom her father disapproved, and on the morning of the suicide, the father brutally beat her, and threatened her with future chastisement if she did not dismiss the lover. After the chastisement she told her aunt that she intended to destroy herself, but which was regarded as an idle threat, as no further notice was taken of it, until the act was committed. She proceeded to the canal, attached a cord to a stone, and then tied the cord around her neck, and made the fatal plunge. The young lady was about 17 years of age, of prepossessing appearance, and quite intelligent, and her rash act has cast a gloom over the village in which she resided.—Echo.

Subsequently the father of the deceased was arrested and committed to the Hagerstown Jail.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Monday evening last as Mrs. Jos. G. Funk, with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Funk, of the Marsh, was returning home from the neighborhood of Smithburg, Md., one of the spindles of the buggy gave way, in consequence of which the horse ran away throwing both out.—Provisionally Mrs. F escaped without injury, but her mother-in-law, who is a quite aged lady, was severely bruised by the fall. Their escape from being crippled or killed seems miraculous indeed. The latter at last appears to be doing well. So her physician, Dr. L. N. Snavely, informs us.

When you buy your Hats from Updegraff. (Thehatterglavierandfurrieroppositetobewashingtonhouse-hagerstownmd.)

AN ACCIDENT.—We learn that Mr. J. F. Newman met with an accident on Monday evening. He was riding out of town, and when nearly opposite the Presbyterian Church his horse stumbled on some freshly broken stone, throwing him off and cutting his face severely. Fortunately no bones were broken, but he was disabled in one arm from the fall and sustained an injury to one leg from the horse treading upon it. Mr. N. was fortunate in escaping more serious injuries.

IN TOWN.—Whitmore, the Furniture and Carpet dealer of Greencastle, was in town the other day. He is a jovial, gentlemanly business man, and justly boasts the finest stock of furniture and carpets in the county. Persons from the country visiting Greencastle, should drop in and see his establishment.

TOWNSHIP STATEMENTS.—According to the provisions of a law passed by the Legislature of 1863, Township Clerks are required, each Spring, to make out and publish a full and complete statement of the financial condition of their respective townships, under a penalty of fifty dollars. The clerks should, therefore, bear this fact in mind, and act in accordance with the law.

To the N. G. V. G., Officers and Brothers of Waynesboro' Lodge, No. 219, I. O. O. Fellows.

Sirs and Brothers:—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions relative to the death of our late deceased Bro. Geo. BENDER, respectfully submit the following: Whereas, The Angel of Death has visited our Lodge and called the spirit of our Brother from its earthly tabernacle and from our midst, guiding it, as we believe, to light and liberty beyond the dark river, leaving his place vacant in the family circle and in our Lodge, Therefore, be it

Resolved, That by this dispensation of God, this Lodge has lost a faithful, earnest and conscientious member, his widow and children a loss which they alone can feel and fully comprehend, inexpressible in words.

Resolved, That the widow of our departed Brother has our fraternal heartfelt sympathy in this her time of trial and deep distress, and our hope that she may fully realize that she is in the hands of One who can and will heal every wound, and dry the orphan's tear, and thus find consolation.

Resolved, That as a tribute and mark of respect to the memory of our departed Brother, who was a good man, faithful and true in all the relations of life, that the Lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days, and the members be requested to wear the ordinary mourning badge for the same space of time.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the widow of the deceased, and a copy furnished for publication in the Village Record.

H. C. GILBERT, W. F. HORNER, J. R. RUSSELL, Com.

RATS.—Our town just now seems to be infested with an unusual number of rats. Would it not be well for citizens to make a simultaneous charge upon these pests with powder or some "exterminator," and thus force them to migrate to another quarter?

CALL EXTENDED.—Rev. Walter E. Krebs, formerly Pastor of the Reformed Church in this place, but more recently of the First Church, Allegheny, Pa., has received a unanimous call to the Reformed Congregation at Irwin, which is twenty-one miles side Pittsburgh, on the Pa. Cent. R. R. It is probable that he will accept.

COMING AGAIN.—Jacob Z. Koehend-fer, of Bedford county, will be at the Bowden House, in Waynesboro', on Thursday the 26th inst., with another lot of fine horses. Persons in want of draught or harness horses will do well to call on him.

Another lot of Ladies' Hats received at Clarence N. Beaver's. He receives a new lot of them every week, consequently all the latest styles.

WANTED.—Fifteen or twenty bundles of Rye Straw.
