

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO, Thursday June 30, 1870.

The receipts from internal revenue on Monday were $1,690, $92 83.

California strawberries are so big they "plug" them to see if they are ripe.

Despatches from various parts of Great Britain report the crop prospects as greatly improved.

A pair in Windham, Ohio, have been reunited whose divorce was declared thirty-three years ago.

The intelligence from every portion of Virginia, says the Richmond Journal, where the harvest has progressed is favorable.

Washington's body servant still lives. His whole name, this time, is Samuel Randall Motte; he lives in Syracuse, New York, and he is only 113 years old.

Red Cloud's wife is as straight as an arrow. Her name is The-Woman-Without-a-Bow, or as we say in English, The Woman Without a Grecian Bend.

Brigham Young has officially announced that he has sixteen wives and only forty-nine children. How that poor old man has been slandered.

There is a preacher in Illinois who gets his congregation into church, locks the door, and preaches at them until a specified amount is collected. He preached three hours the other Sunday before they came down with the $100 he had levied on them.

Whittemore, who, sometime since was expelled from the House of Representatives for selling cadetships, having been re-elected, made application last week for admission, and without much ceremony, was rejected by a vote of 129 to 24.

The city of Guaymas, Mexico, was surprised and captured on the 28th of May by a revolutionary force, which, it is said, will proceed to attack other points and endeavor to set up a Northwestern Mexican Republic.

It is now feared that Dr. Livingstone must be given up. That great explorer of the African Interior has not been for a long time heard from, and hope has but little foundation left.

On Tuesday a week the Senate reached a vote on the question of the abolition of the franking privilege, and by a small majority decided against it. The measure passed the House in January almost unanimously.

Edward Darnell, colored, aged about 19, was executed at Dover, Del. on the 24th inst., for the murder of Hogan, pedlar, at Philadelphia, on the 19th of March last. He declared himself innocent to the last, saying that a man named Soper did the deed.

Dr. Newman is preparing for his theological tournament at Salt Lake City next August. He is burrowing up his spiritual armor, sharpening his theological blade and exercising daily on his biblical high horse. He must not be lax in his efforts, for he will find many polygamic knights to break lances with. So says an exchange.

The people at McConnellsville were thrown into a "broad grin," a Sunday or two since, in this wise: There were several persons immersed. The last one happened to be a negro. Just as the minister dipped him under the water, some unchristian fellow in the crowd shouted, "Down goes the Fifteenth Amendment!"

In the United States Senate on Monday Mr. Sherman reported back the Tax bill with amendments to continue the taxes on gross receipts, legacies, successions, dividends of corporations and salaries of Government officers, which were agreed to. The duty of five cents per pound on substitutes for coffee was stricken out. Mr. Sherman endeavored to have the duty on sugar continued as at present, explaining that it was necessary in consequence of the abolition of the income tax, but the Senate voted by two majority to strike it out.

The Earl of Clarendon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs of Great Britain, died suddenly at London on Sunday. The President on Monday sent a telegram to Minister Motte tendering the sympathies of the people of the United States to Queen Victoria and the British people, and condolence to those to whom the loss brings personal grief. The President says the "fame of the Earl of Clarendon belongs to the world, and his loss will be felt by other nations than that in whose behalf he labored for the advance of civilization and the interests of peace." The late Earl is best known to the United States through the treaty with Hon. Reverdy Johnson concerning the Alabama claims, which was rejected by the United States Senate.

The Arizona Indians are again practicing those innocent amusements peculiar to the noble sons of the forest which an effete civilization has long sought to deprive them of. A party of prospectors was attacked near Tucson, two white men killed, one scalped, his legs burned off, his heart cut out and a coat of iron placed in it. The cold blooded white soldiers at Camp Grant, not appreciating such pastime, started in pursuit of the redskins and, surprising them, killed thirty-five.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The young corn looks well.

Cheep for cash at C. N. Beaver's.

Mercersburg is free from debt.

Locals and "greenbacks" continue scarce.

The vendors of ice cream are now reaping a harvest.

Work is about being re-commenced upon the W. M. Railroad.

Lemons for harvest sold cheap at the Corner Drug Store.

The days commenced to shorten on Saturday last.

The man from Sabillasville who sports a "white hat" was in town on Monday.

New potatoes are in market at 20 cts. per peck.

For SALE.—Mr. John N. Stephey offers for sale a small but desirable property adjoining Pikeville. See advt.

WARM.—The heat during the past week has been great, the thermometer ranging from 90 to 98 in the shade.

A wet handkerchief worn in the crown of the hat will, it is said, keep off sun-stroke. Harvest hands should try the experiment.

The old prophecy that "if it rains on Whit Sunday, there will be rain for seven Sundays," failed this year completely.

The Medical Society of Franklin County will meet in Chambersburg on Tuesday next, July 5th.

For SALE.—D. S. Smith of the Town Hall Store has three Show Cases for sale, cheap.

Smith of the Town Hall Store has received another supply of new shoes, hats, etc. Selling cheaper than ever.

No PAPER.—Next week will be "harvest week" with us. Therefore, in accordance with our custom, no paper will be issued from this office.

Mr. Jacob Huber, one of the proprietors of the Union Hotel, Chambersburg, last week broke one of his legs by leaping from a spring wagon.

A meeting of the Waynesboro' Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at their office on Monday next. A full attendance is requested.

On the occasion of the burial of Hon. Jas. O. Carson, at Mercersburg, all business places were closed, the citizens uniting in paying their respects to the departed.

LAGER.—We announce for the benefit of "Deutschlanders" that a good article of Baltimore Lager can now be had at Gordon's Brewery.

Clarence Beavor is selling Hats and Shoes all of the latest styles very cheap.—Give him a call before purchasing elsewhere and you will be benefitted.

The stores and other public places will be closed here on Monday next, the 4th of July. Farmers and others should make their purchases for Monday on Saturday.

DEAD.—Martin Myers, an aged citizen, of the Welsh Run settlement, in this county, died suddenly of apoplexy at his residence one day last week.

BASE BALL.—A match game at base ball will come off at Monterey on Monday next, July 4th, between the Base Ball Clubs of this place and Gettysburg.

We direct attention to the card of Dr. J. Burns Amberson in this issue. The Dr. it will be seen has opened an office in the room formerly occupied by J. Douglas, Esq., as a law office.

At the late commencement exercises at Bethany College, the honorary degree of "Master of Arts," was conferred upon J. R. Gaff, of Chambersburg.

BE CAREFUL!—For every Squirrel shot between the first day of January and the first day of August, the penalty is Five Dollars. Sportsmen should see that the law is fully carried out.

NOTICE.—All persons who have subscribed toward the erection of a new Reformed Church will please pay in their first installment to Joseph W. Miller, Treasurer, on or before the 1st of July, 1870.

SAVINGS BANK.—It will be seen by reference to an advertisement in this issue that application will be made to the next Legislature for the incorporation of a Savings Bank in Waynesboro'.

URSINUS COLLEGE.—An advertisement of this popular institution of learning, located at Freeland, Montgomery county, Pa., will be found in to-day's paper, to which we invite special attention.

The Littlestown horse doctor, "English Jimmy," was in town the other day. He claims to have a fortune awaiting him in England and is soon to "set sail" to secure the prize.

BUENA VISTA.—This house on the Mountain seems to be the favorite resort among visitors this season. In the hands of the present proprietor, Mr. V. E. Gilbert, the property has been much improved. We understand he purposes expending about one thousand dollars more this season in improving its surroundings. For a delightful bath and good accommodations generally, go to Gilbert's.

PRISONER ESCAPED.—A man named John Sited, was convicted at January sessions of Malicious Mischief and Assault and Battery, and sentenced to the County jail. A short time before the April sessions he made his escape from jail, and on his return to Quinoy township, stole some clothing. The Sheriff pursued him and succeeded in arresting him, and committed him to jail again. Strange to say, this fellow escaped again last week. There must be negligence somewhere. This man should have been confined so that there would have been no chance for escape. We fear that our Sheriff is entirely too humane and allows prisoners to have too many privileges. As reckless and devilish a scapegrace as this man was shown to be on the trial, ought to have received no extra favors at the hands of the Sheriff, and especially not after having played him the slip once.—Spirit.

OUT-DOOR PREACHING.—According to previous announcement Rev. J. G. Schaaf, of Chambersburg, on Sunday afternoon last preached a sermon on the corner of the Diamond to a large audience. His subject was "Christ and the Resurrection." The Rev. gentleman was formerly connected with the United Brethren in Christ, but owing to his peculiar views upon this subject the Brethren Conference at its last meeting relieved him of his connection with that denomination. He maintains the doctrine that according to the teachings of the Bible there will be no resurrection of the unconverted, thus ignoring the belief in a future place of punishment for the impenitent.

THE FAHREY PANACEA.—It will be seen by references to our advertising columns that Dr. J. B. Ambersson, Druggist, has now for sale the celebrated Blood Purge or Panacea, prepared by Drs. D. Fahrey & Son, of Boonsboro', Md. That this is an excellent family medicine cannot be gainsayed. For diseases arising from impurity of the blood it is perhaps unrivaled.

FUN, FUN, FUN.—Are we to have an old style Picnic on the Fourth of July? If not boys, let us have some fire-works. I am now receiving a choice assortment and am determined to sell on terms that all may have some fun. So call around boys and make glad our next Fourth of July, which will be Monday next. H. HENNEBERGER.

MARSHALS.—Among the assistant marshals for taking the census of Franklin county we note the following appointments: J. F. Kartz, for Washington township. John P. Study, Quinoy and Guilford townships. Henry P. Prather, Antrim. W. T. Graham, St. Thomas and Peters. Wm. Luckens, Montgomery township.

DECEASED.—Miss Susanna Fyock died at Snow Hill, near this place, on the 26th inst., aged 84 years, 11 months and 7 days. The deceased lost her eyesight by smallpox at the age of 7 years, and was therefore blind about 77 years. Most if not all this time she passed at the Nunnery.

Many of our farmers commenced harvesting on Monday last. By Saturday evening, with continued favorable weather, the work in this neighborhood will have been nearly finished. Reports as to quantity and quality continue favorable.

A GOOD ARTICLE.—Reininger, Tailor, has the "Japanese Cleansing Cream" for sale. With this article Paint, Oil, Grease, etc., can be removed from clothing. We have seen it tested successfully in numerous instances.—Every person should have a bottle. Price 25 cents.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Cornelius Landerbaugh, a well-known citizen of Mercersburg, died suddenly on Tuesday evening. The report is that he ate his supper as usual and repaired to the harvest field, where he fell and expired, from sun-stroke it is thought.

The Reformed congregation hold their divine services in the old Union Church, on Church street, for the present. The Lord's Supper will be administered there next Sunday morning. Preparatory services on Saturday evening.

TAX THEM.—A tax upon bachelors for educational purposes has been suggested by some one. The suggestion is a good one, and would please the ladies who are out of their "teens," amazingly, no doubt; besides, it would have the effect to increase the census.

APPOINTMENT.—Craig M'Dowell, of Chambersburg, son of Jas. M. M'Dowell, Esq., has received the appointment of Cadet to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. The appointee is a brother of the lamented Capt. Sam. M'Dowell, who was killed while in discharge of his duties as Chief of Artillery, at Chattanooga, during the late war.

A rain and hail storm of unusual severity passed over McConnellsburg, Fulton county, on Monday evening last, taking off about one-half of the Court House roof and damaging materially the new M. E. Church, the walls and ends being removed from their foundation.

Rev. Dr. Moses Keifer preached a trial sermon in the Reformed Church in Green-castle on Sunday a week. The Echo says he will likely receive a call from that congregation.

A GOOD NUMBER.—The Pirenological Journal and Packard's Monthly, for July, begins its 11th Volume, with marked improvements. It contains, besides Physiology, Ethnology, Psychology, etc., portraits and characters of Beethoven, Sir Samuel W. Baker and Wito, Gov. Palmer, of Illinois, Mark Lemon; The Governors of New York; Types of the Beyrout Population, Measuring Men; Physical Education; Ravages of Wild Beasts; Summer in the Fields, Reform for Women, We must Rest, Wit, with a Moral, Love and Liberty, Vacations, The Invisible Monster, Pastor's Wives, Glimpses of a Western Editor, The Electric Post, Was St. Paul a Bachelor? Success in Life, Equal Pay for Woman, Integrity, Up in the Skies, To Correspondents, etc. Only $3 a year, and is offered at $1.50 for half a year, July to Jan. Address S. R. WELLS, 389 Broadway, New York.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL MAGAZINE.—The July number of this beautiful juvenile comes to us greatly enlarged and improved, as well as finely illustrated. The wonderful growth of this young Napoleon of the juveniles has been as surprising as it is interesting. Its circulation has shot far ahead of that of any of its competitors. Its matter is entirely original and of a very high order. The freshness and vivacity of its pages cause the eyes of all young people to sparkle. In its new, improved form it is one of the hand-somest, as it is the cheapest, magazines we have ever seen. Childlike but not childish, it rejoices the hearts of both parents and children alike. This number begins a new volume; now is a good time to subscribe.—One dollar a year; sample copy, 12 cents.—Published by Sewell & Miller, Chicago, Ill.

Prof. S. J. Koontz, formerly of York Sulphur Springs, Adams county, died of mania a potu, in the Dauphin county prison, recently. He held a professorship at Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, at one time, and was master of several languages.

BOY DAY'S WORK.—Jacob S. Null, living on the farm of Mr. Elias Wingert, in Guilford township, with six men and two boys, raked, heaped and hauled in twenty-seven loads of hay on last Saturday, from 9 o'clock in the morning until sundown.—Spirit.

Strange Story of a Murder.—(From the Cleveland Herald.)

On Wednesday evening, June 22d, Mr. Benehoff, of Greenville, Pa., came to Warren, Ohio, having in charge a young girl, aged fourteen years, who gave her name as Sarah Jane Cornell, only daughter of Thomas Cornell, late of Jackson, Hardia county, O. She reports a terrible tragedy as occurring on last Friday morning, a few miles west or south of Warren. She says that her father sold his farm, within about seven miles from Kenton, some time since for $5,000, and that on the 7th instant the husband, wife and daughter left there for a new home in Erie county, Pennsylvania. That they travelled in a two horse wagon, running gear red, bed blue, and had a black oilcloth cover. They "camped out" at night, did their own cooking and slept in the wagon. Last Thursday night or Friday morning she was awakened by the cry from her mother, "They are killing your father!" She saw a man attack her mother, striking her; her mother gave a scream, but made no further noise.

The girl says she then crawled out of the hind end of the wagon and hid in the undergrowth near by. One of the murderers said, "Where is that little girl?" The other responded, "No matter about her; we must be getting out of this."

They then hit upon the team and drove off with the wagon, taking the bodies of the murdered man and woman with them. The child says she ran after them, and kept as near the wagon as she could for five or six miles, being guided by the sound. She claims to have lost the track of the wagon when it passed through Warren at break of day on Friday morning. She continued in a north-easterly course, and on Saturday reached Greysville, Pa., nearly crazed and famished. Her story was not credited at first, but a number of citizens, after a thorough catechizing of the girl for a couple of days, became satisfied that she was not deceiving them. From her description of the last large town she had passed through, they concluded it was Warren. The girl was brought over the road on Wednesday, and recognized it as the one she had travelled. She claims to recognize Warren as the place she last heard the wagon, and says she came in across the bridge leading out on the Canfield road. If true, the murder must have occurred somewhere between Warren and Canfield.

The girl says her father had on his person about $7000.

She gives the names of persons residing near her former home, in Hardin county.—An uncle on her mother's side, named Coffax; knows Mr. Baker and Mr. Kingsley, neighbors.

The child seems artless and truthful.—Like children usually are, raised in retired sections, she is quite diffident and bashful in the presence of strangers. It does not seem probable she could concoct such a terrible story out of nothing, and appear as fair as she does.

Despatches have been sent to Kenton, and further particulars will be known of what appears a fearful and mysterious case.

The Knoxville Press and Herald says: Mr. John Rhum, of Nashville, has just received a letter from Eastern Prussia, from a committee of seven gentlemen who represent several thousand of the Menonites in that portion of Europe, who design emigrating to this country. The committee on behalf of these proposed immigrants will visit Painessee, and expect to reach Nashville early in September. They will then proceed at once to explore the country and arrange for the permanent settlement of their European friends: The Menonites are a sect of the early Baptists, who have passed through a variety of fortunes, sufferings and vicissitudes. They date back to the Waldenses, and are scattered throughout Europe in large numbers, especially in Russia, Prussia and Germany, being more thickly settled in Holland than elsewhere.

The Republicans of Bedford, Somerset and Fulton counties have instructed in favor of the re-nomination of Hon. John Cassas as candidate for Congress, and it is presumed Franklin and Adams will do the same.

The new machine shops of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company at Reading were destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

It is announced that the Queen of England will give a prize of $200 for the best fan, painted or carved, by a lady under twenty-five years of age; the competition being open to female artists of all nations. It must be ready for the exhibition of 1871.

A new Hotel, costing $300,000, is to be erected on the site of the old Fountain Hotel, in Baltimore city, and when completed will be under the management of Mr. Clabaugh, the former proprietor of the Fountain.

In a country graveyard in New Jersey is said to be a plain stone with this inscription: "Julia Adams, died of thin shoes, April 17, 1839, aged 19."

What sort of an economist is the man who chews $100 worth of tobacco in a year, and stops his town paper on the plea that he can't afford it? Poor economy.

Westport, Maine, a town of 1,200 people, has neither minister, lawyer nor doctor.

There is a man in Wooster, Ohio, who has had eleven wives, and been divorced from them all.

Every Prussian youth, on coming of age, must leave his home and business to serve three years in the army.

THE ALTAR.—May the 4th by Rev. E. W. Kirby, Mr. GEO. WOLF to Miss MARY E. McAFEE, both of Mercersburg, Pa.

In Greencastle, on the 9th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Heck, by Rev. S. N. Gallender, Col. B. FRANK WINGER to Miss MAGGIE K. BEYEL, both of Greencastle.

THE TOMB.—On the 22d inst., in Warren township, Mrs. MARIA SECHRIST, aged about 64 years.

On the 20th inst., in Warren township, Mr. JAMES WILLIAMS, aged 58 years. On the 1st of May, 1870, in Warren township, Mr. JOHN THOMAS, aged 35 years. On the 30th of April, 1870, in Warren township, ELIZA YEAKLE, aged about 30 years.

On the 22d inst., in Chambersburg, of Cholera Intantum, JOHN C., adopted son of Mr. John C. Anderson, aged 5 months and 14 days.

In Mercersburg, on the 14th inst., Hon. JAMES O. CARSON, in the 75th year of his age.

MARKETS.—BALTIMORE, Monday, June 27, 1870.—BREADSTUFFS.—The flour market this morning was dull decidedly, and the feeling in it rather heavy, though prices are nominally maintained. We have only to report to-day sales of 100 bbls. Howard Street Super at $6, and 200 bbls. do Family at $8 per bbl., and we quote as follows, viz: Howard Street Super $5.50 @ $6.00 do. do. Shipping Extra $6.25 @ $6.50 do. do. Trade Brands Extra $6.75 @ $7.00 do. do. Family 7.25 @ $8.50.

WHEAT.—The market was very dull this morning, and prices were generally lower.—The receipts were light, only 3,000 bushels, and the sales as follows, viz: 700 Western red at 138 cents, 700 Pennsylvania do. at 150 cents, and 400 Virginia do. at 155 cents.

CORN.—Was dull and lower. Some 2,500 bushels white sold from 105 to 115 cents for common to good, and we note a sale of 2,000 bushels Western mixed at the ears at 103 cents, but there were no sales yellow.—We quote it, however, at 105 @ 107 cents.

OATS.—Sales to-day 1,400 bushels at 60 cents, and 300 do. at 61 cents.
