

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Thursday June 2, 1870.

Both Houses of Congress have adopted a joint resolution to adjourn on the 15th of July.

Wm. L. Geary, son of Governor Geary, has been appointed to a judgeship at West Point by the President.

Secretary Boutwell has directed the Sub-Treasurer at New York to sell five millions of gold and purchase eight millions of bonds during the month of June.

The receipts from internal revenue for the fiscal year ending June 1st will reach one hundred and seventy-five millions of dollars.

Bishop Simpson will leave America on June 8th, to preside over the German and Switzerland Conference, which meets on June 16th.

It is reported that President Grant contemplates making a tour through Pennsylvania before long. Senator Cameron and other distinguished persons will accompany him.

A Maine woman applies to the State Legislature for a pension—having sent all her male descendants to the war, and been left by their loss in the army with thirty-one orphan grand-children to take care of. She certainly should be pensioned.

Mrs. Stanton says that the Methodist Church was the first to strike out the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony, and until the other churches did the same she hopes all the women would see to it that they should be married only by Methodist clergymen.

Noting the fact that Mr. Vallandigham has espoused the cause of female suffrage, the Chicago Republican says: "What the women friends of this measure have done to have such an affront put upon them is not reported. The same person recently lectured in favor of introducing the Bible into schools, but then the Bible is strong enough to stand it. Whether the suffrage question can survive in such an alliance is a matter of much doubt. It will take a live cause to go safely through such an ordeal as that."

A sermon by Dr. Newman, of the Metropolitan Methodist Church at Washington on the subject of polygamy, delivered several weeks ago, having reached Brigham Young's dominions, the reverend doctor has received a challenge to go to Salt Lake City and deliver the same discourse in the temple. It is proposed that one of the saints shall reply. A large audience and perfect security are guaranteed. Dr. Newman has accepted the challenge, and proposes to leave early in August.

On the 25th ult., several hundred Fenians invaded Canada from St. Albans, Vt., and attacked some Canada Militia, but while the fight was going on, two U. S. Marshals, acting under orders of the President's Proclamation, arrested Gen. O'Neil, in the face of the enemy, conveyed him to Burlington and had him placed under $20,000 bail. The Fenians have become greatly demoralized on account of the loss of their leader, and the war is probably at an end. The Proclamation of the President is as follows:

Now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and all persons within the military jurisdiction of the United States, against aiding, countenancing or abetting, or taking part in any such unlawful proceedings; and I do hereby warn all persons that by committing such illegal acts they will forfeit all right to the protection of this Government or to its interference in their behalf to rescue them from the consequences of their own acts; and I do hereby enjoin all officers in the service of the United States to employ all their lawful authority and power to prevent and defeat the aforesaid unlawful proceedings and to arrest and bring to justice all persons who may be engaged therein.

A NUISANCE ABOLISHED.—We announce with gratification, says an exchange, that the school book publishers of the whole country have agreed to cease sending out agents to introduce books at cost and other mean devices long resorted to by rival publishers. This kind of competition has become the bane of the schools and books were changed as often as teachers, while every head of a family drew his purse strings tighter when he heard of a book agent in his neighborhood.—The publishers themselves, if not admonished by the inherent meanness of the system, found it unprofitable and have mutually agreed that after July they will send out no agents for the purpose of introducing books. This must prove most acceptable news to all who have the true interests of education at heart. The constant changing of books that has so seriously embarrassed school operations and prevented educational progress now bids fair to be abolished, we hope forever.

The Observer (Presbyterian organ) cordially endorses the measures adopted by the Presbyterian Reunion Assembly, in Philadelphia, looking to a renewal of fraternal relations with their brethren of the Presbyterian Church South. This is a style of reconstruction that ought to come from the heart, tending as it does to cement the bond of religious fellowship as well as the bond of union among all the States.

THE TAPE WORM.—The last Frederick (Md.) Republican says, the "Tape Worm" Railway track, projected by Gov. Ritzer and Thaddeus Stevens, which spans the foothills of the mountains and winds up Hampton Valley, from Millerstown to near the Monterey Springs, and can be seen from the Maryland Line in all its regal magnificence, we have the best authority for believing, will soon be brought into the great uses for which it was originally intended—to cement the great States of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia with a ligament of iron. This is a splendid structure, the track, aqueducts, masonry and all. It was built by the men of Tipperary and Eaniskillen—whom the Duke of Wellington said made the finest soldiers in the British Army, and without whose aid he would have never won the Battle of Waterloo—and cannot be excelled by any Railway track in the United States. Thaddeus Stevens said he was willing to let his reputation as a statesman rest with posterity, upon the strength of this road, and his bill passed by the Legislature to educate the poor people of Pennsylvania by taxing the rich and affluent. The intelligent people of Pennsylvania are now enjoying the fruits of his sagacity, in receiving free the benefits of a liberal education; and if all we hear be true, that a wealthy company of N. York capitalists—men who have both brains and money—are about purchasing the Gettysburg Railroad, and the "Tape Worm" goes with it, the public will see in a few years the great results of sagacity and enterprise.

Despatches from Toronto say that eight Fenians were killed and ten wounded in the skirmish on Trout river on Friday, while by way of Malone it is represented that one was killed, two wounded and two taken prisoners. At the principal points of concentration, St. Albans and Malone, the Fenian army is disorganized and demoralized, prevented only from returning home because they are not able to pay for transportation, and the Government has refused to provide it for them. At Malone the town authorities are raising money to send the men home, who are almost famished and living on the citizens.—General Starr has given up his command, and the leaders in New York are asked for money and not men for the front. Father McMahon, attached to the raiders at Malone, is still attempting to have more men sent to the border, and promises another fight soon. O'Neil will be released on bail, and United States Marshal Foster is endeavoring to save the lives of the Fenians who were captured by the Canadians. They are five of them in jail at Montreal, and the feeling against them is so intense that it is feared that an attempt will be made to lynch them. A party of drunken Canadians tore down the flag from the American Consul's house at St. John's, Canada, on Saturday. The California Fenians hint of an attack on British Columbia, and a rising of the Irishmen in Canada is also feared.

In the House of Representatives on Saturday a bill to grant pensions to soldiers of 1812 was passed, with a proviso that no pension shall be paid to aiders or sympathizers in the late rebellion. The bill to reduce internal taxes was taken up and amendments made to define banks and bankers, to increase the lottery tax to $5,000, and to impose a tax of $1,000 upon proprietors of banking gamet, such as faro, monte, &c., for each table used.

Chemistry is furnishing us new agents for fuel, force, food, and many other important aids over those we once possessed.—Ports from which commerce was driven during the hot months by their terrible fevers are visited all the year with impunity now. Many localities in the South and West kept tenantless by their deleterious miasms are now filling up with populations under the protection of Ayer's Agree Cure. Their afflicting Chills and Fever are so effectually cured by this remedy that the disease no longer turns emigration aside or destroys the settler if he ventures upon its infested districts.—Gazette, Independence, Mo.

The consideration of the bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment was resumed in the House on Friday last and a number of Democrats delivered speeches against the measure.—Mr. Davis, of New York, and Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, replied, and at the conclusion of Mr. Bingham's speech the House agreed to the report of the committee of conference by a vote of 133 yeas to 58 nays.—The bill having passed both Houses, now goes to the President for his signature.

The Phrenological Journal for June has been received. Among its valuable contents we notice "Influences," "Health and Diseases in Character," "Yale, Skotch," "The Cathedral at Siena," "Insanity," "Our Government," "Science and Religion," "London Beggars," "Is it Safe for Women to appear alone in Public?" "Personal Hygiene," &c. $3 a year, 30 cents single copies. Address S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, New York.

DIED FROM THE STING OF A BEE.—Mr. Edward Embree, formerly of Marshallton, Chester co., but lately of Lancaster county, met with a singular but fatal accident, on Sunday last. He was at his store-room, and stepped out to where some bees were flying around. One of them flew into his ear and stung him, from the effects of which he died in less than half an hour—before medical assistance could be obtained. He was a young man—unmarried.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Clocks at Leeds'.

Summer commences June 22d.

See advt. Jacob Hoover, Miller.

Just received—a large assortment of Spectacles at Alex. Leeds'.

Brazilian Pebble Glasses just received at Alex. Leeds'.

We are told the early wheat in this neighborhood is filling well.

FOUND.—An axe on Main street. The owner can get it by describing it.

Convex Concave Spectacles at Alex. Leeds'.

Some of our street crossings are sadly in want of repairs.

Reid will have strawberries for sale on Saturday morning.

Not ONE.—Waynesboro', with a population of not less than sixteen hundred, has not one colored family within its corporate limits.

London Smoked Spectacles, indispensable for weak eyes, a new lot just received at Alex. Leeds'.

Down.—Much of the grain and grass has been prostrated by the late rains, and fears are entertained that damage to some extent may be thus sustained.

S. S. SERMON.—The Pastor, Rev. Mr. Weightman, will preach a sermon in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening next to the Sabbath School scholars.

FESTIVAL.—The Strawberry Festival for the benefit of the Reformed Church will be opened at the Town Hall on Thursday evening next.

ICE CREAM.—Slesman & Mort, Bakers and Confectioners, opposite the Bowden House, Waynesboro', furnish ice-cream regularly any hour during the day or evening.

Young Wolf, committed to jail at Hagerstown for attempting to pass counterfeit money, was last week released on bail for his appearance at court.

We notice that Clarence Beaver has received this week a splendid line of hats and shoes. You will do well by giving him a call.

We observe that "porkers" big and little, continue to wander about town. Has the "hog law" been repealed, or is that responsible official, the High Constable, at fault?

Do the present Council purpose hiding their light under a bushel by adhering to the foggy plan of publishing the Borough Statement through a couple of written notices? We ask for information.

C. N. Beaver has received another fine lot of ladies hats. Bear in mind, he will be receiving a new lot weekly during the season.

Squirrel shooting is prohibited between the first day of January and the first day of August, under a penalty of $5 for each squirrel so killed, the offender, provided he refuses to pay, to be imprisoned in the county jail ten days.

STEAM MILLS BURNED.—Mr. Christian D. Leshner's Steam Saw Mill and Sorghum Mills situated near the State Line, was burned to the ground on last Friday night. The origin of the fire is unknown. Loss about $4,000. No insurance.

FRESH ARRIVAL.—I have just received good and choice Syrups, prime Baking Molasses, Laguyra Coffee, Rio Coffee, Roasted Coffee, Carolina Rice, standard crushed Sugars, Brown Sugars, very handsome and very cheap. W. A. REID.

NEW SUBSCRIBER.—The gentleman referred to during cold seasons as the man with the "white hat" has become a subscriber to the Record. The chap with the "big feet" continues however, incorrigible, refusing us his patronage.

LOAFERS.—During the warm days, of late, a few "corner loafers," at times, have made their appearance on Main street. Our town in this respect is more fortunate than some other places whose bar-rooms and street corners, we notice, usually swarm with idle men and boys.

A CHANGE.—S. W. Hays, Esq., has dissolved his connection with the Franklin Repository, and has been succeeded by H. S. Stoner, Esq., formerly associated with Col. McClure in the publication of that paper. Mr. S. is to have exclusive control of the business department of the office.

RELIGIOUS.—A Quarterly Meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on next Saturday and Sunday, June 4th and 5th. Preaching on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Love feast on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock; preaching at 10, followed by Sacrament of the Lord's supper. Preaching also in the evening. The Rev. Dr. MITCHELL, Presiding Elder, is expected to officiate.

QUINCY.—Mr. A. S. Mont is now preparing the foundation for the erection of a fine brick building in Quincy, on the corner lot, opposite the store of Mr. Winger. Within the last few years this little village has been much improved by the addition of new buildings. It has now one hotel (and a clever landlord, Mr. Minters), two fine stores, steam laundry, tailors, shoemakers, blacksmiths, &c., &c.

ONE SPECIMEN.—Several fine specimens of copper ore taken from the Watson farm, near Monterey, were exhibited to us the other day. Similar specimens sent to Philadelphia last March yielded, eighty per cent. copper.

Twenty-eight years ago, we are reliably informed, a party from the East were prospecting there for ore, and at a depth of forty feet reached a vein several feet in thickness. It appears the party failed to comply with the article between themselves and Mr. Watson, and the latter, being a peculiar individual, refused to lease or sell the land during his lifetime. The same party sunk a second shaft, in which was found copper, lead and silver ore. This land lies within about one hundred yards of the old "Tape Worm." That ore in large quantities abound there there is scarcely a doubt.

D. B. Russell, Esq., of this place recently purchased of the heirs the entire property, which contains upwards of 400 acres, out of which we trust he may realize something handsome.

RECEIPTS.—The following is a list of our subscription receipts for the month of May:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes Henry C. Hoover ($4.00), Jacob M. Barr (4.00), Aaron Harman (2.00), W. H. Hitesaw (2.00), Samuel Shank, of C. (2.00), W. B. Hunter (2.00), John M. Funk, (Kansas) (6.00), Daniel H. Garver (2.00), David B. Miller (of John) (2.00), A. Leeds (3.00), Peter Mowrer (2.00), Rev. W. E. Krebs (2.00), Mrs. A. Hoffman (2.00), Thos. Moorehead (2.00), Wm. Overcash (2.00), Simon Mitley (2.00), Philip Morgal (2.00), John Singer (2.00), Emanuel Robinson (1.00), Miss E. Baughman (1.00), Henry W. Whitmore (2.00).

ROBBERY.—$20.00 REWARD.—On Friday night last the Cellar of Mr. Abram S. Oiler, near Tomstown, was entered by unknown parties. The thieves carried off two cans of lard, each containing about eighty pounds, eleven half-gallon jars of fruit, etc. They afterwards repaired to the chicken house and captured a couple dozen of his choicest fowls, making a loss of about $40 to Mr. O. The above reward is offered for the apprehension of the thieves.

Quincy township has long been infested with petty thieves, at whose hands the farmers and Snow Hill Society, from time to time, have sustained serious losses. Every precaution should be taken by them to apprehend and bring the villains to justice.—Vigilance and concert of action on the part of farmers and other good citizens would, we think, have a salutary effect, if it did not, in time, prove the means of ridding entirely their community of such graceless scamps.

TOWN IMPROVEMENT.—Since our worthy "Town Fathers" have made a prove in the improvement line, we would suggest the importance of certain improvements on Church street. From the corner of South street in the direction of the Diamond the pavement should be widened and the curbing straightened. As it now is the curbing is about fifteen or eighteen inches off of a straight line, inclining from the street in. This might easily be remedied and would certainly prove a convenience to the congregations worshipping in the Lutheran and M. E. Churches, by affording them more room to pass and re-pass.

While on this subject we would suggest the propriety of these congregations imitating their brethren of the Reformed Church in the way of street lamps. Four would be ample to light up the street on dark evenings.

SAVE THE PEACHES.—We notice the leaves and young peaches are dropping off of many trees. An old fruit grower informs us that in order to arrest this state of things and save the fruit it is only necessary to remove the dirt from the roots of such trees and apply a quantity of salt and cover over again with dirt. If the weather remains dry add a quantity of water occasionally. This will stop the operations of the worm which is gnawing at the vitals of the tree.

THE FEATHER RENOVATOR.—Messrs. Eberly & Crone, in nine days, up to Monday evening, had renovated one hundred and seven feather beds, pillows and bolsters included. The prospect now is that they will increase this number to several hundred in a few weeks.—We advise those of our readers who have old or new feather beds to call at the room over Miller & Beaver's store and see and be convinced of the importance of having their beds cleansed while the opportunity is afforded.

Mr. J. S. Gitt, Civil Engineer, of Oxford, Adams county, Pa., says that the men who get hold of the Gettysburg Railroad, and the "Tape Worm," and turn their pockets well lined with the proceeds. There is a mint of money in it.

ARGUED.—The application for the sale of the Gettysburg Railroad was argued before the Supreme Court at Harrisburg on Tuesday a week. Mr. North for the sale, and Mr. Wills against.

Beaver, on the N. E. Cor. of the Diamond, is out this week with a bran new advertisement. Go and see his stock of new hats, also shoes for ladies, misses, men and boys, and varieties in general.

GAPES IN CHICKENS.—Thousands of fowls annually die of gapes which would otherwise find their way to market. In hopes of remedying the disease, we copy the following, by W. R. Burnell, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, to the Farmers' Club, said to be a sure cure: "Mix in a tablespoonful of soft soap all the meal it will hold, and give to a brood of ten or twelve chickens." Mr. B. adds: All that die from taking it, or all that die from the gapes after taking it, I will pay for at any expense." Let some of our readers try it.

RELIGIOUS.—The Tinkers, or German Baptists, composing the Middle Conference, extending from the Susquehanna to the Allegheny Mountains, commenced their annual meeting on Saturday the 14th ult., (and which closed on Sunday evening,) at Mummer's Meeting House, two miles North of Abbotstown. The concourse of people in attendance on Saturday night and Sunday was very large. The most important subject under consideration during their deliberations, was that of providing an educated ministry. About sixty ministers were in attendance.—Hanover Spectator.

The steam power employed in this country is equal to the labor of 130,000,000 men.

THE ALTAR.—At Mullan's Hotel, in this place, on the 28th ult., by Rev. H. Stonehouse, MR. LEWIS GAWLER to Miss ELVINA MACKY, both of Washington Co., Md.

THE TOMB.—In Sabillasville, on the 25th ult., JOHN HUGHES, aged 82 years, 2 months and 14 days.

On the 16th ult., near Buena Vista School House, in the Leitersburg District, Mrs. SHANK, consort of the late Henry Shank, deceased, in the 83d year of her age.

On the 20th ult., in St. Thomas, JOHN KUNKLE, aged 80 years, and 5 days.

Near Hagerstown, Md., on the 27th of January, Mr. JOSIAH F. WEEATE, aged 23 years, 11 months and 6 days.

The deceased was one of the noblest and finest young men in our community. He was a joy and comfort to his friends both old and young—a loving and interesting son. His parents, family and friends have sustained an irreparable loss, for he will never again join their number here. Just a few months before he followed his oldest brother to his resting place. Our young friend was just about to settle his career in life and make his joys complete. We deeply feel and sympathize with his afflicted friends, but we do not mourn as those without hope, for he was received into the fold of Christ a few weeks before he bid his friends farewell. He thus fell asleep in Jesus, with a full assurance of a glorious resurrection. So we see that "in the midst of life we are in death." How hard it is to think that one so loving and so fair is taken from our view, but with a hope to meet in that bright land.

Brother, rest, thy warfare's o'er, Then no more will join our number; Thou no more our songs shall know, Jesus recalls his own.

Yes, brother, thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Brother, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the trees.

Brother, thou art gone to the grave, We will not weep for thee, For the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee, And the lamp of His love is thy guide through the gloom.

Farewell, dear brother, a short farewell 'Till we shall meet again above In the sweet groves where pleasures dwell, And trees of life bear fruit of love.

Brother, go to thy grave, take thy seat above, Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord, Where thou for faith and hope hast perfect love; Brother, go home, with thee the fight is won.—F.
